

ADVISORS TO VISIT, INSPECT RALEIGH OPERATING UNITS

Officials to Join Student Group In Observing Set-Up at State; Comparison Planned

TO SEE LAUNDRY TODAY

The student advisory committee along with several local officials will observe the operating units of the Raleigh unit of the University in action today when they make a tour of inspection of that school.

According to L. B. Rogerson, local assistant controller, the purpose of the trip will be to give the advisory group an idea of other college plants in order to compare them with our own.

Mr. Rogerson held that by seeing other operating units the advisory committee would be better able to understand the functions of the University plants.

Observe Laundry

Units to be observed at State today will be the college laundry and dormitories. Town laundry agencies will also go under the microscope as a further means of comparison.

Along with Mr. Rogerson and the advisory committee will be J. S. Bennett, supervisor of the local utilities unit, and P. L. Burch, head of the buildings department.

Student advisory committee members who will make the trip are Frank Willingham, Phil Hammer, Jack Pool, Fred Weaver, and Don McKee.

UNIVERSITY CLUB TO HELP SNYDER

Plans Drawn Up for Student-Faculty Day Program; Jane Ross Heads Key Committee

In addition to making detailed plans for the pep rally tonight, the University Club last night went into action to help Jake Snyder and his February 12 Student-Faculty Day program.

The University Club will have charge of assigning members of the faculty to the various fraternities and sororities for noon-day entertainment, and will organize a central information bureau to direct visitors to the various exhibits on the Student-Faculty Day program.

Jane Ross, president of the Woman's Association, was named chairman of a committee to work out the details of assigning members of the University administration to the various fraternities.

Assisting President Ross will be Niles Bond, efficient business manager of the Buccaneer, and Bill McClellan of the DAILY TAR HEEL.

Band Uniforms

The University Club also voted to look into the prospects of helping the band secure uniforms for all its members. Already 35 members of the musical organization have uniforms, but 50 more are needed. Joe Grier, who seems to be one of the reliable powers beyond the University Club throne, was named to work out means of financing the purchasing of new band suits.

Louis Shaffner, radio program sponsor, discussed plans to stage another broadcast before the Duke game.

Ellis' Council will Decide Issue by Petitions Wednesday

Details for the coming referendum on the proposed one dollar dormitory fee for social activities were worked out by Albert Ellis' council of dormitory presidents Wednesday night.

Voting on the assessment will be by petition November 4 and 5. Councilors on each floor of the dormitories will have charge of securing signatures.

Petition—To Wit

The petitions, which were distributed Thursday night, read as follows:

"We, the undersigned, agree to be assessed one dollar per year to be collected by the Business office with the collection of the room rents (50 cents each collection).

"This money is to be turned over to the Interdormitory Council, which, in turn, will turn it over to the individual councils of the 12 dormitories on the campus coming under the jurisdiction of the Interdormitory Council proportionate to the fees collected from each dormitory. The money will be expended un-

McLEAN QUILTS JOB, CAUSES COMMENT

Carolinian Returns to Law Practice, "Big Shots" React

The resignation of Angus D. MacLean, assistant attorney general in charge of claims cases, has caused much comment among "big shot colleagues," according to a telegram to the DAILY TAR HEEL from the Columbia Press.

The announcement of the Raleigh lawyer's resignation was made yesterday by Attorney General Cummings after President Roosevelt termed his service "of great value in connection with the important and diversified legal problems that have arisen during your tenure of office."

MacLean is now being honored in Washington by his co-workers in the Justice Department. He is the fifth key executive in the federal justice department to hand in a resignation since the spring.

Co-eds to Give Dance In Bynum Tonight

Freddy Johnson to Play for First of Series of Three

Freddy Johnson and his Carolina orchestra will play tonight for the first co-ed dance of the year, to be held in Bynum gymnasium from 9 until 1 o'clock.

All women students are eligible to attend and invite as many of their boy friends as they wish. The sale of bids will continue this afternoon in the Woman's Association office in Graham Memorial and at Spencer hall tonight.

The gymnasium will be decorated with fire-proof paper, and students are asked to refrain from smoking during the dance.

Monster Student Gathering will Begin at Post Office; Ostrow to Lead Cheers for Team to Blot Out Last Year's Disastrous Tie

No Specials to State

Students planning to attend the State game via special bus or train will have to make other arrangements for transportation. After investigating, the Daily Tar Heel has found that no special buses or trains will be available for Carolina students.

"Beat State" philosophy will flow unchecked tonight in a gigantic pep rally which is to be sponsored in front of South building at 8 o'clock by the University Club.

The Chapel Hill fire truck will lead a parade which will start in front of the post office at 7:45 o'clock and march to South building.

In front of South cheers, yells, songs, and speeches will be delivered by Lester Ostrow and his cohorts.

Featured as speakers will be prominent members of Carolina's undefeated football squad, which is playing State tomorrow in one of the most formidable teams on the season's schedule.

NYA GRANTS AID 100,532 STUDENTS

North Carolina Colleges Get $41,925 Each Month; 12 Per Cent of Enrollment Aided

Financial assistance for 100,532 needy students in 1,514 colleges and universities in this country and Puerto Rico is being provided by the National Youth Administration, according to figures released by Aubrey W. Williams, Executive Director.

In North Carolina, the report shows, 2,795 students in 64 colleges and universities will receive a monthly grant of $41,925.

The quota for each college represents 12 per cent of the enrollment of the institution as of October 15, 1934. The selection of students to receive aid is from among those who without this help would be unable to attend or remain in college.

Responsibility

The responsibility for the program on each campus rests upon the shoulders of the president of the institution. All students on the NYA payroll must be employed in socially-desirable work on and off the campus. On the campus they are engaged in research, clerical, office, library and laboratory work, while off the campus activities include community education, health, and welfare projects.

A student is permitted to earn as much as $20 a month, but the allotment of funds to each college is on the basis of $15 for each of 12 per cent of its enrollment of full-time students.

There is a concerted and growing move on the campus to boycott a pro-war and anti-liberal (Hearstian to you) movie which Mr. Smith has scheduled for Sunday afternoon.

The reason for the boycott is, of course, to protest against propagandizing cinema presentations, filled to the brim with the glory of war and the glamor of being a soldier. Over-looked, naturally, is the dark and horrible side of armed conflict and the futility of spilling blood on the pretense of a hypocritical and foolish principle.

A boycott would pack Mr. Smith's little theater to the brim and you know it. The picket line wouldn't have a prayer. Now the pacifists might say that the protest is worth it, that a student action against such biased and jingoistic movies has its good effect. We disagree. It only creates an enthusiastic rush

TARDY MACHINES DELAY DEADLINE ON CAR LICENSES

Enforcement of Driver Permits Off Until Applications Filled

In spite of a decree that it was to be unlawful to drive an automobile today without one of the new operator's licenses, the state highway department has been forced to postpone the deadline until those who applied last month could be supplied with permits.

Several weeks ago, highway patrolmen invaded Chapel Hill, aiding students and townspeople alike in filling out the required applications. The applications were sent in, but the majority of those applying have not been supplied.

The highway department explains the delay by stating that the machines used in making the license cards was late in arriving.

The tardy "mechanical eyes" have been installed, however, and are now turning out 20,000 cards each day. The entire production organization is said to be working in three eight-hour shifts.

It is estimated that it will require 64 days to get licenses to all applicants.

CARTER CORRECTS ERROR AT CHAPEL

Speaker Denies Soviet Forces Poor Students to Work

Payson Carter, who addressed the freshman class on last Tuesday, returned yesterday to continue his talk on the present-day Russia.

Mr. Carter corrected the statement he previously made to the effect that those Russian students unable to comply with Russian academic requirements are made to work in the government's employ. They are not forced to work, he said, but are merely prohibited from further study in the government supported schools.

Mr. H. F. Comer, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., explained the pension fund for Myaim Tuck, local negro, who is the oldest living citizen of Orange county, and expressed the intention of having the old woman address the class as part of a future chapel exercise.

P. U. Board Considers Yackety Yack Budget

Gives Year-Book Same Funds as Provided Last Year

The budget of this year's Yackety Yack was the main topic of discussion at the meeting of the Publication's Union board in Graham Memorial yesterday afternoon.

The same budget will be adopted this year as was used last year making the price for junior and senior pictures the same.

Fraternities and campus organizations will be charged the same price for space in the annual with the usual 10 per cent discount if charges are paid by December 1.

CHI-O ROUND-UP

The Chi Omega sorority invites all the sorority girls whose chapters are not represented on the campus to tea at the Chi Omega house Sunday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30.

GREEK HEADS PICK BRUCE TO ATTEND NATIONAL SESSION

Interfraternity Council President Selected to Attend New York Conference

TO MEET THANKSGIVING

President L. C. Bruce was selected last night by the Interfraternity Council as its delegate to the National Interfraternity Council conference. Bruce will make the trip to New York City during the Thanksgiving holidays to attend the two-day conference there November 29-30.

The bi-weekly meeting of the council was opened with Bruce appointing a committee composed of Ernie Eutsler, chairman, Butler French and Buddy Upchurch to work with Jake Snyder, chairman of this year's Student-Faculty Day, in co-ordinating the functions of the various dormitories and fraternities during the second annual get-together holiday next quarter.

Several drastic changes in rushing season were proposed by the executive committee of the council but action on the proposals was postponed until the several representatives had discussed them with their respective chapters and President Bruce had discussed them with certain faculty members.

Following a brief discussion on the abolition of Hell Week, the council decided to invite

AYCOCK TO ENJOY FRUIT OF VICTORY

Dance, Free Games and Show During Evening; Ellis Compliments Presidents

President Bill Cochrane's Aycock dormitory celebrates its winning of the Homecoming decoration contest Wednesday night with a big social in Graham Memorial.

Get together meetings in the Student Union lounge will start the affair off at 8:15 o'clock, a dance will be held in the banquet room from 9 until 11 o'clock, and free use of the game room and a movie will top off the affair.

At a meeting of the council of dormitory presidents Wednesday night, winner Cochrane extended an invitation to the presidents of the other dormitories to attend the affair. University officials will also be in attendance.

"Keep It Up"

Commenting on the Homecoming Day dormitory decorations, Supervisor Albert Ellis exhorted his presidents to keep up the fine spirit of cooperation showed during the weekend.

"I want to congratulate you on your splendid displays," Ellis stated. "I believe this is the first time in the history of the University that dormitories have cooperated 100 per cent in putting up displays. It shows a definite trend in dormitory spirit."

Supervisor Ellis' dormitory social program provides that each rooming house on the campus have a smoker before Christmas. A majority of the dormitories have already staged these affairs.

More Socials

After Christmas, the dormitories will have a series of socials. (Continued on last page)

to the box-office and lots of unthinking fun.

Pacifists don't seem to realize that this pro-war picture is the best opportunity they've had for doing constructive work. Why? Because it presents a typical high-pressure propaganda agency at work when students have time to think the thing out. If the picture came during the war days, everybody would be carried away. There would be no time to think and the movie would be accepted as a glorious and true picture, just as the politicians and war-scarers painted it from the soap-boxes.

But now we're at peace and we can reflect on real war propaganda. We can evaluate its worth. We can see through its sham. We can compare its glorious picture with the true and accurate picture of what war really does. Forget the boycott and think.—P.G.H.
