

Council Calls Vote On Campus Legislature

Spiritualist To Open Bag Of Tricks In Show Tonight

Student Entertainment Offers Magician On Program

Use Natural Means

Opening his program tonight with many and varied slight of hand tricks to set the stage for his more bewildering spiritualistic manifestations, mesmerism and East India magic, Paul Fleming will appear on the student entertainment series at 8:30 in Memorial hall.

Fleming will be supported by a company of two with whose assistance he will also do many tricks in mind-reading. This will be followed by the spiritualistic manifestations which include: "A talk with the late Madame Blavatsky," "A message from the spirit land," "and a reproduction of the famous dark seance of Madame Eusapia Paladino, the notorious Italian spirit (Continued on page two)

Beechnut Circus Gives Free Show

200 Mechanical Actors Take Part In Program

The campus was treated yesterday to a replica of the famous Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus.

The Beechnut Packing company, of Canajohorie, New York, has equipped a truck with a complete miniature "big top" show. At an original cost of $35,000, the Beechnut truck travels around the country, spreading Beechnut products advertising.

Free Samples

At each stop a comely lass, in Beechnut uniform, distributes free samples of all varieties of Beechnut chewing-gum, and a bona fide barker gives a spiel on the firm's commodities.

The show itself is alleged to cost the company more than 100 dollars each day. This sum includes the salary of the crew, and the expense of operating the (Continued on page two)

Better Prospects Shown For Senior Job Seekers

Investor's Syndicate Survey Reveals Brighter Employment Offers This Year

Employment prospects of this year's college graduating classes are only a little less favorable than those of the 1929 graduates, and substantially better than the June, 1936 classes experienced, according to a survey just completed by Investors' Syndicate, of Minneapolis.

Engineering, business administration, teaching and general business classifications are offering employment in greatest volume, according to J. R. Ridgway, president of Investors' Syndicate, in announcing the results of the study. Law, journalism, and investment banking are near the foot of the list, he said.

Questionnaires

These conclusions are based on analysis of questionnaires returned by 218 leading colleges and universities which account (Continued on page two)

Clara Proves Jinx Name To Rogerson

Assistant Controller's Wife And Secretary Having Identical Names Causes Trouble

Assistant Controller L. B. Rogerson claims a new angle on all "wife vs. secretary" stories. CLARA happens to be the name of his wife as well as his secretary.

Known to the campus at large as the "woman in red"—because of her love of red evening dresses and red flowers in her hair at dances—Miss Clara Gattis had been working for Mr. Rogerson only a short while when a wire addressed to his office upset her very much.

Weekend

It was an invitation for Mr. Rogerson to bring "Clara" and come up to "New York for the weekend to attend the game and a house party." Miss Gattis knew of no other "Clara."

After several moments' hesitation, during which time Mr. and Mrs. Rogerson's invitation nearly entered the waste-basket, she took the wire into her boss' office. He looked at her face and (Continued on page two)

Speakers Chosen For Educational Conference Here

Erwin, Miller And Trabue To Speak At School Board Conference

Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, state superintendent of public instruction; Dr. Julian S. Miller, editor of the Charlotte Observer, and Dr. Marion R. Trabue, director of the division of education in the University, are among those who have accepted invitations to speak on the program of the first State-wide School Board conference to be (Continued on page two)

Several Streets Undergo Repairs

Town Authorities Let Construction Contracts For Streets

The town authorities have let contracts for paving and repairing several of the streets in Chapel Hill. Because of recent heavy rains and frost heaves during this past winter, the town council decided to fix Pritchard avenue, Patterson Place, Kenan street, North street, Wilson street, and Glenburnie.

The firm of Cobb and Home-wood, local contractors, was successful in bidding for the jobs, and men are now at work on Pritchard avenue. The present contracts provide only for the installation of new concrete gutters and road facings. An official at the town hall stated that additional contracts for the remainder of the work would be let in the near future.

Spiritualist?

Paul Fleming, magician on the student entertainment series tonight, says that he accomplishes all his spiritualistic manifestations through natural means, but many of his reviewers have stated that his powers seem to be beyond human capacity.

Student Union Heads Name Ivey Director Another Term

Pharmacy School Sells Dance Bids In Howell Today

Limited Number Of Bids To Druggists Spring Dance Set Available

It was announced today that a limited number of bids to the pharmacy school's dance set will be offered for sale today and tomorrow from 10:30 until 12 o'clock in Howell hall. The price of the bids will be $2 a set.

The Pharmacists will begin their spring dance set Friday night with the figure to be formed with the officers and their sponsors. The rest of the set will be on Saturday with a tea dance in the afternoon and the closing dance that night. Freddy Johnson's orchestra will play for the set in Bynum gym.

Campus Officers' Training Course Will Open May 10

Heads Will Receive Instruction In Correct Procedure As To Official Duties

The second annual training course for newly elected campus officers will open on the evening of May 10th, it was announced yesterday by the Y. M. C. A., sponsors of the program.

All organizations on the campus are cordially invited to have their officers take advantage of this course which will run for four successive evenings, from 8 to 9 o'clock.

Procedure

There will be a course in parliamentary procedure for presidents and vice-presidents, and a separate course for treasurers. Each of these courses will be conducted by a highly trained specialist.

Mimeographed copies of the course on "Parliamentary Law and Procedure" will be ready for distribution by April 28, in order that the officers may have them far enough in advance to study the material prior to scheduled meetings. Officers may secure copies by calling at the Y. M. C. A. information office.

Arey Chosen To Aid Editor

Will Arey To Assist Gilmore

Will G. Arey, Jr., news editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL, was yesterday named managing editor of the 1937 Freshman Handbook by Voit Gilmore, newly-elected editor.

Others chosen to compose the staff of the freshman manual were: Gordon Burns, Bob Perkins, Allan Merrill, Raymond Lowery, Nancy Schallert, Bill Raney, Jesse Reese, Ken Murphy, Jerry Stoff, Shelley Rolfe, Harry Dewey, David Howard, and Frank Bowne.

Deadline

Gilmore set Monday as the first copy deadline and announced that insofar as possible all Handbook material will be prepared by the middle of May.

Board Commends Work; Postpones Action On Grill

At a meeting of the board of directors of Graham Memorial held yesterday afternoon, Pete Ivey, present director, was appointed to fill that post for the coming year. The board commended Ivey on his activities in his work for this past school year. Ivey's term will now expire in August, 1938.

The group voted to defer final decision on the continuation of the Graham Memorial Grill until the balance sheet for 1936-37 could be completed. If the figures are favorable to the Association, it is very likely that the Grill will be run during the 1937-38 year.

Haircuts

The board received a petition for the uptown barbers to raise the price of haircuts in Chapel Hill from 35 to 40 cents. Ivey and his fellow directors tabled the suggestion indefinitely.

A horseshoe-pitching tournament will be held in back of the (Continued on page two)

College Officers Will Visit Here

Georgia, Tennessee Campus Heads To See Universities

Newly elected campus officers from the University of Tennessee and Georgia will make Chapel Hill their Sunday and Monday stopover in a five day visit to Carolina colleges.

Before their return to the deeper South they will take in Davidson, Duke and Clemson.

Corresponding Carolina campus leaders will entertain the Georgia and Tennessee men in a banquet Sunday night. Both the incumbent and officers-elect will attend.

From the University of Tennessee comes the president of the student body, president of Beaver All Student club, editor of the paper, "Y" president, and its secretary general. The University of Georgia sends the editor of the paper, the editor of the annual, and the president, general secretary, and freshman president of the "Y."

Issue Will Require Simple Majority

Golden Fleece Tapping Calls Alumni Back

Men Will Be Picked In Annual Fete May 2

The 302 alumni members of the Order of the Golden Fleece, living in all sections of the country, have been invited to attend the annual "tapping" ceremony to be held in Memorial hall the night of May 2.

These Carolina alumni represent the men who, in the opinion of their contemporary Fleece members, represent the cream of University leadership.

They will see membership invitations extended to men from the present junior and senior classes who have attained "character and achievement" worthy, in the active members' opinion, of receiving the Order's recognition.

Present Members

The contemporary Fleece is composed of four active members, Fred Weaver, Niles Bond, Don McKee, and Charlie Poe. Six other men tapped last spring are not now in school. They are Jake Snyder, Harry Williamson, (Continued on page two)

Secretary Plans Alumni Meetings In Three Cities

Saunders Arranges Kinston, Greensboro, Winston-Salem Sessions In May

Through co-operation of the various alumni associations in the state, J. Marion Saunders, alumni secretary, announced yesterday that plans have been made to hold a number of alumni meetings in nearby cities with University officials as principal speakers.

On May 1, the Kinston alumni will meet and listen to a talk given by Saunders. The Greensboro group has scheduled its meeting for May 3 with Coach Ray Wolf as speaker.

Coach Wolf

At the dinner of the State Medical Society in Winston-Salem on May 4 arrangements have (Continued on page two)

Campus Talent To Cavort On Senior Stunt Program

Graduation Regalia Orders Taken In Y

All Seniors Urged To Come By Book Exchange This Week

"It is important that all seniors be measured for caps and gowns this week at the Book Exchange" says Boo Campbell, committee chairman.

According to Campbell, it is imperative that seniors be measured even if not assured of graduation. No deposit fee is required and no charge will be made those who fail to graduate.

The rental fee of $1.75 is payable at time of delivery.

Dormitory - Fraternity Discussions Will Be Held

Unicameral Body

Echoing the approach of what has been called the most significant political controversy since the recent political war, the Student council took long-awaited action on the legislature question last night when it authorized a campus-wide vote on the issue before the end of May.

Council members gained sanction of a motion stating that "the question of a proposed legislature be submitted to a student vote for approval or rejection, a simple majority of voting students being required to make acceptance of the proposal effective."

Discussion

At the conclusion of a two hour session called last night to answer to the hearing of Par- (Continued on page two)

A K G Festival To Show Pagan Village Rites

Coeds Will Give "Beauty And The God" Theme In Arboretum May 15

A May festival based on primitive spring rites will be presented in the Arboretum at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of May 15.

Sponsored by Alpha Kappa Gamma, the pageant has been arranged by Janie Britt and Christine Maynard. The theme of the pageant will be the early rites that many nations, especially the Greeks, used to celebrate the opening of spring.

The program will consist of a dance drama of nine dances, including a prologue and epilogue.

Beauty And The God

The opening of the pageant depicts the sorrow of the villagers at the wrath of their god. They seek to propitiate him with prayers and gifts, but in vain. The village children decide to choose the most beautiful of the village maidens to offer as a sacrifice to the god. The maiden is chosen to be their queen, but the god at first refuses to accept her. A frenzied dance and prayer finally propitiate the god, and coming to life on his altar in (Continued on page two)

Stuart Rabb and Bob duFour To Present "God's Country And The Other Woman"

Campus entertainment talent will be corraled the night of Thursday, May 6, in Memorial hall for the Senior Stunt program. The seniors are sponsoring the show for the whole student body and for the public.

Stuart Rabb and Bob duFour, fresh from their triumph of Student-Faculty Day in which they presented "Tar Heel Tonight," will appear again in an epic of the Yukon lumber campus, "God's Country and the (Continued on page two)