

The Daily Tar Heel

THE ONLY
COLLEGE DAILY
IN THE SOUTH

VOLUME XLV

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1937.

BUSINESS PHONE 4356

NUMBER 162

WEATHER:
Fair and Warmer

Junior-Senior Dance Leader List Released

Annual Set Will Begin
With King Of Sway;
Concert Today

To the sway rhythm of Sammy Kaye's nationally-known band and songs by his featured soloists, the senior week festivities will come to a close this weekend with the annual Junior-Senior dance set. Prominent campus leaders in both classes, and their dates will take part in the figure.

Dance bids will be distributed to members of the Junior-Senior classes who have not yet obtained them at chapel period this morning. This is the last chance.

Tickets for the Kaye concert in Hill Music Hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock are now on sale at the "Y" and by members of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Leaders, Sponsors

Dance leaders, including junior and senior class officers, and their sponsors are as follows:

Junior class officers; Reuben Graham, president, with Miss

(Continued on page two)

Seniors Elect Men To Fill Alumni Posts

Class Of '37 Chooses
Fred Weaver New
Alumni Head

Members of senior class, meeting in the Carolina inn here Wednesday night, elected the following alumni officers to serve for the next two years: Fred Weaver, president; Niles Bond, vice president; and Eli Joynner, secretary.

When the class of '37 has its first reunion in 1939, it will have the opportunity to re-elect the officers or to choose others to fill their places.

History Explained

Before the election took place, J. Marion Saunders, alumni secretary, gave a short history of the alumni association and explained its objectives. Mr. Saunders also explained that the Dix plan,

(Continued on page two)

Students Asked For Cooperation

"All students attending the Junior-Senior dances are asked to cooperate in respecting the two hour limit allowed girls after the night dances.

"This regulation is a student adopted act and therefore students are responsible for the observance. We must make every effort to raise the standing of University dance conduct in the state and elsewhere. The student body can hope to govern its dances only as long as it observes the regulations which it has set up.

(Signed) Student Council; Niles Bond, Senior class; Rube Graham, Junior class; Randy Rowland, German club; Marvin Allen, Chm. dance committee; Tom Hall, Inter-Dorm council; Henry Clark, Inter-frat. Council.

Among The Sponsors Here This Weekend

SARAH COPELAND

BETTISUE HEATH

MARY BANKS McPHERSON

BETTE STOVER

NANCY CLARK

EVA ALLEN MANN

MARY CURTIS HOBBS

MARY LAWSON

ANNE LEIGH CHANDLER

JANE WILEY

MERLE E. TYSON

LUFRED BROOKS

NELL CHOATE

These thirteen girls are among those from near and distant points who will come to the University today to act as sponsors for this weekend's annual Junior-Senior dance set. The festivities begin at 4:15 this afternoon with the initial tea dance. Another tea dance is scheduled for the same hour tomorrow. The Junior Prom begins at 9:30 tonight and the Senior Ball ends the set tomorrow night.

Hinett Will Play Comedy Hits

Rising Senior Heads Picked

Patterson Names Next
Year's Committee

Joe Patterson, who took over the presidency of next year's senior class on inauguration day Monday, announced yesterday the 18 rising seniors that he had appointed as members of his senior class executive committee.

The dance committee will be appointed either later on this quarter or during the early part of next fall.

Committee Members

Patterson's committee members are Hall Conley, chairman, Earl Ruth, John Foreman, Phyllis Hawthorne, Ramsay Potts, George Riddle, Newton Craig, Chuck Loomis, Bill Robertson, Mac Smith, Pete Mullis, Mary Lillian Speck, Worth Farlow, Nick Read, Morris Lipton, Ed Hamlin, John Umstead, and David Meroney.

Representative Group

"The executive committee, though rather large for a senior committee, is not too large to function well," Patterson stated. "It is a very representative group, with its members selected from the coeds, town students, self-help students, fraternity and non-fraternity men."

"The list," he continued, "is subject to addition and revision throughout next year."

The committee will meet for the first time during the next two weeks.

N B C Swing King To Broadcast At 2:30

Wigue, Masque Musicals
Top Program Today

Arthur Hinett, N. B. C.'s swing king of the organ, will play five of the Wigue and Masque selections from "Say the Word" over the N. B. C. Red Network today at 2:45 eastern standard time and the program will be rebroadcast through WPTF, Raleigh, according to information received from New York yesterday by Tim Elliot, publicity manager for the production.

Arrangements were made for the broadcast by Elliot who formerly announced for Hinett.

Kyser Coming

Kay Kyser, who had been sent copies of the music for the eight original songs written by

(Continued on last page)

Leonard Levitch To Lead Another Gay Sing Sunday

Many New Songs Will Feature
Program In Graham Memorial
Sunday Night

Impressario Leonard Levitch will conduct another of the famed Graham Memorial community song-fests Sunday night in the Lounge at 8 o'clock.

An elaborate program has been arranged that includes 15 songs for the entire audience. Some of these are to be parodies on old favorites, but it is doubtful that any will scale the

Union Offers Seniors Fete

Class Invited To Tea
Under Davie Poplar

Under the auspices of Graham Memorial, the seniors and faculty will have a joint fiesta at 3 o'clock this afternoon under Davie Poplar.

Pete Ivey, Graham Memorial director, announced yesterday that all seniors are urged to bring their Junior-Senior dance dates to the party. He hopes that the prospect of many lovely lasses will be an effective lure to the jaded eyes of the educators.

The tea will be a radical departure from the run of such occasions, as there will be no tea served. Lemonade will be the beverage, and with it will be cookies and other sweets. But no crumpets. Director Ivey, af-heights of popularity established by "Heark the Sound of Drunken Voices" introduced at the last sing.

(Continued on page two)

Entirely New

Sunday night's program will consist of an entirely new set, none of which have appeared on a previous program.

The Chi Omegas will supply a bevy of beautiful songsters for the event, and a trio from the coming Wigue and Masque

(Continued on last page)

Heard Is Selected New CPU Leader

Freshman-Faculty
Tea Will Be Given
During Next Week

The freshman-faculty tea which was originally planned for week before last will take place the middle of next week. Following the precedent which will be established by the seniors today, the yearlings plan to hold their party under Davie Poplar.

Baxter Taylor, president of the first year class said he trying to enlist several faculty wives to serve the refreshments. All members of the faculty who are in any way connected with the freshman class are invited to attend.

Fifteen Students To Receive Free Rent At Meeting

First 15 To Call By Comer's Office
Get Free Room At Blue
Ridge Conference

Harry F. Comer, "Y" secretary, announced yesterday that the first 15 University students dropping by his office today and registering for the forty-first annual southern student conference to be at Blue Ridge June 8-17 would receive their room rent at the camp this summer absolutely free.

Blue Ridge is a summer resort of 1800 acres of land, and 40 buildings, with lake and other athletic facilities. It is located in the western part of the state near Black Mountain, N. C.

Last year the University sent 40 delegates to the conference. Plans have been made this year to take care of approximately 50 students. All "Y" cabinet members, and any other University students who may be interested in joining in the activities of the conference are welcome to go.

Comer will be in his office today in the Y. M. C. A. from 2 to 5 p. m.

Hillel Foundation To Offer Debate

Jewish Delegation From University
Of Georgia To Speak

The year's last meeting of the Hillel foundation at 7 o'clock tonight in Graham Memorial will offer for a public audience a debate between a Jewish delegation from the University of Georgia and the debate team of the foundation.

The subject is "Resolved that Religion is the Strongest Factor in Jewish Revival."

University members of the team are David Karesh, Herbert Katzenstein, and Maurice Edwards, alternate.

Members of Team

The orthodox service will start at 7 p. m., the Reform service at 7:15, and the debate at 7:30.

At the last meeting of the foundation, Eddie Kahn was elected new president and Herbert Alderman secretary.

Infirmary

Those confined to the University infirmary yesterday included N. A. Bergs, Glin Yearger and J. C. Jammerson.

Nesbit, Dudley, Merrill
Also Chosen As New Executives

Takes Office May 11

Seventeen members of the Carolina Political Union gathered around the table in Graham Memorial's Grail room yesterday afternoon and elected Alex Heard as the successor to Frank McGlenn as chairman of the organization for next year.

Heard steps into the shoes of the man that the DAILY TAR HEEL branded as the "Hit of the Year" because of his leadership success.

Recognition

Nancy Nesbit, president of the Woman's Association, was unanimously elected as the vice-chairwoman in recognition of her contributions to the Union.

Leighton Dudley, defeated candidate for the chairmanship, won a unanimous vote for the secretaryship, which McGlenn called "probably the most responsible job of the organization"

(Continued on last page)

Law Students Honored Here With Dinner

Awards Conferred By
Dean Van Hecke
Last Night

Sidney J. Stern, Jr., of Goldsboro and James Andrew Weltons, Jr., of Smithfield were elected to the North Carolina chapter of the honorary law school society, Order of the Coif, at the annual banquet of the law school association last night at the Carolina inn.

Dean M. T. Van Hecke announced the honors and awards for the year. For the best total contribution to the North Carolina Law Review during the year, James M. Verner, of Asheville, was awarded the George Watts Hill Law Review prize of fifty dollars.

Editor Appointed

Winfield Clary Holt, of Greensboro, was appointed student editor-in-chief of the North Carolina Law Review for the year 1937-38. James M. Verner was appointed associate editor and Charles Marshall Ivey, Jr., of Concord, book review editor.

(Continued on last page)

Dance Group Lists Rules

The student body is reminded to observe the rules of the University dance committee this weekend, as well as all times. The regulations are listed as follows:

- (1) No drinking allowed at dances.
- (2) No smoking on dance floor.
- (3) Girls cannot leave dance and return.
- (4) Girls must be in rooms two hours after dances.
- (5) Conduct must be good at all times at all dances.

(Signed) University Dance Committee.