

CAMPUS LEADERS TO TELL NEW MEN ABOUT ACTIVITIES

"College Night" Program to Be Held in Memorial Hall Tomorrow Night

OPEN TO ALL FRESHMEN

New University students will make their first acquaintance with campus activities in Memorial hall tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Setting a precedent in the "College Night" program, which is given for freshmen every fall, Pete Ivey, director of Graham Memorial, will introduce campus leaders not only to first-year men but also to transfer students and to new coeds.

Coeds Participate

Because of a time conflict tomorrow night, University coeds will present their stunt night program in collaboration with regular "College Night." The new women students have been divided into groups, according to Nancy Smith, head of the coed part of the program. Each section has a group leader, who will direct the activities of her group in the program tomorrow night. Songs and short skits will make up a part of the stunt night feature.

John Parker, president of the student body, will begin the evening's activities with an introduction of Pete Ivey as master of ceremonies. Among the campus heads who will be present are:

John Parker, student body president; and George MacFarland, president of the Y. M. C. A.;

Jim Daniel, editor of the Carolina Magazine; Julian Bobbitt, editor of the Buccaneer; and Henry Lewis, editor of the Yackety Yack, University year book;

Jim Finlay, president of the Order of the Grail; Nick Read, president of the University club; and Van Webb, president of the athletic association;

Mamie Rose McGinnis, president of the Y. W. C. A., and Margaret Jordan, president of the woman's association.

Professor W. A. Olsen, head of the University debate council, will make an address.

POPINEAU TO GIVE T. B. TESTS HERE

State Sanatorium Physician Will Make X-Ray Examinations of Students

Dr. Popineau from the State Sanatorium will be at the infirmary this week through Saturday, holding a clinic to test students for tuberculosis.

It is very desirable that all students who have had positive tests in the past have another x-ray examination made to check on the condition of their lungs, says Dr. Berryhill, University physician.

Dr. Berryhill also advises those students who in the past have had tests with negative results to have their tests repeated to make certain their condition is still negative. Students, particularly seniors and graduate students, who have had no "T. B. tests should not miss the chance to have a free test made.

The State Sanatorium is furnishing the x-ray examinations at cost which amounts to a dollar. Students having an x-ray examination made are requested to bring their dollars.

Graham Memorial Is Focal Point For Orientation Week Activities

Many and Varied Are Student Union Facilities

Houses Student Activities

By PETE IVEY
(Director, Graham Memorial)

Freshmen are cordially invited to make use of their student union building, the Graham Memorial.

Called "the social and activity center of the campus," the Graham Memorial building is the newest structure on the campus, and is well equipped to take care of leisure time of the students.

There is a large main lounge used for a reading and reception room and at times for lectures, musicales and entertainment programs. A banquet and small dance hall is on the second floor. There are other lounging and reading rooms.

Game Rooms

The game rooms, with the pool tables, ping-pong tables and bowling alleys in the basement, are operated by student labor and a nominal fee is charged for the use of playing in those rooms to pay for the labor and upkeep of the equipment.

Offices of all the student publications are in Graham Memorial, and several other organizations have quarters there, including the offices of the department of athletics.

All students are members of the student union. Their membership fee is included in the registration.

Churches Will Hold Open Houses Friday

Baptist, United, and Methodist churches will open their houses Friday night to entertain new men in the annual freshman church receptions.

The Baptist and Methodist churches have set their socials for 8 p. m. The United church affair will be at 7:45 p. m. in the "Hut," behind the church on Cameron avenue.

The United church invites all freshmen connected with the Christian, Congregational, Disciple churches.

The Episcopal, Presbyterian, Catholic, and Jewish socials will be held later this month.

Dean Spruill Extends Welcome To Incoming Freshman Class

General College Head Believes in Developing Well-Rounded Students

By C. P. SPRUILL
(Dean, General College)

With more than a million young Americans this fall, you are entering or returning to college. We are glad that you have come to Chapel Hill.

Do you know just what is the education you seek? Plutarch believed that "The very spring and root of honesty and virtue lie in the felicity of lighting on good education." Henry Adams, a cultivated member of an historic American family, was less confident, although he sought good education all his life. Regarded by contemporaries as an able student of medieval history, he taught that subject at Harvard College for seven years and then did something almost unique. He resigned because he felt that in the prevailing system he did not know enough to go on. Twenty years more of the quest in Washington, Boston and the centers of power and

BALL SCHEDULED FOR NEW COEDS IN UNION LOUNGE

First Year Women Students to Be Entertained at Dance Saturday Night

Women students who are enrolling in the University for the first time this year will be entertained at a ball in Graham Memorial Saturday night.

It will be the first time there has been a dance in the main lounge of Graham Memorial in four years. The lounge has been withheld from such general use, and it is only because of this particular occasion that the Board of Directors of the student union is permitting the use of the lounge for a dance. It has been called "the most beautiful room south of Washington."

Invitations

Special invitations are being sent to men students, giving them the opportunity of taking the new coeds to the dance. A

ADVISORY BOARD TO AID NEW MEN IN ALL PROBLEMS

Faculty Advisers Try to Know Each Freshman on Personal Basis

CONFER WITH PARENTS

Giving his view on the aim of the student and faculty Advisory Board, Chairman C. P. Spruill says that "we try to know each member of the group on a personal basis and help them in adjustments to campus and curricula."

"We confer with," he continued, "and write to parents, especially at mid-terms and after final exams. We are available," he pointed out, "to help the student get medical, vocational, instructional or other assistance that he may need."

Questions

Explaining for the benefit of freshmen, he said that they should see their advisor about the program of studies, registration, changes in courses, instructional difficulties and opportunities, and personal questions about which he wishes information or advice.

"Facilities for taking care of this service," he said, "include a desk and file space, one secretary in the office and a good deal of part time help. The files contain high school and placement tests, and also independent statements from other sources. Much help comes from dormitory advisers and upperclassmen who serve as counselors," he concluded.

The following is a list of the faculty advisers now available to new students, and their departments: Mr. I. C. Griffin, Jr., vocational placement in Memorial hall; Mr. M. A. Hill, mathematics in 103 Bingham; Mr. Cecil Johnson, history in 206 Phillips; Mr. E. L. Mackie, mathematics in 108 Bingham; Mr. G. B. Phillips, education in Davie hall auditorium; Mr. C. P. Spruill, economics in 216 Bingham; and Mr. W. S. Wells, English in 111 Murphy.

Car Hits Woman

Creighton Humphreys of Chapel Hill, 25, struck Goldie Webb, young Chapel Hill Negro woman, with his automobile in front of Mrs. Fred Patterson's home on Franklin street about 7:30 last night. She was not seriously injured, according to the statement of an attending physician.

Witnesses to the accident said that the girl ran suddenly in front of Humphrey's car as she crossed the street, threw up her hands and shrieked as the car approached. The car, it was said, had almost come to a stop when the girl was hit.

Goldie Webb has been a house maid at Spencer hall, coed dormitory, for several years. She was going home from work when the accident occurred.

Yellsters To Meet

Hoge Vick, head cheer leader, announces a special practice rally for the new men in Memorial hall, 5 p. m. Saturday.

Coach Wolf To Make Principal Talk of Evening

Jimmy Fuller Is Music-Maker

Between 650 and 700 freshmen are expected to attend their first class smoker tonight at 8:30 in Swain hall, and to participate in a program marked by short speeches, plenty of refreshments, and "all kinds of cigarettes," according to Nick Read who will act as toastmaster.

The smoker is being sponsored for the first year men by the University club of which Read is president, and will bring together an assortment of campus leaders, the music of Jimmy Fuller and his orchestra, and ice cream, cake, and punch.

Coach Wolf

As principal speaker of the affair, Raymond "Bear" Wolf, University varsity football coach and formerly of Texas Christian, is expected to give a few sidelights on football prospects this year.

Other speakers on the program are George MacFarland, president of the Y. M. C. A.; Van Webb, president of the athletic association and gridiron star; Jim Finlay, president of the Order of the Grail and captain of the track team; Niles Bond, president of the senior class; John Parker, president of the student body; and "Pete" Ivey, director of Graham Memorial.

Song sheets containing the words and music of University football songs and the alma mater, "Hark the Sound," will be sold at the smoker for 10 cents per copy. The freshmen will take the first steps in learning the University songs at that time with Fuller furnishing the music.
