

DORM OFFICIALS TO BE INDUCTED TOMORROW NIGHT

Next Year's Dormitory Heads
Will Be Inaugurated; To Take Offices Next Fall

SEVERAL WILL GIVE TALKS

The inauguration program for the dormitory officers, elected April 24, will be given tomorrow night at 10 o'clock in Graham Memorial. Dean Bradshaw and Dean Hobbs will both speak at this meeting and President Frank Graham will probably have something to say pertaining to the new dormitory improvements also.

Dean Bradshaw said last year at an Interdormitory Council meeting, that a marked improvement would have to be shown in the dormitories this year. It is expected that some statement in regard to these improvements will be made by Dean Bradshaw at the meeting tomorrow night.

Nineteen Members

Nineteen new officers will be inaugurated, and will take office at the beginning of next year. Tom Bruce will be the future president of Old East and S. B. Bradley will be the vice-president.

In Steele, Ed Grant will take the presidential post and Glenn Hawfield will succeed to the vice-presidency. Manly' officers will be R. M. Browder, president, and Hugh Ellis, vice-president.

Mangum will have Allan Knott for president and Hall Conley

(Continued on last page)

STERN TO SPEAK HERE WEDNESDAY

Duke's Dr. William Stern Will Make Talk in German on Psychology.

Professor William Stern of the Duke department of psychology will lecture here this Wednesday evening in the choral room of Hill Music hall on "Schopenhauer and Nietzsche, Observations on Pessimism and Optimism."

The lecture is to be given under the auspices of the German department and will be delivered in German. The speaker has addressed many audiences in this country in the German language and is said to speak clearly and slowly so that students in German may follow him with ease.

FACULTY MEETING

There will be a general faculty meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting has been called by President Graham.

Gussie Guesses:

Tomorrow the Wolf will be at our door. Anybody
'fraid?

The Weather:
Tomorrow:
Possible showers,
continued high temperatures.

Mary Pride Cruikshank

Maid Of Honor For May Day Is Veteran May Pole Dancer

Mary Cruikshank, Who Will Be Featured at Coming May Day,
Opposes Freshman Co-eds

By RUTH CROWELL

Mary Pride Cruikshank, May Day's Maid of Honor, has seen May Day celebrated since she was "that high," according to her own vernacular.

Bay, as most of her friends call her, has lived in a girl's boarding school all of her life, at Saint Mary's in Raleigh, and at a school in Tennessee; and has been watching May Pole dances and coronations of queens since she was small enough to toddle out on the green.

Sociology Major

Bay is a senior and is majoring in sociology, but as yet has no definite plans about what to do after she receives her diploma this summer. She has been very active in campus life during her two years here, in spite of her assertion, "Nothing has ever happened to me; I have lived a very humdrum life."

"I have no favorite hobbies—I just dabble in a little bit of everything," Bay said and told that she played basketball, hockey, and tennis. She was an outstanding star on the Pi Beta Phi basketball team this winter and was one of the most vigorous players of hockey.

Campus Activities

She has been on the Woman's Council both years and was on the Athletic Council for one quarter. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Gamma, woman's honorary fraternity, and has been active in the work of Pi Beta Phi.

Bay is a determined advocate

(Continued on page three)

MAY DAY PLANS CALL FOR COLOR

Gala Fete Will Feature Brilliant
Coloring Effects in Arboretum Friday

Color will be the predominant note of May Day which will be staged in the arboretum Friday afternoon.

Queen Hester Barlow, dressed in white, will be surrounded by a court of ladies wearing pastel organdy gowns with contrasting trimmings. Maid of Honor Mary Pride Cruikshank will be dressed in blue, and all the court will carry nosegays of pastel colors.

Robin Hood's Men

Robin Hood and his men will wear the traditional Lincoln green costume with black boots and green caps. The milkmaids will dance in full skirted pink and blue dresses with white aprons, and to complete the costume will carry milk pails.

The May Pole dancers in yellow, orchid, orange, and green costumes will wind the yellow and green ribbons of the May

(Continued on last page)

LYSISTRATA HAS NEW TITLE ROLE

Elizabeth Farrar to Play Part of Lysistrata in Forest
Theater Production

Following intensive rehearsals in the Forest theater, the Playmakers' production of "Lysistrata" is gradually taking shape with a new leading lady, Elizabeth Farrar, in the title role.

Miss Farrar, a former Playmaker and the daughter of Dr. P. C. Farrar of the University faculty, for the past several years has been playing in stock companies. She recently came to Chapel Hill for a vacation and when requested to play Lysistrata, accepted.

The play, "Lysistrata," was written in 421 B. C. by Aristophanes in a last "half-farical half-tragic appeal" to stop war. Although it is an early propaganda drama, it is unlike similar plays today. It is comic in treatment, and its preaching is not too evident to spoil the audience's

(Continued on last page)

FETZER HONORED AT TRACK MEET HERE YESTERDAY

Dean House Dedicates "Fetzer
Day" Program to Coach Bob;
Ranson Also Honored

HAS ENVIABLE RECORD

By HERBERT H. HIRSCHFELD

"We honor him because we love him, and love him for himself as well as for the honor he brings us." These words were spoken by Dean R. B. House about Robert Allison Fetzer at the Navy-Carolina track meet yesterday which was dedicated to Coach Bob.

Navy won the meet 72-54, but there were plenty of honors for all, and the meet was a fitting one to dedicate to Coach Bob, for it was a hard fought one all the way through.

Complete Text

The complete text of Dean House's dedication of the day follows: "We want to take a moment to say officially what is already a matter of our common knowledge and enthusiastic opinion. We dedicate this occasion to Robert Allison Fetzer, track coach, director of athletics, member of the faculty of this university for fifteen years. His record testifies to his ability as a coach.

"Our record, and the truly

(Continued on last page)

Journalists

Any students interested in working on the DAILY TAR HEEL staff are asked to report to the managing editor Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. There will be a brief training course given for the remainder of this year. Those who show promise will be worked into the regular staff next fall.

Institute Speakers

Dr. Clark M. Eichelberger, left, and Dr. Grover Clark, who will speak here before the Institute on International Securities and the League of Nations meetings this week.

Grail Revises Rules For Dormitory Prize

Awards Night Plaque Will Be Given on Competitive Basis.

The Grail dormitory award, a plaque which is given each year on awards night to a dormitory, is to be given on a competitive basis this year.

A record of results will be kept and summed up at the end of the time given and the following things will be considered in making the award: intramural athletics, attitude in Interdormitory Council work and individual council work, dormitory cleanliness and physical damage done, and general conduct.

Eichelberger Opens Relations Conference In Address Tonight

Baritone

Dr. Sherman Smith, well known local baritone and research worker in chemistry at the University, who will give a concert in Graham Memorial this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

SMITH WILL SING TODAY AT UNION

Dr. Sherman Smith, Research
Chemist Here, to Give Program in Graham Memorial

Songs, ranging from "De Glory Road" to grand opera, will be included on Dr. Sherman Smith's program this afternoon at the 4 o'clock Graham Memorial concert.

Dr. Smith, baritone who is doing research work here in chemistry, will be assisted by Peter Hansen, pianist.

First Group

The first group of songs will include "Where e'er You Walk" by Handel, Schubert's "Der Lindenbaum," and Wolf's "Der Tambour." Following these Dr.

(Continued on page two)

"Problem of League" Is Subject for First Series Talk

LECTURE AT 8 O'CLOCK

Dr. Clark M. Eichelberger, director of the League of Nations Association of the United States will open the Institute on International Securities and the League of Nations tonight with a talk in Memorial hall on "The Problems of the League of Nations" at 8 o'clock.

This institute is being sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and the Foreign Policy League for the purpose of affording an opportunity for intelligent discussion of current international affairs and the means and value of international security.

Panel Session

Another feature of the institute will be the panel discussion tomorrow afternoon at 2 in Bingham hall, on the subject of "National Attitudes Toward the League of Nations." The discussion will be made up of 10-minute talks by several men who will each present the attitude of different countries in regard to the League.

Dr. Calvin Hoover of Duke University will give Russia's attitude; Dr. Grover Clark, eminent authority on the Far East and former editor of the daily "Peking Leader" will present the attitude of Japan.

Germany's Ideas

The opinions of Germany will be given by Dr. Herbert Von

(Continued on last page)

SINGERS TO GIVE THREE CONCERTS

Glee Club Will Present Three
Programs in Greensboro

The University Glee Club will give three concerts in Greensboro on May 26, one of which will be broadcast from WBIG.

The first concert is to be given in the afternoon at the Rotary Club luncheon. At 5 o'clock the group will broadcast by remote control from Odell Memorial auditorium at Greensboro college. The radio program will last half an hour.

That evening they will give a concert in the Odell auditorium at 8:30. This concert will be sponsored by the circles of the West Market Street Methodist Church.

Various civic organizations are widely advertising the concert, and because of the amount of publicity being given the group, a large audience is expected. Proceeds from the concert will be divided on a percentage basis.

The Glee Club is also being paid for the Rotary Club program and for the broadcast.

Peter Hansen, pianist, and Dr. Sherman Smith, baritone, are to be soloists for the Greensboro concerts.

On the following evening, May 27, the group will present the same program they are to give at their night concert in Greensboro, including numbers by the woman's group, the men's group, and the combined chorus.

Soloists for the Chapel Hill concert, however, will be Walter Vassar of the music department of Greensboro College, and Mark Hoffman, head of the music department there.