DAVIDSON EDITOR

WISHES CAROLINA

LOADS OF LUCK

By Lee Turk

are not alone in our denunciasport writing world, Edward V.

ist, who is beginning to show a slight improvement since last Monday, was the subject of a

Wednesday, 22nd.

Let me take this opportunity to congratulate you on your letward V. Mitchell of the Greens-great deal of interest for it cer-

As to the Heels being off

Sincerely

mal. That is, as long as they keep over-confidence and cockiness away from their door. There is nothing quite so pathetic as eleven strutting jackasses trying to play football, and we are all fervently hoping that the Tar Heels have more sense than to turn animal on us. It isn't likely that they will, for the boys, from captains to bench-warmers, all live football, and the thrill of a touchdown play means as much to their constitutions as a sizzling steak means between steak and State brings to mind that what this columnist believes will be the hardest fought battle of the year is scheduled to take place this Saturday afternoon over in Raleigh. Hunk Anderson's lads have eagerly awaited this chance to play, once again, the Jack the Giant Killer role which they enacted so masterfully last fall at Chapel Hill. Yours truly can't the ears whenever a Raleigh friend brings up last year's game, in which the Wolfpack upset the dope bucket by holding Carolina's cocky contingent to a 7-7 tie. But the Tar Heels will trot out on State's Riddick they held last season. In view han's mighty Manhattan eleven,

(Continued on last page)

to mine.

Harry Kuykendall.

a hard fight from Davidson.

gridiron, I am

as follows:

Lee Turk,

Davidson.

high.

Sports Editor,

DAILY TAR HEEL,

boro Daily News.

Daily Tar Heel Sports

Football Experts Name Tar Heels Best In South

Novices Run In Annual Cake Race Today Atlanta Sports Writers

INTRAMURAL RUN GETS UNDER WAY It is quite apparent that we THIS AFTERNOON tion of Greensboro's gift to the

Mitchell. This culpable column- Over a Hundred Determined Youths will Toe the Starting Line at 4:30 Today pleasant correspondence sent to your commentator by the Sports runners will be off with the this season. Tobey at half, gun, when the 12th annual in- and Jordan, at guard, scored the Editor of the Davidsonian, student publication of Davidson tramural Cake Race gets under touchdowns for Sigma Chi. College. The letter is self-explanatory and is indeed a worthy asset to our cause. It reads and finish at Emerson field.

In the final instructions, point. given by Dale Ranson, it was Manly defeated Everett 6-0 able them to get their numbers, equal number themselves. Manly side of their jerseys. ter to our "mutual friend" Edin not later than 4:15 p. m. in out the second half managed to We read your column with a order to be eligible to start, defend their goal from the as-Those running today are urged saults of the men of Everett, to tainly realized the ambitions of to come about 45 minutes early, emerge with a one touchdown a great deal of students here at so that they will have sufficient victory. time to warm-up.

year's wealth of talent will more different fashion. Ruffin scored than compensate the shortage.

The Course

form Saturday, we have only to The course which starts say that you can always expect Emerson field, goes up the Ra-With best wishes for your leigh highway, turning down team's continued success on the past the Carolina Inn and into Cameron avenue. It then continues up Cameron avenue, through the center of the cam-(Sports Editor.) pus, out past the Forest theatre, Many orchids to you, Harry, and back onto the State highfor your letter which so liber- way, into and around Emerson ally expressed your hopes for field, finishing at the east end of our gridders. Up here in Chapel the grandstand.

Hill we all share the opinion that Thirty-one prizes will be given the Snavelymen will continue to this year. The list of awards win as long as their heads and are as follows: 1st prize, Intra-

SIGMA CHI TEAM WINS AGAIN 13-0

Beat Phi Kappa Sigma in Mural Football Match Yesterday

Sigma Chi defeated Phi Kappa Sigma 13-0 in their intramural tiff yesterday to continue undefeated, untied, and un-scored on Today at 4:30 p. m., over 100 for their four contests so far way. The race will be over the Tobey's score came on a line 1.9 miles course, with the start buck. Hubbard made good his pass to Bannon for the extra stated to all runners that they in a closely contested fray. Evemust report at Emerson field rett held the winners to three sometime after 3 o'clock, to en- first downs while garnering an which will be worn on the out- took the lead in the first period on a pass from Martin to Swartz All participants must check for a touchdown, and through-first period and one in the last to smother the Mangumites 25-0. Intercepted Mangum laterals proved a big factor in the Ruffin victory. Sawyer and Thompson both tallied on such interceptions. Austin and Ruth accounted for the other touchdowns on passes.

a single firstdown.

terday's card was registered by picking the closest scores. Zeta Beta Tau over Phi Alpha, their equilibrium remain nor- mural Gold Medal; 2nd, 3rd, 4th 13-0. Rice turned in both tal (Continued on last page)

(Continued on last page) Unbeaten Elevens Decreased In Saturday's Big Massacre

Five Teams Drop from the Select Rank of the Unbeaten and Untied Football Teams

By Fletcher W. Ferguson Five additional major gridiron eams in the country were 'dumped by the side of the road" from the unbeaten class, two of them in what were termed up-The orthographic similarity

Yale, Washington, Georgia, Purdue, and Mississippi were the unfortunates, but only Mississippi received her share in the form of a slaughter-33-7 from Marquette.

Playing before 12,000 at Milwaukee, the Golden Avalanche swept around ends, smashed through guards and tackles, flipped passes, and intercepted them with abandonment in addition to holding Ole Miss to a help but get plenty red behind single tally, that coming in the final moments of play.

Yale's defeat was not quite so shocking as Mississippi's, since the Elis were rated only an even chance to stop the Army team after disposing with Penn and Navy on the two previous weeks.

field this Saturday with an en-The reception by Russ Janzen tirely different attitude than of Monk Myer's over-the-goal line pass in the second period of of the Wolfpack's overwhelming the game proved the winning 20-0 victory over Chick Meemargin, and though the Elis tallied later they could not overexpert opinion has it that the come the 14-8 lead. "Myer was the male monk if there ever wa one, a demon on defense an a dervish on offense, and for al most half of Army's running at tack was the carrier of the mail," commented Daniel F. Mulvey, well-known sports editor of the New Haven Register. Needless to say the difference between the mule of West Point Freshmen Tennis Final is Stopand the bulldog of Yale was a line, Skibos hurled a long aerial tennis he displayed yesterday.

Purdue Upset

Ten teams the past few years, Homecoming fans that witnessed third. the fracas.

Washington met its downfall (Continued on last page)

IN BIG CONTEST AND GET A PASS Pack Threatens

Win Free Passes to Local Theatre by Picking the Winners in Tar Heel Grid Contest

How would you like to win a couple of free admissions to the Carolina Theatre? It's a simple trick, requiring only skill in predicting the big football pus. For although the Tar Heel as the one at the bottom of this and is now recognized by all as tests from day to day. The par- ent. ticipant must pick the scores and print them in pen, pencil or first practice session after the on the typewriter in the blanks Georgia Tech game by cautionbeside each team. For ex-ing his boys against underratample; Carolina 7, State 6.

Deadline

only one blank and this must be power of its opponent. in the hands of the contest editor by Thursday night at 7 itself lacking in the power which o'clock. The blank is printed was predicted for it by early sea-We believe and hope that Although the amount of en- Mangum, whose 12-14 loss to for your convenience but you son dopesters, many people point North Carolina will be the main tries this year does not exceed Lewis was a feature of last may send in a duplicate on your to the State game as the real contender for Rose Bowl honors the prevous lists, the intramural week's play, lost another decis- own paper printed legibly. The test of Carolina supremacy in although that is hitting pretty committee feels sure that this ion this afternoon-but in quite blank may be sent through the the Old North State. At any mail to the Football Contest Edi- rate, that is the immediate obthree quick touchdowns in the tor, DAILY TAR HEEL or it may be stacle to be hurdled. There is deposited on the sport desk in plenty of time to think of Duke the Graham Memorial office of the DAILY TAR HEEL.

> E. Carrington Smith, manager of the Carolina Theatre has graciously donated the prizes which will be two passes for the winner and one apiece for those finishing second and third. The The Mangum attack was al- scores will determine the winmost completely smothered all ner in case two or more have afternoon, as they failed to make picked the same amount of victorious teams. The prize, in The remaining shutout on yes- that case, will go to the one

녈	Carolina State
1	Duke Tennessee
Į,	Notre Dame Ohio St
×	Pittsburgh Fordham
d	Dartmouth Yale
;	California U. C. L. A Army Miss. St
	Colgate Tulane Auburn L. S. U Navy
S	Auburn L. S. U
d	Navy Princeton
-	Nome

PODESTA-FARRELL TIED AT TWO-ALL

ped by Darkness at 2-All

For over three hours yester-Out at Lafayette, Ind., Carne- day Gerry Podesta and Frank gie Tech, the team that had Farrell fought to determine the been sort of a door mat for Big winner of the Freshman Tennis Tournament but all in vain. found itself and knocked Pur- Darkness descended upon them due from the undefeated ranks with Farrell leading in the fifth by a 7-0 score. Tech's over- set 2-0 and each having won coming of the odds against them two sets. Farrell took the first made the rest of the weekend a and fourth sets with Podesta gloomy affair for the 17,000 triumphing in the second and Until darkness intervened the After being repulsed on the 1- spectators were treated to a foot line in the opening quarter, brand of tennis as yet unseen in Carnegie came back in the final this tournament. Hard and bril- divisions, and intramural crestanza to win its first game in liant at times and sloppy at four starts against the Boiler- other times. Frank Farrell makers via the forward pass proved the surprise of the tourroute. From his own 30-yard nament by playing the brand of to Rosenthal, who out-sprinted He outplayed Podesta throughthe Purdue defense to the end out the contest although the score does not indicate it.

If Farrell can come back to at the hands of Tiny Thornhill's day without having lost the (Continued on last page)

Praise Carolina Eleven For Saturday's Victory

Heel Supremacy

Snavely Warns Charges Aganist Over-Confidence as Game with Wolfpack Draws Near

"Beware of State" is the watchword on the Carolina camfootball team has showed real Every day the DAILY TAR power, the Wolfpack has been HEEL will print a coupon, such showing constant improvement, article, containing the same con- a worthy and dangerous oppon-

Coach Snavely opened his ing the Raleigh brothers. One characteristic of a good foe is You are allowed to send in that it never under-estimates the

And since Duke has showed after State has been met.

McEver Likes State

Coach Gene McEver, of the Davidson Wildcats, has stated that although the State team was not equal to the Carolina team during the early season, they have been showing remarkable improvement, and should certainly play the undefeated Tar Heels on even terms.

There is no denying the fact that Carolina looked plenty good against Tech. Tech was a worthy was "right" for the Engineers. If Carolina can get that way, or weeks in succession she should come out on the big end of the score next Saturday. But the slightest let-down may spell dis-against Tech made a lot of spec- the Tar Heels." tators forget that pass-receiver what Carolina fans have been Jackets." saying all season: That Carolina after a game with Tech.

Fencing

John Elmendorf, student coach of fencing, has announced that an intramural contest in fencing will be held during the winter quarter. Matches will be held in both the fraternity and dormitory dit points will be awarded. All those interested are requested to report this afternoon and every Tuesday afternoon to the Tin Can at 4 o'clock. For the present, all equipment necessary is a gym outfit and a pair of sneakers.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE DAILY TAR HEEL

Squad Shows Stamp Of True Champions

Ed Miles, Jimmy Burns and Jack Troy, Prominent Atlanta Writers Like Snavely-Men

STATE WOLFPACK READY

(Special to the DAILY TAR HEEL) They came. They saw. They were convinced. Atlanta sports writers who accompanied the Rambling Wreck of Georgia Tech here last week-end returned to the Georgia metropolis saying in unison, "Carolina showed the stamp of championship calibre."

Georgia Tech had defeated Duke 6-0 the week before and was conceded a chance against the Tar Heels.

Ed Miles of the Atlanta Journal said: "Hard tackling, stubborn refusal of the ends to be removed from the play and smart diagnosing by Daniel and Snyder, the backers-up, marked the difference between the two. The Jackets are not to be blamed. They met a superior team Saturday. The Tar Heels showed the stamp of championship calibre. The variety of their thrusts and the clever execution of them left the Jackets bewildered. Snavely's Tar Heels of North Carolina distinctly and definitely have it. Should they be beaten this season it will be by the south's best team, an occurrence not at all to be looked

Best in South

He continues, "The North Carolina line, with Daniel and Snyder backing up, and meeting every play with a viciousness not excelled in southern football, comes as near being invincible foe, and was overcome by smart or impenetrable, and perhaps is and fast football; but Carolina better, than any team the south has ever known. If Carolina, on the strength of their showkeep in that frame of mind two ing Saturday, is not the best team in the south, then the eyes and mental abilities of this observer veer badly to the wrong side. Certainly, the Jackets have aster for the blue and white met no team to date which so completely outclassed them phy-The performance of Bill Moore sically and mechanically as did Jimmy Burns of the Atlanta Buck was out with a bad leg. Georgian said: "The Tar Heel However, this just goes to prove defense was too rugged for the Jack Troy of the Atlanta Conhas four of the best ends in the stitution said, "This was a rewhole country. Buck is still out lentless North Carolina team. of uniform, but the rest of the And, while there was only one squad seems to be in good shape show of scoring power in the en--which is an unusual occurence tire first half, the impression was quickly gained that all Tech's might and all Tech's fight would not be enough to meet the test. Tech was harassed by the great punting of Don Jackson, who averaged 43 yards on his many attempts. Jackson quick kicked beautifully. He was the key man in the North Carolina attack. And his passing was magnificent.

(Continued on last page)

Frosh Tennis

All freshmen who are out for the freshman tennis team. and all who are taking tennis instead of physical education, are to report at the courts today at 2 o'clock. In case of rain report at Emerson stadium at the same time.