the University dance committee, past member of the student council for two years, a member of the student welfare advisory board, former vice-president of the athletic association, member of the senior honor council, and Graill.

"Other candidates have not yet been definitely named," announced Cole yesterday, "although Marvin Ruffin seems to be an outstanding possibility for president of the junior class."

For Staff Elections

In discussing the question of staff elections, Cole continued, "the Student party feels that staff election of publications editors makes for most efficient and intelligent management and for that reason will back Mac Smith for editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL, the Bill Hudson-Nick Read combination as co-editors of the Carolina Magazine, Haydon Clement for editor of the Buccaneer, and Dave Thorpe for editor of the Yackety Yack."

As representatives of the Student party further sound out campus opinion, other candidates will be announced.

The Student party was founded last spring by Carl Fistel, Charles Robinson and Bill Cole. According to the party leaders, the purpose of the organization was to do away with the one-party system that had previously existed.

All-Campus Party

"It seeks genuine all-campus representation," continued Chairman Cole yesterday. "It believes in getting the man most able to fill the position, and is absolutely opposed to pulling from a hat the names of candidates to govern this student body of 3000, and to any allotment system."

"Last spring the Student party confined itself to the rising sophomore class and successfully campaigned for Bud Hudson, now president of that class. In the fall, the Student party representatives lost by narrow margins. Indeed, a change of three votes would have necessitated a run-off election."

Cole further stated yesterday that "the original policy of the party had been for the nominations of candidates in meetings open to all but that this had proved impracticable due to the impossibility of preventing the

Stuart Rabb And Bob duFour To Have Charge; Students Urged To Participate

An amateur program sponsored by Graham Memorial will take place Thursday night in the building's main lounge, said Pete Ivey yesterday.

Ivey invites participation of all students willing to subject themselves to the "bong" of his recently obtained "boxing gong."

Stuart Rabb and Bob duFour will serve as masters of ceremonies and Ivey offers a special surprise guest performer "who is not Dr. Van Neitsenhooft."

Entrance application blanks may be obtained at the director's office in Graham Memorial and must be submitted to him before Monday night.

'packing' of meetings."

"Candidates are now chosen by representatives who have sounded out campus opinion," Cole continued. "These possible candidates appear before the group, and their capabilities and activities are discussed. A miniature election is held in these meetings to determine the candidate favored by the majority."

In his concluding remarks, Cole announced that membership in the Student party is open to anyone interested and they will be notified about meetings if their names are given to one of the following: Charles Robinson, T. H. Skeen, Jack Scattergood, Charles (Puddin') Wales, George Zink, Mitchell Britt, Tom Pitts, Bill Stronach, M. A. Stroup, Marvin Ruffin, Tom Myers, Jack Fairley, Bernard Nordan, Ed Dickerson or Bill Cole.

And that's why I believe in open forums.

As for the speakers Mr. Cummings suggests, I should rather have Franco or Goebbels or Oswald Mosley come here than our neighbor Leon Trotsky. I may have overlooked what the Fascists have to say for themselves, and I should like to hear it. And likewise our students, amply insulated against "radicalism" by almost everything they hear and

"All-Campus" Ticket

Yesterday afternoon the Pi Phis, together with a non-sorority group, are supporting an "all-campus" ticket, and have declared that they are supporting the best girls on the campus regardless of party affiliations. The "all-campus" ticket then consists of Nancy Nesbit, non-sorority, for president; Lyl Boice, Pi Phi, vice-president; Olivia Root, non-sorority, secretary; and Louise Camp, Chi Omega, treasurer. For Athletic association officers they are supporting Evelyn Barker, non-sorority, for president, who is unopposed; Phyllis Hawthorne, Pi Phi, for secretary; and the Bush twins for treasurer.

This "all-campus" faction is opposed by the Chi Omegas, who are supporting Virginia Lee, Chi O, for president; Marion Taylor, non-sorority, vice-president; Lillian Hughes, Chi O, for secretary; and Louise Camp, for treasurer. The Chi O's are also supporting Evelyn Barker, and the Bush twins, but are in favor of Polly Pollack, Chi O, as secretary of the athletic association.
