GEORGE SOULE 8 P.M. MEMORIAL HALL

VOLUME XLIII

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1935

NUMBER 135

DISASTER LOOMS FOR KING COTTON, WRIGHT DECLARES

Counsel for Textile Union Repeats Fish's Earlier Warning To Cotton Industry.

PLEADS FOR CO-OPERATION

For the second time yesterday, an impending crisis in the cotton textile industry was predicted from the rostrum of Memorial hall when Chester Wright, public relations counsel for the United Textile Workers, reiterated Hamilton Fish's earlier contention that foreign competition is cutting the ground from beneath American cotton.

has two alternatives in facing eral Education." this crisis: it must meet the prices of the competing nations by lowering its wages and the standard of living to the level of theirs; or the labor and capital elements within the industry must use their combined intellithe problem.

Way Out Proposed

As a possible "way out" the speaker suggested the further development of the home market for textiles. Quoting figures to show that only 30 per cent of the textile output is made into that surplus cotton might be used to "put clothes on the American people."

a much greater degree of co- try." operation between the employers and the union. For the lack of such co-ordination he blames the employers.

LEAGUE TO CALL STUDENT MEETING TO OPPOSE WAR

Demonstration Will Take Place April 12 During Assembly.

Members of the Foreign Policy League interested in staging a convocation against war voted at a meeting last night to hold an anti-war demonstration in the form of a mass meeting in front of South building at 10:30 a. m., April 12.

R. P. Russell was elected chairman and plans were adopted to the effect that speakers and amplifiers be secured. The committee also decided to send a request to all faculty members holding 11 o'clock classes to devote their class periods to a discussion of the peace problem.

The demonstration, although it limb." 18 not sponsored by any outside the demonstration is to stimu- separate armed camps." late student thought and action on the means to insure peace in a period threatened by war.

The students who are active in organizing the demonstration summarizing some of the issues yesterday. underlying the cause of war upon which the student generation must take a stand.

UNIVERSITY CLUB TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the University Club tonight at 7:15 O'clock in 209 Graham Memorial. It is important that all members be present as the compleyear is to be undertaken.

Speaks Today

Mr. Wright explained that who will talk today on "Violence troupe" will attempt to give in the American textile industry and Social Progress" and "A Lib- its original manner Dion Bou-gence to find another solution to Comer Says Goal of Industrial ization Is Friendly Partnership with Workers.

Donald Comer, president of the Avondale cotton mills and co-author of the Cotton Textile Code for the NRA, last night clothes, he expressed the belief brought to a close a day's discussion of the textile industry by declaring that "the employers are just as keen, just as alive, However, Mr. Wright stated, and just as anxious for better most needed in the industry is things as any group in this coun-

> The veteran cotton mill operator, who has worked from the bottom up in the textile industry, was sincere in his assurance that the cotton mill owners had the interests of their employees at heart.

September Strike

"The September strike," he stated, "was called by Francis Gorman on charges of an overburdening of tasks through a violation of the code." Comer then proceeded to point out that figures compiled by the NRA investigating commission revealed 98 per cent compliance with the

The textile industry had agreed to the code, Comer declared, had agreed to raise their costs of production 100 per cent, with the assurance that other codes would follow, inducing a larger buying power. The other codes, however, failed to accomplish their purpose and the textile industry was left "alone on the end of the

"The ultimate goal of indusorganization, will be along the trialization," he concluded, "is lines of student anti-war strikes to bring about a friendly partto be held all over the world on nership of employers and emthe same day. The purpose of ployees rather than live apart in

FINJAN COPY DUE

All copy for the Farewell Issue of the Finjan must be in by hold the affirmative of the 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, question, Resolved, that the sevhave planned to issue leaflets announced Pat Gaskins, editor, eral states should adopt legislawill be important in determin- care and the services of hospiing who shall be awarded Fin- tals and clinics. jan keys this year, he added.

German Club Executives

tion of membership for next important that all committee- States, Dr. Edgar W. Knight, the fact that he voted for part men be present.

TO STAGE DRAMA TOMORROW NIGHT

Century Old "Mellerdrammer" With "Divertissments" Between Scenes to Be Given.

OZ PLAY IN AFTERNOON

With Ethel Barrymore Colt, daughter of the famous actress, and an accomplished stage artist taken. herself, appearing in the cast, the nationally popular Jitney Players will rattle into Chapel Hill Friday for two performances.

Presenting the "Streets of Dr. Everett Dean Martin, di- New York" at the 8:30 perforrector of the Peoples' Institute, mance, the still surviving "road Daphne Simpson, Vivian Griscicault's famous "melodrammer."

Villain, Hero, Heroine

The unscrupulous villain robbing helpless widows and orphans, a beautiful, sighing, palpitating heroine, and the hero arriving in the nick of time to hurl himself in the blazing inferno to save the day-all these elements of yesteryear's dramatic appeal are incorporated in EXPLAINS RECENT STRIKE the "Streets of New York."

In addition to the 100-year-old play setting, "divertisments" will be "rendered" between scene changes. The Jitney Players are planning to present the play. play as it was first given at the old Wallack theatre in New York, December, 1857.

famous Oz stories.

To Be Photographed

man's basketball teams are asked to meet in front of Spencer hall in gym suits this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock to have their pictures taken for the Yackety Yack.

It is necessary that all co-eds on the honorary teams be in attendance, for this is the last opportunity to have the photos

Co-eds expected to be present are as follows:

First honorary team: Frances Caffey, Elsie Lawrence, Harriet Taylor, Gertrude Pridgen, Anna Coles and Helen D'Anna.

Second team: Ida Winstead, ette, Mary P. Cruikshank, Sue Jenkins, and Virginia Simpson.

FRESHMAN EXECUTIVES

The freshman executive council will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Graham Memorial, Weil lectures. President Clyde Mullis announced yesterday. It is imperative, he said, that every member be present.

Freshman Dance April 12

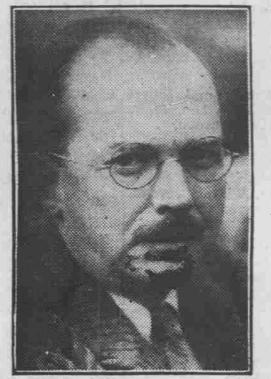

The freshman dance committee announced yesterday that the freshman dance will be held April 12 in the Tin Can. Billy Kanoff and his orchestra will

Grail Meets Tonight

At the 4 o'clock matinee, the meet tonight at 10 o'clock in armament program that had players will present the "Adven- Graham Memorial, it was an- made her a world power in aviatures of Oz," taken from the nounced yesterday by George tion. Moore.

Co-ed Basketball Teams Soule And Martin Make Institute Addresses Today Members of the honorary wo-

Weil Lecturer

George Soule, Jr., editor of the New Republic, who will make the evening address of the Institute tonight, opening his series of

World News Bulletins

German Air Fleet

John Simon created a sensation in the House of Commons today when he confirmed reports that phical subjects, Democrat, Mar-Germany had reached an air tin was chairman of the national parity with England.

He asserted that Hitler had tures from 1919-22. The Order of the Grail will admitted Germany's secret re-

Austrians May Arm

Vienna, April 3.—(UP)—The Austrian government officially confirmed reports tonight that Austria was prepared in principle to follow Germany's rearmament program.

Works Bill Compromise

Washington, April 3.—(UP) -Hope for a break in the deadlock of the $4,880,000,000 public works bill made its appearance tonight.

A compromise appeared likely over the type of labor to be employed in the huge expenditure.

Propose Lethal Gas

Raleigh, April 3.—(UP)-The House of Representatives passed and sent to the Senate today the bill introduced by Representative Peterson of Mitchell our government is the "best county substituting the lethal gas chamber for the electric

In addition to the concert price is 60 cents each. which will be given Monday evening in Memorial hall, the politics, Mr. Thomas will prob-University of Michigan Symph- ably give some sort of refutaony, Thor Johnson director, will tion to the address of Congresspresent a concert that afternoon man Hamilton Fish, who spoke at 3 o'clock for the children of here yesterday, members of the Chapel Hill, Carrboro, and banquet committee announced. White Cross schools.

ing this concert will be the arrangements this afternoon, as Declaring the "blue eagle" of guests of the Community Club's only a limited supply remains sponsoring the affair.

It was announced late last night that Thor Johnson's orchestra will also play Sunday evening at 4 o'clock in Graham Memorial.

New Republic Editor Will Lecture Tonight

'Violence and Social Progress" Is Topic of Dr. Martin's Talk at 10:15 a. m.

CONVOCATION AT 4 P. M.

Weil lecturer for 1935, George Soule, Jr., editor of the New Republic, and Dr. Everett Dean Martin, director of the Peoples' Institute, are scheduled to fire the shots of human relations on the Institute program today.

Speaking twice, Dr. Martin, who is being sponsored by the Order of the Grail, will consider "Violence and Social Progress" at the 10:15 session and "A Liberal Education" at the 4 o'clock address hour.

Soule Appears at 8 p. m. Soule, on his first of the Weil series of three lectures, will speak on "Social Changes and the American Tradition," at 8 p. m.

As director of the Cooper Union Forum, the largest center for free discussion of political and educational subjects in America, Dr. Martin has become London, April 3.—(UP)—Sir a leading educator and writer.

Churchman, lecturer on social philosophy, writer on philosoboard of review of motion pic-

Editor Soule has headed the New Republic since 1924 as editor and has written several outstanding books and various reports, papers, and articles.

Soule's appearance here marks the 20th year of the Weil lectureship, begun in 1914-15 as an endowed program to discuss American citizenship.

Ex-President William Howard Taft was the first speaker. Since that time the foundation has been permanently established through the contributions of the families of Messrs. Sol and Henry Weil of Goldsboro.

Since the organization of the Human Relations Institute in 1927, the Weil Lecture Fund Committee has co-operated with the Institute in presenting its lecturer on the regular program.

THOMAS EXPECTED TO ANSWER FISH TOMORROW NIGHT

Banquet Tickets Concentrated at "Y" and with Smithwick.

The remaining tickets for the Norman Thomas banquet will be concentrated at the Y. M. C. A. Three Performances office and with Robert Swithwick at Everett dormitory. The

In addition to speaking on Thomas has engaged in several Tickets for adults who wish to public debates with Fish in the

The banquet will be held to-Graham Memorial. Those who The school children attend- wish tickets are urged to make

Passbooks at Business Office

Students may secure spring quarter athletic and entertainment series passbooks at the business office today.

Hamilton Fish Says United States Has Finest Government On Earth

Seminars Today

8:30 a. m.—Sociology 151, 107 Alumni, in seminar with Julian Harris.

9:30 a. m.—Commerce 161, 317 Bingham, in seminar with Julian Harris.

9:30 a. m. - Government 121, 316 Saunders hall, in seminar with J. F. Rippy.

11:15 a. m. - Psychology 22 and Education 71, 101 New West building, in seminar with Everett Dean Martin (no room for visitors).

12 o'clock—Government 143 and 158, 301 Saunders hall, in seminar with J. F. Rippy.

DEBATE TONIGHT

University to Meet Bucknell at 7 p. m. in Gerrard Hall.

Miss Elsa Patton and Miss Elizabeth Hylbert, representing the Bucknell University debate squad, will meet the University team composed of Harry McMullan and Wiley Parker, in Gerrard hall tonight at 7 p. m.

The Bucknell girls will uption providing to the citizens at The work done on this issue nominal costs general medical director, said yesterday.

Summer Session Gets Maps

New York State Congressman Urges Citizens to Reaffirm Faith in Americanism.

SOUTH FACING DISASTER

"Reaffirm your faith in yourselves as Americans," directed Congressman Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York state who addressed the convocation in Memorial hall yesterday morning.

That Americans can solve all American problems in the same way that their American ancestors solved them was the conclusion Fish reached. "Reaffirm your faith," he stated, for government on earth."

Pointing out that the south chair. was now facing a crisis greater than any since the Civil War, Symphony Will Give the New Yorker declared the matter an American issue.

Cotton Sales Lost

Because of crop reduction practices, America's greatest export, cotton, lost half its market in the last two years, indicated Fish. Along with losing our cotton market to foreign competitors, our allied cotton-textile industry is also going under, warned the Congressman.

"We are heading for ruin and disaster such as the south has attend this concert will be 50 past. never known," declared the In- cents and may be secured at Alstitute speaker in pointing out fred Williams Store or at the morrow night at 6 o'clock in that politicians have been afraid door. to expose the facts.

"Soviet Vulture" NRA

Rand McNally and Company, the NRA a "Soviet vulture," the music department, which is on sale. The German Club executive publishers, have presented the once all-American football playcommittee will convene at 1:30 summer session office with two er left the south's cotton probtoday at the Sigma Chi house, it handsome maps, one of North lem and began calling the New was announced yesterday. It is Carolina and one of the United Deal various names. Excusing

(Continued on page two)