

BULLETINS

UNIVERSITY NOTICES

Carbon Club—9:30 a. m., R. M. Belcher, speaker.
Student Treasurers—Treasurers of all student organizations whose fiscal year ends April 30 are requested to call by Graham Memorial this morning from 10 to 12 o'clock to see R. H. Sherrill, student auditor. Treasurers who are unable to come should arrange otherwise with Sherrill.
Tar Heel Circulation—Office hours of the circulation office have been changed to 3-4 p. m. Anyone failing to get his paper should notify the office at this hour.
Old Time Music—Program featuring folk music, fiddles, banjos, dulcimers, square dances, ballads, and hymns will be given at 10:30 this morning in Memorial hall.
Perkins at Duke—Miss Frances Perkins on "Economic Problems Today," Woman's College auditorium, Duke University, 8:30 p. m., admission 25 cents.
Playmaker Originals—8:30 p. m. Playmakers theatre.

OFFICIAL NOTICES

A.B. Seniors—All seniors planning to take their A.B. degrees in education in June should report to Dean Hobbs as soon as possible.
Language Ph.D. Candidates—Written examinations for French and Spanish today.
Summer Course Changes—The following courses have been added to the summer session curriculum: French 21, History 41, and History 201. Archaeology 112 will not be given.

ATHLETIC NOTICES

Tennis—Semi-finals of state tennis doubles play, 10:30 a. m.; both singles and doubles, 3:30.
Indian ball—Emerson stadium, 3 p. m.
Baseball—State College, Raleigh, 3 p. m.

ADVANCE NOTICES

Magazine Writers—All interested in writing for the Carolina Magazine, either for this year's June issue or for next year, are asked to meet with Charles Poe tomorrow night in 108 Graham Memorial.
Applications—All applications for business managerships on the four campus publications should be in the hands of J. M. Lear or Claude Rankin by 3 p. m. Monday.
Peace Oratory—State Peace Oratorical contest of Intercollegiate Peace Association, Gerrard hall, Monday, 8 p. m.
Dormitory Elections—All day Wednesday in individual dorms.

LIBRARY TEACHERS

Miss Laura C. Bailey, librarian of the Polytechnic Institute library, Baltimore, and Miss Jane Moss, librarian of the Thomas Jefferson high school, Richmond, will teach library courses here this summer in principles of book selection and book selection in high school libraries. Miss Moss will teach half of these courses the first term of summer school, and Miss Bailey will finish them the second term.

Institute Books

The Human Relations Institute committee has voted to give the library books to the value of $150 on subjects dealt with by the Institute.

INFIRMARY LIST

The following students were confined to the infirmary yesterday: Herman Johnson, Meares Harris, Kathleen Krahenbudhl, William McGowan, and Frank Duff.

Hear Carol Bela

Carol Borland and Bela Lugosi in "Mark of the Vampire," now playing at the Carolina theatre.

Banquet

(Continued from page one)
 Van Hecke announced the law school student honors for the year. The Hill Law Review prize of $50.00, established by George Watts Hill of the Durham bar, for the best total contribution to the North Carolina Law Review during the year was awarded to Donald W. Markham.

Markham was also designated by the faculty as student editor-in-chief of the Law Review for next year and as faculty research assistant.

Frank Marion Parker was named as assistant student editor-in-chief of the Law Review and also as faculty research assistant. William Robert Booth was appointed to the third faculty research assistantship.

Order of the Coif

Selected from among the highest ten per cent of the class in point of scholarship, Joel Barber Adams and E. C. Willis, Jr., were elected to membership in the North Carolina chapter of the national honorary law school society of the Order of the Coif.

For distinction at the bar, At-

Large Crowd Views Crafts; Exhibits To Continue Today

Yesterday the arts and crafts exhibits of the 1935 Dogwood Festival were thrown open to the public, and a large number of visitors thronged the Graham Memorial, Peabody, and Hill Music hall exhibit rooms to see the many examples of native handicraft and art on display.

The crowds of spectators viewing the exhibits would indicate that the opening day of the festival was a decided success. In Graham Memorial they examined with interest the many collections of basketry, block prints, books, brooms, copperware, coverlets, hooked rugs, Indian craft, jewelry, needle-craft, pewter-ware, photographs, pottery, quilts, silver-ware, tooled leather, weaving, woodcarving, and wrought iron.

Banquet Room

The banquet room in Graham Memorial was piled high with the various exhibitions, with many Chapel Hill women obligingly pointing out to the onlookers the articles of most interest and narrating the story behind the outstanding pieces.

The articles requiring more torney General A. A. F. Seawell was elected to honorary membership in the Order of the Coif. Dr. Van Hecke also announced that Adams had also been granted a Sterling graduate fellowship at Yale University school of law for next year.

Brogden Present

President of the Law School Association Herbert Taylor's banquet was preceded on the outside of the Carolina Inn by the arrival of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court W. J. Brogden of Durham. "Will Rogers of our Supreme Court" Brogden packed the young lawyers and banquet guests about him. The Carolina sports fan was a good talker.

Inside the banquet hall the skill in craftsmanship were displayed in the Grail room, among which were examples of delicate woodcarving, handsome pieces of hand-wrought silverware, and striking exhibits of wood-work by our own University buildings department.

Children's Exhibit

The arts of youth exhibits were shown in Peabody hall. These exhibits consist mainly of the work done by children in the graded schools of the state, and show remarkable artistic ability on the part of these amateur artists. Some of the attempts of the youngsters at artistic expression provoked amusement on the part of the spectators. One of the visitors, after looking intently at one of the pictures, was overheard to remark that "the biology department ought to investigate this cow."

An exhibition of oil paintings is being held in Hill Music hall. These are mainly paintings by contemporary American artists, and are being loaned to the Dogwood Festival by the Macbeth Galleries of New York City.

large assembly seated itself with Dr. McIntosh and President Taylor at the head. . . There was Mrs. McIntosh at Taylor's side. . . Judge and Mrs. Michael Schenck. . . Dr. Van Hecke. . . Over there was Mrs. Van Hecke. . . Attorney General and Mrs. Seawell. . . Honor Guest Sons Ned McIntosh of New York, Andrew McIntosh of Statesville. . . Daughter Mrs. Christine Page.

A quartet introduction and the mid-eating program was turned over to Skittish Professor "Bill" Olsen, grand imposter-impersonator for Gertie Stein. . . Green glasses and rousing, non-sensical, punnish Stein-like, Olsen poetry. . . He mentioned English Bagby in Gertie's verse. . .

WITH THE CHURCHES

Presbyterian

10:15 a. m.—Student class, taught by Rev. Watt M. Cooper. Topic: "God in the Life of Man."

11 a. m.—Morning worship and sermon by Rev. Donald Stewart. Topic: "Whom Shall I Marry?"

7 p. m.—Student Forum led by Rev. Watt M. Cooper. Topic: "Religion and the New Psychology."

Baptist

10 a. m.—Student class taught by Dr. Cecil Johnson. Co-ed class taught by Mrs. E. T. Howell.

11 a. m.—Morning worship and sermon by Dr. O. T. Binkley. Topic: "Spiritual Blindness."

7 p. m.—B. Y. P. U. for college students and Young Peoples' Society for high school students.

8 p. m.—Union Forum led by Dr. E. R. Groves. Topic: "Problems and Resources of Modern Marriage."

United

10 a. m.—Student Bible Class. Topic: "The Book That Provokes Thought and Challenge."

11 a. m.—Morning worship and sermon by Dr. W. J. McKee. Topic: "If You Be Risen Seek Those Things Above."

7 p. m.—Student Forum. Topic: "Values and Dangers of Social Insurance Legislation."

Lutheran

10:15 a. m.—Sunday school led by Maurice Haskett.

11 a. m.—Service and Holy Communion led by Rev. Roscoe B. Fisher. Topic: "Life."

Episcopal

8 a. m.—Holy Communion.

11 a. m.—Morning worship and sermon by Rev. A. S. Law-

STUDENT MEETING OPENS IN RALEIGH

N. C. Federation Will Discuss Student Problems and Present Educational Situation.

The annual convention of the North Carolina Federation of Students opened yesterday with a banquet at the Sir Walter hotel in Raleigh. All of the major colleges of North Carolina, except Davidson, and many of the smaller colleges are represented.

The meeting which will last through Sunday, is being held to discuss national student relations, various problems of student government, publications, and the educational situation in North Carolina.

Speakers at the convention are Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus, Ralph McDonald, Dr. Sheldon Smith of Duke, and Harper Barnes, director of Graham Memorial.

Carolina Student Founder

The state federation was founded in 1930 by John Lang, then a student at Carolina and now president of the National Federation of Students. It was the first state federation in the United States. Among the Carolina men who have served as its officers are John Lang, first president; Haywood Weeks, president during 1932-33; and Jack Pool, present chairman of the executive committee.

8 p. m.—Organ recital.

Catholic

8:30 a. m.—Mass, led by Dr. F. J. Morrissey.

Methodist

9:45 a. m.—Sunday school.

11 a. m.—Morning worship and sermon by Dr. W. A. Jenkins.

7 p. m.—Student Forum.

Anything else Sir?

Nothing else — they Satisfy!

Cigarettes are made for your pleasure and for your enjoyment... nothing else.

And when a cigarette gives you the enjoyment that Chesterfields do there are no "ifs" "ands" or "buts" about it...

They Satisfy