War Plans Threaten Peace Of Europe; Story On Page 5 The Daily Tar Beel in Don We Trust

VOLUME XLV

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 1937.

NUMBER 151

Trustees Will Open Cotton Mill

Georgia Seeks McKee, Ex-Con

Woman Claims McKee Played 'Bee' In Nude

Altanta Negress Who Swore Warrant Aganist Donbo Tells Story

Wabena Maxwell, colored, state's witness in the impending trial of The People v. Don Mc-Kee, last night issued the following statement to the press:

"I live in Atlanta on Peachtree Street. About 5 o'clock last Sunday I heard something like Jack Benny playing "The Bee" coming from that house next door where them Y. C. A. boys was staying. It like to drove me crazy but pretty soon it stopped and there was the awfulest groaning and whistling started you ever heard. I was just getting ready to phone up over there and ask them boys to quiet down when I heard the door slam. I looked out of my window and there one of them was lying on the grass with nothin' on. I yelled at him and he said: "'Hello, Lady-bo.'

"So I called the police. I hopes they put him in jail."

The Roving Thumb By Sir Fynger Knale, M. P.

SUPREME COURT LEGIS-LATES EXECUTIVE REOR-GANIZATION.

Washington-On-The-Potomac, April 23—In a 41/2 to 41/2 decision last night, the supreme court passed a bill which would place in the White House another chief executive for every President over 35 years of age. (Continued on page three)

This Is Rabb's Issue

For this issue the editors have taken a holiday, renounced all responsibility for what is printed, and turned the Daily Tar Heel over to Stuart Rabb to play with.

Chief among those assisting Stuart with this, the next to the last issue of the incumbent administration, were Pete Ivey, Bob duFour, Bob Perkins, Charles Gilmore, Gordon Burns, and Voit Gilmore.

Habeus Corpus Atlanta Police Asked For Tar Heel Chieftain Psychiatrists Study Mysterious

Extradition Counts

Governor E. D. Rivers of Georgia last night formally reproceed immediately with extradition processes against Don McKee, out-going editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL.

McKee is wanted in Atlanta on charges of indecent exposure, attempting to promulgate nudism on city property, profaning the Sabbath, and vagrancy.

McKee, with Bob Magill, Raymond McClinton, and Harry eral days study that he was a Comer, are said to have been in vagrancy charge.

E Pluribus Unum

McKee, according to a story of which there are several versions, finding the room in which he was staying overwarm, proceeded to remove his clothes. Finding his condition still too torrid, he proceeded to go out into the yard. The yard was adjacent to a busy street and Mc-

(Continued on last page)

Sally Rand Fans Sparks Of Youth In Local Faculty

Rumored That Famous "Bubble Dancer" Will Appear In Student Entertainment

New youth and rejuvenation took a firm hold yesterday afternoon on the University faculty members as the rumor spread that Dr. J. Primrose Harland and his budding student entertainment committee is completing arrangements to secure Miss Sally Rand and her fans and bubbles for the student entertainment series this quarter.

Miss Rand will be remembered by most of the older members of the faculty for her judicial use of white space at the Chicago World's Fair.

Protest

Certain upperclassmen have already started a protest committee which, according to reports is headed by a man, promin-

(Continued on page two)

Sub-Committee To Probe Frosh, Sophomore Coeds

The super-sub committee on staff elections will investigate a rumor that the grading system is preventing the admittance of freshman and sophomore co-eds to the University, it was announced yesterday by super-subchairman.

The charges against the "subversive system of mass grading" allege that over 300 students now attending W. C. U. N. C. and points west would have attended the University had it not been for the grade of "F" in the (Continued on page two)

Koch Won't Talk

Dr. Frederick H. Koch, professor of playwriting, founder and director of the Carolina Playmakers, and Head of the University's Department of Dramatic Art, stated yesterday afternoon that he had no comment for the press, and refused to be interviewed on future plans of the Playmakers or what he plans to do this summer.

Seize Groaning Boy As 'Crazy'

Noises Made By Carolinian

Atlanta, April 23—(Special) -A sandy-haired, rosy cheeked quested Governor Clyde Hoey to youth who groaned and whistled at the same time and who played the violin was detained for several hours at police headquarters here Sunday for questioning under a suspicion of mental derangement.

The youth gave his name as Don McKee. An examination of the answers to the questions asked McKee revealed after sevstudent at the University of This activity accounts for the he was suspected of attempting

(Continued on last page)

BULLETIN! Ivey Shot Down!

The wind blew fitfully last night as Pete Ivey was shot down in cold blood by pro-staff elections contenders and was rendered hors de combat.

Clutching a lone fuse to his chest (the last remaining fuse from the Graham Memorial fuse box) the poisonous-named Director shouted defiance to the winds and Don Mc-Kee who stood by with a trowel in his hand and a gleamless glitter in his good eye.

Staff Elections? No!

Those dear readers who remember that fatal elections day in April, 1937, will recollect the fiendish loudspeaker that defeated staff elections.

Jim Daniel and Lane (Continued on page two)

Offended

"Judge" Parker, Student Government head, against whom John Parker is bringing suit. J. J. Parker is supervising collec- available here," said Ex-Gover- mediately, partitions in Phillips tion of the debt.

Library To Become Super Radio Studio

Acting on the advice of Professor M. S. Breckenridge, the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina last night in a special executive session formally decreed that the Chapel Hill Unit be immediately transformed into a cotton mill. Provision was made on the suggestion of Governor Clyde Hoey, acting as chairman, that the library building be made over into a broadcasting station and that the Federal Communications commission be petitioned for permission to construct a 5,000,000,000 watt transmitter. This transmitter would be the most powerful artificial station in the world, exceeded only by the vocal talents of Senator Robert Rice Reynolds. The station is to be designated H-O-E-Y.

Cheap Labor

The trustees agreed with Proa cotton mill town. "Immense nor O. Max Gardner, "which will enable us to undersell the world fessor Breckenridge that Chapel market, to destroy the rayon in-Hill was admirably fitted to be dustry, and to bankrupt Japan." Under the remodeling plans quantities of cheap labor are which are to go into effect im-(Continued on page two)

Atlanta last Sunday attending an alleged Y. M. C. A. assembly. North Carolina, was editor of a newspaper there, and finally that a last Sunday attending newspaper there, and finally that a last Sunday attending newspaper there, and finally that a last Sunday attending newspaper there, and finally that newspaper there, and finally that a last Sunday attending newspaper there, and finally that newspaper there is not necessarily that newspaper there, and finally that newspaper there is necessarily necessar

Protestor

John Parker, chairman of Graham Memorial Directors, who is icable settlement. bringing action against Student Government head "Judge" Parker for non-payment of debts due Graham Memorial.

John To Force Judge To Pay Debts Or Face Parker

John Parker, as chairman of the Graham Memorial board of directors, has threatened to bring action against the University Student Government headed by "Judge" Parker in order to collect the pecuniary recompense for work done by the Graham Memorial Association for the Student Government

President of the Student Audit Board J. J. Parker who supervises collecery attempt to reconcile the heads of the two divisions and secure an am-

tions stated

in an interview yesterday that he will make ev-

In the meantime "Judge" Parker, speaking for the Student Government, maintained that no bills would be paid until he saw fit to place his official O.K. on them. As yet he has not recognized the Graham Memorial claim presented by John

Ivey Explains

A. Guy Ivey, director of Graham Memorial, suggested in an exclusive interview granted to a DAILY TAR HEEL staff reporter, that there should be a closer and more intimate cooperation between the heads of the three units. "Today we have a Great-The honorable Rudolpho R. er University in which three in-> legislative form of student government," commented Dr. in letter form for the editor.

The old order changeth, yielding place to the new, therefore it is not known as yet whether The University Dean of Wo- the DAILY TAR HEEL will conhead of local administration went off the air. The announcer, men, commenting on the request duct a student and faculty sur-

(Continued on last page)

Grand Jury Indicts McKeebo

Reporter Relates Horrible Torture At Deans' Hands

N. O. Gutts, Tar Heel Staff Member, Taken To Sanitarium After Mental Breakdown

yesterday afternoon following in the recent campus elections. what doctors termed "horrible shock" suffered while he was Kee's arrest was sworn out by building.

of unconsciousness Gutts gasped syndicate, said, "On April 8 our out a story of abuse and "mental corporation was broadcasting a torture" which he suffered while progam sponsored by several exnews gathering in the office of editors and disappointed poten-

(Continued on last page)

Sabotage And Grand Larceny rial cla Parker. Charges Found As True Bill

An Orange county grand jury yesterday found a true bill NEVER IN THE NEWS against Don McKee, late editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL, on N. O. Gutts, substitute report- charges of sabotage and grand er for the DAILY TAR HEEL, was larceny in connection with the removed to a private sanitarium campus daily editor's activities

The warrant which led to Mc-Between intermittent periods spokesman for the broadcasting the president and several deans. tial editors against staff elec-A DAILY TAR HEEL survey last tions. Our star, golden-voiced night showed that Gutt's first announcer was in the midst of visit was to the office of Dean one of the most beautifully FLASH House. While questioning the planned tirades when the station

(Continued on last page)

By The Forgotten Man

Reynoldo, U. S. Senator from stitutions are combined under Maine until the recent November one head, why can't these three fiasco, and a visitor yesterday titles be combined into one and substitute-reporting in South the operators and sponsors of to the Carolina campus, proved then there would be no conflict." radio station SYV. Pete Ivey, himself to be a man of feeling in "This situation would never spite of his political affiliations. have arisen if we had had the Graciously inviting private discussions following his speech on, "Why We Seceeded," was heard "Woodrow Wilson" Booker as to remark, "To one who has been he prepared another manuscript long in city pent, the feel of gravel in ones shoes is indeed a blessed thing."

(Continued on last page)