

The Daily Tar Heel

VOLUME XLV

EDITORIAL PHONE 4551

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 1937.

BUSINESS PHONE 4356

NUMBER 120

CPU Speaker Will Talk On Court Policy

Governor Hoey, Bailey To Be In Party Tomorrow

Millard E. Tydings, Democratic senator from Maryland, with a party of prominent political figures, will arrive in Chapel Hill tomorrow and will address the student body in Memorial hall at 10:30, sponsored by the Carolina Political union.

Senator Tydings and Mrs. Tydings have come south in order to attend the State-wide Democratic victory dinner to be held tomorrow night in the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh.

Guests

Among those in the party which will accompany Senator Tydings over to Chapel Hill tomorrow are Governor and Mrs. Clyde Hoey, Mayor and Mrs. George Iseley of Raleigh, Judge and Mrs. H. D. Folger, national North Carolina committeeman, and Senator Josiah Bailey.

Senator Tydings, at present a member of both the Finance and Appropriations committees in the United States senate, has been asked by C. P. U. President Frank McGinn to speak on President Roosevelt's recent proposal for judicial reform in the Supreme Court, which proposal Senator Tydings has consistently opposed.

The University of North Carolina Glee club has kindly consented to postpone its program, scheduled for chapel period tomorrow, until a later date in order to give the time to the Carolina Political union for its program.

Giduz Announces Sewanee Opening Of French School

University of South To Offer Special Training In French Language

Hugo Giduz of the education department has just announced that the University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee, will open a French school this coming summer for special training in French language, literature, and teaching methods with courses leading to a master's degree.

According to Giduz, the purpose of the school is to afford the students an opportunity to be in contact with native French instructors, and to speak French exclusively for six weeks. The school offers a wider choice of graduate and undergraduate courses in French than can be given in most general summer schools, Giduz said.

Staff

Among the members of the teaching staff, besides Giduz there will be Rene Hardre, the director, of W. C. U. N. C., D. E. Frierson, dean, of the University of the South, Jacques Hardre, Guilford college, and Mlle. Marguerite Treille, of Hood college.

"The school," said Giduz, "is primarily for the teachers of the south, and is the next best thing to an actual trip to France and study there."

Student Council

The Student council hearing on staff elections, scheduled for last night, will take place tonight at 7:15.

University Band In Concert Tomorrow Night

The University concert band, increased this year to a membership of 55 picked men, which will give a concert in Hill Music hall tomorrow night. Officers of the band are Earl Slocum, director; Jimmy Fuller, president; Tom Harlow, vice-president; Bob Simmons, secretary and treasurer; and Kim Harriman, business manager.

R. Grumman Gets U.S. Job

Frank Graham Names Extension Head

R. M. Grumman, director of the extension division, was yesterday appointed by Dr. Frank Graham as special representative of the United States employment service to administer merit examinations in North Carolina.

The purpose of the examinations is to establish lists from which appointments will be made to positions in the state employment service and in the national re-employment service in the state.

Advisers

Dr. M. R. Trabue, of the department of education, and Dr. J. W. Fesler, of the political science department, were appointed by President Graham as advisers to Mr. Grumman.

Positions in both the administrative office and in the local employment offices are to be filled according to a merit system conducted by the United States employment service with which the state employment service is affiliated.

The merit system is an effort of the federal employment service to aid state services in the selection of the best qualified personnel for positions in public employment offices.

Snyder Will Talk At Literary Tea

Statistician To Speak On "Recent Visit to Greece"

Carl Snyder, statistician of international fame, will be the featured speaker at the regular Bull's Head tea this afternoon at 4:15 in the Bull's Head book shop. His subject will be "A Recent Visit to Greece."

Snyder is a past president of the American Statisticians' association and is the present vice-president of the International Statisticians association.

He has just returned from Greece where he visited in connection with that society. Snyder has written a number of books on his specialty and is considered an artist philologist and statistician of high-ranking importance. He has been visiting in Chapel Hill for several days.

Napier Awarded

W. B. Napier, teaching fellow in the department of romance languages, has been awarded a traveling fellowship by the Commission for Relief in Belgium for a year's study and travel in Europe. Mr. Napier studied two years at V. M. I. and then came here to get his A. B. and M. A. degrees.

Elisha Mitchell

Dr. H. W. Ferrill and Dr. W. C. George will deliver papers at a meeting of the Elisha Mitchell scientific society at 7:30 tonight in Phillips 206.

Band Will Present Classical Concert At 8:30 Tomorrow

Program Scheduled For Hill Music Hall Under Direction Of Earl Slocum

The University concert band will present a program of music ranging from the semi-classical work of Friml to the compositions of Bach, Wagner, Tchaikovsky tomorrow evening at 8:30 in Hill Music hall.

Under the direction of Earl Slocum, with a balanced instrumentation of sixty-two players, the band will present the following program: "The Vanished Army," Kenneth Alford; "Overture" to "Rienzi," Wagner; "Chorale and Fugue in G Minor," Bach-Abert; "Bolero," Walter Smith; "Moode Mauve," Russell Howland; "Serenade Roccoco," Meyer-Hulmand; "Symphony No. 4 in F Minor," Tchaikovsky.

Recognition

The University concert band has won recognition as one of the leading bands in the state. Many complimentary letters having been received on the band's work since their broadcast over the Columbia broadcasting system while in New York for the N. C.-N. Y. U. game. Since last year the personnel of the organization has been increased from thirty-five to sixty-five members.

Philosopher's Club To Hear Bradshaw

Dean Of Students To Speak On Education Wednesday Night

Dean F. F. Bradshaw will address the final winter quarter meeting of the Undergraduate Philosophy club tomorrow evening in the small lounge of Graham Memorial at 8:30.

Dean Bradshaw's address, "A Philosophy of Education" will inaugurate a series of talks on education to be delivered to the undergraduate organization during the spring quarter.

Dean Bradshaw has carried on advanced studies along these lines at Columbia university and much of the address he will deliver tomorrow night will be taken from a talk he delivered to a faculty group earlier in the quarter. It is being repeated at the request of the undergraduate group.

Frigid Facsimile Of Venus Fades As Sun Shines

Sigma Delta Men Regret Melting Of Their Snow-Born Curved Woman

"She's fading fast," one of the Sigma Delta boys said of their Venus, a snow replica of the famed Venus de Milo. "But," said another, "that's what happens to these frigid women."

"She was born yesterday afternoon," Rob Putney said, "after much outlay of energy and trips back and forth in the house for glimpses of a picture of Venus." Asked how the curves were rounded so smoothly, one of the boys volunteered that the tools used were a hunting knife, an old World War bayonet, and freezing hands. "The hands furnished the finishing touches, he said.

"Just Grew"

"I guess no one in particular can be credited with her birth," said John Eddleman, another one of the Sigma Delta boys, "She just grew."

"We had to smash the first nose," said Putney, "because after it was finished it resembled Eddleman's nose instead of Venus." The boys left none of the details to the imagination. Eyes (Continued on last page)

Local Fraternity Becomes Member Of National Group

Alpha Epsilon Formally Inducted Into Membership In Alpha Epsilon Pi

With representatives present from various Alpha Epsilon Pi chapters, Alpha Epsilon, local fraternity, was formally inducted Sunday afternoon at the Carolina Inn as the Omega chapter of Alpha Epsilon Pi.

In October, 1934, Alpha Epsilon became a part of fraternity life on the Carolina campus. One year later, the interfraternity council approved of Alpha Epsilon's petition to become a national chapter, and this was followed by the Welfare board adding its approval to the same petition.

Following the induction ceremonies a banquet was held at the Inn at which members of the Carolina faculty as well as members of the Supreme Board of Governors of Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity welcomed the new chapter. Supreme Master Leon B. Traub as toastmaster for the banquet while Dr. Zeiger and Professor Kattsoff addressed the assembly.

The newly-inducted Omega chapter of Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity has its house at 306 McCauley Street and consists of eighteen active members.

Registration Deadline Set

Spring Quarter Schedule Opens Tomorrow

Spring quarter registration begins tomorrow and will continue through Saturday, March 13.

Dean A. W. Hobbs, chairman of the registration committee, said yesterday that all students are to register during this period except those students in the General college who may have to register for repeat courses.

Late Changes

Monday, March 15 will be left open for registration of such sophomores and freshmen in the Tin Can, as well as other students whose schedules require last-minute changes.

Dean Hobbs urges all students to begin registration this week, in order to avoid long last-minute lines.

Procedure

Registration procedure this quarter will be the same as last December. Permits may be secured at room 8, South building. Study programs may be arranged with advisers or deans, and class cards and bills will be received in the "Y."

A. H. Shepard, Jr., of the business office has been appointed by the registration committee to supervise registration this quarter, in an effort to remove alleged inefficiency and loss of time in past periods of registration.

Dormitory Group Will Have Picnic

Council Members To Play Hosts To Holiday Patronesses

The Interdormitory council members are showing their appreciation to the hostesses and chaperones and their husbands for their cooperation during Student-Faculty day with a weiner roast tonight at 6 o'clock in the depths of Battle park, according to President Boo Campbell.

"We have had the snow removed from a suitable spot," Campbell said, "and the ground should be in good condition by tonight. In case of rain," he added, "the place will be Graham Memorial."

According to Campbell, an entertainment program has been planned which will be put on by both students and faculty. After the Battle park rendezvous, the council and its guests will come to Graham Memorial where Director Pete Ivey will entertain them.

Tenant Farms Will Be Theme Of Eddy's Talk

"Y" Secretary to Speak In Public Meeting Here at 8:30

Sherwood Eddy, noted international "Y" secretary, will discuss "Share Croppers" at a public meeting in Memorial hall tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

Harry Comer, secretary of the campus "Y", which is sponsoring Mr. Eddy's appearance, said yesterday that Mr. Eddy will conduct an open forum with students and professors in the Graham Memorial lounge following his lecture.

Basis of Talk

The talk will be based on Mr. Eddy's experience with tenants and share croppers on his large Mississippi delta farm, where he is conducting a cooperative experiment.

Before his interest in farming, Mr. Eddy was a "dollar-a-year" secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in 50 foreign countries. For 40 years he has been throughout the world, studying, lecturing, and traveling.

Study Tours

Recently he has conducted special study tours of students and professors from the United States to different troubled countries of the world, particularly in Europe.

Among the books Mr. Eddy has written are "The Students of Asia," "Religion and Social Justice," "Sex and Youth," and "The Challenge of Europe."

The general public is invited to the Memorial hall address and the Graham Memorial reception afterwards tonight.

Registration Open For Health School Here Next Spring

Dr. Milton Rosenau Of University Medical School To Act As Director

Registration was in full swing yesterday for the new spring session in the Division of Public Health, beginning today and continuing for the next three months with Dr. Milton J. Rosenau of the University medical school as director.

Although registration was not complete yesterday, approximately 50 men are expected to take the course. According to Dr. Rosenau, about 18 medical doctors will participate, along with 11 sanitary engineers with degrees in engineering, five sanitarians with college degrees, and from 12 to 15 sanitary officers who either have done some college work or have experience in public health work. Practically every state is represented from Connecticut to Florida.

Exercises

Welcoming exercises will take place this morning in Caldwell hall at 9:30 with President Graham and Dean House making the welcoming addresses. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Among the outstanding men on the faculty for the course are Dean H. G. Baity, professor of sanitary science; Dr. R. E. Fox, who has the chair of Public Health Administration; Dr. R. T. Stimpson, who teaches vital statistics; and Dr. J. C. Knox, who teaches epidemiology. Dr. A. S. Rose, of the University Medical school, is the assistant director of the division and also will teach communicable diseases.