

Campus Pacifists Plan To Stage Anti-War Rally Friday Morning

Strikers for Peace To Gather at South

Demonstration Is Part of Nation-Wide Protest Against War, Including 41 Colleges.

REV. STEWART WILL SPEAK

Friday morning at 10:30 a call will go out to all University students and professors to assemble in front of South building in a mass anti-war demonstration.

The committee sponsoring the demonstration has secured Rev. Donald Stewart of the Presbyterian church, to address the meeting. The committee has planned a questionnaire to be printed in the DAILY TAR HEEL which will be used in the class discussions on war.

All faculty members holding 11 o'clock classes are urged by the committee to lead discussions on the war problem in their class hours.

National Strike

The demonstration at the University is held in conjunction with the nation-wide anti-war meetings to be held at over 41 colleges and universities. The movement is sponsored by the youth organizations: National Council of Methodist Youth, the Student League for Industrial Democracy, and the Inter-Seminary Movement.

Dr. Stephen P. Duggan when he was recently in Chapel Hill, stated that he will lead the anti-war demonstration at Vassar College of which he is a trustee. Norman Thomas also endorsed the anti-war move on his recent visit here.

Senator Gerald P. Nye and his Senate munitions investigating committee, have publicly commended the student nation-wide anti-war action.

New York, April 8.—(UP)—Pacifist college youth completed plans tonight for an anti-war international "strike" called for Friday.

Striplings yet unborn when the world marched to battle 21 years ago are determined this shall not happen again. So in earnest are they that the American League Against War and Fascism has sworn this oath:

"We pledge not to support the United States government in any war it may conduct."

"What would you do if this country were invaded?" is the natural question. "Wouldn't you fight to defend your home?"

"There's no such thing as a defensive war; that's just a gag," was the way Robert Chase, 20, of Seattle, Wash., Columbia University junior, bluntly put it. Chase is chairman of the Columbia anti-war committee.

'Y' Cabinets Make Plans For Rest of Year

New Officials to Meet in Comer's Office at 10:30 Today.

Members of the upper Y. M. C. A. cabinets met last night to draw up plans for the rest of the year and to make arrangements for inducting the new officers who were elected yesterday.

The group also selected the topic, "Problems of the South," for a series of cabinet discussions this spring.

The new officials are asked to meet in the office of Harry F. Comer this morning at 10:30 o'clock to make further preparations for work next year.

Di Senate

The Di Senate will cut short its regular 7:15 o'clock meeting tonight in time to attend the debate in Gerrard hall at 7:30 between the Phi assembly and the Columbia Debating Society of Duke University. The debate will deal with the subject of the socialization of medicine.

ROOSEVELT SIGNS WORLD'S LARGEST LUMP ALLOTMENT

President Sets Work Relief Machinery in Motion by Signing Record Appropriation.

FERA AND CCC GET SHARE

Aboard Roosevelt Special Train, April 8.—(UP)—A few strokes of President Roosevelt's pen on the $4,880,000,000 works relief bill today set in motion the use of history's largest lump sum appropriation to put 3,500,000 men to work.

The bill was sent to Jacksonville, Fla., by courier having been enacted by Congress in a 75-day battle. Roosevelt signed it as he sped northward.

Refreshed

Refreshed and rested from a fishing trip in Caribbean waters, he will attend the funeral of his cousin, Warren Delano Robbins, New York, minister to Canada, who died Sunday from pneumonia.

Immediately after signing the bill, the President signed two allocations from the amount appropriated under the new law. First, $125,000,000 to the FERA to continue relief; second, $30,000,000 for the continuation and maintenance of CCC camps and conservation work.

DEBATERS STUDY MEDICINE TONIGHT

Japanese Policy, Arms Making Are Other Topics.

Pursuing the issue raised in the Carolina-Bucknell forensic effusion Friday, the debate squad will discuss the socialization of medicine, led by a member of the medical school faculty. The discussion will occur in 209 Graham Memorial at 9 o'clock tonight.

Points will be reviewed for two intercollegiate debates which will take place here Thursday. Meeting Georgia Tech on the issue: Resolved, that Japan's policy in the far east is comparable to the Monroe Doctrine of the United States, J. W. Kirkpatrick and A. S. Kaplan will uphold the affirmative.

A three man gang-up of Francis Fairley, Oliver Cross, and Winthrop Durfee will represent the University against New York University. They have the negative of the query: Resolved, that the private manufacture of arms be prohibited by international agreement.

Tar Heel Staff

City editors and desk men on the Daily Tar Heel staff will meet this afternoon in Graham Memorial at 3 o'clock and reporters will meet at 3:30 o'clock.

Failure to attend this meeting will result in suspension from staff.

GRISSETTE NAMED NATIONAL ALUMNI HEAD AT CAPITAL

Tar Heel Is First Southern President; Carolina's Saunders Is Vice-President of Council.

EDITS OFFICIAL "NEWS"

Felix A. Grissette, director of the Alumni Loyalty Fund of the University, was elected president of the American Alumni Council at the annual meeting of the organization in Washington last week.

The outstanding honor to an alumni executive, Grissette's election brings the presidency to a southern school for the first time in the history of the council, which is made up of over 300 colleges and universities in the United States and Canada.

Two Officers Here

Grissette's election gives the University two ranking officers in the council J. Maryon Saunders, secretary of the University Alumni Association, is already serving a three-year term as vice-president of the organization.

Among the duties of the president is the editorship of the council's official publication, "American Alumni Council News." Grissette is already editor of Carolina's new magazine, "University Facts."

Long Active

The new president has been active in the ranks of the council for six years. A graduate of the University, Grissette has taken graduate work in higher educational administration at the University of Pittsburgh and at Carolina.

Before becoming full-time director of the alumni loyalty fund at the University in 1929, he had previously served as assistant University editor at the University of Pittsburgh, as member of the editorial staff of the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times, and as director of financial campaigns for colleges and other philanthropic institutions throughout the United States.

Grissette returned to Chapel Hill from Washington Monday.

POLANYI SPEAKS HERE TOMORROW

Foreign Policy League Sponsors Lecture by Austrian Journalist on Church, Fascism.

The Foreign Policy League will bring Dr. Karl Polanyi, noted Austrian newspaperman and lecturer, to speak here tomorrow night on "The Churches and Fascism on the European Continent."

Dr. Polanyi, in this country under the sponsorship of the Institute of International Education, directed by Dr. Stephen Duggan, will address an audience in Gerrard hall at 8 o'clock.

Political Veteran

The Austrian lecturer, who recently made a two-year tour of England, has led a life full of political excitement, beginning with his college days at Budapest University, where he organized a club interested in workers' adult education.

Although he was born of Hungarian parents and spent his early life in Hungary, he is at present an Austrian citizen. He was driven out of his fatherland in 1919 by the successful Communist revolution there.

Nine Freelance Candidates Threaten Clean Sweep Of University Party Men

SENIORS TO ELECT ONLY ONE OFFICER

Hutchins Opposes Party Man Fisher for Junior Presidency; Two Others Opposed.

FRESHMEN ELECT THREE

The rising senior class met last night in Gerrard hall, with Ernie Eustler presiding, for the purpose of nominating senior class officers for next year.

Trip Rand was nominated for president and, when no opposition was offered by the two non-party men present, he was declared unanimously elected. Morris Rhodes also found no opposition for the position of vice-president and accordingly was handed this office. Lewis Puckett received the office of secretary in a like manner.

Clare Bumped

Jack Clare bumped into the only opposition offered when ever-ambitious Bill Weaver had himself nominated for treasurer. Several University party men became confused and applauded vociferously.

Jimmy Craighill was nominated and unanimously injected into the Student Council chair for the senior class next year.

Jake Austin, junior class treasurer, submitted the budget for the class as approved by the executive committee at its last meeting. After it was unanimously approved, the meeting was adjourned.

The fight between Clare and Weaver will be settled at the polls at Graham Memorial tomorrow at the same time that the remaining campus elections are decided. The polls will be open from 9 to 5 o'clock.

MACHINE DRIVES ON

The well oiled, free wheeling University party machine ground on the first acrid sands of serious competition last night when Jim Hutchins as well as Joe Fisher was nominated for presidency among the rising juniors as they met in the Phi assembly hall.

After the powerful party cogs were stepped into high gear, Jim Daniel was thrust into the vice-presidency unopposed, and Frank Umstead was conveyed into the office of secretary by a like route.

The party bandwagon lost considerable momentum when Fred Weaver was nominated to oppose Wally Dunham for treasurer, and John Parker heard the call to run against Bill Cochrane for representative to the Student Council.

AND ON . . .

A smoothly functioning political organization that found scanty opposition nominated unopposed candidates for three of the five rising sophomore class officers at a meeting presided over by Class President Pete Mullis last night.

Nominees who will take office (Continued on page two)

Monogram Club

A Yackety Yack picture of the entire membership of the Monogram club, including newly named monogram winners, will be taken at 10:30 o'clock today on the steps of the law building.

All participants should wear their monogram sweaters, according to Ralph Gardner, president of the club.

'Y' Council Nominees

The Freshman Friendship Council nominated at its meeting last night the following for officers of the rising sophomore cabinet: Bob McGill, president; Drew Martin, vice-president; and Jimmy Coan, secretary and treasurer.

These names will be voted on next Monday night. Nominations from the floor will be in order at that time.

PHI MEETS DUKE SOCIETY TONIGHT

Wiley Parker, Winthrop Durfee Represent Assembly in Debate at 7:30, New East.

Wiley Parker and Winthrop Durfee will represent the Phi Assembly in a debate in New East at 7:30 o'clock tonight against Wade Marr and Robert Morris of the Columbia Literary Society at Duke.

Parker and Durfee were chosen at try-outs Saturday night with James Van Hecke, Robert Smithwick, and Clarence Griffin acting as judges.

Query: Medicine

The Phi Assembly will defend the affirmative of the query: Resolved, that the several states adopt socialization of medicine. This change would include, among other things, the affording to all citizens at nominal costs general medical care and the services of hospitals and clinics.

Speeches will be eight minutes in length and five minutes will be allowed for rebuttals. The Dialectic Senate will join in the first joint meeting of the societies since the fall quarter.

This debate marks the resumption of forensic relations with Duke which had been cancelled for a number of years.

INSTITUTE OFFERS ANOTHER SPEAKER

Rabbi Wise Lectures Tomorrow On Hitler, Jews.

As a continuation of the Human Relations Institute, Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, son of the late Rabbi Isaac Wise, has been invited to speak here tomorrow night on "Hitler and the Jews."

Rabbi Wise, noted for his almost radical progressiveness, has just returned from a trip through Germany, England, and France. He speaks today in Raleigh on the same subject.

The invitation tendered Rabbi Wise came as a result of the enthusiastic reception accorded the Institute by the campus, and the fact that a small amount of the Institute fund was left over after payment of debts.

All the periodicals on display in Memorial hall last week in connection with the Institute have been transferred permanently to the Bull's Head Bookshop.

Reporters Wanted

There are now three vacancies on the reportorial staff of the Daily Tar Heel. Any student desiring to try out for one of these positions is asked to see Bob Page in the Daily Tar Heel office in Graham Memorial between 2 and 4 o'clock this afternoon.

FAIRLEY IS WEDGE IN TRIANGLE FIGHT

Thompson's Candidacy Is Surprise; Poe Is Only Opposed Publication Nominee.

16 NOMINEES UNOPPOSED

The three candidates for president of the student body — Francis Fairley, "Snooks" Aitken, and Jack Pool — will present their views on student government in Memorial hall this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Announcement of Francis Fairley for president of the student body and Carl Thompson for editorship of the Carolina Magazine injected surprise and complication into the political scene as campus-wide candidates were nominated in Memorial hall yesterday morning.

The candidacy of Fairley, a student councilman, now makes the race for student body president a three-cornered one. Both Fairley and Stuart Aitken are independents in opposition to Jack Pool, University party nominee.

Third Hat, Fairley

A third hat in the ring may result in a run-off election. Although Fairley is conceded to be the weakest of the three candidates, he can make trouble for both his opponents by cutting into their support or by using it as a balance of power in favor of either.

Thompson, who passed up an opportunity to submit his name when the Magazine held its staff nomination Sunday, will oppose Charlie Poe, University party nominee and official choice of the staff. He was named in Memorial hall by Virgil Lee, who ran for the Magazine editorship last year.

Official staff nominees of the four publications are, as announced yesterday, as follows: Nelson Lansdale (Finjan), Phil Hammer (DAILY TAR HEEL), Claude Rankin (Yackety Yack), and Charlie Poe (Carolina Magazine).

Vote Tomorrow

The following campus-wide candidates will be voted on in election tomorrow: president of the student body—Jack Pool (nominated by Benton Bray), Stuart Aitken (by Ken Young), and Francis Fairley (by Thurman Vick); editor of the Carolina Magazine—Charles Poe (nominated by the staff) and Carl Thompson (nominated by Virgil Lee).

The following candidates are unopposed and therefore automatically elected by their nomination yesterday: vice-president of the student body—Tom Evins; president of the Athletic Association—Jim McCachren; vice-president of the Athletic Association—Marvin Allen; editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL—Phil Hammer; editor of the Yackety Yack—Claude Rankin; editor of the Finjan—Nelson Lansdale.

President of the Y. M. C. A.—Billy Yandell; vice-president—Don McKee; secretary—George MacFarland; treasurer—Grey Yeatman; cheerleader—Lester Ostrow; debate council—Oliver Cross and Robert Smithwick; senior representative to the Publications Union Board—Charles Ivey; junior representative—Ned McAllister; representative-at-large Fletcher Ferguson.
