

I SEE BY THE PAPERS

By IRA SARASOHN

We were very fortunate last Friday morning to be able to accompany the wrestlers on their trip to Lexington, Va. Believing that some of our readers would be interested in hearing what happened on the trip we took pains to note down things which we considered to be of some importance and interest. Unfortunately many of the cracks are more suitable for the old Buccaneer and so they are omitted from the following account we made.

Friday, 8:30 a. m.—We are just about ready to leave. . . Harvey Gwynn early for a change but Manager Peterson late as usual. . . 22 of us are in the party. . . The bus is one of the Carolina Coach Company's puddle jumpers with 25 seats. . . And so the varsity and freshman wrestling teams and managers are off for Lexington in the hills of old Virginia.

Friday, 9:15 a. m.—Everything has been clicking smoothly. . . Most of us fellows are either reading or are catching up on some sleep. . . We have Thornton Wilder's "Heaven is My Destination". . . Suddenly, somewhere between Durham and Roxboro the engine begins to hit on all two cylinders and dies a sputtering death. . . Fellows pile out of bus to help driver find trouble. . . Coach takes a seat at wheel and attempts to start motor while we peer at engine. . . Driver thinks it is vacuum tank and knocks it several times. . . Coach presses starter and gets engine running. . . We are off again. . .

Friday, 9:45 a. m.—We reach Rougemont. . . Town as we saw it consisted of three gas stations, a general store, and a repair shop in addition to a few houses and a church. . . Mechanic badly in need of a shave begins to repair vacuum. . . Judson remarks that he certainly looks like an experienced mechanic. . . "He has a grease spot on his overalls and even has a monkey wrench." Man comes around selling The Grit. . . Kaluk is interested and offers to exchange for a copy of the DAILY TAR HEEL. . . After a half hour engine is fixed, so we are told, and we're off again.

Friday, 11 a. m.—After several stops on the road due to the motor which was "fixed" we finally reach Roxboro. . . We stop at one of the first repair shops that appears capable of fixing our trouble. . . Michaels, who hails from Roxboro asserts it is a good place. . . Most of the boys go to nearby store and begin eating and drinking (Coca-Colas of course). . . Michaels catches a ride home and visits his folks. . . After about an hour of patient waiting the vacuum is finally repaired and we resume our journey. . . We have gone almost through our book.

Friday, 1:45 p. m.—After an uneventful ride from Roxboro we enter the outskirts of Lynchburg. . . Noticed a lake that appeared to be frozen solid about five miles out of Lynchburg. . . As we arrive in Lynchburg all the windows are opened. . . We keep a lookout for pretty girls. . . We all wave to them and say hello. . . Few fail to respond.

Friday, 2 p. m.—A hungry bunch rushes out of the bus to one of the restaurants in town. . .

DUKE TILT TO BE IMPORTANT GAME IN BIG FIVE RACE

Postponed Carolina-State Game Will Be Played February 27, Prior to Conference Meet

RED TERRORS LEAD LOOP

Carolina's return basketball engagement with Duke in Durham Friday night is expected to have a tremendous bearing on the Big Five race, despite the fact that both clubs still have to dispose of N. C. State, present leader of the loop.

A mild influenza epidemic here and at Raleigh called for postponement and cancellation of various sporting events scheduled for last week.

The State-Carolina game, originally carded for last Friday night, has now been definitely set for February 27, the last game before the Southern Conference basketball tourney for State and next to the last for Carolina.

Duke downed Davidson last week in the only Big Five court contest played, 36-33. This gives the Blue Devils a tie with the White Phantoms for second place in the race.

MATMEN PREPARE FOR BLUE DEVILS

Tar Heel Grapplers Settle Down For Hard Work in Preparation for Meet with Duke

Although the varsity and freshman wrestlers went down to defeat to the strong V. M. I. teams, they are turning their attention toward the meet with Duke this weekend in the Tin Can.

The varsity team will be strengthened with the return of Captain Bonner, Frank Umstead, and Sam Lytle. These three men were held out of the V. M. I. meet because of injuries.

Winners

Ed Tankersley and Bob Williams, who turned in the only wins for the Tar Heels against the Keydets, should turn in wins over their Blue Devils opponents Saturday when they clash in the Tin Can for the only home event of the week.

With a number of the freshmen on the sick list last Saturday, Coach Quinlan had to fill in with two new men and reserves to complete his team. He was satisfied with the work of Hood, a new man, who threw his opponent in 42 seconds.

Coach Quinlan gave the crowd of candidates, that he had out for practice yesterday, a light workout and promised to give them plenty of stiff work for the next three days in preparation for the Duke meet.

MONOGRAM CLUB TO MEET TONIGHT

"Doc" Cornwell will be Feature Speaker for This Evening's Session

Charlie Hubbard's Monogram club will hold its regular meeting tonight at 9:30. Feature speaker for the evening will be "Doc" Cornwell, instigator of the new freshman hygiene and physical education program.

Monogram sweaters for football and cross-country will be presented to new members, and certificates will be awarded to

BOWLING MURALS TO START TODAY; SEVEN GET BYES

Twenty-five Teams will Compete for Title Instead of Usual Eight

The annual bowling intramurals will get underway this afternoon with 25 teams vying for the campus championship. Director Herman Schnell decided to give all of the teams a chance in the tourney instead of having the eight high fraternity and dormitory teams as has been the custom in the past.

The schedule as drawn up by Director Schnell finds Graham Memorial, T. E. P., Phi Gamma Delta, D. K. E. No. 1, Old East No. 1, Aycock, and Z. B. T. receiving byes in the opening round of bowling.

Today's Schedule

First round matches find the following teams pitted against each other: Ruffin vs. Old East No. 1; Betas vs. Lambda Chi Alpha; D. K. E. No. 3 vs. Unknowns; D. K. E. No. 2 vs. Mangum; Sigma Chi vs. Chi Phi No. 1; Manly vs. Law School; Chi Psi vs. Chi Phi No. 2; Sigma Nu vs. Theta Kappa Nu; and A. T. O. vs. Independents.

Ruffin, Manly, and Aycock were seeded one, two, three, respectively, with Aycock defending the title won last year.

Teams are to make their own arrangements as to the time of their matches and all matches are to be played off before the end of this week.

PROFESSORS' SOCIETY

Members of the local chapter of the Association of University Professors will discuss the honor system at their first meeting of the year, tomorrow night at 8:30, in the Episcopal parish house.

Dr. J. B. Bullitt, of the pathology department, is president of the association, which was organized here several years ago.

Officials Make Two Major Changes In Gridiron Rules For Next Season

"Slow Whistle" Eliminated by Unanimous Consent of Coaches; "Free Ball" Ruling Permits Either Side to Advance Ball if Recovered Before It is Dead

Following a three-day venue, the National Football Rules Committee came forward Sunday night with the announcement that only two major changes and several minor alterations would be the law for 1936.

Due to almost unanimous disapproval by the coaches, the "slow whistle" is to be eliminated. This was formerly designed to allow more latitude for the lateral passing game, but too many injuries necessitated the re-entry of the faster whistle on the part of the referee.

The other major change comes in line with the "free ball" ruling for the blocked kick which does not pass the line of scrimmage. Now either side may advance the ball if it is recovered before it is dead, instead of the kicking team having only a "dead ball" in case of recovery.

As to the aerial game, the committee proceeded to tighten up the regulations on forward passing. No longer can players, ineligible as pass receivers, be allowed to be in advance of the point where the pass is caught, intercepted, or falls incomplete. Further, these ineligible cannot obstruct the right of way or view of any opponent. Violation of this regulation will subject

PAIRINGS DRAWN FOR TABLE TENNIS MURAL TOURNEY

Sixteen Dormitory and 22 Fraternity Teams Sign Up for Tournament

The resounding echo of the ball against the paddle will be heard throughout the halls of Graham Memorial when the annual table tennis intramural tournaments begin this afternoon. Thirty-eight teams will attempt to establish their supremacy over the little white ball as a record entry swings into action tomorrow.

Sixteen dormitory teams and 22 fraternity teams have signed up for the tourney and there will be two leagues; the fraternity and dormitory, with the winners of each league to play off for the campus championship.

Intramural Director Herman Schnell drew up the pairings yesterday afternoon and the following teams drew byes: S. A. E. No. 1, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Nus, No. 1, 2, and 3, Phi Kappa Sigma, D. K. E. No. 2, St. Anthony, S. A. E. No. 2, and Chi Psi No. 1.

First Round

The first round matches as drawn up find 22 teams facing opponents, which is schedule opponents in the first round of play, which is scheduled to get underway this afternoon and which is to be completed before the end of the week. The following teams are pitted against each other in the opening round: Chi Psi No. 2 vs. Lambda Chi Alpha, Z. B. T. No. 2 vs. Sigma Chi, A. E. No. 2 vs. T. E. P. No. 2, Phi Delta Theta vs. Chi Phi, A. E. No. 1 vs. T. E. P. No. 1, and D. K. E. vs. Z. B. T. No. 1.

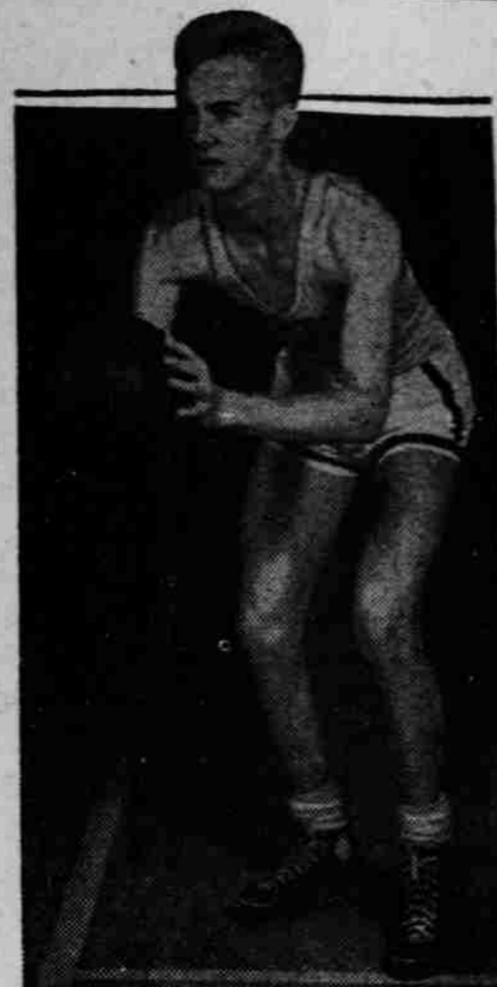

The table tennis intramurals will be run off every day with the schedule for the following day's play being printed in the DAILY TAR HEEL.

The tournaments are divided into the upper and lower brackets.

Inclement Weather Alters White Phantom's Schedule

LOST FOR SEASON

Ramsay Potts, stellar sophomore guard, was lost to the White Phantoms for the rest of the season last week when he underwent an appendicitis operation. The loss of Potts, who filled Earl Ruth's berth so capably while the latter was out of the line-up earlier in the season, will materially weaken the reserve strength of the Carolina quintet.

REGULARS RETURN TO BOXING DRILLS

Murnick and Novich Resume Practice to Bolster Hopes for Win Over Strong Kaydets

With the return of Murnick and Novich, the hopes of a win this week over V. M. I.'s boxing team increased greatly. Both men have been forced from practice due to colds.

Although neither one of them took an active part in yesterday's practice, Coach Rowe hopes to whip both of them into shape by the time of the V. M. I. meet in Lexington Saturday.

Marvin Ray has fully recovered from the cut he received in the Maryland fight and was able to spar three rounds in yesterday's workout. Shores, Eutsler, Taylor, and Fisher all took part in yesterday's hard session which consisted mainly of floor work using the punching bags. Should Novich and Murnick return to practice today, the only position that will be unfilled will be the 155-lb. class. Woody is now working out at the bantam post and will probably see action this weekend. Either Murnick or Eutsler will fill the 125-lb. post against the V. M. I. Kaydets.

As a result of the cancellation of the Duke matches there seems to be no reason why Duke won't become "Big Three" boxing title holders. At any rate, neither

Basketeers To Play Blue Devils Friday

Varsity Has Six Engagements On Menu While Tar Babies Have Only Two More Tilts

W. & L. GAME POSTPONED

With the subsiding of the tension during the recent bad weather which forced cancellation of numerous athletic and social activities, the varsity and freshmen basketball schedules have been altered. The remaining contests follow:

Feb. 19, Freshmen at Duke.
Feb. 20, Varsity at Duke.
Feb. 22, Varsity at V. M. I.
Feb. 24, Varsity at Clemson.
Feb. 26, Varsity at Davidson.
Feb. 27, Varsity and Freshmen at N. C. State.
Feb. 28, Varsity vs. V. M. I., here.

Postponed

W. & L., by the indefinite postponement of the scheduled game for last night with the White Phantoms, greatly reduced its chances of having the latter knock it from the undefeated circle. Many fans were backing the Skidmore-coached five to avenge itself for the first 1936 loss when the two met on the Tin Can floor.

However, the Tar Heels will have plenty on their hands this week, for they will seek to even the count with Eddie Cameron's Blue Devils Friday night in Durham. The first time the Duke club eked out a 36-34 overtime victory here in the Tin Can and the Tars are anxious to retaliate.

Jerseyites Fail to Meet

The New Jersey Club failed to meet last night because only three of the members showed up. The meeting called last night represented the second attempt by President Lester Ostrow to get the group together this quarter.
