

Freshmen Will Nominate Officers At Chapel Today

John Parker To Preside Over Class Meeting In Memorial Hall

To Vote Tuesday

Freshmen will meet in Memorial hall this morning at 10:30 to elect class officers for the year.

John Parker, student president, will preside at the meeting and nominations will be recorded by council Secretary Bob Maggill.

Hope

In its session last night, the Student council voiced its hope that "the freshman class will conduct this meeting in the same fine spirit which has characterized previous open forum discussions at freshman assemblies."

Election of men nominated this morning will take place on November 17, the council ruled. Voting will be from 9 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. on that day in Graham Memorial.

Honor Council

The Student council last night began selection of 20 freshmen whom it will present to their class sometime before the Thanksgiving holidays as candidates for the freshman honor council.

Under the arrangement of last year's council, seven freshmen, the vice president of the student body, and two faculty members will compose the new honor group.

It was reported that many men were being considered as candidates.

DORMITORY BODY TO ACT AGAINST LOCAL GAMBLING

Ellis Warns Officers To Take Inventory Of Dormitories

Last night in Graham Memorial Albert Ellis gathered his dormitory representatives and warned them to take careful inventories of their respective rooming places in regard to reported gambling.

The problem was discussed in view of the fact that such action was a direct violation of a University ruling as well as disturbing to the occupants of the dormitories.

Picture

A group picture of all dormitory officers was made in the lounge room of Graham Memorial at the end of the meeting.

The time set for Everett dormitory to receive its social at the expense of Graham Memorial for the best Homecoming Day exhibit was announced as November 21. A free show will follow December 3.

Special congratulations, according to Ellis, would be given to Bob Campbell, Robert Varley, and J. R. Parker for their work as a committee taking care of these Homecoming decorations.

Methodist Conference

Ellis Bullins, University sophomore, was elected president of the State Methodist Student Conference held in Durham for three days ending Sunday.

Boggs Gives Campus Initial Recordings Of Folklore Group

Spanish Professor Presents Program of Cuban Songs in First Fall Appearance

The program of recorded Cuban songs given by Ralph S. Boggs, Spanish professor, in Hill Music hall last week marked the first campus appearance of the University's Folklore council this fall.

Sponsored by the local council and the American Council of Learned societies, Mr. Boggs visited southern Florida during the past summer and made disc recordings of Cuban cigar workers singing folksongs and riddles.

Purpose

With the purpose of "encouraging the collection and preservation, the study and interpretation, the active perpetuation and dissemination of all phases of folklore," the local council presented Mr. Boggs as one of a series of folklore speakers during the year.

Students May Not Buy Single Bids For Fall German Dances

Returning Alumni May Get Tickets From Committeemen

Single dance tickets to the Fall German dances will not be on sale this year for students, according to a statement made yesterday by Oscar Tyree, treasurer of the German club, but will be available to alumni.

Tickets may be secured from any member of the executive committee of the club. These members are Randolph Rowland, Morris Fitts, Louis Schaffner, Jim Finlay, Bill Scott, Bill Lamm, Sam Neaves, Boylan Carr, Bill McClelland and Oscar Tyree.

Dances

Treasurer Tyree also wishes to emphasize the fact that there will be a dance Friday afternoon at 4:30 and Friday night at 9 o'clock. There will also be a dance Saturday afternoon at 4:30 and Saturday night at 9 o'clock. There will be no dance Saturday morning, as has been rumored.

Tickets for the set are $9, with a $5 initiation fee for freshmen, sophomores and juniors. Bids are obtainable for seniors for one dollar. Music will be furnished by Charles Barnett and his orchestra.

Gordon Will Play Swing Selections At Tonight's Talk

Modern Music Reviewer to Lecture in Music Hall at 8:30

Selections from the latest swing tune releases will be played tonight at Hal Gordon's lecture of "Jazz—Its Past, Present and Future" in Hill Music hall at 8:30.

Hal Gordon has for eight years been a reviewer of modern music—swing and sweet. Through his hobby and avocation as a record reviewer, he has acquired a collection of records of every description. The music of Jan Garber, Guy Lombardo, Louis Armstrong, the Dorsey Brothers, Frances Langford, Fats Waller and Duke Ellington will be represented on the program.

There will be no admission charge, and the public is invited.

Harland To Discuss "Tomb Of King Tut" At Bookshop Today

Archaeology Instructor to Illustrate Talk This Afternoon

"The Tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen" is the subject to be discussed by Dr. J. P. Harland, guest speaker at the regular Bull's Head tea this afternoon at 4:15 in the Bull's Head tea room.

Dr. Harland is a member of the archaeology department of the University and has visited and examined this particular tomb. In his talk, he will give a description of the tomb and its contents and will illustrate his talk with lantern slides.

Speaking in regard to his talk, Dr. Harland stated yesterday that there was nothing to the idea that has been prevalent in the last few years intimating that the "Curse of the Pharaohs" descends on all persons entering the tomb.

Self-Help Students To Hear Dr. Graham Speak At 8 Tonight

Boys Present will hold Open Discussion During Session

Dr. Frank P. Graham will speak to the self-help students of the University tonight at 8 o'clock in the main auditorium of Bingham hall.

After Dr. Graham's talk there will be a discussion among the boys as to how they can go about improving the working conditions on and off the campus and obtaining higher wages. All self-help students are urged to be present.

Dr. Graham's talk will be in the form of an answer to a request made some time ago to consider working conditions and wages among self-help students.

Pierson Returns

W. W. Pierson, dean of graduate school, returned over the weekend from a week's session of the Association of American Universities at Austin, Texas.

The University of North Carolina is one of the 32 members of the association. Host at last week's meeting was the University of Texas.

Archaeologist

Dr. J. P. Harland of the University archaeology department, who will speak on "The Tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen" at the Bull's Head Tea today at 4:15.

GRAHAM TO ASK HIGHER SALARIES FOR PROFESSORS

President Will Appear At Budget Group Meeting Today

President Frank Graham will appear before the state budget commission today and ask for restoration of full salaries for all professors of the Greater University beginning with the year 1937-38.

He would not comment yesterday on possibilities of the commission's approval of his forthcoming request, but pointed out that his request last year for partial salary restoration was half-way met by the commission.

Previous Increase

At that time the president asked the board for a 25 per cent increase, which was answered by the board on July 1 with restoration of some salaries 25 per cent and some at 20 per cent.

Salaries being paid employees at the Raleigh, Chapel Hill, and Greensboro branches of the University are at present 85 per cent of pre-depression normal.

FRESHMEN HEAR WAR DISCUSSION

Dean House Emphasizes Hatred of War

"War is a considerable opponent, Dean R. B. House told freshman assembly yesterday morning, as he emphasized the danger of thinking that war is altogether hateful and that all we have to do to get rid of it is to show how hateful it is."

"In the pagan world of today there is more to be said for war than for peace," he continued. "It has been our habit to settle things by fighting in the past, and the habit continues in the life around us. War appeals to our imagination, is the dominant theme of our poetry and art, and it is the form of our games."

Glory

The speaker stressed the fact that war promises glory to insignificant people and calls them to nobility and sacrifice. He declared that it is "definite, positive and heroic" and elevates the wills of men.

"It is only when we put God in control and try to learn his nature and will that we will have a philosophy to dominate the philosophy of war," he said. "The call to peace," he concluded, "is really a call to all people who have any religious motivation whatsoever to get together and exalt the religion of God above the religion of paganism."

Schnell Releases Method Students Will Use To Get Tickets For Duke Game

Language Exams

The graduate school yesterday made the following announcement concerning language examinations:

Reading knowledge of German, 9:30 a. m. Saturday, in Saunders, 209.

Reading knowledge of French, 9:30 a. m., November 21, in Murphey, 314.

The school also announced that students taking these examinations will be allowed to use the dictionary, and are expected to bring their own copies to the examination.

No registration for these two examinations will be accepted after today.

IVEY'S AMATEURS TO SHOW 'STUFF'

Ceremonies To Open On Thursday

Pete Ivey's amateurs will show their "stuff" when his long heralded amateur show opens Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the main lounge of Graham Memorial with his presentation of the master of ceremonies, Roy Armstrong, director of the University Student Survey.

Armstrong will have a military title conferred on him by the director of the student union in honor of the occasion. The master of ceremonies is, according to Pete, an exponent of the Bob Burns type of humor and talks precisely like Burns. "However," says Ivey, "it is not an imitation of Burns' style; Armstrong talked that way long before Bob Burns became famous on the radio."

Program

A well balanced program has been promised for the show. The entertainment offered will include: music, vocal and instrumental; dancing; skits, and ventriloquism.

Three prizes will be awarded by the judges who will pick the three best acts. The first prize will be $5.00 and the second and third prizes will be $2.50 each.

All students interested in taking part in the program must register by 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Stewart Will Speak On Peace Broadcast Of A.S.U. Tomorrow

Program to be Presented at 11:15 Over Durham Station

The American Student union will sponsor a peace broadcast from station WDNC at Durham tomorrow morning from 11:15 to 11:30.

Rev. Donald Stewart, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Chapel Hill, will make a talk appropriate for Armistice day, showing the attitude of the student toward war. Jack Frink, president of the A. S. U., will introduce Dr. Stewart and state the policy of the national union concerning peace activities.

Frink announced yesterday that the United Student Peace committee, a national organization, will sponsor a nation-wide radio broadcast Saturday morning from 10 to 10:30 over the NBC network.

Reserved Seat Tickets To Be Distributed In Union Lounge

Begins Tomorrow

The procedure for admitting students to the Duke-Carolina game was announced yesterday by Herman Schnell of the physical education department.

In the small lounge in Graham Memorial between the hours of 9 a. m. and 6 p. m. tomorrow, Thursday, and Friday, pass-book ticket number nine will be taken from each student's book and exchanged for a half of a reserved seat ticket.

Identification

Pass-books will not be collected when tickets are given out. The half ticket will be used only to show the student where to sit, and each student must present his pass-book at the gate for identification and admittance to the stadium.

Every student must occupy the seat shown on his own ticket, and entry will be by gate number six, the regular student gate.

Warning

Students are warned that if pass-books and tickets are being used by a person other than the rightful owner, they will be taken up and the user refused admission.

People wishing to sit together must present their pass-books together personally and request (Continued on last page)

'Y' GROUPS HOLD JOINT DISCUSSION OF PEACE BODIES

Armistice Day Program In Graham Memorial Led By Woodhouse

Holding an Armistice Day program, the Y. M. C. A. cabinets of the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes met jointly last night in the banquet hall in Graham Memorial.

A discussion led by E. J. Woodhouse, professor of political science, of the different organizations in the United States which strive for international peace featured the program.

Opening

George MacFarland, president of the senior council, opened the meeting. The group sang "America," following which Ray McClinton, adviser to the Freshman Friendship council, read part of Christ's sermon on the mount as an abstract from the book, "By An Unknown Disciple." The Y. M. C. A. quartet then harmonized their version of "Sweet Urchin's Melody," and "Hark the Sound."

MacFarland then introduced Professor Woodhouse who had charge of the discussion on the peace organizations. Mr. Woodhouse called on various members of the group present to explain the purposes of the peace organizations of which they were members or representatives. The discussion ended as an open peace forum. Among those who spoke in the forum were: George MacFarland, H. F. Comer, general secretary of the "Y.," Ray McClinton, Ernest Vanderburgh, and Jane Castles, Y. W. C. A. adviser.
