Captain "Ernie" Eutsler Leads Carolina Ringsters To Deadlock State, 4-4

Carolina 125-Pounder KO's Tolar in 1:48 Minutes of Hard-Fought Second Round

N. C. FRESHMEN WIN 5-3

Bill Stronach, 155-Pound Tar Baby, Licks Miller in Yearling Headliner

By W. Thomas Bost, Jr.

Frank Thompson Gymnasium, West Raleigh, N. C., February 1—Carolina's varsity boxers tonight deadlocked with N. C. State here, 4-4, but the Tar Baby freshmen bettered the Wolfpack first year men 5-3. A large and enthusiastic crowd jammed the confines of this large gym to witness the fights.

Perhaps the best fight of the evening came in the heavy-weight division when Johnson, N. C. State, outslugged and out-boxed Carolina's Marvin Ray to gain a close decision.

Score Knockdowns

Both giants abandoned caution to the winds, and stood toe to toe at the center of the ring throwing their punches. In the first round, Ray, former Carolina star football tackle, went down before Johnson's onslaughts to the count of nine. But in the second verse, Ray floored the 'Pack heavy, who stayed put until the count of eight.

In the final setto, both men came out sadly fatigued and much the worse for wear . . . what little advantage there was went over to Johnson who gained the referee's favoring nod because of his aggressiveness at the final gong.

Shores Slugs Win

The Shores-Penland fight was another keenly contested scrap. This time, the Chapel Hill youth came through with the decision, which was another hairlined one.

Shores sprang quickly from his corner in the first round, and rained punches on Penland's face . . . having the Tech battler groggy at the end of the verse. And the second round also was Carolina's. Shore with tiger-like aggressiveness battered his man all over the squared circle.

But strange as it may seem, the final round found the Tar Heel fighter tired, probably because of his own eagerness to despatch his adversary. Penland looked much fresher at the end, because of his superior conditioning.

Captain Seamon Hudson, N. C. State, fought a nice fight against Carolina's Dick May. Hudson, reputedly a slugger of the first order, out-boxed the Tar Heel from the first . . . gaining the referee's decision.

Eutsler Gains K. O.

Carolina won the only varsity knockout of the evening when Captain Ernie Eutsler disposed of Tolar in 1:48 minutes of the second round.

The Wolfpack pug seemed to have the best of the first round argument as Ernie appeared to feel his man out.

But with the second setto, the Carolina leader came out fighting viciously. He opened up with his whole repertoire of blows as he rained lefts and rights off the body and face of one Mr. Tolar. Eutsler finally sent the Tech 125-pound representative to sleep at the end of the second session. Max Novich, Carolina 175-lb. division, won an easy decision over Ralph Powell. The Tar Heel scrapper came through in easy fashion although Powell hung on to the merry end, despite the fact that Novich hit him with everything but the ring posts.

U. N. C. FROSH 5, STATE 3

Carolina's freshman fighters came through with a 5-3 victory over the N. C. State yearlings here tonight.

The headline bout of the night came in the 155-pound class when two Raleigh boys and former high school teammates came to blows.

Stronach Wins

Bill Stronach, Tar Baby pugilist, gained a close decision over Johnny Miller.

Stronach's superb boxing ability proved to be the winning factor. He slung his punches with abandon but with directness to cop the referee's nod.

Varsity summary:

118—Killum, N. C. State, won on forfeit.

126—Captain Eutsler, Carolina, KO'd Tolar in 1:48 minutes of the second round.

CO-ED MANAGERS GIVE OUT WEEK'S SPORTS SCHEDULE

Girls Showing Great Interest in Basketball and Bowling

Co-ed managers announced yesterday full bowling and basketball schedules for the coming week's activities.

Manager Frances Caffey made known that the basketball tournament will formally get under way Wednesday night when a double-header is scheduled. Third and fourth floors Spencer will play at 7:30 in the preliminary engagement while the Pi Beta Phi's will meet the second floor Spencer in the second contest.

Thursday night will find Chi Omega taking on Town number one, and Archer House will compete with Town number two.

No Practice Tuesday

Since the High Point College volley ball and bowling teams meet the co-eds Tuesday night, there will be no basketball practice that evening.

According to Manager Evelyn Barker, the co-ed bowling tourney which began last Tuesday is (Continued on last page)

Eight Fraternity And Eight Dorm Fives Unbeaten In Intramural Play

Mangum No. 1, Last Year's Champs, May Repeat, But Everett Sure to Offer Competition Among Dormitory Clubs; Dekes, Chi Phi's, and Sigma Nu's Look Tops Among Fraternities.

After three weeks of play in the intramural basketball tournament only 16 of the original 44 remain on the honored-undefeated list—eight fraternity teams and eight dormitory teams. During the past week's play, four fraternity teams and one dorm squad was eliminated. Everett dorm and Mangum No. 1 team head the dorm list with three victories each while D. K. E. and Chi Psi seem to be the class of the Greeks.

Deke Scoring Machine

D. K. E. has amassed a total of 140 points in their two victories with Ben Willis and Bill Moore doing most of their scoring. Willis stands far in front with 65 points while Moore follows close with 51 markers.

Headed by Hagey and Foreman, Chi Psi has shown that it must be contended with in the final stages of the mural race.

Mangum Good Again

The Mangum No. 1 team, which copped the campus chamionship last year, seems well on the way to another trophy. Mangum has defeated two opponents by over 30 points while being held to a 25-12 victory over Ranson house last week.

Everett dorm has taken two victories from mediocre opponents while receiving a forfeit in their other match. It remains to be seen what the Everett boys can do when they stack up against some real opposition.

Week's Prospect

Next week's card finds many of the teams facing some stern opposition. Sigma Nu, another fast and undefeated team, will find a barrier in their path when they run against Phi Kappa Sigma on Thursday.

The Connecticut Club risks its undefeated record against Ranson house five on Tuesday, and D. K. E. should at last find a little opposition on Thursday when they meet up with Kappa Sigma.

TAR HEELS GAIN CLOSE WIN OVER GAMECOCKS 43-41

Captain Jim McCachren's All-Round Floor Work and Pete Mullis' Long Shots Win

JAMES GAMECOCKS' BEST

Victory is 11th for North Carolina in Last 14 Starts; Game Is Strictly Called

(Special to the Daily Tar Heel)

Columbia, S. C., February 1—University of North Carolina's White Phantoms gained a close call here tonight as they downed University of South Carolina Gamecocks 43-41.

The big factors in the Tar Heels' last half push which staved off defeat were Captain Jim McCachren and Pete Mullis.

McCachren's sterling floor play baffled the local five while the diminutive Mullis' beautifully-arching long shots saved the game for the North Carolinians. Mullis garnered five field goals and a trio of baskets from the gratis line while McCachren counted four times

Tar Baby Five Wins Thrilling Tilt From Belmont Abbey, 14-13

University Freshmen Come from Behind in Afternoon Triumph Over Scrappy Junior College

MCCACHREN AGAIN STARS

Trailing 10-6 at the end of the half, Carolina's Tar Babies came back in the third quarter to tie the score, and then outscored the losers 2-1 to clinch their game against Belmont Abbey in the Tin Can yesterday afternoon by a score of 14-13.

After a 2-2 deadlock in the first quarter, the Abbots ran wild in the second with an eight-point rally to lead the home team at the end of the half. Two goals by Crump, high scoring ace of the visitors, and one by Lippard did the trick.

Tar Babies Rally

But the freshmen got mad in the third quarter and, behind the energetic "Wild Willy" McCachren and "Jumping Joe" Markham, bounced into the lead, 12-10. But Mauro scored on a double spinner through center, gaining the length of the court on the play, and saved the visitors' bacon for the time being. The period ended with nobody winning by a score of 12-12.

Both teams showed a tight defense but poor shooting in the final stanza. Stoopack broke the ice with a minute and a half of the period left and clinched the game for the Tar Babies with a long shot. Wright had two chances to tie the score once, but succeeded in making it only close with a foul shot which concluded the scoring for the afternoon.

Crump Is High Man

Crump was high scorer of the game with six points, three field goals.

Phil Grossman starred on the defense for the Tar Babies, and McCachren was good all around, contributing some of the few good pieces of passing in the game. Markham, Stoopack, and McCachren scored four points each for Carolina.

This was the Tar Babies' second win in two days and the third of the current season.

HIGH POINT CO-EDS TO INVADE BYNUM

Bowling and Volleying Lassies to Compete with Local Co-eds

Volley ball and bowling teams from High Point College will play the University co-eds in these two sports Tuesday night to further friendly competition between the two institutions.

Nine girls from the neighboring school will make the trip and will play volley ball in Bynum gym at 7 o'clock and bowling in Graham Memorial at 8 o'clock.

The co-ed volley ball team is composed of Evelyn Barker, Jo Oettinger, Mary Pride Cruikshank, Jean Bush, June Bush, Anise Belden, Polly Pollock, Hester Barlow, and Martha Louise Croom. All should be at the gym promptly at 7 o'clock.

Mildred McCullan and Eileen Smith will bowl for the University.

The Woman's Athletic Association will entertain the visiting teams at dinner in Spencer hall.

TRACKSTERS WIN MILLROSE HONORS

Harry Williamson, Carolina's "Dixie Flyer," Wins First in 1,000-Yard Classic Run

N. C. RELAY RUNS FOURTH

(Special to the Daily Tar Heel)

Madison Square Garden, New York, February 1—North Carolina's Harry Williamson, "Dixie Flyer," won first in the 1,000-yard classic run of the Millrose games here tonight with the excellent time of 2:13.6 minutes.

He was trailed to the tape by Grady and Headly.

The winner of the Wannamaker mile was Mangum who led Venzke, second and Cunningham, third. It was a beautiful blanket sprint-finish with the judges clocking the time as 4:11 minutes.

Relay Team Fourth

North Carolina's relay team made an impressive showing against their much faster eastern opposition, and placed fourth . . . behind Fordham, N. Y. U., and Columbia, all metropolitan teams.

Yale ran fifth. The time: 8:06 minutes.

The Tar Heels' inexperienced relay men, Drake and Rosser, gave their opponents a chance to pile up such a formidable lead that Gardiner and Gammon could not cut down. But even so, Carolina trailed the victors by 20 yards.

Di Senate

At their regular Tuesday night meeting members of the Di will discuss the timely bill, Resolved, That North Carolina should do away with the lethal gas method of capital punishment. The other bill on the program is, Resolved, That socialism is superior to capitalism.

All members are asked to be ready to pay any dues which are overdue so that plans for the Di-Phi dance may be completed.

from action and one free throw.

The Gamecocks' best bet was the hard-breaking and crack sharpshooting guard, James, who counted five times from the floor and seven foul shots for a 17-point total.

Lipscomb, brilliant center for the local aggregation, stood out for his great play under the basket. He turned in eight markers.

Tonight's triumph was the 11th for the boys of the Old North State in their last 14 starts.

The game was strictly called throughout with Mullis and James going out on too many personal fouls.
