Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 17—Tulane's Green Wave proved too much for Andy Kerr's Red Raiders as they overcame Colgate's early lead and scored two touchdowns in the first and two in the second half to win 28-7 here this afternoon. The field was soft and only 20,000 spectators attended.

Municipal Stadium, Baltimore, Oct. 17—Yale's cocky bunch of football players turned on the heat here today to romp over the Middies 12-7. Frank starred as both teams scored in the first quarter.

Baker Field, New York, Oct. 17—Virginia Military Institute invaded the big city here this afternoon only to take a 38-0 drubbing from Columbia before 5,000 fans. Luckman's passing and running starred for the Lions as they scored freely.

Legion Field, Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 17—Major Neyland's underdog Tennessee Vols battled the Crimson Tide to a 0-0 standstill here this afternoon. The teams were evenly matched throughout the game.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17—The University of Penn grid squad came back from their defeat by Yale last week and downed a powerful Princeton eleven 7-0. The Quakers scored in the first quarter and maintained the lead throughout the game.

Evanston, Ill., Oct. 17—Ohio State's football team received its second defeat of the season here this afternoon as they lost by the margin of a conversion to Northwestern 14-13.

Forty thousand spectators gathered to watch them defend their Western conference title in Dyche stadium.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 17—Army's Monk Meyers and Jim Craig set a fast pace here today as Army beat Harvard 32-0.

Other scores are: Michigan State 13, Missouri 0, Cornell 20, Syracuse 7, Fordham 20, Waynesburg 6.

The continuous downpour of the morning kept all but the most faithful followers from the game though it failed to dampen the ardor of Tar Heel Lathe Morris who was very much in person.

Wolfpack Gets Points During Each Period, Taking Furman 27-0

By C. C. GREER
Raleigh, Oct. 17—North Carolina State's victory hungry Wolfpack finally sated itself here tonight as Hunk Anderson's men scored in every quarter to down Furman's House of Magic 27-0.

The State team opened the first quarter with an 80-yd. march culminating in a touchdown when Ryneska crashed over the line. Taking to the air in the second quarter, Bardes received a pass from Cowboy Robinson which netted them 22 yards and another touchdown.

Ryneska shook off Furman tacklers on an off tackle play in the third quarter and dashed 65 yards for the 'Packs' third score and then to make a nice well-rounded out game of the affair, Pablosky, subbing at the full-back post, took the ball over for the last score from the two-yd. line in the last quarter.

Graduate Dean

(Continued from first page) Dean Pierson feels that the outstanding feature of the Democratic campaign is the confidence of the Democrats, while on the other side is Mr. Landon's moderation and fine spirit of toleration. "His defense of liberty will be remembered," he remarked. "The Democrats have departed from their platform of 1932," the Dean said. "The New Deal has become very intolerant of dissenting voices, and only a few of the 'old-liners,' such as Carter Glass can say what they wish."

George Radmon Scores 20 Points To Lead Victory March

By SHELLEY ROLFE
Wake Forest, Oct. 17—The 1936 Tar Baby eleven got off to a fast start by beating the Wake Forest Deaclets 33-0 here today.

The freshmen did not start rolling until the third quarter but once they got under way they marked up 27 points in the second half.

Radmon Stars
George Radmon was the big noise on the Tar Baby offense marking up three touchdowns and two extra markers for a 20 point day.

Radmon started the Tar Baby team on its way with a first quarter touchdown, the only score of the first half.

The Tar Babies pushed the ball deep into Wake Forest territory before the Deaclets held for downs. A recovered fumble set the stage for Radmon's first score and he went over from the ten yard line.

More Points
Radmon bobbed up again in the third quarter to add misery to the Wake Forest burden. Early in the quarter he went over for a score and converted the extra point. In mid-quarter he broke away from mid field to dash 55 yards for a score. Once again Radmon converted.

One more touchdown was marked up in the third quarter and it came as a result of the alert freshman line. Megson picked a blocked kick out of the air and ran 20 yards for the third Tar Baby score of the quarter.

A wide awake pass defense gave the Tar Babies their final score of the day. Mid-way in the final period Meighan plucked a Wake Forest pass out of the air on his own five yard line and dashed 95 yards for the touchdown. The conversion made the count 33-0 at which point it stayed until the end of the game.

We believe this communal effort will result in a unique and educational pageant-drama which will be a fitting tribute to 100 years of public instruction in North Carolina."

Duke's Flashy Backfield Proves Too Powerful For Techmen

Sleeper Revived

By R. R. HOWE
Duke Stadium, Oct. 17.—The invading Golden Tornado of Georgia Tech was kept down to a dull roar here this afternoon before 34,000 fans as the Terrible Trio of Parker, Hackney and Tipton threw monkey wrench after monkey wrench into the Tech football machine making three big black marks on their unblemished record to set them back 19-6.

A thrill-expectant crowd of 34,000 saw the highly publicized battle really get underway when Dick Taliaferro broke through and blocked Hayes' punt from his own 31-yard line and then scoop up the ball and head in the general direction of the Tech goal line where he was stopped on the one yard line after a desperate lunge by Hayes. The Devil's powerhouse Tipton smacked center on the next play for a touchdown and after converting settled down to the task of making another one.

More Scoring
In the second period, Honey Hackney faked a pass on his own 23 and then barged under full steam across the goal line for the second marker. His attempted conversion failed. Just before the half ended Johnny Johnston intercepted a Tech pass and ran it back 29 yards to the Jackets' 21. On the next play Ace Parker passed to Johnston in the end zone for the third marker. The conversion this time was good as gold.

Coach Bill Alexander imported a few words of wisdom to the Georgians during the half and they came out on the field with a do-or-die spirit and foxed the Devils on the kickoff by booting a short kick that bounced off a Duke man and was recovered by Konneman giving Tech the ball on the Devils' 40-yard line. The ball was soon taken over by Parker though when a Tech man fumbled.

Prep School Stuff
In the middle of the third quarter the Tech lads dug deep down into their bag of tricks and resurrected the trusted sleeping end play on a pass from Sims to Appleby which caught the Devils flat-footed and carried Tech 39 yards for their first and only touchdown.

Other scoring threats failed as Duke's line held and Tipton and Hackney broke up every attempt of Tech to dazzle their experienced opponents. The game was marked by clean play and heads up football by both teams. Duke received only one penalty of any amount when Captain Ace Parker tackled a Georgia runner a bit harder than the officials deemed necessary.

Every play by both sides was a direct threat for a touchdown and long runs were stopped by skillful tackles too often to let the throng keep their seats.
