NEW EMERSON FIELD

With the final completion of repairs now being made upon Emerson field, the University will have without a doubt the finest athletic plant in the south. During the past week, workmen have been tearing up the track which has encircled the field in order to make the former home of all Tar Heel athletics into a first class baseball park. The home plate is being moved farther back, thus making it practically impossible for a ball to be hit outside the park.

The change going on in old Emerson is synonymous of the progress of athletics here at Carolina. Ten years ago, football, baseball and track were all conducted within the confines of Emerson field with a seating capacity of about seven or eight thousand. The past decade has seen the completion of beautiful Kenan stadium, considered by many experts as one of the most beautiful stadiums in the country and the gigantic structure known as the Tin Can, home of Tar Heel indoor sports. Last year saw the completion of the only track stadium in the south. Fetzer field, and nearly a dozen fields for intramural play. With the complete renovation of old Emerson into a modern baseball park, the Tar Heel plant will vie with the best even in the nation.

The athletic facilities here are the best that one could ask for and should be attractive to new students who are considering coming to the University.

GREATEST NEED

When we look over the above athletic advantages, there is one thing that is lacking and that is a new up-to-date swimming pool. This we have needed for many years. This is a need that is being felt more and more as Spring arrives and warm weather is just in the offing.

Over at Duke and at State and every college of any size that is at least comparable to Carolina, there are beautiful swimming pools for varsity teams, for intramural competition and for general student use. At these places the tank teams have be-

TRACKMEN BEGIN WORK FOR W & M MEET NEXT WEEK

Tar Heels Seem to Have Edge Over Virginians by Comparative Dartmouth Scores

With the disastrous results of the dual meet with the Dartmouth Indians still lurking in their minds, the Tar Heel track team settled down to an intensive grind for the meet with William and Mary which will be held next Saturday.

The meet with the William and Mary tracksters is looked forward to as a breathing spell as compared to the other dual meets which are on Carolina's schedule.

W & M Weak

The Dartmouth Indians scalped the William and Mary tracksters last Saturday by the lopsided score of 122 points to 24. The results of Wednesday's meet with Dartmouth showed the final totals of: Dartmouth 87 1/4 Carolina 37 1/4. Taking the scores compiled by William and Mary and Carolina against their northern rivals, Carolina seems to have a slight edge.

The times of the two meets are another fact which seems to indicate that the Tar Heels should have little trouble in gaining a victory. Almost every track event Wednesday bettered the time which was recorded at William and Mary. An example of the difference in one of the times is shown in the mile which when run at William and Mary registered 4:46 while the mile Wednesday, on a comparatively slow track was run in 4:28.

MURAL NET TEAMS BEGIN PLAY TODAY

Tournament to Be Conducted in Manner of Bowling Murals

Intramural tennis receives its start this afternoon when the first of the opening round of matches are contested on the University courts.

The schedule as drawn up by Director Schnell finds 23 fraternity teams and 16 dormitory squads included in the lineup. First round matches find the following teams pitted against each other: Fraternity tourney: S. A. E. vs. A. T. O., Sigma No. 2, vs. Lambda Chi Alpha, Z. B. T. vs. Pi Kappa Alpha, Phi Gamma Delta vs. Phi Alpha, D. K. E. No. 1, vs. Phi Kappa Sigma, Chi Phi vs. Alpha Epsilon, Chi Psi vs. S. P. E.

Opening matches in the dormitory tournaments find all 16 teams getting into action. The draw is as follows: Ruffin No. 1, vs. Lewis, Mangum vs. Aycock No. 1, Steele vs. Everett, Manly No. 2, vs. Old East, Ruffin No. 2, vs. Grimes, Graham vs. Old West, Battle-Vance-Pettigrew vs. Law School, and Aycock No. 2, vs. Manly No. 1.

Nine fraternity teams received byes for the first day's play and will not get into action until the second round of play.

The tournament will be conducted in the same manner as the bowling murals with each team making arrangements with their opponents as to the time of play. A deadline for first round matches will be published in the DAILY TAR HEEL together with the drawings. There will be three singles matches and two doubles with the singles players ineligible to compete in the doubles matches thus making each team have seven contestants.

GOLFERS PRACTICE FOR V. P. I. MEET

Linksmen Begin Work After Dartmouth Victory for Unknown Gobbler Team

Fresh from a victory over Dartmouth in their first dual competition of the year, Carolina's golfers started practice for their next meet. They will engage V. P. I. here Tuesday.

After their win Wednesday by the score of 18-9, hopes were raised for another season like last year's when they won seven and lost four meets.

Strength Unknown

V. P. I. did not encounter Carolina last year, and so little is known of their strength.

Malcolm Grover and Ben Wyche, who turned in low scores for Carolina, should be watched because they are likely to receive a higher ranking against V. P. I.

Coach Chuck Erickson had not decided yesterday whether he would run another qualifying round or not. The session yesterday was devoted to individual practice. The course was wet, and so no one played a full round.

Co-ed Council Drafts Schedule For Sports

Women Students to Participate in Six Sports This Quarter

The Woman's Athletic council drew up the following schedule for women's sports during the spring quarter:

Tennis—Coaching class for girls who wish to improve their game meets on Monday and Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Margaret Jordan, manager.

Archery—Tuesday and Thursday at 2:30. Mary Henry, manager.

Baseball—Monday and Thursday at 4 o'clock. June and Jane Bush, co-managers.

Bowling—Tuesday night from 8 to 10 o'clock. Evelyn Barker, manager.

Ping pong—Tuesday night from 8 to 10 o'clock, Jo Oettinger, manager.

All girls who are interested in learning how to play golf will see Kay Quigley or Polly Pollock today. Dr. R. B. Lawson will instruct the class which will be limited to 12.

All co-eds interested in playing mixed doubles tennis games will sign either at the Shack or at the "Y."

Tar Heel Wrestler Places For Olympic Test At Lehigh

Ruled Ineligible for Carolina Varsity, Senior Gholson Puts on Steam to Win Two Titles in Recent Tournament at Davidson

Wilbur Gholson, Carolina wrestler, who has been ineligible during the past season entered the Olympic tryouts for this district and the Carolina A. A. U. wrestling tournaments which were held at Davidson during the spring holidays capturing the Carolina A. A. U. title as well as the Olympic tryout title in the 145-lb. class.

Leroy Blackwelder and Jim Hodgins of Davidson and Ralph Spencer of Barium Spring Orphanage also won both the Carolina A. A. U. titles and the Olympic tryout title.

The winners from this district are eligible to enter the final tryouts, along with the other district winners: the national collegiate champions, and the na-

PLAYGROUND BALL WILL BEGIN TODAY

Eight Teams Will Be Scheduled Daily as Mural League Gets Underway

Competition in the annual intramural playground ball will get underway this afternoon at 4 o'clock when Old West hooks up with Grimes, Lewis plays Manly, Z. B. T. stacks up against Pi Kappa Alpha and Phi Alpha meets Phi Kappa Sigma.

Eight games will be scheduled every day with each team meeting seven opponents and the victors will be determined on a won and lost percentage. Director Herman Schnell has issued the rules for participation in the contests to the managers of the respective teams. Four intramural fields will be open for participation and games will begin at 4 and 5 o'clock.

S. A. E. Defends Title

S. A. E. will assume the role of defending fraternity champions when play gets underway and should have a difficult time repeating with Chi Psi, D. K. E., and Sigma Nu among the opponents they will have to outscore.

In the dormitory division, an independent team, "The Ringers" came off with the campus championship. "The Ringers," composed of varsity footballers, behind the whirlwind pitching of Don Jackson, came through last year's season with an unblemished record. However, without the services of Jackson this year and with a new name, "The Monogram Club," "The Ringers" stand no better than an even chance to repeat.

This year's contests will be played under the same rulings as the previous ones with the exception that it will be run off in league fashion this year instead of tournament play. In contrast to the elimination with the first loss of last year, each team will contest at least seven games with the winner in each league meeting for the campus title.

Netters Meet Wake Forest Today; 'Cats Tomorrow

Game Cancelled

The scheduled baseball contest with the Michigan State nine yesterday was permanently cancelled because of the heavy downpour of rain which left Emerson field under several inches of water.

The Tar Heel diamond aggregation was all set to continue their victory march over the Spartan team until they were thrown out of commission by the work of Jupiter Pluvius. Practice will be continued as soon as the field is back in playing condition.

RAIN HALTS FROSH DIAMOND PRACTICE

Freshmen Begin Hard Work for Opening Tilt Thursday with Duke

Yesterday's heavy rain temporarily halted Coach James' efforts to find a starting nine for the freshman baseball team's initial game of the season, against the Duke freshmen Thursday.

As yet the squad has had but two practices under the tutelage of Coach James and much ground will have to be covered before the team can make a creditable showing on the diamond. Beginning with to-day's scrimmage the practice sessions will be long and arduous ones.

Nucleus

Although no definite opinion can be formed as yet, it appears as if first baseman Bissett, catcher Nethercutt, and second baseman Stoopack represent a good nucleus for the future freshman nine. Bissett, in particular, has the potentialities of a coming star: fast on his feet, steady, a good hitter, and an excellent fielder, he has the poise and ability of a seasoned player.

Nethercutt has thus far showed up as a dependable battery mate for any pitcher Coach James decides to place on the field. Redheaded Stoopack, the third of this trio, is light, but fast and handles the keystone bag in fine style.

The remainder of the squad have been scrambling hard for starting positions.

Playground Ball

4:00 O'clock
Fetzer field no. 1—Old West vs. Grimes.
Fetzer field no. 2—Lewis vs. Manly.
Fetzer field no. 3—Z. B. T. vs. Pi K. A.
Fetzer field no. 4—Phi Alpha vs. Phi Kappa Sigma.
5:00 Games
Fetzer field no. 1—Lambda Chi Alpha vs. Alpha Chi Sigma.
Fetzer field no. 2—Steele vs. Everett.
Fetzer field no. 3—Sigma Chi vs. Chi Phi.
Fetzer field no. 4—Graham vs. Battle-Vance-Pettigrew.

Tar Heels Favored To Take Both Tilts

Coach John Kenfield to Take Eight Man Team on Trip This Weekend

SCHEDULE IS UNCERTAIN

The net team will hit the road this weekend, facing Wake Forest and Davidson upon successive days. The Tar Heels travel to Wake Forest this afternoon for the fourth match of the season and will be found in Davidson, tomorrow.

Neither of these matches offer much competition to the powerful setup representing Carolina this year. Wake Forest, to be met today, shows a lack of strength and has already suffered a 9-0 defeat at the hands of State.

In all probability, Carolina will repeat their showings of last year when they shut out Wake Forest on both occasions.

Wildcats Unknown

Davidson is more of an unknown quality, boasting at present two victories, one over Mercer 9-0 and a 6-2 win over Rollins College on Tuesday. However, Davidson's strength has not been tested and Carolina promises to be much too impressive for the Wildcats.

Coach Kenfield is undecided as to the arrangement of the Tar Heel aggregation and will probably carry the full team of eight men to the matches. These eight about whom the varsity is not firmly built, are Potts, Fuller, De Gray, Shore, Henderson, Robinson, Foreman and Farrell. The schedule has not yet been fully mapped out for this season. There are still a few open dates and the managers are working to complete the list so that the schedule can be released.

The team took a deserving rest yesterday afternoon, being prompted by a downpour which thoroughly drenched the courts. Most of the players are in good condition and the team appears to be moving along in full stride.

ERICKSON TO ISSUE CALL FOR FROSH

Varsity Coach to Tutor Freshman Golfers Through Season

Varsity Coach Chuck Erickson will tutor the freshman golf team when the call is made sometime in the near future.

Coach Erickson has not issued a call for freshman golfers because he wants to get the varsity golfers off to a flying start.

Only six memberships are held by the University at the Hope Valley Country Club, and so the boys will be working under a handicap because they will be able to practice only on days when the varsity is on a trip and a few other times.

No schedule has been arranged to date, but Coach Erickson expects to play Duke, State, and other schools in the state.
