The... Informer

By Len Rubin

Speaking of Ramsay Potts: there is no taking a particle of glory from his recent conquest in the Southern Conference. That his play was superb is substantiated by the records. He did not drop a set in the entire tournament, only allowing Gordon Robinson to once come within calling distance. Gordy captured a 7-5 set after having absorbed a 6-0 love drubbing in the opening set. Ramsay played a total of 10 sets, eliminating such competition as Caton (Duke), Robinson, De Gray and Henderson. During this exertion he won 61 games and only lost 24. Summarizing that yet more, we see that Ramsay limited his opponents to an average of 2½ games per set. Not bad!

Speaking of that tennis final between Potts and Henderson on Saturday: we spotted quite a few notables mingling with the spectators; namely Dr. Archibald Henderson, Head Coach "Bear" Wolf, and President Frank Graham. We can easily understand why Mr. Henderson was present; we venture to say that Mr. Wolf had heard rumors of Archie Henderson's "constant plugging" and was scouting possible material to plug the '36 line; but we are unable to determine what was Graham's plan!

Speaking of Mr. Archibald Henderson, eminent mathematician and biographer: we are prompted to quote him. A few days ago after Archie had caused a stir at Pinehurst some weeks ago with a victory over Rainville, Canada's Davis Cupper, Dr. Henderson was heard to say, "All this publicity for Archie is doing me no good whatsoever. Previously Archie was referred to as Dr. Henderson's son, and now I'm being introduced as the father of Archie Henderson, the tennis player. Woe is me!"

And speaking of our new friend, Ray "Bear" Wolf: we can thank a bad "football knee" that we are fortunate enough to have him as a coach. The explanation is very simple: Ray was quite a baseball player in his day, captaining the Texas Christian University ball team, and was signed by the Cincinnati Reds immediately after graduation. He was farmed out and played two years of minor league ball. However, as mentioned, a bad "football knee" caused him to drop the diamond pastime and return to the gridiron—as a coach. See?

And not speaking of Coach Kenfield: we intend to mention him although he doesn't fall into the present scheme of discussion. We offer him our appreciation for refereeing at the conference tennis final. Coach mounted the pedestal (after tottering precariously on the way to the top of the high chair) and gave a splendid demonstration of how a mumbling score-caller should call the score.

JAMESMEN MEET DUKE BLUE IMPS THIS AFTERNOON

Yearling Nine to Play Last Game Under Coach James Today; Imps Favored

TO BEGIN AT 4 O'CLOCK

Duke's freshman baseball team comes to Chapel Hill today to act as a participant in a game which signifies two things—the final game of the season for the Tar Babies and the last game to be played by a Carolina team under the tutelage of Coach "Lefty" James. Play will start at 4 o'clock.

The Blue Imps have been installed pre-game favorites but the psychological advantage will be on the side of the Jamesmen. The Tar Babies are out to end James' coaching career in glory, maintain their three game winning streak, and atone for the two previous defeats at the hands of Duke.

Powerful

The visitors, though, have a very nice 11 game winning streak of their own to maintain and do not intend to have it broken at this stage of the season.

Their club, led by Bergman and Truesdale, has played consistently good ball and should prove to be a mighty tough obstacle for the freshmen to hurdle.

Improved

On the other hand the Tar Babies have come a long way in their last four games. Just now they are about at their season's top form. The fielders have lost their error-making inclinations, the pitchers have come through nicely, and the hitting has been almost up to par.

Thus, to all appearances, the two teams are as evenly matched as possible. The score might be large, but the game will be a close one with the issue being decided in the closing innings.

Cahill, Duke's star pitcher, will start on the mound for the Blue Imps. For the Tar Babies Coach James will use either Watson or Davis.

MURAL NET PLAY CONTINUES TODAY

Four Courts Reserved for Mural Tennis Players

The intramural athletic department has reserved four clay tennis courts for every afternoon until both the fraternity and dormitory tournaments are completed. These are courts numbers 9, 10, 11, and 12.

The courts will be reserved from 2 to 6 o'clock each afternoon. Three singles and two doubles make up a match, all the games in one match being played on the same court.

S. A. E. AND BETA ENTER PLAYOFFS

Fraternity Teams to Determine Ruffin's Opponent in Campus Championship Tilt

S. A. E. and Beta Theta Pi yesterday qualified to enter the fraternity playoffs in the intramural playground ball league when they defeated their respective opponents, Pi Kappa Alpha and Sigma Nu.

S. A. E. will meet the Beta's this afternoon at 3 o'clock to determine the fraternity champion as these two are the only fraternity teams that have completed the regular schedule without a defeat.

Betas Win

Sigma Nu and the Betas clashed yesterday to determine which team would enter the playoff and the Beta's returned the victors by an 11-3 count. The hurling of Beta George Watson featured the defensive play as he set down Sigma Nu with but four hits while his opposing hurler, Bost, yielded ten.

A seven run rally in their last turn at bat enabled the Beta's to cinch the game after Sigma Nu had made a determined bid to

Close Competition Marks Southern Conference Track Meet; Showings of Carolina's Track and Field Men Worthy of Praise

By TOM HAWTHORNE

In the conference meet this past weekend there was probably the closest competition in the individual events that there has been since the forming of the new conference, not only in the events but in team competition.

Duke was far ahead but Carolina and Virginia had it nip and tuck with the outcome being Carolina 34 1-2 to Virginia's 31 2-3. Then came a fight for fourth between Clemson, V. P. I., Maryland and V. M. I., whose scores ranged from 22 1-2 to 18. With the enlargement of the conference next year the team scores should be hotly contested.

Leads in Running

In the running events Carolina can claim superiority since she led with 28 points. Duke scored 24 points and Virginia scored 23 points in the running events. Duke scored 44 1-3 points in the field events, 14 of which came from the broad jump.

In the two mile run Jones, Haywood, and Daniels ran their best races of this season to score eight points for Carolina. Bill Daniels was certainly one happy boy. At first it seemed that he was not in the race but Bill knew what his pace was and after the first mile he began to pass the field in front of him. Bill's determination far surpasses the majority of Carolina field men's capabilities.

Sprints

In the sprints Earl Connell deserves a hand for the swell 220 he ran Friday. Not conceding a chance of qualifying he ran approximately 21.4 sec. Jim Finlay is another boy who came through for Carolina scoring four points with fourth place in both the 100 and 220. The difference between first and fourth was not much in those races Saturday.

Co-captain "Red" Drake got revenge on the boys who had been beating him by about six inches this season but a new boy from Maryland stepped into the picture and defeated ole'

Red by about six inches. It seems that Drake will have to get satisfaction from the wonderful races he has run this season and not from scoring first places.

It is not a disgrace to lose to such fine runners as Mothershead and Headley in the mile. Gammon ran a fine race, made his bid for first, and lost. Gammon was in excellent condition and emerged from the race in better condition than either of the others. It seemed that he would surely be the favorite to take the 880, and why he didn't is hard to understand but that is the way track goes.

In the race Headley, the favorite, dropped out and St. John unexpectedly beat Mothershead as Gardiner made his bid for first too late and nosed out Gammon for third.

Pole Vault

In the vault Carolina can feel proud of MacDonald and Dudley who did their best of the year and yet failed to place. Dick Bear really did himself proud as he cleared 12 feet 6 inches to give Carolina 3 1-2 points in an unexpected tie for second place.

Ed Juliber showed signs of finding himself in the shot put as he got off a throw over 44 feet that equals his distance of last year as a freshman. Juliber was fourth, in front of his teammate Tom Evins.

In the relay Carolina did not show as well as expected. Ullman and Farmer ran excellent races but the exchanges of the baton were very poor causing Carolina to lose inexcusable ground.

In the special events Carolina men showed that the Olympic team will probably be honored with their presence. LeGore got off the excellent throw of 212 feet but still in warming up he threw further. Harry Williamson ran a minute 23.2 seconds of the 880 meters which seems to be the fastest in the country so far this year. Harry's first quarter was 53.8 which is exceedingly fast.

Rally In Fourth Inning Brings Close Win To Hearnmen

NEXT GAME HERE

By E. L. PETERSON

After the strong Duke nine had led 3-1 for the first three innings, Carolina put on a strong fourth inning rally to score four runs and then scored two in the sixth to win their first game from the Blue Devils in two years by the score of 7-6.

Although the team made six errors, John Humphries, Carolina's star sophomore pitcher, pitched good ball all the way through the game. He gave up eight hits and five bases on balls but he struck out seven men to keep them under control.

He registered his first two strike outs as he fanned "Ace" Parker the first two times at bat.

Triple

Burnette singled in the fourth, Bullard flied out to right field, Strayhorn and McCarn were given bases on balls, then Shapiro hit a triple to score the three men on bases. Shapiro came home on a wild pitch to score the fourth run.

After Strayhorn had hit a double in the sixth and reached third, Groome singled. The Tar Heel catcher stole home after Groome had stolen second. Groome scored the second run of the inning as Montgomery collected his second hit of the afternoon.

"Pete" Naktenis, Duke's star pitcher who had lost but one college baseball game until yesterday, was knocked from the box in the fifth inning. Three other pitchers were used during the game including Barley, who is scheduled to pitch in their game here tomorrow in the final match of the season.
