

BULLETINS

University Club—Tonight 7:15, Graham Memorial. All old members are urged to be present to make plans for banquet to be held weekend of Junior-Senior dances.

Phi Assembly—Meeting tonight, 7:30, New East. Carl Goerch to speak.

Inter-racial Staff—Third floor alumni, 2:30 p. m.

Anti-War Demonstration—Tomorrow 10:10 a. m., south side of South building.

Officers Training Course—First floor lecture room of New West, 10:30 a. m.

Di Senate—Meeting tonight, 7:15, New West.

Bull's Head—Dr. J. M. Booker to speak, 4 p. m.

Beer's Lecture—Hill Music hall, 8 p. m.

May Day Rehearsal—Graham Memorial lounge, 5-6 p. m.

Carolina Dames—Meet tonight at 8 o'clock in Graduate Women's club, 113 South Columbia street.

Business Manager Applications—Those applying for publications' business managerships are asked to get their applications to the P. U. board today.

Connecticut Club—Meets tonight in Grail room, Graham Memorial, 7:30. All members urged to be present.

Grail Dormitory Award Committee—Meets 7:30 tomorrow evening in Graham Memorial.

Tar Heel Business Staff—Very important meeting tonight at 7 o'clock in business office. All members must be present.

Bledsoe

(Continued from page one)

attacked by any foreign power. The Atlantic and Pacific oceans constitute impregnable natural barriers. Consequently any war we get in would be in Europe or Asia. There is no reason why we should give our lives for the sake of a few paltry dollars invested by financiers. Along with General Smedley Butler, greatest living soldier, I am proud to state that I for one, and I am of military age, will never shoulder a gun to march across the borders of the continental United States."

BULL'S HEAD READING

Dr. J. M. Booker will be the reader for the regular weekly reading in the Bull's Head bookshop this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Dr. Booker will read poetry from the pre-Raphaelite period. These readings are open to the public, and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

DUKE CONFERENCE WILL COME HERE FOR SHORT MEET

Session of Educational and Racial Group Here Today

The annual conference of the Division of Co-operation in Education and Racial Relations which met at Duke throughout the day yesterday is scheduled to journey here today.

The delegates will convene at the final session today in the conference room in the third floor of the Alumni building at 2:30. Dean Francis Bradshaw will preside.

The program this afternoon features the life sketches of five distinguished Negroes, the report of special committees on religion, and the activities of the various committees working on the inter-racial problem.

The conference this year has departed from the usual practice of many speeches, and the sessions are being broken up into discussion groups. Professor W. N. Hicks of State College and Dr. A. M. Arnett of the Woman's College are two of the prominent delegates connected with the University who have been chosen to lead the discussions.

UNC Delegates Will Attend Convention

Four Chapel Hill representatives will leave tomorrow for Charlotte to attend the seventeenth annual convention of the North Carolina Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Dr. Harold D. Meyer, sociology teacher; R. M. Grumman, director of the University extension division; and R. W. Madry, director of the University news bureau, will go from the University.

Mrs. William Olsen will be the town of Chapel Hill's delegate.

Dr. Meyer will lead a discussion on "Programs," and will also serve as a banquet toastmaster while at the convention.

Mr. Grumman will announce the annual summer parent-teachers institute to be held in Chapel Hill during August. Mr. Madry will lead a discussion on methods of publicity.

Phi

(Continued from page one)

from Winthrop Durfee.

This is the first visit that Goerch has made to Chapel Hill in several years. At the last Phi meeting Bob Browder made the motion that, since Goerch was well known for playing jokes on his audience, they surprise him by moving first, but as no trick could be definitely decided, the matter was dropped.

Loretta Young Gives A Party

The guests are getting together at Loretta Young's party in this scene from the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "The Unguarded Hour," now playing at the Carolina theatre.

AUDIENCE TO VOTE FOR BEST DRAMAS

Students Will Present Ten Plays During Coming Weekend

The Playmakers' spring tournament of new American plays will take place in the Playmakers' theatre Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights.

The program for Thursday night includes: Patsy McMullan's "Raise a Tune, Sister," Eleanor Barker's "Awakening," and Jean Walker's "An Orchid to You."

On Friday evening Mary Delaney's "Eternal Comedy," Charles Poe's "Hangman's Noose," and Gerd Bernhardt's "Hjemlenssel" will be presented.

The tournament will close Saturday night with the production of four Mexican plays by Josephine Niggl: "Sunday Costs Five Pesos," "Azteca," "Red Velvet Goat," and "Cry of Dolores."

The plays have been written and directed by students. The audience will be allowed to vote for the plays which it likes best, and the votes will influence the grades which the students receive for their writing, directing, and acting.

The admission will be 25 cents for each night's bill. Season tickets may be used for all performances.

Murals

(Continued from page three)

nine from the offerings of Canada. Old West bunched their hits in the second, third, and fourth frames to do all of their scoring in those three innings. The big guns in Old West's attack were: Erickson, Phillips, and Little.

D. K. E. returned to form after losing their first game to Lambda Chi Alpha last week, to pound out a 6-1 win over A. T. O. The first frame was scoreless, with both teams putting up some fine defensive play, but D. K. E. got started in the second and pushed across two runs which proved to be the margin of victory.

A. T. O. garnered their one and only tally in the fourth as they were held runless for the remainder of the game by hurler Morris of the Dekes.

Today's Schedule

4:00 Diamond No. 1. Phi Alpha vs. Beta Theta Pi. Diamond No. 2. Mangum vs. Everett.
5:00 Diamond No. 1. Lewis vs. Graham. Diamond No. 2. Chi Phi vs. Chi Psi. Diamond No. 3. Ruffin vs. Grimes. Diamond No. 4. Law School vs. Steele.

Dorm Nominations

Ten dormitories on the campus will hold meetings today for the purpose of nominating men for president and vice-president of their respective buildings for next year. Elections will take place Thursday.

Patronize Our Advertisers

The Informer

(Continued from page three)

Culley because "they enjoy seeing a combination of a tall blond player with one that is tall, dark and handsome." Those who remember Wilmer will not doubt the above quotation.

Game Gamecocks

Back to tennis . . . the South Carolina netters were all packed and raring to leave Columbia for their match with the Tar Heels. Much to their consternation they discovered that their prepared ride had failed to materialize and they had no means of transportation.

Necessity is always maternal and the six racquetters dug down deep and gathered together all of $25. A frantic search produced a 1926 Paige and away they rattled northward. For some reason the gears refused to shift at times and for yet more mystic reasons the car broke down three times.

They arrived in Chapel Hill just before match time, excavated their racquets from the junkpile, and plunged into action. After the sun had set and a 9-0 win was in the books for the Tar Heels, the Gamecocks clambered back into their pulsating iron beast and headed for Durham. On the night air drifted back their dependency—fate was cruel and the end never justifies the means.

Honor Report

(Continued from page one)

minority were heard. Both reports will be published in the DAILY TAR HEEL this week.

One student, suspended by the council last quarter, was reinstated last night.

Guest

The recently-elected council for 1936-37 was last night the guest of the retiring group. The new members, headed by President-elect Parker, will take office within two weeks.

In reporting the success of the trip to Memphis, Fairley stated that the University's five delegates were among the most heard-from of the 150 delegates there.

Fairley presided over the convention's discussion group on

NEW G. O. P. PROPAGANDA

Several Republicans must have escaped the awful debacle of 1932 because yesterday morning came a Buccaneer-sized magazine crimsonly entitled "The Trumpeter." An explanation inside says that it is the official organ of the Young Republican National Federation.

The enclosed letter uses a solemn and calamitous tone in urging young people to join in "saving the Government from . . . experiments in Socialism."

The humorous critical method used in poking at the New Deal is typical of the new type of Republican propaganda for 1936. Back in '32 the Republicans were very sad and quite too allegedly dignified to resort to wholesale humorous satire.

Many people will deplore the magazine's lack of constructive criticism and alternate suggestions. The answer is that it is well to know enough to get out of a shower of rain—even if we can't control the weather.

honor systems. At a joint meeting of the convention's three divisions—publications, women's student government, and men's student government—delegates from here explained the recent honor violation expulsions on this campus.

Other collegiate problems discussed at the NSFA meeting were intercollegiate athletics, fraternities, and financing of student activities.

Fairley, Parker, Jack Smith, Francis Anderson, and Marvin Allen, local delegates, were at the convention from last Wednesday until Saturday.

"It's time you traveled Tourist Class to Europe"

Cryptic is the Governor

What's behind that chuckle? Possibly he knows our Third Class is full and nimbly advances Tourist Class with college orchestras, to forestall your doubling-up with him in his Cabin Class castle on the BREMEN.

Or again, has he merely confused ship classes with scholastic standings and thinks Tourist Class is a step toward the testimonium sic cum laude?

Anyway, whatever he means, it's best to acknowledge that only last night you were discussing Tourist Class . . . And here's proof:

On the BREMEN and EUROPA in the height of season, Tourist Class is $136 up; on COLUMBUS, $124.50 up; Famous Four expresses NEW YORK, HAMBURG, HANSA, DEUTSCHLAND $117.50 up and on ST. LOUIS or BERLIN is $115.50 up.

Europa	June 21
New York	June 25
Columbus	June 27
Bremen	July 1
Hamburg	July 2
St. Louis	July 4
Europa	July 8
Hansa	July 9
Deutschland	July 16
Bremen	July 17
Berlin	July 18
New York	July 23
Europa	July 24

Last Sailing in Time for start of Xlth OLYMPICS

EDUCATIONAL SERVICE DEPARTMENT

A totally inadequate idea of the extreme luxury afforded in Tourist Class is conveyed by our profusely illustrated booklets, sent on request. For those considering study abroad there are also "The Guide Book for Study in Europe" and "Summer Courses Abroad," 1936 Editions. Consultations arranged.

Hamburg-American Line • North German Lloyd

C. & S. NATIONAL BANK BLDG., ATLANTA, OR YOUR LOCAL TRAVEL AGENT

Don't "FROLIC" With Long Hair
Have It Cut At CAROLINA BARBER SHOP

The Makes Of Shoes That You Find At Berman's Are:

Endicott Johnson	Buster Brown
Florsheim	Ball Brand
Crosby Square	Keds
Portage	Co-operative

And Several Other Nationally Advertised Brands

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL--

Full Dress Shirts	$1.98
Collars For Above	.25
Black Bow Ties (formerly 50c)	.39

A New Shipment Of All Types Of Wash Pants Are Now Available At Low Prices.

BERMAN'S DEPARTMENT STORE