

The Daily Tar Heel

VOLUME XLV

BUSINESS PHONE 4356

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SUNDAY, JANUARY 24, 1937

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

NUMBER 89

New Society Picks Groves As President

University Psychologist Elected Secretary-Treasurer

Dr. E. R. Groves of the sociology department has been elected president of the newly formed North Carolina Mental Hygiene society, according to an announcement made yesterday by Dr. J. F. Dashiell.

Dr. Harry W. Crane, director of the division of mental hygiene of the state board of charities and public welfare and member of the psychology department, holds the office of secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Crane

The North Carolina Mental Hygiene society, founded last May, will meet in Raleigh tomorrow. Among the speakers at the conference will be Dr. Crane who will address the assembly on "The State Board of Public Welfare in Relation to Mental Hygiene."

Purpose

The society was established with the following purposes in mind: "to work for the conservation of mental health; to help prevent nervous and mental disorders and mental defects; to help raise the standard of care and treatment for those suffering from any of these disorders or defects; to secure and disseminate reliable information on these subjects; to promote favorable legislation; to cooperate with federal, state, and local agencies and officials and with public and private agencies whose work is related to that of a society of mental hygiene."

Dr. C. S. Mangum dean of the medical school is a member of the national committee for mental hygiene, of which Clifford Beers is secretary.

Public Educators To Hold Session Here In Summer

Guy Phillips Announces Plans for Meetings at Three Units of University

Plans for a conference on public education to be held here during the first session of summer school were announced yesterday by Guy B. Phillips, professor, of education.

The three units of the University are sponsoring the conference which will be held June 23, 24, and 25. The general theme will be "Taking Stock and Looking Ahead." Of the seven general sessions to be held, Women's college will conduct one on elementary education, and State college one on vocational education. The Chapel Hill unit will conduct the rest of the general sessions on secondary education and general administration.

Wide Participation

Educational leaders from the surrounding states of Georgia, South Carolina, Maryland, Florida, Alabama, and Virginia will be invited to participate in the conference.

Grail Dance

A Grail dance will be held Saturday night, January 30, in Bynum gym from 9 till 12. Jimmy Fuller and his orchestra will play and the script will be $1.00. Freshmen will be admitted.

Girls Meet to Light the Y. W. C. A.'s First Candle

Gathered above are the University coeds who met in the banquet halls of Graham Memorial recently to celebrate the first anniversary of the founding of the Carolina Y. W. C. A. With words from Elva Ranson and Mrs. Clyde A. Milner, violin moaning by Alpha Kappa Gamma's Jane Ross, introductory remarks by Second-President McGinnis, medleys by the Pritchard-Usher-Evans trio, decorations by Virginia LaRochelle, a reading by Mary Leigh Scales, and general plans by Mary Lillian Speck and Lillian Hughes, the affair was the most colorful meeting of the coeds of this student generation.

$2,000,000 Aid To Be Sought By Red Cross

Need Flood Relief Fund; Chapel Hill Chapter To Raise $120

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23.—In order to meet hourly needs of flood victims in eight states the American Red Cross is calling on people of the United States for a minimum relief fund of two million dollars.

Seventy thousand men, women, and children have been driven from their homes and are now dependent on the Red Cross for emergency relief. Food, shelter, bedding, medical attention, and warm clothing must be supplied.

Raging blizzards and freezing weather in many of the flooded areas are adding hourly to the suffering of the refugees and greatly increasing the need for instant relief.

Every community has been

(Continued on last page)

Vance To Address Y.M.C.A. Tomorrow On Race Problems

Junior-Senior "Y" Cabinet to Hear Sociologist Speak on Southern Racial Problems

Continuing the weekly discussions on topics relative to the approaching Human Relations institute, Dr. Rupert B. Vance of the University sociology department will speak to the Junior-Senior "Y" cabinet at their meeting on the second floor of the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow night at 7:15.

Dr. Vance's subject will be "International Problems of the South," falling under the topic of interracial relations now being discussed by the cabinet. This is the second topic taken up by the cabinet in preparation for the Human Relations institute to be held here March 28-April 3.

Stage Problems Confront Directors Of Comic Opera

Sponsors of "Pirates of Penzance" Striving to Unify Entire Production

By BOB PERKINS

Getting a cast of 45 into a scenic stage setting, combining the singing and acting so that the two do not conflict, planning costumes so that there will be variety and yet no single costume will conflict with the other 44, and synchronizing the whole result with the orchestra are the principal problems before the three heads of the fine arts departments, combined for the first time, in the production of Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera, "Pirates of Penzance."

Collaboration

Four years ago the music department and the Playmakers collaborated in the production of the Gilbert-Sullivan opera "Princess Ida." It was one of the "most successful productions that has come out of the University," according to the dramatic department. Now, with the combination of the art, the music, and the dramatic departments, an even more elaborate and suc-

Math Seminar

Dr. M. R. Trabue, head of the department of education, will address the second meeting of the seminar in the teaching of mathematics tomorrow night at 7:30 in 359 Phillips hall. "Some Psychological Principles of Learning."

Whitfield Cobb and R. E. Smith, teaching fellows in mathematics, will report on investigations that they have been making in various publications on the teaching of mathematics.

According to E. A. Cameron, mathematics instructor everyone who is interested in the teaching of mathematics either in college or at the lower levels is cordially invited to attend.

Help!

There will be an executive meeting of the local chapter of the American Red Cross this afternoon at 2:30 in the Bank of Chapel Hill to discuss ways and means of raising funds for flood relief.

Any students, faculty, or townspeople who have contributions to make to the relief fund being raised should leave them at Eubanks drug store or send them to W. E. Thompson, Red Cross treasurer, in care of the Bank of Chapel Hill.

New Dance Band Will Open Supper Concert Program

McPherson's Buccaneers Will Play Tomorrow Night at Graham Memorial

Sam McPherson, S. A. E. pledge and his newly organized Carolina Buccaneers orchestra will open the Graham Memorial after-supper music program tomorrow night at 7:15.

The orchestra will play for half-hour periods from Monday to Thursday of this week. Next week there will be a different band for similar programs.

Ivey re-emphasized yesterday that every band on the campus will be given an opportunity to play in the lounge for a week in this new series of concerts. The board of directors of the Student Union has appropriated the money to pay for the programs and there is no admission charge to students wishing to attend.

"The object of these swing sessions is purely entertainment of the students," said Ivey yesterday. The programs will be from 7:15 until 7:45 four nights a week.

Royalty Trio Vote Results Out Tuesday

February 2, 3 Selected As Date for Final Queen Election

The first election for a queen in the history of the Student-Faculty day festival has drawn to a close. The committee collected the ballot boxes last night, and will work all this morning sorting and counting the votes.

Results

Tuesday morning the results of the balloting will be announced in the DAILY TAR HEEL, accompanied by the pictures of the 10 coeds receiving the highest number of votes.

The votes cast during the past week will elect both the king and the jester. The 10 coeds who survive the elimination vote will compete in a final deciding election to be held February 2 and 3. At that time the student and faculty voters will choose the queen and her two ladies-in-waiting from among the half score of nominees.

Miss Nancy Schallert, Playmaker and member of the Student-Faculty day committee, who has complete charge of the coronation pageant, has enlisted the aid of the Misses Josephine Niggli and Jane Britt, veteran playwrights, and Miss Ella Mae Daniels, experienced director and actress, in putting on the performance.

Freshman Chapel

W. D. Skidmore and W. F. Lange, assistant football coaches, and G. E. Shepard assistant athletic director will speak in freshman assembly tomorrow in a program recommended by the assembly committee.

The program is intended to educate freshmen in what makes up intelligent spectatorship for various University sports.

Student Fees Will Be Paid, Board States

House Reports Decision Of Trustee Board In Raleigh

By LEN RUBIN

The executive committee of the board of trustees, meeting in Raleigh yesterday, reaffirmed as chargeable and collectable from all students the prescribed publication and athletic fees of the University, according to a statement made yesterday to the DAILY TAR HEEL by Dean R. B. House, who attended the meeting.

Statement

The statement is as follows: 1. Athletic and publication fees. The following report and recommendation were adopted: "In June 1913 the board of trustees authorized an athletic fee to be charged to students on matriculation, with the provision that on presentation of a statement from any matriculate that he is financially unable to pay this . . . he shall be excused from payment of this fee."

"In June, 1923, the board of trustees authorized a publications fee to be charged each matriculate, with the provision that, 'no man who is unable to pay shall be required to pay the publications fee'."

Exceptions

"In practice we have from time to time excused students from paying these fees on the ground of poverty, but we have developed loan funds, jobs, and other forms of student aid to the point at which we are able to finance the fees of students who otherwise would be unable to

(Continued on last page)

School Heads Convene Here On February 5

High School Principals To Discuss Student Administration

The North Carolina High School Principal's association will meet here February 5 for an all-day session, according to an announcement by Guy B. Phillips, professor of education and former principal of the Greensboro city schools.

Organization

The association was organized in Greensboro last fall, and is composed of approximately 75 members. A. P. Routh, principal of the Greensboro senior high school and graduate of the University, is president of the association.

Among the topics to be discussed at the meeting are student government work, progressive education, changes in curriculum, national youth administration program, school discipline, supervised study, vocational guidance, examinations, and general problems of administration.

Program

The program will open at 10 in the morning and continue until 5 in the afternoon. All sessions will be held at the Carolina Inn, including a special luncheon meeting.

Prospective high school teachers interested in interviews may arrange for them through the education office in Peabody building, according to Professor Phillips.