Graham To Be Magill's Running Mate

Juniors, Seniors Will Meet To Vote Dance Assessment

Presidents Urge Class Members To Attend Assembly Meeting At 10:30

All members of the Junior and Senior classes are urged to attend a joint meeting which will be held today at 10:30 in Memorial hall, announced President Niles Bond of the Senior class and Reuben Graham, president of the Junior class, last night.

The presidents of the classes urge all members to be present in order to find out if the members of the two classes are willing to be assessed in order to have Horace Heidt to play for the dances and to discuss other plans.

According to Claude Hobbs, chairman of the Junior dance committee, the plans now stand with each class allotting $800, totaling $1,600, which was paid in the regular class fees and totaled $1.45 per person. But to get Horace Heidt will require an additional assessment of $1.75 per person. In case that this assessment is not approved, another band at a lower cost will have to be obtained.

Favorable Sentiment
Hobbs further explained that the dance committee has been working for a month to get an appropriate band. After the disappointment resulting from the band playing at last year's Junior-Seniors, there has been a great deal of sentiment on the campus in favor of procuring a better band even at an additional cost.

Junior-Seniors are not alone in the difficulty in securing a

Chemists Making Reservations For National Meeting

Program Of Accommodations And Entertainment To Be Released Soon

With approximately 900 reservations to date and more coming in each day, all indications point to a large attendance when the American Chemical society holds its 93rd bi-annual convention in Chapel Hill April 11-15.

A complete program including all plans for the accommodation and entertainment of the chemists will be available in a few days. The program will be released in one of the society's official publications, "Industrial and Engineering Chemistry."

During Vacation
The convention of the A. C. S. will coincide with the spring vacation for University students, April 10-19 in order to provide rooming accommodations for the visiting delegates.

The work of the convention has been divided into the following divisions: The division of agricultural and food chemistry; of biological chemistry; cellulose chemistry; of chemical education; of colloid chemistry; of gas and fuel chemistry; of industrial and engineering chemistry; of medicinal chemistry; of organic chemistry; of rubber chemistry; of sugar chemistry; of water, sewage and sanitation chemistry; and the division of paint and varnish chemistry.

Read Promises Aid To Hudson For Editorship

Says University Party Acted Wisely In Choosing Hudson As Party Nominee

Nick Read, in a statement last night clarifying his position in the recent developments regarding the editorship of the Carolina Magazine, said:

"Now that the guardians of the unwritten campus constitution and the defenders of holy precedent have saved student government and publications from the terrible threat of dual officership, I wholeheartedly endorse Bill Hudson as the editor-in-chief of the Carolina Magazine. I think that the University party acted wisely in choosing Bill Hudson, a man qualified in every way to edit the magazine. I support his nomination and I will support him when he becomes editor.

"Though it seems unlikely that he will be opposed, the unforeseen events which have recently upset the campus equilibrium set a precedent—and the P. U. board says precedent should always be considered for damn near anything. If the opposition to Hudson arises, I will do everything in my power to defeat it."

Zeiger Leads Seder Tonight

Jewish Service Takes Place At 6 P. M.

The traditional Jewish "Seder" observance will be led by Rabbi Bernard Zeiger in Graham Memorial banquet hall tonight at 6 o'clock.

Reservations for the service were issued by the rabbi until March 19. Students of the Woman's college and Duke, as well as other out-of-town visitors are expected.

Narration
Rabbi Zeiger explained yesterday the the "Seder" is a narration of the exodus of the Hebrews from Egypt. "The narrative is interspersed with rather playful material," he said, "to produce a mood of joy."
Tonight's will be the first Jewish Passover service to be observed on the campus. The rabbi said yesterday that "The Passover of the Jew was observed by Jesus and is known in history as the Last Supper."

Senior Regalia

All seniors are urged to go to Jack Lipman's clothing store as soon as possible to be measured for their senior regalia.

This year the class uniform will be a white coat sweater with U. N. C. '37 on the pocket.

One of the sweaters is now on display in Lipman's, and individual orders will be filled immediately after spring vacation. A deposit of two dollars is required with each order, and the total cost will be $4.15.

Eddie Kahn is chairman of the regalia committee.

Journalist

Allen Merrill, recently promoted associate editor DAILY TAR HEEL, who has just been nominated by the University party for representative at large on the P. U. board.

Comer Makes Latest Plans For Institute

Tentative Speaker List Drawn Up; Special Exhibit Arranged

Harry Comer and T. P. Yeatman yesterday began final arrangements for next week's institute of Human Relations.

A tentative list of speakers and their subjects has been drawn up and posters erected. All classes from Monday through Saturday will begin at 8 a. m. Daily institute meetings will be held in Memorial hall at 10 a. m., 4 p. m., and 8 p. m.

Seminars
In addition to public lectures covering all problems of international relations, special seminars, private interviews, and group meetings will be arranged by the institute committee during next week.

A special exhibit of books, periodicals and other materials on institute subjects will be located in Memorial hall all of next week.

Opening Address
The opening address will be given Sunday night at 7:30 by Dr. Stanley High, president of the "Good Neighbor League." Sponsored by the Grail, Dr. High will discuss "Goals of American Democracy."

Institute speakers will be arriving and departing throughout the week. One, Countess Alexandra Tolstoy, arrived yesterday in a station wagon and will take a room in Chapel Hill until her address next Thursday.

Methodist Choir

The Methodist church choir will present the "Crucifixion," by Stainer Friday night at 7:30. "The Crucifixion" is a cantata for tenor and baritone voices and chorus. Paul K. Gyles, of Greensboro, will sing the tenor solos and Dr. Sherman Smith, of Chapel Hill, the baritone solos.

Earl Slocum will direct the chorus of forty-four voices, with Mrs. Slocum at the organ.

Union Secures Two Speakers For Institute

Woman Labor Leader And Ex-Governor Are Secured

Mrs. Cornelia Brice Pinchot and ex-Governor John G. Winant of New Hampshire have been secured for the Human Relations Institute through the efforts of the Carolina Political Union, it was announced yesterday.

Mrs. Pinchot, wife of ex-governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania and prominent labor leader, will speak Saturday morning, April 3, at 10 o'clock on "Labor's Part in Recovery."

Court Issue

Ex-Governor Winant, former chairman of the Social Security Board, will speak Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. His topic has not yet been announced although it is thought that he will probably make some remarks in favor of the President's Supreme Court proposal.

Plans were discussed yesterday at the meeting of the union for a possible joint reception in honor of Senator Josiah Bailey and Governor Winant during their stay here in connection with the institute.

Injured Students Are Improving

Infirmary And Watts Hospital Report Victims Recovering

Local infirmary officials announced yesterday that William Hudson and J. L. Glenn, University students injured in an automobile accident on the Greensboro road Saturday, are recovering steadily.

Announcement came at the same time from Watts hospital in Durham that the condition of Horace Hamilton, Stuart Rabb, and Robert Dowd, students injured in the same crash, is good. Hubert Privette's condition was reported as seeming fairly good.

Orange County Commission May Call For Liquor Vote

Durham Believes Vote Might Break Dry Precedent

Meets Early In May

Carl Durham, Chapel Hill resident and member of the Orange county board of commissioners; yesterday said that the commissioners had as yet taken no action on a county liquor referendum nor would it be likely to do so until their regular meeting early in May.

Petition
Under the bill recently passed in the state legislature, each county may hold a vote to determine whether it will be wet or dry. If the commissioners do not call for such a vote, fifteen per cent of the qualified electorate may present a petition to the board calling for immediate action.

Old Statute
In the past Orange County has been consistently dry, although

Junior Head Again To Oppose Mullis

Candidate

Reuben Graham, who bucked and defeated the University party last spring to carry off the presidency of the junior class, yesterday consented again to run against Pete Mullis, his opponent last year, for the vice-presidency of the student body.

Play Festival Enters Finals Here Tonight

Wunsch To Open Third Day Of Dramatic Program

W. R. Wunsch, president of the Carolina Dramatic association, will open the third day's program of the 14th Annual Festival and State Tournament of the association this morning at 10:30 in the Playmakers theater with an address to all participants.

Final Contests
Following the address the final contests in puppet productions from high schools will be held. Schools taking part are Asheville, Aulander, and Salisbury. At 11:30 the Appalachian Play-

Non-Frat Track Star Running For Student Body Vice-President On Student Party

Will Oppose Allen-Mullis Combine In Spring Elections; Loomis Unopposed Yet

Grailman Reuben Graham, non-fraternity president of the junior class, consented yesterday to run for the student body vice presidency against the University party's nominee, Clyde E. "Pete" Mullis.

Graham will be the running mate of Student Council Secretary Bob Magill, also non-fraternity, who is opposing the University party's Marvin Allen, Kappa Sigma.

The Magill-Graham combination leads the ticket of the Student party, of which Bill Cole is chairman.

Defeated Mullis Before
Last year when the University party nominated Mullis for the presidency of the junior class, Dark Horse "Rube" ran independently against the machine candidate and defeated him.

Graham's friends have been persuading him to run as Magill's teammate for some time, but not until early yesterday morning did he consent.

Graham's Record
Graham has had experience in student government as a member of the junior class sub-structure honor council and as president of the third-year class this year. He has also served on the Graham Memorial board of directors, Union forum, Student Welfare board, Y. M. C. A.

As a track man, he is Southern conference indoor champion for the 70 yard high hurdles.

The campus honored him with membership in the Order of the Grail and the Monogram club in his Sophomore year. Non-fraternity, he is also the organizer of the so-called "Reuben Graham Plan" for holding regular socials in the Student Union.

Mullis's Record
Mullis, who is on the University party steering committee this year in an advisory capacity, was president of his freshman class, one of the founders of the freshman honor court, freshman basketball, Student council in his sophomore year, sophomore dance committee, Monogram club executive committee and vice-president, basketball team, mid-Atlantic champion junior diver, member of his class executive committee for three years, non-fraternity, self-help student, University party steering committee last year.

Bershak Refuses Nomination
The Student party offered yesterday to support Bershak for a senior class office; but Andy, who is backed by the University party for the presidency of the Athletic association, declined the nomination.

Other candidates on the Magill-Graham slate are: Joe Patterson, for president senior class; Jim Joyner for president junior class; Chuck Loomis for vice president senior class.

The University party has not as yet announced who will be Loomis' opponent.
