VOLUME XLV

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1937.

NUMBER 156

Student Government Makes Preparations For Inaugural Exercises Tuesday Morning

Parker Says Campus Will Convene At South

Will Bear Placards

As one of its last official acts, the outgoing student government administration issued yesterday a decree to the student body for the inauguration exercises Tuesday morning.

following message that students grand inaugural parade:

"All students in the Univer- pick of campus talent. sity shall meet in front of South building Tuesday morning at from the W. C. T. U., the S. P. Chapel period. Each dormitory C. A. and the Y. M. C. A., Wally and fraternity shall march to- Dunham and Jim Hutchins, gether. Placards bearing the amateurs deluxe, will do their M'Nair Talks name of your dormitory or fra- Apache Dance. Wally will play ternity will be placed at some the fair-haired buxom damsel; point between Gerrard hall and Jim is the rough, tough and the Playmaker theatre. The pro- throw-em-down artist. cession from South building to Memorial hall will begin prompt- boys, Stuart Rabb and Bob du ly at 10:30 a. m. Please be on Four, performers of Student-into Memorial hall and the of- campus, "God's Country and the ficers-elect have taken their po- Other woman." sitions of honor on the stage, John Parker will make his farewell address.

Robert Magill will follow Parker in making his inaugural address, and President of the Woman's Association Nancy Nesbit will take her position as coed leader.

President Frank Graham will conclude the exercises by delivering the principal address on some phase of student government.

Campus Will Hear Service Speaker Episcopal church.

Philadelphia Man To Explain Summer Camp Projects

W. Elmore Jackson, staff of the American Friends Service of Philadelphia will speak this morning from 10:30 to 11 o'clock in the Cosmopolitan room in the Y. M. C. A. on the "Volunteer Work Camps" which will run this summer to bring interested students in contact with some of the basic social and economic problems.

enroll young men and women to do constructive work during their holidays, and are said to be among the most stimulating Freshman's Tea summer projects open to socially minded people today. They are conducted primarily for col- Ivey Fears Grass Under Davie lege students and faculty by the American Friends Service Committee.

Student Workers There will be seven Work (Continued on last page)

Society Will Offer

"Modern Methods of Anaesthesia" Is Film Title

Methods of Anaesthesia" will be ture on the places on which the shown tonight at Caldwell hall freshmen sit, according to Dirat 7:30 p. m., under the sponsor- ector Ivey. ship of the Whitehead Medical society, an organization of first and second-year medical stu- wives who are in any way condents, which regularly brings nected with the Freshman class distinguished medical men to are invited without reservation. this campus.

cordially invited to attend.

Stunt Night Holds Thrills For Campus

Dunham, Hutchins Will Do Apache Dance Repeat For Gathering

Correlated for senior entertainment, but open for the whole President Parker urged in the student body and the public, the Senior Stunt program next and faculty heed the council's Thursday night in Memorial hall instructions in forming the will get underway with performances and thrills by the

After obtaining permission

The old "Tar Heel Tonight" Faculty Day, will appear again When the procession has filed in an epic of the Yukon lumber

> The 15 dirty black grains or sand will for the first time see (Continued on page two)

New 'Y' Leaders Will Be Intalled

MacFarland, Vick, Read, and Mc-Ginnis Are Among Retiring Officers

Official installation of new Y M. C. A. cabinet officers will take place on Sunday evening at Harry F. Comer, "Y" secreand next year.

(Continued on page two)

Musical Star

Mary Lillian Speck, junior coed, who, with Stanley Van Cise, will head the cast of 38 in "Say the Word," the original musical comedy to be presented by the recently organized "Wigue and Masque" club.

Will Be Given May 17, 18, 19

Thomas Of Dartmouth To Deliver Series Of Lectures

The McNair Lectures, the first series of this nature to be endowed at the University, will be delivered this year by Professor George Thomas of Dartmouth college on May 17, 18, 19, it was announced yesterday through the dean of students office.

Professor Thomas is the first In Office Sunday McNair lecturer since 1932. The John Calvin McNair of the class of 1849. There have been 20 lecturers in the series which be gan in 1908.

Training

Trained at S. M. U., Yale, and 7:15 o'clock in the chapel of the Harvard, and a Rhodes scholar ning competitors in the contest straight "swing" of Benny longs to a group of younger second prize and a $5 third prize. tary, will begin the program by American scholars in philosophy Prizes will not be in cash, but in CPU Presidency reading the names of those who especially interested in value its equivalent in books from the will take over the new positions theory. They attempt to dis- Bull's Head bookshop. for the remainder of this year cover the place in a physical and biological process of idea and English department has con- McGlinn Will Retire From Of George MacFarland was presi- ideals with their ethical impli- sented to be one of the judges in dent of the Junior-Senior cabinet cations for government, busi- the contest. Others have not ness, and social organization.

Club Chooses Officers

Two Students Wed In Secret

Miss Peake, Baron Harkins Married Last Night

Miss Nellie Peake and Herschel "Baron" Harkins were married last night in a secret ceremony held in Bennetsville, S. C.

Miss Peake, a junior in the University, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Peake of Norfolk, Va. She was attended during the marriage ceremony by Miss Martha Rose.

Harkins, a transfer from Da vidson and a senior in the Uni versity, is the son of Judge and Mrs. Thomas H. Harkins of Asheville. He is a socially prom-

Mr. and Mrs. Harkins met during the spring holidays. Their surprise wedding followed trip to South Carolina yesterday afternoon. Although their plans nounced, it is believed that they next week.

Book Contest Nearing Close

Collection Deadline I May 1

series is supported by the will of library, who are sponsoring the Syracuse, and has broadcast ovbook collection contest, yester- er the three principal national day wished to warn all partici- chains. He has just finished pants that their contributions playing for a set of dances at the should be gotten together before University of Pennsylvania. the deadline on May 1.

The prizes to be given to winat Oxford, Professor Thomas be- include, a $15 first prize, a $10

> Professor H. K. Russell of the been obtained as yet.

Members Overflow Room To Elect Umstead Head

Kaye Concert Is Announced By Committee Over In 15 Minutes

Bids Go On Sale This Week In "Y" Says Chairman

The Junior-Senior dance committee announced last night that ternoon to elect John Umstead, plans are being made for Sammy Haughton Ehringhaus, Morris Kaye and his orchestra to give a Fitz, and Louis Gordon as ofconcert Friday evening, May 7, ficers. in Hill Music hall from 7:30 to 8:30. Alpha Tau Omega has arranged with the committee to have the orchestra for a fraterinent member of Phi Delta nity dinner dance on Saturday night, which will complete Kaye's schedule of hours.

dance will be available in the there was in inflow of new votlobby of the Y. M. C. A. during ers. Wednesday and Thursday of next week, according to Claude men lined the walls and crowded for the future have not been an- Hobbs, chairman of the commit- the doorways to cast a hand-raistee. The set will consist of two ing ballot for their candidates in will return to the University tea dances and two evening an election-counting which last-

> Hobbs was unanimously selected by the committee as manager of the dances.

Vocal Trio

Featured with the Kaye en semble is a vocal trio known as the "Three Barons," and several solo singers. Kaye formerly Officials of the University played at the Hotel Syracuse in

The Kaye style is said to be "swingy" rather than the (Continued on last page)

Election Is Today

fice May 20

In an election preliminary this afternoon at 5 p. m., the Carolina Political union meets to consider the man among its members who will soon be chosen to fill the position of its present

Frank McGlinn, head of the union and the DAILY TAR HEEL'S "Hit of the Year" among cam-Nine or ten campus leaders pus leaders, will abandon his will feel the grasp of a hooded post to the new chairman around May 20.

His successor will be given significant organizations.

Candidates

Members of the union listed among the prospective candinounced "Jason" or president dates are Alex Heard, Leighton Dudley, Nancy Nesbit, Stuart (Continued on page two)

Radio Program

Kathryn Kennard, cellist, Gene- and the gown is not paid for un-The meaning and purpose of vieve Griffey, violinist, and less it is actually used at gradua University, include "Let's Take the Golden Fleece as a campus Nancy Smith, pianist, will pre- ation. This Night," "Take A Look At institution was expressed in last sent a quarter-hour program All faculty members and their Life," "Till Love Hits You," and year's ceremonial address as an over radio station WDNC tomor- were asked to come to the "Y" > and lyrics by Fred Tunick; Verbally this is true. Back of Beethoven's First Movement o'clock Saturday to place their Trio in C Minor, two Bavarian orders for commencement inviwaltzes and Debussey's Rom- tations. All orders must be made

Ehringhaus, Fitz And Gordon Are Chosen Other Officers

Catching a last snack of hurriedly eaten lunch, a crowd of German club members, mostly fraternity men, rushed over to Dr. Zimmermann's Ec. 11 class room in Bingham yesterday af-

Smashing the tradition of upto-the-minute punctuality in opening the election session, or as it has been called "before-theminute" punctuality, incumbent President Randy Roland, Sigma Chi, delayed the meeting almost Bids for the upperclassman ten minutes. During the interim,

When the room had been filled, ed only 15 minutes.

Phi Delta Theta

After a motion had been booed down to move to more ample quarters, Ramsay Potts, Phi Delta Theta, rose to nominate Deacon Rogers, Phi Delta Theta, for club president.

Jim Finlay, D. K. E., followed Potts by naming the victorious candidate, John Umstead, Kappa Sigma, to oppose Rogers.

Chairman Roland named Umstead victorious without a count. but Al Miller, Phi Delta Theta, rose to demand a tally on the raised hands.

Rogers succumbed by a 154-

117 vote. Johnson Harris, Phi Gamma

Delta, lost to Horton Ehringhaus, D. K. E., for the vicepresidency in a 133-129 vote. Although this was only a four majority, there was no recount.

The losing side failed to offer more opposition and Morris Fitz, Sigma Nu, and Louis Gordon, S. A. E., gained victory without opposition.

When the filled-with-action 15 minutes were over, Jim Finlay had nominated all the winning candidates.

The last five president of the organization were members of D. K. E., Sigma Nu, Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Chi, and Zeta Psi. Umstead is a Kappa Sigma.

Deadline Nears For Invitations Orders. Gown Measurements called one of the campus' most Seniors Must Place Orders For

Graduation Equipment This Week

"Boo" Campbell yesterday urged all seniors who have any possibility of graduating to come to the Book Exchange and be measured for commencement gowns this week.

The cost, contrary to rumor, A pianoforte trio, composed of is $1.75. No deposit is required,

At the same time all seniors either from 2 to 3 o'clock this The program will include afternoon, or from 10:30 to 1 no later than 1 p.m. Saturday.

Hooded Fleece To Tap Sunday

The Volunteer Work Camps New Musical Comedy, Say The Word,' Has Eight Hits

Set For May 10

Will Dampen First Year Men

til Tuesday, May 10, it was an- 11th, 12th, and 13th of May. Med Movie Tonight nounced yesterday by Pete Ivey, Director of the Student union.

the grass under the Davie Pop- tered for copyright. A movie entitled "Modern lar unsponging too much mois-

Faculty

Tea and crumpets will be servvisers will pour.

Mary Lillian Speck To Star In Coming Wigue And Masque Production

Featuring eight songs written by members of the club, and The freshman tea, sponsored with Mary Lillian Speck as the by Graham Memorial and the love interest, the Wigue and Freshman class, which was or- Masque will present their origiiginally scheduled for yesterday nal musical comedy, "Say the afternoon, will be postponed un- Word," in Memorial hall on the

Jimmy Fuller, local band leader, is orchestrating the music for Apparently there is danger of the songs which have been regis-

The selections written for the pected to attend. play, which is a satire on life at "A Girl Came Into My Life," organization which taps men for row afternoon at 3:45 o'clock. with music by Dave Lieberman "character and achievement. "Spinning The Bottle," by Ged-the words, however, is a deep All pre-medical students are ed. Wives of the Freshman ad- die Monroe; "Never To Love conviction upon the part of the (Continued on last page)

Public May Attend Mystic Rites Of Society

arm in a darkened Memorial hall Sunday night at 8 p. m. and will rise to acknowledge membership the responsibility of piloting in the Order of the Golden through next year what has been Fleece. A crowd of curious students and townspeople will see the new members fill a spotlight and listen to the words of a yet unanfrom the stage. The ceremony will be followed by a banquet at the Carolina inn in honor of the new members. The actives and alumni are ex-

(Continued on last page)