Deaclets 19 to 7 in the first game of the season.

Material

Save for the starting lineup, however, the coaches have little available material at hand. The reserves are exceptionally light in most cases, and the general level of the players is thought to be much lower than in years past. The line will average 180 pounds at the opening of the game, but substitution will lower the figure considerably. The starting quartet in the Tar Baby backfield will average around 170.

Walter Clarke, a second-string back will likely see much action in the role of a kicker, as Soufas, the only other punter available gets only fair yardage. Meighan is expected to be the most effective blocking back, and Soufas and Radmon will share the passing and running duties.

Good breeding is the result of much good sense, some good nature, and a little self-denial for the sake of others, and with a view to obtain the same indulgence from them.—Chesterfield.

Negro Night School Opens Here Tuesday

University Students will Teach
At Orange School

The Y. M. C. A.-N. Y. A. Orange night school will be begun at the Chapel Hill public school for Negroes next Tuesday night.

In announcing the school for this year, Harry Comer, "Y" secretary, stated yesterday that C. C. Martin, Bob Magill, Charlie Daniels, Chuck Loomis, and J. C. Grier, all University students, have already been signed up as instructors.

Courses in mathematics, history, government, English, and other fundamental courses will be offered at the school. Each instructor will conduct two courses.

It will be the third year of the night school, Mr. Comer stated. Last year between 75 and 100 Negroes attended the bi-weekly sessions.

Charlie Craig, Negro janitor of Graham Memorial, is president of this year's Orange night school student body.

and Clemson but lack polish in their offensive line charging.

Coach Wallace Wade has been pointing for this game since the beginning of the season with the prime purpose of avenging the setbacks received from Bill Alexander in 1933 and 1935. Alexander is an old foe, the feud going back to Wade's Alabama days, and victory tomorrow is important to both coaches.

since fullback Ed Williams, Archie DuBois and Red Zeller will be unable to play because of injuries.

However, Mike Stelmach, Sal Somma and Harry Shorten have already proven their worth in ball lugging and will be a constant threat.

Several hundred Chapel Hill students, a 72-piece band, and a staff of cheerleaders will be on hand to back the team. No definite report has been received as yet, whether or not ex-Editor Benny Carr has been able to round up the Fordham ram to act as a pseudo-Rameses for the routers.

The kickoff is slated for 2:30 and will be brought to the home guard via the gridgraph in Memorial hall.
