BULLETINS

British Debate - Tonight, 7:30, Hill Music hall. Question is "Resolved. That the constitution of the United States is a menace to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

this morning at 10:30 in the building.

Phi Assembly — To have picture taken today, back steps of South building, 10:30.

World Week of Prayer - Elizabeth Keeler will conduct the services tonight at 7 o'clock in Hill Music hall.

Infirmary - Those confined in the infirmary yesterday were Joseph Langley, Charles Robinson, Cary Sparks, W. A. Thompson, R. P. Holroyd, F. M. Patterson, D. L. Stalling and F. E Thomas.

Staff Bulletin

Associate Editors - Ten minute meeting, 2 p. m. today. Kahn, Rabb, Smith.

Business Staff — Meets 2 o'clock this afternoon in office. All members required to be present.

Essay Contest

(Continued from page one) the contest. According to Mr. Cornwell, the winners were chosen upon the merits of suggestions offered in the essays.

The entries will be used as aids in raising the University's share of the PWA allotment which is making a new gymnasium and swimming pool a possibility.

Receiving honorable mention in the contest are: DeWitt Barnett, Robert Reis, Beach Langston, Richard Reaves, John Riggsbee, Gene Turner, Ed Rankin, Kitty DeCarlo, William Dye, Jr., Luther Dixon, Don Robinson, Rob Wheat, Ralph Eichhorn, Bob Williams, Jesse Caldwell, Jr., Ira Royster, Jr., Jack Peterson, John Elmendorf, and Harry Ganderson.

Error

P. L. Burch, supervisor of the physical plant of the University, let it be known today that the no-parking regulation regarding Cameron avenue covers the entire area of Cameron avenue that is bounded by the campus. The DAILY TAR HEEL erred when it defined the limits as Swain hall and the Arboretum.

NOW PLAYING

3 MARRIED MEN

with

William Farley

ALSO

CASH NIGHT

CASH AWARD

$50.00

MIDNIGHT SHOW TONIGHT

THE STRANGEST HEADLINE ROMANCE YOU'VE EVER SEEN!

Q 1936, LIGGETT & MYERS TORACCO CO.

Coed Dance

Graham Memorial will give thru! Spencer hall girls a dance tonight in Bynum gym from 9 to have a swimming pool coming up 12 o'clock as first prize for Homecoming decorations in the liant has suggested building a group of Spencer, Archer, Carr river so we can sport a crewand Smith.

Each girl in the Shack is al- harvard . . . will nicely spank! lowed to invite two boys and 150 people are expected to attend. from thoughts of Fordham's in-Music will be furnished by Bob vasion next fall we studied that 'Alpha Kappa Gamma - Meets McManeus and his orchestra and the dance will be informal office of Mrs. Stacey in South for boys. Mrs. Stacy, Mrs. Lee, and Mrs. Kluttz will chaperone.

Len' Your Ears

(Continued from page three) that play, Jr."-MANHATTAN out of baylor! . the underdog . . . donates another . . . to the morgue!

California vs. Stanford-you may remember Liana, that bothersome end from Duke. Mr. Webster mentions him in his dictionary: "liana is a climbing perennial plant having woody stems, as a grapevine, characteristic of certain tropical regions, as the forests of the Amazon." We grant that he is a clinging pass-grasper with clutching fingers for stems; we take it that the Amazon forests infer the Duke line; but we hope he isn't perennial—STANFORD .. out far west ... where teams are teams . . . will prove the best!

Dartmouth vs. Princeton speaking of overconfidence; the funniest remnant of last year's Duke game is the student who claims he was in Denver (en route to Pasadena) before he got news of the result—DART-

MOUTH . . . as "injuns" do . . scalps the "tigers" . . . thru and

Yale vs. Harvard-since we and a team to follow, some bril YALE . . . to be 'frank' . . . john Baylor vs. S. M. U .- suffering wall of granite called a line and were refreshed to note that at least three slabs were to be shipped away this year, namely: Paquin, end; Pierce, guard; and Lombardi, guard-S. M. U. . long a trailer . . . takes the "bay" your friends at home informed. editor.

Press Institute

(Continued from first page) Manager Billy Allen.

"Goldsboro Hi-News," Editor Ozello Woodward, Mary Baddour, Edward Luke, Ross Ward, and James Heyward.

"Cannon Report," Kannapolis high school; Editor H. A. Scott and Joe Ridenhour.

"Hi-Rocket," Durham high school; Adviser Hazel Griffin and staff.

"The Ki-Hi," Grainger high school, Kinston; Editor Irma Lee Spencer, Betsy Peery, and Charlotte Moseley.

"The Lexhipep," Lexington high school; Editor Robert Clay-

"The Proconian," Chapel Hill Let the DAILY TAR HEEL keep high school; Brewster Rogerson,

TWO CHIHUAHUA PUPPIES FOR SALE

Can Be Seen At Shell Station, 304 W. Franklin Street

THE SAIE OF THE CENTURY

IS STILL ON!

Same Bargains as Previously Advertised

Don't Let These Values Pass You By

BERMAN'S DEPT. STORE

ATTENTION PROFESSORS

Do You Want A -COUNTRY PLACE, HUNTING PRESERVE, NICE FARM?

All three in one - in the MARY PEARL SMITH farm, 329 acres, to be offered for sale at auction

10 A. M. SATURDAY, NOV. 21, 1936

On the premises, rain or shine. Located 15 minutes from Chapel Hill just off highway 54 seven miles west of Chapel Hill.

Small down payment, long time on balance. 100 acres open, large body of woodland with nice stream. Level to gently rolling. Cottage newly painted. A lovely place. Will be offered in tracts and as a whole.

This farm is owned by the N. C. Joint Land Bank at Durham and will be sold at auction by —

Walter & Gurley Auction Co.

