Student Council Postpones Final Judgment On Campus Legislature Until Tonight

Verbal Battles Prevent Definite Decision Of Members

Campus May Vote

Student council members gave an interested ear to the final reports of Parker's legislative committee last night but no definite action was taken on the proposals.

Members stated that they expected to arrive at a definite decision at a meeting scheduled for tonight.

Committeemen patiently explained their stand on issues involving the legislative plan to a council that bombarded them with already hashed and rehashed questions.

Representation

The crowded student council room resounded with arguments defending a congress with representatives drafted only from dormitories and fraternities and opposing arguments that would have campus organizations also represented.

Verbal battles also took place over the question of either drafting a statement of specific powers for the body to continue cam-

Texan Favors CPU Request

Congressman Maverick Agrees To Debate

Word was received by Frank McGlinn yesterday that Maury Maverick, Congressman from Texas, has accepted the invitation from the Carolina Political union to debate ex-governor Brewster of Maine on the Supreme Court question at the first anniversary celebration of the organization on May 20.

Ambassador Josephus Daniels, who will visit Chapel Hill during Commencement, also wired yesterday that he was attempting to prevail upon Governor Earle, probable material for presidential nomination, of Pennsylvania to come to the University under the auspices of the union, at some time during the spring.

Tentative List For Senior Week Activities Released

Golden Fleece Tapping To Open Festivities Sunday Night

Ivey Plans Stunts

The tentative schedule of activities for Senior Week was released yesterday by Mary Lindsay, chairman of the planning committee.

The festivities will begin Sunday night at 8:30 in Memorial hall with the tapping of new men by the Golden Fleece, highest honorary organization on the campus.

Monday's plans are indefinite and, because of Dr. Hoops' lecture, nothing is planned for Tuesday night.

Durham County Goes Wet 2 To 1

With returns late last night already indicating a larger number of votes than had been mentioned in any forecast, Durham County had reported 7,625 wet votes and 3,215 dry votes from 28 out of 33 precincts.

Voting got under way early yesterday morning on the legal liquor store question. While the opinions expressed by many persons interviewed at the elections polls differed and indicated a real element of doubt as to the outcome, the majority opinion appeared to be leaning toward the liquor store plan from the first.

In the 1933 repeal election Durham county cast 3,435 votes for repeal and 3,419 against it.

Voit Gilmore Made Editor '37 Handbook

Journalist Will Meet Students To Form Staff Today

Voit Gilmore, DAILY TAR HEEL news editor, yesterday was appointed editor of next year's Freshman Handbook by a faculty trio composed of Dr. Mackie, Dean Spruill, and Dr. Woodhouse.

Gilmore will select his own staff today, and jointly with the Gilmore last night issued a call for prospective Handbook copy assistants. He will meet any students desirous of Handbook experience in the Grail room this afternoon at 2:30.

Sit-Down Upheld In Di Upheaval

Senators Oppose Proposal As To Modern Strikes

In one of the most lively discussions held in the Di senate hall in a long while, the senate last night defeated both the bill calling for a widespread consolidation of counties in North Carolina and the proposal that sit-down strikes are merely a tool of organized labor.

Senator David Kerley led the discussion on the first bill. "Every county now has one representative in the legislature," he said, "no matter how large or small. If the system were really democratic, the number would be chosen according to population."

Kerley suggested the idea of abolishing all counties and turn-

Council Completes Inauguration Program

Maytime Will Bring Formal Inauguration Of New Campus Leaders

Pictured above are ten of the student leaders who were elected or appointed recently to head up the major campus offices of the men's organizations on the campus for the coming year. They are to be formally inducted into office at exercises to be held before the student body in Memorial hall next Tuesday.

Ivey Invites Frosh, Profs To Lawn Tea

Graham Memorial Lawn Scene Of Social Tomorrow

Following his policy of cementing the relations between faculty and students, Graham Memorial Director Pete Ivey has planned a freshman class party for tomorrow afternoon.

All members of the first year class are invited, and President Baxter Taylor has charge of seeing that faculty members who are in any way connected with the freshmen turn out to meet and fraternize with the yearlings.

Hostesses

Several wives of the freshman advisers will serve as hostesses for the fete. If the weather is favorable, lemonade and

Johnson Talks Before A. E. D.

Honorary Fraternity Gives Banquet

Reiterating his conviction that the medical profession is "the best profession in the world," President-elect of the North Carolina Medical society Dr. Wingate Johnson addressed Alpha Epsilon Delta last night in the first banquet of its kind in the history of the University.

The Winston-Salem doctor and author backed up his statement with an exposition of the six cardinal points of the medical profession, which, to his mind, were: Altruism, Forward-lookingness, Contempt for mere authority, Open-mindedness, Self-housecleaning of the profession, and Disregard for public opinion.

Med Dean

"Dr. Charlie" Mangum, dean of the University Medical school, prefaced Dr. Johnson's talk with the words, "We are just as much pre-medical students as you are."

The medical school head said that his division was, "On the

Charles Barr Missing Since Last Tuesday

Charles Joyce Barr, freshman from Goldsboro, has missing since April 20th. No news of his whereabouts has been received by his parents or University officials since his departure.

According to his roommate, Barr took no clothing or accessories with him, but it is believed that he had approximately $25 cash in his possession.

Barr registered at the beginning of the Winter quarter. He had the honor roll during that period and was also on the freshman track squad.

Debate Squad Heads North

Council Schedules Meet With Four Colleges

With Jim McMillan, president of the debate council, in charge, the University's debaters left yesterday from the northern swing, which will include debates on three questions with four colleges.

The first stop will be this evening when they meet the University of Virginia at Charlottesville with the Tar Heels taking the affirmative of the question, "Resolved: It is to the best interest of Virginia and the University of North Carolina to be members of the Southern Conference". Samuel Hobbs, Irwin D. Kadesh and McMillan will comprise the team for this discussion.

Wage Limitation

At the next stop, the City College of New York, Hobbs and McMillan will take the negative of the Pi Kappa Delta question, Resolved: That Congress shall be empowered to enact maximum hour and minimum wage legislation."

On April 29, Hobbs and Kadesh will attack the President's court proposal in a debate with Brooklyn College. The trip

Balding Made New Leader Of Spirit Club

University Club Also Elects John Moore, Gordon Burns

Jim Balding, Delta Psi, was elected president of the University club for the coming year at a meeting in Graham Memorial last night. Gordon Burns, A. T. O. and John Moore, D. K. E., were elected secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Nick Read, president of the out-going club, presided over the meeting and the election of Balding which was voted on by both old and new members. The other two officers were elected by the new members only.

Assistant manager of the track team and a rising junior, Balding has taken an active part in extra curricula activities as has Moore. Burns is also a member of the DAILY TAR HEEL staff.

Officers of last year's club were Nick Read, president; Randall Berg, secretary; and Frank Rogers, treasurer.

University Party Elects Joe Murnick New Chairman

Phi Defeats Bill Against Sit-Down

Assembly Tables Motion On Federal Anti-Lynching Act

After a heated discussion, the Phi assembly defeated by a vote of 9 to 12 a resolution to condemn the sit-down strike. A motion to express disapproval of the Federal Anti-lynching act was tabled for some later meeting.

Representative J. W. Rankin introduced a resolution suggesting a spring drive for membership and a bill that would provide information on important issues and questions through the medium of stenciled post-cards passed by vote of 9 to 7.

Ralph Miller and Henry Roth were received as prospective members.

Parker Plans Grand Parade For Induction

New And Old President To Address Meeting Of Student Body

Date Set At May 4

A grand parade composed of the entire student body and faculty, and headed by President Frank Graham and President John Parker, will march from South building to Memorial hall the morning of May 4 to inaugurate newly elected student officials.

The University band, stationed on the steps of the inauguration building, will blast a welcome to the procession as it orderly fills a vacant Memorial hall.

Planted against a background of officers-elect, who will decorate the stage, Dr. Graham will address the expected packed hall on some phase of student government.

Farewell Bid

He will be followed by Incumbent President John Parker who bids a farewell.

Bob Magill will immediately become Student Body President
