uted to the fraternities through the Interfraternity council members at their meeting at 7:15 tonight. Each member of the Interfraternity council will distribute the questionnaires to the members of his fraternity immediately.

The questionnaires will also be delivered to the dormitory stores late tonight. They will be distributed to the individuals in each dormitory by the dormitory counselors.

Return

All questionnaires must be returned by March 5. Dormitory presidents are to return the filled-out questionnaires to the Y. M. C. A. self-help office by that date.

Faculty members will receive the questionnaires tomorrow through the inter-office mail. The questionnaires are to be returned via the same route before next Thursday to the self-help office in the Y. M. C. A.

Students living out in town will receive the questionnaires tomorrow. The leaflets will be distributed through the facilities of the self-help office.

Students who do not receive questionnaires may obtain them in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow and Saturday.

The Honor System Committee, meeting at noon yesterday, elected Weaver chairman, after the resignation of Phil Hammer, editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL, who is leaving the campus because of illness.

Members of the committee are:

to a flying start and displace the former champions.

Craver and Brown showed good form as they led their team through to their present position and will carry the brunt of the Mangum attack. Old West has come a long way since the beginning of the season and should give Mangum a fight to the finish.

Policy Leaguers

Professor D. H. Buchanan will discuss the fundamental issues underlying the Russo-Japanese dispute at tonight's meeting of the Foreign Policy League in Graham Memorial.

The speaker, who has spent 10 years in Japan, will present his observations of the differences in the national policies of Japan and Russia. He believes that Japan will eventually push her way onto Russia's mainland.

Tonight's meeting will be in the Memorial's lounge at 7:30. It will end in time for attendance at the Russian Singers' performance.

sire to have various political points of view expressed by active political practitioners, that they wish to ask questions and conduct forums of discussion with these political practitioners participating to the end that they may get clearly in their minds the varying points of view in the State and nation today as data which they desire to study.

I understand, on the other hand, that in no sense of the word are the students forming this political union desirous of using the union in any way as a means of support for any candidate, any party, or any partisan view. I would sincerely rejoice in seeing the union go forward on these lines because I know of nothing that requires more intelligent study than politics, and I know of nothing, on the other hand, more confusing than an attempt to mix student interest and study with active political manipulations. I mean by this that students in college ought to study anything, and that afterwards when they go into action as mature citizens their studies ought to have given them a more competent view of matters of action. But, on the other hand, if students are not patient to study but are carried away by partial views in the course of their studies so as to take a hasty action, they cease to become students at this point and become politicians. And I think that a man ought to be a student first and a politician afterwards, so far as college is concerned."

TWO 'GRAND HOTEL' STARS TOGETHER

In Eugene O'Neill's great drama of American family life, "Ah Wilderness!" currently showing at the Carolina theatre, Wallace Beery and Lionel Barrymore make their first appearance together since "Grand Hotel." Beery is seen as the good-natured inebriate, Sid, while Barry, more is cast as Nat Miller, head of the family.

Davenport Interviews

F. M. Davenport, chairman of the National Institute of Public Affairs, talked to 15 graduate students in sociology Tuesday afternoon concerning appointments to internship training in the federal government.

Thirty scholarships will be given to graduate students to take training school work during the academic year, 1936-37, as preparation for official positions in the government. The work includes assistantships to officials, discussions with legislators, administrators, and educators, and graduate students.

The law recognizes a certain degree of equality. All millionaires are treated alike.

ENGLISH SEMINAR

Dr. Y. Z. Chang will discuss "Burton and Temple on China's Political Institutions" before a seminar in 201 Murphey this afternoon at 4:00.

The exchange professor will analyze the observations on China by the two 17th-century men. The seminar is open for all interested English students and faculty members.

ERIC METZENTHIN

Eric Metzenthin left Chapel Hill Sunday morning for Knoxville, Tenn., where he begins work for the Tennessee Valley Authority. Since his graduation last June, Metzenthin has taken work in the geology department.

Latch is a much better man on defense. . . take your pick. Here-in lies the ball game; either man can win or lose the game tonight. On them rests the fate of the Big Five title. We still think that the White Phantoms are good to go, and pick them with a close victory margin!

Tomorrow night more than 55 young men will put on the gloves in the Southern Conference boxing tourney at Charlottesville. And once again, we must admit that the University of Virginia is conceded the edge with the best-balanced club in the family. . . although the Cavaliers will face plenty of strong individual competition from Carolina, Maryland, Duke, and Clemson.

The Tar Heel pugs, undoubtedly the hard-luck champs all season are due a reversal at the hands of Dame Fortune. We will pin our hopes on Captain Ernie Eutsler, "Tiger" Shores, Jack May, Joe Fisher, Frank Taylor, Max Novich, and Marvin Ray. We have that outside chance of winning the crown, and as the "dark horse" are liable to come through with flying colors. Good luck boys!

One way to tell a well bred lady is by the fact that she never shoots her husband unless she is drunk.

DANCE LEADERS

All junior and senior dance leaders will meet at 10:30 this morning in front of South building to have their pictures taken for the DAILY TAR HEEL.

SAND AND SALVE

By STUART RABB

BUFFALO BILL, THE SPY

Down in Dallas, Texas, the Bonnie Blue Flag chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy are on the war path. They are up in arms not against any living personality, but against that famous and intrepid old Indian fighter, Buffalo Bill.

It seems that Dr. Robert Harshe, a Yankee from Chicago, was commissioned to act as art director for the gigantic Texas Centennial to be held this summer. Yankee Harshe, ignorant of the great scout's insidious activities, arranged for a mounted statue of Bill to be displayed on the exposition lot.

Then it was that the Bonnie Blue Flag lassies of the U. D. C. delved into Bill's past history, charged that he was a Union scout without uniform during the Civil War—that he was a spy. Now the lassies claim that Bill would be "out of place" at the celebration.

Mr. Hearst, here is a chance to look into revolutionary and un-American activities. But you had better do your investigating by remote control. Those U. D. C. can strictly take you apart.

LUCKIES—A LIGHT SMOKE

OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO—"IT'S TOASTED"

Luckies are less acid

Copyright 1936, The American Tobacco Company

Recent chemical tests show* that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

*RESULTS VERIFIED BY INDEPENDENT CHEMICAL LABORATORIES AND RESEARCH GROUPS . . .

Over a period of years, certain basic advances have been made in the selection and treatment of cigarette tobaccos for Lucky Strike Cigarettes.

They include preliminary analyses of the tobaccos selected; use of center leaves; the higher heat treatment of tobacco ("toasting"); consideration of acid-alkaline balance, with consequent definite improvement in flavor; and controlled uniformity in the finished product.

All these combine to produce a superior cigarette—a modern cigarette, a cigarette made of rich, ripe-bodied tobaccos—A Light Smoke.
