

Juniors Plan For Band At Budget Meet

Swing Music Expected To Help Attract Quorum

Members of the junior class will tomorrow have Freddy Johnson's band for their own exclusive pleasure. The "swing" party comes at 10:30 in Memorial hall.

Johnson's boys will be entertaining the third year crowd during the reading of the class budget which must be approved, say class officers, before next week if the appreciable Yackety Yack discounts are to be "enjoyed."

"Pennies from Heaven"

According to Student council ruling, classes must show a half-membership quorum before budget approval can be accepted.

"So there's an ulterior motive in having Freddy's band play especially for us," confessed Trackman Rube Graham, president of the junior class, last night.

Scientists Acclaim Munch For Ultra-Violet Invention

Economical New Lamp May be Used to Reveal Counterfeit Bills and Checks

For his invention of an ultra-violet lamp which can be screwed into any electric light socket, Dr. Ralph H. Munch, graduate of the University of North Carolina, has received world-wide praise from scientists this past week. Dr. Munch is the son of H. F. Munch, a mathematics instructor here.

Mr. Munch's invention may be used to reveal counterfeit bills, raised checks, and metals in ores. The advantage of the lamp is that it does away with the complicated transformers which previously had to be installed to boost the line current to thousands of volts. This was required to excite a long capillary tube which was filled with hydrogen and which looked like a neon sign.

Simpler

Since the production of ultra-violet rays was so expensive, Dr. Munch and Dr. Frank T. Glucker, Jr., of the chemistry department of Northwestern University decided to construct a sim-

Coeds Select Dance Night

Quarterly Hop Bids Go On Sale Soon

Following their usual custom of giving a dance every quarter, the coeds have selected Saturday night as the date for the first of this series. The affair will be held in the Tin Can at 9 o'clock.

Although one dance was given by the coeds at the beginning of the school year, it was for the benefit of the new girls and was not counted as one of the quarterly dances.

Freddie Johnson's orchestra will play. There will be no figure or no-break dances during the evening. The dance will be formal.

Bids will be on sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday and coeds may buy as many bids as they want.

Sophomore Hop Bids

Sophomores will have their last chance to obtain bids to the class dance between 10:30 and 11 a. m. and 2 and 5 p. m. today and tomorrow in the "Y" lobby.

Less than one-third of the class got bids yesterday, and dance Chairman Ernie Byfield warns that the above hours will be absolutely the last opportunity for sophomores to get tickets.

Next Week's Speaker Served With A. E. F., Then Investi- gated Young League

Clark Eichelberger, who will speak here next Wednesday and Thursday, is a recognized authority on international problems, and is acknowledged as one of the best informed and most stimulating lecturers in the field of international relations.

Mr. Eichelberger served with the American expeditionary forces in France during the World War. In 1923 he returned to Europe for a study of reconstruction in the nine countries there. After spending considerable time at the seat of the then youthful League of Nations he came back to this country thoroughly convinced that the United States should take its full place in the community of nations.

Visitor

Now almost annually a visitor at the league, Mr. Eichelberger has attended practically every session of the assembly. He was present when the Sino-Japanese dispute was brought before the council. He was in Geneva the fall of 1933 when Germany resigned from the league and the Disarmament conference, and again in 1934 at the 15th assembly, when U. S. S. R. entered the League of Nations.

Mr. Eichelberger's intimate contact with statesmen, his sympathetic understanding of national problems and his close association with groups which make up public opinion, further qualifies him as an authority on international affairs in relation to American policies.

Brenizer Will Exhibit Own Slides, Films

Things to Come

In a letter to Joe Patterson, president of the local chapter of A.E.D., Brenizer stated in regard to his topic: "My object in giving the paper I do to undergraduates is to try to show what they might expect later, how a paper may be developed, and the fact that medicine and surgery are a never ending study in experimentation."

Receiving medical degrees from Johns Hopkins and the University of Heidelberg in Germany, Dr. Brenizer served at the cancer institute and surgical clinic in Heidelberg, at the University of Vienna, and as assistant hospital and resident surgeon in Paris, France.

Now a practicing surgeon in Charlotte, Brenizer is the author of articles in the "Journal" of the American Medical Association and other publications.
