

DRAMA FESTIVAL TO CLOSE TODAY WITH 12 EVENTS

Association Officers to Be Elected In Annual Business Meeting During Morning Session.

PAUL GREEN WILL SPEAK

Twelve events are scheduled on today's program which will bring to an end the four-day twelfth annual festival and state tournament of the Carolina Dramatic Association being held here at the Carolina Playmakers Theatre.

The morning session will open with the annual business meeting and election of officers for the association with President W. K. Morgan presiding.

Conducted by Miss Helen Hodges of the University, together with two other state dramatic leaders, the make-up contest will begin at 11 a. m. and will be followed by the costume contest at 11:30 o'clock.

New Theatre League

Editor Herbert Kline of the New Theatre will address the visitors on "The New Theatre League" at noon. Kline is one of the leaders in establishing in America the workers' theatre.

Son Paul Green takes the platform at 12:30 o'clock to tell the tournamenters of "The Playwright Today." Green is now residing at his home here between trips to New York and Hollywood where he is writing scenarios for Warner Brothers, motion picture producers.

Head of the University Summer School Edgar W. Knight speaks at 12:45 on "A Continuous Pageant of Education—A State Project." After lunch, the festival will be continued with the final contest in play production of E. R. E. dramatic clubs, junior and rural community groups. Four plays are entered.

At 4 p. m. an original play by a community group will be presented after which the visitors are to take tea in Graham Memorial where Miss Sara Seawell, Chapel Hill Carolina Playmaker, will act as hostess. Displayed in Graham Memorial is the festival exhibit of stage

(Continued on page four)

PUPPETS DISPLAY SOCIAL PROBLEMS

Samuel Friedman Gives Demonstration at S. L. I. D. Organization Meeting.

The special meeting for the purpose of organizing a local Student League for Industrial Democracy held last night in Graham Memorial was opened by two puppet shows dealing with present-day social problems.

Samuel Friedman of the Theatre Union, New York City, aided by three assistants presented these demonstrations.

Mr. Friedman's first demonstration was entitled "You Don't Need a Biscuit." In this act the puppets presented an appeal to the consumer to boycott the products of the Uneeda Biscuit Company because of the "big boss's" unfair dealings with his workers.

"Underdogs" Fight

The second demonstration was an expose by the puppets of "The Old Army Game," in which the Wall Street magnate conspires with the army general and any likely ambassador to create a

(Continued on page four)

Musician

Romine Hamilton, outstanding young American violinist, who will appear here in concert April 8 with the University of Michigan Little Symphony, of which Thor Johnson, former University of North Carolina student, is director.

YOUNG VIOLINIST TO APPEAR HERE

Romine Hamilton Will Be Soloist with Michigan Little Symphony Directed by Johnson.

Romine Hamilton, one of the outstanding violin soloists among the younger generation of musicians in this country, will appear with the University of Michigan Little Symphony in its concert here April 8.

After having undergone several years of intensive training under very competent instructors, he made numerous public appearances as a concert violinist and won many honors in musical contests.

Mr. Hamilton's ability was recognized in 1928 when he was selected from all the outstanding violinists of high school age in the entire United States to be concertmaster of the well-known National High School Orchestra in its first summer season at Interlochen, Michigan.

For seven years Hamilton has been concertmaster of the University Symphony Orchestra and on numerous occasions has appeared as violin soloist with that organization which is under the direction of Dr. Earl V. Moore, head of the school of music. Also he has acted as soloist with the University of Michigan Glee Club, and has played frequently over stations WJR and WWJ in Detroit. In 1932, he was awarded a masters' degree in violin from the University of Michigan, and since then has been a member of the faculty of the School of Music.

Hamilton will be heard here in Mozart's "Concerto in D Major, No. 4," for solo violin with orchestral accompaniment. This work is the most popular among the concertos of this composer and is unusually well adapted to the violin as a solo instrument as well as to the Little Symphony for the accompaniment. The Little Symphony which will assist Hamilton will be conducted by Thor Johnson.

Professors at Conference

Members of the French department attending the annual convention of the North Carolina Education Association being conducted in Winston-Salem are Dr. U. T. Holmes, Jr., Dr. Sturgis E. Leavitt, W. R. Weaver, and John E. Carroll.

The Association of French Teachers will hear papers by Dr. Holmes and Mr. Weaver.

Schedule of Public Meetings of the Human Relations Institute

March 31-April 6

SUNDAY, MARCH 31

11:00 a. m.—Institute speakers will occupy local pulpits as follows:

Baptist church—Dr. Carl C. Taylor, regional director Land Policy Act, AAA.
Subject: "The People and our National Resources."

Methodist church—Julian Miller, editorial staff, Charlotte Observer.
Subject: "How Much Better is a Man than a Gasket."

Presbyterian church—Dr. McNeill Poteat, pastor, Pullen Memorial church.
Subject: "The Emancipation of the Spirit."

Episcopal church—Dr. Howard E. Jensen, professor sociology, Duke University.
Subject: "The Sociological Background of our Contemporary Conflicts."

2:00 p. m.—Initial opening of the Institute exhibit in Memorial hall. The exhibit will remain open till 10:30 p. m., and daily thereafter throughout the week from 9 a. m. till 10:30 p. m. You should examine these books.

8:00 p. m.—Memorial hall. A mass meeting of the University and community.
Speaker: Dean Robert Russell Wicks of Princeton University Chapel.
Subject: "The College Student in a Scared World."

MONDAY, APRIL 1

(All remaining meetings in Memorial hall)

10:15 a. m.—James M. Landis, U. S. securities and exchange commissioner.
Subject: "The Significance of Federal Regulation of Securities."

8:00 p. m.—Dr. Emil Lederer, dean of graduate faculty, New School for Social Research.
Subject: "The Background of European Dictatorships."

TUESDAY, APRIL 2

10:15 a. m.—Dr. Stephen P. Duggan, Institute of International Education.
Subject: "The Present Situation in Europe."

4:00 p. m.—Dr. John Hope, president, Atlanta University.
Subject: "The Negro in the Modern World."

8:00 p. m.—Sanford Bates, director, bureau of prisons, Department of Justice.
Subject: "Have Our Prisons Failed."

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3

10:15 a. m.—Hon. Hamilton Fish, Jr., Congressman from New York.
Subject: "Government and Industrial Relations."

4:00 p. m.—Chester Wright, public relations counsel, United Textile Workers.
Subject: "Platform Principles of Textile Labor."

8:00 p. m.—Donald Comer, president, Avondale (textile) mills.
Subject: "Problems of Textile Management."

THURSDAY, APRIL 4

10:15 a. m.—Dr. Everett Dean Martin, director, the Peoples Institute.
Subject: "Violence and Social Progress."
(Dr. Martin is sponsored by the Grail.)

4:00 p. m.—Dr. Everett Dean Martin—addressing public forum.
Subject: "A Liberal Education."

8:00 p. m.—George Soule, Jr., editor, New Republic. Weil Lecturer, 1935.
Subject: "Social Changes and the American Tradition."

FRIDAY, APRIL 5

10:15 a. m.—Dr. Shailer Mathews, lecturer and former dean of Chicago Divinity School.
Subject: "International Conflicts in the Far East."

4:00 p. m.—Norman Thomas, director, League for Industrial Democracy.
Subject: "Trends Towards Fascism."

8:00 p. m.—George Soule, Jr., editor, New Republic. Weil Lecturer, 1935.
Subject: "Liberty as Purpose."

SATURDAY, MARCH 6

10:15 a. m.—Dr. Sao-Ke Alfred Sze, Chinese Minister to United States.
Subject: "International Good Will and Understanding."

12:00 m.—Norman Thomas—addressing a public forum in Gerard hall.
Subject: "Industrial Relations."

1:00 p. m.—A luncheon conference on international relations—honor guests: Dr. Sze, Dr. Soule, Dr. Mathews, and Mr. Thomas.
Attendance upon the luncheon conference is limited. Plates must be reserved in advance at the Y. M. C. A.

8:00 p. m.—George Soule, Jr., editor, New Republic. Weil Lecturer, 1935.
Subject: "Organized Liberty."

The general public is invited to all of the above meetings, and there will be no registration fee or any other charges.

Human Relations Institute Goes In Session Tomorrow

Pastor Lecturer

Dr. McNeill Poteat, pastor of Pullen Memorial church, Greensboro, who will speak tomorrow morning at the Presbyterian church as a part of the program of the Human Relations Institute.

DUGGAN BANQUET TICKETS ON SALE

Passes May Be Obtained from "Y" Office Today; Dinner At 6 P. M. Monday.

Tickets to the banquet in honor of Dr. Stephen Duggan to be held Monday night, can be secured this morning at the Y. M. C. A. for 50 cents, it was announced yesterday by Agnew Bahnsen, president of the Foreign Policy League, which is sponsoring Duggan's appearance at the Human Relations Institute.

The banquet will be held at 6 p. m. Monday evening in Graham Memorial. The number of tickets sold will be limited to 100.

Dr. Duggan's topic at the banquet will deal primarily with the summer school session for American students which will be conducted in Moscow. He will also stress the part American students can play in expressing themselves to their government today on public questions.

Next Friday evening the Carolina Political Union will tender an open banquet for Norman Thomas. Tickets will be 50 cents each. Both affairs will be open to students, faculty members, and townspeople.

CO-ED PHOTOS

Groups Will Meet at 1:30 O'clock This Afternoon.

It is important that the following girls have their pictures taken in front of Spencer hall at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon:

Dressed in sport clothes: Elsie Lawrence, Joyce Killinsworth, T. Daniels, Margaret McCauley, Katherine Quigley, Ida Winstead, and Evelyn Barker.

Dressed in tennis clothes and carrying rackets: Sophie Stevens, Margaret Jordan, Ruth Covington, and Margaret McCauley.

Dressed in gym clothes: The members of all the basketball teams. The manager of each team, freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior, is asked to see to it that all her girls are there promptly and in gym clothes.

This is the last call for these pictures for the Yackety Yack and it is imperative that everyone be present.

CHURCHES HAVE FIRST SPEECHES

Lectures Scheduled Every Day At 10:15 a. m. and 8 p. m.; Several to Be at 4 p. m.

9:30 CLASSES END EARLY

Leaders in every field, national and international figures in the world of economics, politics, government and society will file into Chapel Hill tonight and during the remainder of the week to appear on the third quadrennial Human Relations Institute which gets under way tomorrow morning with lectures in all the local pulpits.

Students, townspeople and visitors from all over the state are expected to attend the public lectures which will be held every day at 10:15 a. m. and at 8 p. m. Several addresses have been scheduled for the afternoon at 4 o'clock.

University classes will conform with the institute schedule and numerous classroom hours will be turned over to the seminar speakers.

Fields Studied

Three fields are being studied in the general plan for the institute, according to Chairman Charles Poe: international relations and government, human relations in business and industry, and interracial relations.

Besides the 80 classroom seminars and the 22 public lectures in Memorial hall, a complete exhibit in the lobby of Memorial hall including books, posters and pamphlets dealing with the three fields has been arranged.

According to Poe, all 9:30 classes will be dismissed at 10 o'clock for the morning address. The schedule for the seminars will be distributed at the evening mass meetings.

In order to give the speakers a chance to thrash out more technical problems than they are allowed to deal with in their public platform addresses, the institute has arranged for the classroom seminars. Almost

(Continued on page four)

U. S. SENATE GETS REVISED NRA BILL

House Approves $401,998,170 War Debt Appropriations Bill; Huey Threatens Farley.

Washington, March 29—(UP)—A new and drastically revised NRA bill was placed before the Senate today after Donald Richberg had warned the finance committee in a secret session that quick action would be necessary to quell the nation-wide labor unrest.

The bill includes several features, among which are the strengthening of collective bargaining provisions, the protection of the little man, elimination of the regulations on intrastate business, the abandonment of price fixing and production control except to protect the little man, and the extension of the NRA for two years.

The Senate debated calendar bills, and heard Huey Long threaten to re-attack Postmaster General Farley.

The House approved a $401,998,170 war debt appropriations bill and delayed consideration of the conference report on the works relief bill until Monday.