

Snavelymen Wreck Maryland Attack In Major Contest

THE FORGOTTEN MAN

HERMAN
SNYDER
HALFBACK

The original forgotten man of a Snavely-coached eleven is the blocking back and Hump Snyder, above, holds that position. His fine blocking did not go unrecognized last year and he received the Millis Blocking Trophy which is awarded yearly to the player who shows the most proficiency at the blocking phase of the game. Snyder receives little glory for his playing but Snavely and his opponents know his worth.

Tar Heel Powerhouse Sweeps Through Terps For Third Victory, 33-0

Jackson, Buck, Bershak and Ditt Score for Tar Heels in Great Triumph; Carolina Scores Three Times in First Quarter to Clinch Contest; Hutchins in Rare Form

STATISTICS

	Carolina	Maryland
Passes tried	19	20
Passes completed	7	4
Passes intercepted	4	2
Yards gained rushing	170	44
Yards lost	11	15
Yards gained passing	85	71
First downs	16	4
Yards penalized	0	65
Fumbles	2	1
Fumbles recovered	2	1
Blocked kicks	1	2
Average yards per punt	43	43
Punts	8	12

Score:

Carolina	20	0	0	13-33
Maryland	0	0	0	0-0

(Continued from page one)

seen in Baltimore's City Stadium, taking the highly touted Old Liners into camp by an overwhelming 33-0 count.

From the outset the Carolina aggregation left no doubt as to who would win, scoring three touchdowns before the Terrapins had time to gather their forces. At the opening whistle the Snavelymen outcharged their opponents and plowed down the field using sheer force and a deceptive aerial attack. Before the game was two minutes old, Don Jackson faded back to the mid-field stripe and heaved a beautiful 50 yard pass into the up-stretched arms of Dick Buck who stepped across the goal-line for the first score. Babe Daniel place-kicked the extra-point and Carolina led 7-0.

The Tar Heels kicked off and on the first play Ellinger fumbled and Montgomery recovered for North Carolina on Maryland's 31 yard line. After getting the ball to the one yard line on five plunges, Jackson carried it over and Daniels' kick was good.

Jack Faber scored once more a moment later when he caught a short pass by Hutchins advancing the ball to Maryland's 10 yard marker, from where he carried it over on an off tackle plunge. For the first time in quite a while Babe Daniels missed his try for the extra point and Carolina led 20-0 as the first quarter came to a close.

Punting Duel

Neither team was able to do much in the second quarter, which was featured largely by the splendid punting of Don Jackson and Bill Guckeyson. Both averaged well over forty yards per kick and this prevented any further scoring. The half ended with Carolina still far out in front, 20-0.

Jack Faber's Maryland outfit finally came to life at the start of the second half and held the ball in Carolina's territory throughout the third quarter. It was evident during this stage of the game that the Tar Heels were suffering a let down due to their superhuman play in the first half, and it was only their airtight pass defense and scrappy line play that prevented the Old Liners from pushing over a score.

With the opening of the final stanza the Chapel Hill boys suddenly sprang out of their lethargy to start a concentrated drive down the field, which resulted in a score when Andy Bershak carried the pigskin over from the Maryland 14 yard stripe on a deceptive end around play. Daniel again failed to convert when Stonebraker blocked his kick from placement. The score now stood 26-0.

On a punt exchange Carolina got in scoring position when Montgomery retrieved Guckeyson's low kick on the Maryland 30 yard line. With the aid of a 15 yard penalty, Carolina chalked up their final counter with but a minute to play on a neatly executed lateral pass from Montgomery to Ditt. McIver converted the extra point from placement and the game came to a close with Carolina on the winning end of a 33-0 score.

When confronted after the game, Jack Faber, Maryland mentor, was still dazed by the shocking defeat that the Tar Heels had forced his charges to absorb. When asked for a statement Coach Faber declared that the Tar Heels were one of the strongest teams that he had ever had the privilege of watching in action.

Jackson Stars

Last night, officials of Maryland University, brought to the attention of North Carolina that in their opinion right guard John Sniscak was ineligible to play in a Southern Conference game because he had played with Catholic University before entering North Carolina. This fact was not definitely ascertained, but Carl G. Snavely, Carolina mentor, made a sportsmanlike gesture by with-holding Sniscak from the game pending investigation. Webb started the game at his position and McIver went in later.

Don Jackson gave what many believed to be his greatest performance as he passed, kicked, and ran with equal abandon. Jackson was unstoppable during the first quarter as he plunged for two of his team's scores and passed to Buck for another.

Jim Hutchins ran Jackson a close second for honors. Hutchins play harked back to his stellar performance against Duke last year as he carried the ball for a substantial gain every time.

LITTLE DYNAMITE

Introducing Little Crowell Little, Asheville's contribution to Carl Snavely's Tar Heels. Crowell is a half-back par excellence and is reputed to be the most elusive runner on the squad. Little had some bad luck at the outset of the season and slight injuries forced him to stay out of Carolina's opening games. But he broke in yesterday and almost got away to a spectacular touchdown dash.

Duke Keeps Slate Clean, Beating Clemson, 38-12

Elmer Hackney Leads Wallace Wade's Blue Devils in Decisive Victory over Clemson

(Special to the DAILY TAR HEEL)

Durham, Oct. 12.—Rated as one of the South's outstanding elevens, the Clemson Tigers invaded the Duke Stadium here this afternoon in an effort to avenge its last year's defeat, but Wallace Wade's mighty Blue Devils had entirely different ideas, and with Elmer Hackney paving the way trounced the visitors 38-12.

The winners got off to a fast start, scoring about four minutes after Clemson had kicked off. Following an exchange of punts, Hackney and Alexander led a drive to the Clemson 5-yard line. Here Hackney again took the pigskin, fumbled, recovered, and out-sprinted five Tiger tacklers around right end for the first touchdown. Ward made good on the placement and the Duke scoring artillery was in action.

Ward Scores

A few minutes later, Clemson kicked out of bounds on the Duke 40-yard mark. Ward, on the first play, took the ball around right end, cut back, and then over again to the sidelines, and out-raced three Clemson backs for the second tally. Gard-

(Continued on last page)

Mural Tag Football Enters Second Week

After a fast week of mural play which saw last year's champs, Law School and Sigma Nu, come through to decisive victories, Herman Schnell, Intramural director, announced that this week's play would be even tougher and faster than that of the past five days.

St. Anthony and D. K. E. will play off their tie on field No. 1 at 5 o'clock Monday, while the defending champs, Sigma Nu and Law School, will meet Alpha Epsilon and Everett respectively during the course of the week's play.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL Monday

4:00: No games scheduled. Practice Period.

5:00: Field No. 1. D. K. E. vs. St. Anthony Hall.

5:00: Field No. 2. Ruffin vs. Aycock.

5:00: Field No. 3. Beta Theta Pi vs. Z. B. T.

The following teams will play two games this week: Beta Theta Pi, Chi Psi, D. K. E., Phi Alpha, St. Anthony Hall, and Z. B. T.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

Invite Your Friends

to

SUNDAY DINNER

at the

Carolina Coffee Shop

"Quality Food and Service"

Imported and Domestic Wines and Champagnes

Schlitz beer on draught
"It's always cold"

Sodas and Sundaes of all kinds

State Wolfpack Defeats Wake Forest Deacs 21-6

GRID SCORES

Davidson 13, South Carolina 6.
Alabama 7, Mississippi State 20.
Auburn 6, Tennessee 13.
Georgia 6, Kentucky 25.
Tulane 19, Florida 7.
Army 54, Gettysburg 0.
William and Mary 0, V. P. I. 0.
Richmond 13, V. M. I. 6.
Columbia 20, Rutgers 6.
Fordham 0, Purdue 20.
N. Y. U. 25, Carnegie Tech 6.
Rice 14, Creighton 0.
Syracuse 21, Cornell 0.
Iowa 12, Colgate 6.
Michigan 7, Indiana 0.
Michigan State 42, Kansas 0.
Nebraska 7, Minnesota 12.
Ohio State 85, Drake 7.
Wisconsin 0, Notre Dame 27.
L. S. U. 32, Manhattan 0.
Pitt 24, Virginia 6.
Princeton 14, Williams 7.
Villanova 13, Bucknell 0.
Dartmouth 59, Bates 7.
Pennsylvania 20, Yale 31.
Duquesne 0, Catholic U. 6.
Boston 13, Tufts 6.
Harvard 0, Holy Cross 13.
Temple 6, Vanderbilt 3.
Penn State 2, W. Maryland 0.

Berlinski and Robinson Star in Night Tilt at New Riddick Stadium Dedication

(Special to the DAILY TAR HEEL)

Riddick Stadium, Raleigh, Oct. 12.—N. C. State's Wolfpack dedicated the New Riddick Stadium here tonight with a smashing 21-6 win over the Wake Forest Deacons.

After getting off to a slow start in the first quarter, Hunk Anderson's charges started a concerted drive early in the second quarter and tallied their first touchdown when "Cowboy" Robinson dashed 45 yards around right end on a beautiful run. Helms place-kicked the extra point and State led 7-0.

There was no further scoring until the opening of the last quarter when State drove downfield and tallied on Berlinski's plunge from the 2-yard stripe. Helms again converted.

A few minutes later, Berlin-

(Continued on last page)

Announcing...
"MAPLE PECAN"
ICE CREAM

It's made today... a new, rich delicious Ice Cream made of pure maple, select pecans and all the goodness of a perfect food. You will really enjoy this new creation.

Durham Dairy Products, Inc.

Chapel Hill Branch

PHONE 7766