NUMBER 150

Weil Lecture Series Will Start Tomorrow In Memorial Hall

Lectures Continue Through Saturday

Harvard Law Professor to Discuss Supreme Court and the Commerce Clause

SEMINAR ON SATURDAY

Weil Lecturer Felix Frankfurter, professor at Harvard law school, will open his discussion on the "First Hundred Years of the Supreme Court and the Commerce Clause" at 8 p. m. tomorrow in Memorial hall.

Frankfurter's lecture series will continue through Saturday. This "silent man" whom Mr. Hearst's New York American refers to as "the Iago of this Administration" has also been day we are faced with a quesprominent under Presidents tion of moral force, and not ma-Theodore Roosevelt, Howard terial force. Taft, and Woodrow Wilson. His self-appointed job of providing tude toward Germany, he said law offices in New York and that before Hitler there was Chicago, and also government much English popular opinion in offices in Washington, with a favor of Germany. continual supply of able young men from the Harvard graduating classes has been functioning for the last 25 years and has European war. If it were not only recently gained public attention.

Foundation

Professor Frankfurter is man in his early fifties, now teaching law at Harvard, where he himself graduated. He has played a vital part in the New Deal Administration, although General Johnson confirms the fact that he has had nothing to do with the establishment of the N. R. A.

The Weil lectures were permanently established as a foun-(Continued on last page)

BEERS DISCUSSES MENTAL HYGIENE

Prominent Author Advocates Mental Hygiene Clinics at Schools and Colleges

ed by Clifford W. Beers in an of the Woman's Association. address last night before terested in forming a neuro-psychiatric society in Orange and Durham counties.

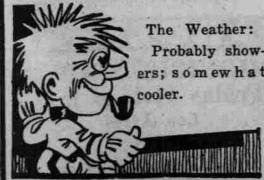

Beers was introduced by Dr. R. S. Crispell of Duke University, president of the Neuro-psychiatric Society. Earlier in the evening Dr. Augustus Rose of the medical school of this University spoke.

Wrote Famous Book

Mr. Beers is the author of "A Mind That Found Itself," the book which marked the beginning of the growth of modern (Continued on page two)

Gussie Guesses:

Mid-winter dances came near the end of March; May Frolics are set for the middle of April. Wonder when we'll have the Finals.

MORRIS DELIVERS SPEECH AT JOINT CABINET MEETING

British Student Discusses Current European Conditions

"The old Roman saying, 'if you wish for peace you must prepare for war,' will have to be done away with if we wish for security," stated F. G. Morris Monday night at the meeting of the upper 'Y" cabinets.

Mr. Morris, British Rockefeller foundation student, came to Chapel Hill in January and is making a study of historical geography.

Mr. Morris believes that to-

Speaking of the British atti-

Morris stated, "has, through its very existence, staved off an for the League, France would probably have issued an ultimatum to Germany to remove troops from the Rhineland with- figures released yesterday by in 48 hours. This would have meant war. Therefore the League serves its purpose by allowing hot blood to cool off."

Morris does not believe that the English are whole-heartedly behind a movement against Germany, but he does think that there is danger of propaganda that the countries should let by- the general college, and comgones be by-gones, get around a merce. Registration in the medtable and thrash things out, and ical school's division of public be willing to make sacrifices for health, which was organized in

Town Girls

That every institution of high- town girls tomorrow afternoon college, 648; commerce, 426 er learning should have a men- at 5 o'clock in the banquet hall graduate, 212; English, 112; tal hygiene clinic to which stu- of Graham Memorial, it was an- pharmacy, 102; law, 102; medidents, and faculty members too, nounced yesterday by Margaret cine, 66; public health, 52; libcan go was the opinion express- Jordan, newly elected president rary science, 33; public admin- the newly-elected officers of stu-

WEIL LECTURER

Felix France seems to fessor of law at the winintage University, who begins series of lectures on "The First Hundred Years of the Supreme Court and the Commerce Clause" tomorrow evening in Memorial hall.

"The League of Nations," Spring Quarter's Enrollment Drops C II C. Below Fall Figure

Spring quarter enrollment Ben Husbands, associate registrar, show a total of 2615 students now in the University.

This is an increase of 194 over the enrollment of the spring Many Additional Social Functions quarter of 1935, despite the loss 174 students through graduation and dropping-out since last fall.

Of the University's 11 schools, arousing them against Germany. the greatest number of registra-As his conclusions he stated tions are in the schools of arts. January under Dr. M. J. Rosenau, increased from four last quarter to 52 at present.

The enrollment by schools was There will be a meeting of the as follows: arts, 847; general istration, 16.

group, gathered in Hill hall, in- League Of Nations Conference Will Be Held Here Next Month

RACIAL RELATIONS GROUP MEETS HERE

Inter-racial Conference at Duke Has Session Here

The annual conference of the Division of Co-operation in Ed ucation and Racial Relations which convened at Duke University Monday, came to the Uni versity yesterday afternoon and met in Alumni building with Dean Francis F. Bradshaw presiding.

The program here consisted primarily of giving life sketches Columbia professor of history of five distinguished Negroes and the presentation of student representatives from various col-convocation were: N. C. State, League of Nations assembly at Elizabeth City State Normal Geneva. It was he who served School, East Carolina Teacher's as a co-author of the Treaty of College, State Normal School, Versailles. at Fayetteville, Duke, Shaw University. Woman's College of U. N. C., Agricultural and Techni- be Dr. Clark M. Eichelberger, cal College, Salem College, and field representative for the Winston-Salem Teacher's Col- League of Nations assembly.

Comer Announces Completea Plans for Event Here On May 10, 11, 12

Plans have been completed for by James J. Farley, LL.B. holding here on May 10, 11, 12, Conference on the League of class yesterday, including all the Nations and International Se-class presidents and many other curity, Harry F. Comer, chair- campus officers. man of the conference committee, announced yesterday. The conference is to be sponsored jointly by the University Y. M. C. A. and the Foreign Policy League.

Principal speakers for the event will be James T. Shotwell, and government, who is also president of the League of Nations association. Shotwell is said to be one of the advisors The colleges represented in the most often called upon by the Field Man.

Accompanying Shotwell will (Continued on last page)

TO BE PRESENTED THEATRE HERE

Playmakers Begin "Spring Play Tournament" in Theatre Tomorrow, Friday, Saturday

TEN DRAMAS TO BE GIVEN

Inaugurating a new type of entertainment, the Playmakers will present their "Spring Touranment of New Plays," tomor- plaque to the outstanding dormi- PANEL DEBATES TONIGHT row, Friday and Saturday even-tory, based on a system devised ings of this week at 9 o'clock in by the Inter-Dormitory Council. the Playmaker theatre.

Ten new plays, written, directed, and acted by students, will be given during the three days In he audiences will vote on their favorites.

Rivalry

"Seventy-five students have been rehearsing for the past three weeks," announced Professor Koch, "and have built up a strong feeling of rivalry, as each group desires to make the best impression on the audience."

Tomorrow evening the bill will include "Raise a Tune, Sister," by Patsy McMullan; "Awakening," Eleanor Barker; and "An mitory Council activity, individ-Orchid to You," by Jean Walk- ual council activities, scholarship

"The Eternal Comedy," by winner. "Hangman's Mary Delaney; Noose," by Charlie Poe; and "Hjemlengsel," by Gerd Bern-(Continued on page two)

OLSEN CONDUCTS

OFFICERS' CLASS

Newly-elected Officers Begin

Course in Parliamentary Law

And Procedure

In his class on parliamentary law and procedure, yesterday morning Dr. W. A. Olsen conducted a discussion on the order

Anti-War Demonstration Begins At 10:10 Today On South Building Steps

GROUP TO AWARD DORMITORY PRIZE

Interdermitory Committee Will Begin Selecting This Evening

Again this year, the Order of the Grail will award a The committee in charge of choosing the outstanding dormitory is headed by Fletcher Ferguson, secretary of the council

The committee also includes Roger Ginsberg, president of Lewis, Earl Connell, vice-presi dent of Manly, George Hux. president of Old East, George Leight, athletic manager of Lewis, and Allan Knott, president of Mangum. Knott was added to the committee this weekend by Chairman Ferguson.

A point system, which includes participation and efficiency in intramural athletics, Inter-Dor-

The committee will hold a meeting this evening Graham Memorial to begin work on the selection.

Minotaurs and Shieks to Have

Banquets: House Parties at

Three Fraternities

Saturday at the Washington

Duke hotel in Durham. Mem-dances in the set here.

is vice-president.

since that time.

afternoon, a formal dance that evening, another tea dance Sat-parties over the weekend.

Sophomores

are being planned.

Read To Preside Over Convocation: Comer.

Students, Faculty, Townspeople To Register Joint Protest; Classes Shortened

Whitten Are Speakers

In convocation on the back steps of South building at 10:10 this morning, the student body. faculty members, and townspeople of Chapel Hill will gather to register a protest against war.

All 9:30 classes will close at 10:10 by order of the University administration, and 11 o'clock classes will not begin until 11:20. in order to provide time for the speakers.

The convocation will be presided over by Nick Read, newlyelected president of the University Club and chairman of the anti-war committee. In case of rain, the mass-meeting will be held in Memorial hall.

Speakers

Speakers this morning are and many others, will decide the Harry F. Comer, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Charlie Poe, editor of the Carolina Magazine, Dick Whitten, of Commonwealth College, and Carolyn Winston, co-ed.

Placards and tableaux expressing antipathy to war will make their appearance at the Will Be Held During May Frolics anti-war strike. Contrary to previous announcement, there will be no parade.

In using the term "strike," the anti-war committee explain-(Continued on page two)

In conjunction with the annual set of May Frolics dances here Friday and Saturday, several additional social functions

A feature of the set will be Practice Begun for Gala May the luncheon dance at noon; Day Program to Take Place On Fetzer Field

The presentation of the Co-ed May Queen and Her Court, with tend the affair with their dates. the accompanying pageant and Clyde McCoy and his orchestra dances, will take place at Fetwill play for the luncheon dance zer field, May 15, at 4 p. m., as well as for the other four with approximately 100 girls participating.

Sigma Nu, Sigma Chi, and Practice for the affair was Beta Theta Pi are giving house begun yesterday.

The pageant to be given centers around the romantic figure The Order of the Minotaurs, of Robin Hood. Dances will be sophomore organization, will given by Robin Hood's merry hold its annual banquet Satur- men, milkmaids, and chimney day evening from 7:30 to 9 sweeps. In addition to the trao'clock at the Washington Duke. ditional May pole dance, a solo Both old and new members will dance will probably be given toattend the function with their gether with a dance of wood dates. A number of alumni will nymphs.

also be present. It is estimated In addition to pages, a jester that about 65 or 70 will be at and tumblers will be present to the banquet. Jimmy Coan is furnish amusement and enterpresident of the Minotaurs and tainment for the court.

Gene Simmons is vice-president. The peasants taking part will The Order of the Shieks will be members of the Glee club.

also give its annual banquet The part of Robin Hood will Saturday evening from 7:30 to be taken by Mary Lindsay. Mary 9 at the Carolina Inn for both Potts will be the court jester, old and new members and their and "T" Daniels and Fowler dates. Jim Finlay is president Spencer will take the part of of the Shieks, and Carl Jeffress pages.

May Queen is Hester Barlow. The dance set will include a Mary Pride Cruikshank is maid tea dance in the Tin Can Friday of honor.

The girls in the May pole dance will be: Lola Reid, Greturday afternoon and the final chen Gores, Marjorie Usher, formal dance Saturday evening. Betty Mansel, Nine Henderson, The May Frolics were organ- Elizabeth Williams, Ann Baker, ized in 1930 by seven frater- Maggie Moore, Kate Harrison, nities and have been a highlight Ruth Mengel, Annie Tucker, of campus social events annually Mary McKee, Irene Wright, (Continued on last page) of precedence of motions and bers of the seven fraternities sponsoring the dances will at-The class is held every morn ing at 10:30 for the benefit of dent organizations and fraternities, and is sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A., the Phi Assembly, and the Di Senate.

It is now concerning itself with the basic facts and definitions set forth in mimeographed copies of the "Digest of Parliamentary Law and Procedure,'

About 40 students attended the

Classes Shortened

"The students have artion in order to carry out their program. This has been granted. Time will be taken from 9:30 and 11 o'clock classes as follows: 9:30 classes will close at 10:10; 11 o'clock classes ranged a program dealing with war and peace and have asked for a convocawill begin at 11:20."

In order to allow time for this morning's anti-war demonstration, the 9:30 and 11 o'clock classes have been shortened by the administration. The Faculty Bulletin, issued from Dean R. B. House's office, says in part: