Nye Outlines Peace Program To Keep America Out Of War

North Dakota Senator Students Advised Demands Clear-Cut Neutrality Policy

Denouncing the intense desire for profits as a primary cause for international conflict, Senator Gerald P. Nye addressed a large body of students, faculty members, and townspeople in Graham Memorial last night.

Discussing a program to keep the United States out of another foreign war, Nye, who was chairman of the recent senatorial committee for investigating the munitions industry, proposed: "Larger understanding of the causes of war; the dramatization of peace in the degree that we dramatize war; a clear defining of what our national defense really is; and a legislative program that will put every man, woman, and child on notice that not one penny of profit can be gotten out of another war."

Neutrality Policy

"Another crying need in America today," Nye further asserted, "is the necessity of a clearly outlined policy of neu-

Joe Patterson Given Senior Presidency Nomination In Place Of Randall Berg

The University party prevented a threatened split in its ranks Thursday night by placing Joe Patterson on its slate for the presidency of the senior class in place of Randy Berg, who was earlier given the party nomination for the headship of the class of '38.

The conflict in the steering committee was between the Mc-Glinn-Grier-Bond-Ellis faction, which has fought for selection of candidates regardless of fraternity affiliations, and the opposing group which has sought to give each fraternity but one trality to guide us and to make it less easy to be drawn into other peoples' wars as has been the case in the past."

As a means to further this end, the senator from North Dakota proposed "a licensing system giving the government a better knowledge of the munitions 'racket'; the strict forbiddance of the delivery of contraband to warring countries by Americans; the strict forbiddance of carrying wartime sup-
