'THE DRUNKARD' FEATURES FIRST PLAYMAKER BILL

Newcomers Are Listed In Leading Roles Of Production

Opening Thursday evening, October 22, the Carolina Playmakers are presenting a revival of "The Drunkard," or "The Fallen Saved," with a cast of 28 people from all parts of the country, many of them newcomers to Chapel Hill.

Playing the role of Miss Wilson, a sweet girl, is Marion Hartshorn from Georgia. Mrs. Wilson, her mother, is being played by Nancy Schallert of Winston-Salem, while Christine Maynard will be seen as Julia Middleton.

Robert Nachtmann, a veteran Playmaker from St. Louis, who has recently returned from a five months' engagement with the Globe theater at the San Diego exposition, is cast as Lawyer Cribbs, a heartless villain.

Edward Middleton, a gentleman, will be played in this production by Bob du Four of Pleasantville, New York, who has been with the Playmakers for the past two years.

Newcomers

Coming to the Playmakers from W. C. U. N. C. in Greensboro is Eloise Banning who will play Miss Spindle, an old maid. Miss Banning has for two years been connected with the Play-Likers in Greensboro.

Playing Bill Dowton, Edward Middleton's foster brother, tried and true, is Samuel Hirsch of Trenton, N. J., while Madeline Haynesworth will be in the role of Agnes Dowton, a poor crazed lass, Bill Dowton's sister. Miss Haynesworth is from Greenville, S. C.; a transfer student from Winthrop College.

UNION WILL HOLD TEST VOTE SOON

Straw Ballot Will Show Presidential Choice

Student political preference will be tested next week by the Carolina Political Union in a straw presidential ballot.

Located in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. building will be ballots for the Democratic, Republican, Socialist, Communist, and Unionist parties, according to Carl Jeffress, of the union.

Local Interest

The straw vote will be another form of political activity by the union this fall. It will be taken purely for local interest.

Other programs planned by the group include addresses by Charles Spargo, one time secretary of the Socialist party, and Representative Bob Doughton.

Police Warning

Chapel Hill police yesterday warned that they are placing particular emphasis on the traffic situation in Franklin street and the business section. The officers are warning violators of the 20-mile-an-hour speed law in the business section and will enforce strictly the two-hour parking limit. Several students have been reprimanded lately in this campaign. A check-up is being made on student and Chapel Hill registration plates as well.

Fashion Show Sponsors

LAWYERS FAVOR NEW AMENDMENT

Law Faculty Endorses Enlarged Court

Dean M. T. Van Hecke announced yesterday that the faculty of the law school at Chapel Hill had unanimously endorsed the proposed constitutional amendment increasing the membership of the Supreme Court and authorizing it to sit in divisions.

Those who signed the resolution include: M. S. Breckenridge, Albert Coates, Frank W. Hanft, Fred B. McCall, A. C. McIntosh, D. W. Markham, John B. Mulder, M. T. Van Hecke and R. W. Wettach. Mr. James H. Chadbourne is absent on leave this year, teaching at the law school of the University of Pennsylvania.

Comments

In commenting upon this action, Dean Van Hecke expressed regret that the 1935 General Assembly had not salvaged more of the judicial article of the ill-fated constitutional revision of 1933, which would have authorized additional Superior Court judges, separate solicitor districts, executive control by the Chief Justice of the work of the Superior courts, control of trial court procedure through judicial rule making, and which would have abolished the constitutional necessity for the Justice of the Peace.

Dr. Rosenau Speaks To Scientific Group

Members of Elisha Mitchell Society Hear Discussion of Flu

Dr. M. J. Rosenau spoke on "Epidemics of Influenza" at the meeting of the Elisha Mitchell society Tuesday night. Dr. Rosenau stated that he believed medical science to be on the threshold of discovering the cause and a means of prevention of influenza.

The way in which explosive epidemics of influenza spread and experiments performed on humans with the disease were outlined by Dr. Rosenau.

Many new members from both the student body and faculty were accepted into the society last night.

The meetings of the Elisha Mitchell society will be held throughout this scholastic year on the second Tuesday of each month.

FRATERNITY BIDS TO ARRIVE TODAY

Clark Warns That All Were Not Mailed

After the mailman calls around at the dormitories today, freshmen will be pulling out cards inviting them to become members of their favorite fraternities.

Henry Clark, president of the Interfraternity council, again urges that all rushees who have reasonable rights to expect invitations and do not receive them to consult the master bulletin in Pete Ivey's office in Graham Memorial sometime today between 1 and 2 o'clock.

Avoid Conflict

Clark requests all fraternities to refrain from scheduling pledge parties or suppers for Monday night because of the freshman social being sponsored at that time by the Freshman Friendship council.

All new pledges are asked by Clark to bring a dollar for the Interfraternity fee when they report at Graham Memorial for their bids.

Education Teachers To Represent U.N.C. In Asheville Today

Five Meetings will be Held in North Carolina Towns

Dr. E. W. Knight and Guy Phillips will represent the University department of education at a series of six district meetings of the North Carolina Education association.

The series will commence in Asheville today, and Dr. T. S. Howard of the English department and Mrs. Grover Beard, along with Dr. Knight and Mr. Phillips, will speak as representatives of the University. Dr. Knight will lead a panel discussion, Mr. Phillips will speak on "Interpreting the Schools to the Owners," Dr. Howard will discuss "Freshman English Failures of College Students," and Mrs. Beard will speak on "Physical Education."

The meetings, which will continue for five consecutive weekends, will be held in High Point, Charlotte, Raleigh, Fayetteville, and Greenville.

Gridgraph

A gridgraph report of the Carolina-N. Y. U. game will be given tomorrow at 2:30 in Memorial hall. Admission will be 25 cents.

CAST FOR STYLE PAGEANT CHOSEN

Seventy People Slated To Take Part

The cast for Alpha Kappa Gamma's fashion show was drawn up yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the fraternity and scene directors, with 40 girls and 30 boys slated to take part.

The show, which will be given the nights of October 29 and 30, is a pageant of American dress styles, depicting fashions of 1776, 1860, 1880, 1900, and 1936. The Betsy Ann shop of Chapel Hill is securing period costumes to be worn in each scene from a firm in New York. Music and dances representative of each period will give atmosphere to the entertainment.

Style Show

Following the pageant, a modern style show will be held with 10 of the campus' most beautiful coeds displaying fall fashions. Elizabeth Keeler as Dame Fashion will review the show.

Each of the five scenes is being handled by an organization. Directors of these are Mamie Rose McGinnis for the Y. W. C. A.; Alice Eidson, town girls; Helen Pritchard, Pi Phi; Virginia Burd, Spencer hall; and Betty Stevens, Chi Omega. Announcement of practice will be made later.

Cameron Discusses Wastes In Industry At A.I.C.E. Meeting

Talk Outlines Problems for Researchers in Chemistry

"Textile Waste Treatment and Recovery" was the topic chosen by Dr. F. K. Cameron, who spoke at the regular meeting of the student chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers held Tuesday night in Venable hall.

Dr. Cameron's talk outlined the problems to be investigated by the researchers in the chemistry department. Funds for this work are being supplied by the textile foundation.

"The big problem to be solved," stated Dr. Cameron, "is what is to be done with the industrial wastes now being dumped into our streams. These wastes are objectionable to the populace and detrimental to fish."

Random Interviews Show Varied Opinions About Delayed Rushing

Three Fraternity Men Favor The New System and Four Oppose It

Seven men picked at random from various fraternities at Chapel Hill gave varying opinions when questioned yesterday about the new system of delayed rushing being used for the first time at the University.

"The disadvantage in delayed rushing lies in the fact that it interferes with the work of all concerned," asserted Jim Finlay, Delta Kappa Epsilon. "It would be better to rush at the beginning of the year before students have had time to get settled down to their work."

Lewis' Opinion

Henry Lewis, Alpha Tau Omega, believes that "the new system hasn't accomplished much and is a little tiring. It interferes with everybody's work. We should revert to the old system without the afternoon hours," he concluded.

New Hygiene Group Draws Constitution And Selects Officers

Society Organized to Prevent Mental Disorders and Defects

A meeting of the executive committee of the newly organized North Carolina Mental Hygiene society was held in New West recently.

This meeting was called as a result of an action passed by the preliminary organization meeting which was held in Charlotte last spring.

Dr. Ernest Groves, as temporary president, and Dr. H. W. Crane, as temporary secretary, presided over the meeting. A constitution was adopted, and a slate of officers was drawn up, both of which will be presented to the society in its January meeting at Raleigh.

Dr. Allyn Chote, of Charlotte, was elected temporary vice-president.

Purpose

The temporary constitution states that the purpose of the society is "to work for conservation of mental health to help prevent nervous and mental disorders and mental defects." The society also plans to raise the standards of the care of such cases.

Those in attendance at the meeting were Mrs. Herbert Bluenenthal of Wilmington; J. H. Bradley, Duke; Senator W. C. Clark, Tarboro; N. E. Edgerton, Raleigh; Dr. W. R. Stanford, Durham; Dr. F. M. Register, Winston; Dr. M. E. Goudge, Durham; and Mrs. Ernest Hunter, Charlotte.

Miss Griffey Gives Assembly Program

Freshmen Applaud Brilliant Violin Recitalist and Senior

Opening her program with "Andantino," by Kreisler, Miss Genevieve Griffey gave a violin recital yesterday morning in freshman assembly.

During her second number, "Andante," by Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, Miss Griffey was interrupted by the applause that followed her brilliant execution of an intricate part of the melody. Her program was closed with "Gypsy Air," by Sarasate. Wilton Mason, a senior in the music department, accompanied the violinist.

UNIVERSITY BAND WILL BROADCAST FROM NEW YORK

Carolina Spirit Program To Go Over WABC Tomorrow

"Hark the Sound," Tar Heels, when the University band broadcasts over the Columbia network from WABC, New York, tomorrow at noon. Performing in Columbia's West 45th street playhouse, Carolina's varsity band of 72 pieces will feature the songs and cheers of the University.

The invitation for the band to go over the air was secured by W. D. Carmichael, Jr., a Carolina alumnus.

Program

Opening the program with "Hark the Sound," Mr. Slocum, the band's director, will then lead the band through the following numbers: "Entry of the Gladiators," Fucik; a modern rhapsody, "Headlines," Carleton Colby; "His Honor March," Filmore; "Tar Heels on Hand"; a group of cheers led by Hoge Vick; and in conclusion, "Hark the Sound" and "Tar Heel Born."

During the past week the band has been rehearsing two hours every day in order to assure a perfect performance in New York. Afternoon drills in marching were held in Kenan stadium, while music rehearsals were held each evening in Hill Music hall.

The band will leave Chapel Hill tonight with the team. Special busses will meet the band in New York and take the members to the Croydon hotel where dressing rooms have been reserved. A rehearsal will be held in the CBS theater an hour before the band goes on the air.

BOARD SANCTIONS EXCHANGE OF ADS

Tar Heel, Herald-Sun To Cooperate

For probably the first time in its history the DAILY TAR HEEL is actually being advertised just as other products that it advertises.

Under a joint agreement with the Durham Herald-Sun papers, which was officially sanctioned yesterday afternoon by the Publications Union board, the campus daily will periodically advertise that paper in its columns, and at the same time be advertised in Durham.

More Ads

Business Manager Eli Joyner, creator of the arrangement, plans to use his free space to appeal to Durham business men for more advertising in Chapel Hill.

The Publications board decided not to allow the DAILY TAR HEEL sports staff an allowance for trips to out-of-town events.

Other business of the meeting included tentative approval of two special issues of the DAILY TAR HEEL during the next two weeks.

First Buccaneer

According to a statement issued by Julian Bobbitt, editor of the Carolina Buccaneer, the first issue of the campus humor magazine will be out some time during the coming week.

Among other features the Buccaneer will contain a biography of Kay Kyser.
