Ivan And Ray Dazzled By Glitter Of Big Time Lights

Some day, some place a collegiate boxer is going to splash briefly in the wet pool of local fame, clamber back to shore, shake himself, and promptly forget all about it. Perhaps some day, some place, perhaps.

Impressed by his own ferociousness and lured by the image-evoking chatter of circus-barker press agents, Ivan Nedomatsky said yes and signed a five-year contract with Pete Reilly, former manager of Bat Battalino and Mike Belloise.

It's not news. The Baltimore newspapers made up his mind for him way back when the friendly spirit of Christmas prevailed last winter. Modestly, the Terrible Twerp made his debut against an amateur named Abrams in a benefit show for some fireman last Wednesday. We can't tell you the result. The bout failed to rock the sporting world enough to get into print.

At the end of the month, he is slated to meet Mutt Womer, Virginia's Southern conference champion of 1935, who has been kicking around the professional ruts for the past two years. It will make wonderful copy for color-seeking sports writers of Richmond and Charlottesville newspapers.

(Special to the DAILY BLAH)

May 29—All the color of the collegiate ring will surround the fighters with a rainbow-hued nimbus here tonight when college-educated Ivan Nedomatsky meets Virginia-educated Mutt Womer in a ten-round grudge fight which dates back to the campus days when both men were fighting for Southern conference honors, etc. etc. Oh, it will make mighty good copy!!

And Ray Matulewicz, too, has joined the swing of the professional ring and signed up under Coach Add Warren for a fling in big time. His first bout will be a tasteless one against Red Lewis, admittedly a trial horse, in Durham the 21st of this month.

Quickly forgotten is the realization that hefty Jack Torrance, colored with intentional or unintentional publicity concerning the genuineness of his victories, took the biggest flop of several seasons in New York against a third rate professional. Richmond university's Frank Tymosko found the row a tough one to hoe and hung up his gloves after a brief jab session.

Potts Defeated In Princeton Match

Fetzer Field Is Scene Of New Tourney

Seniors Place Second In First Day Of Tournament

The initial interclass track meet got off to a flying start yesterday afternoon when nine qualifying and one final event were staged.

By qualifying 26 men for the finals this afternoon, the Sophomore class bids fair to cop team honors and with Bill Hendrix already having captured a first place in the 660 yard run the second year men seem headed toward victory. The Seniors came next with 15 men placing in the heats while Freshmen placed 13, one more than the Juniors.

Sophomores monopolized the javelin throw when six second year men qualified for the finals. Richards with a heave of 180 ft. showed the way.

Bill McCachren gave the Sophomores another first place when he paced the qualifiers in the shot put with a throw of 40 ft. 6 1-2 inches. Corpening's time of 15.1 seconds in the first heat of the high hurdles added another first for the Sophomores. Corpening, besides pacing the high hurdles, also won his heat in the lows as well as showing the best mark in the broad jump.

660 Finals

Only one final event was staged that going to Bill Hendrix in the 660 yard run. Parker, a junior, led the way for the initial 330 yards but faded going into the homestretch and both Bob Gardiner and Bill Hendrix passed him on the last turn. Hendrix then proceeded to outrun Gardiner and Davis, who challenged Gardiner for second place as they hit the tape.

Times and distances in all events were much above the coach's expectations and this afternoon's finals should show some keen competition between the ace trackers of their respective classes.

Finals Today

Field events will again start the ball rolling this afternoon as the weight men enter the final round at 2:30 with the initial track event, the 3-4 mile run, getting under way at 3:00. Fifteen events are carded for the final day and the class champion will be crowned at the conclusion of the 1 mile relay at 4:30.

Summary

The first man listed had the best time or distance, all others qualify for this afternoon's events.

Javelin throw: Richards (Soph), McLean (Grad.), Watson (Soph), Maronic (Soph), Marks (Frosh), Hilton (Soph), Van Kirk (Soph), Fleming (Soph). Dist. 180 ft.

Shot Put: McCachren (Soph), Juliber (Jr.), Wrenn (Sr.).

Golfers Take 14-4 Decision From Citadel

Devil Outfit Favored To Take Conference Tournament

Special to the DAILY TAR HEEL
Pinehurst, N. C. May 7—Carolina's undefeated golf team won its eighth match of the season over the par 72 number two championship course here today, defeating Citadel, 14-4.

Du Pont Kirven led the Carolina shotmakers with a 76 for the best score of the day to down Citadel's Doe, 3-0. In best ball play Kirven and Hamilton teamed up for the Tar Heels to defeat Doe and Daniels for Citadel, 2 1/2-1/2.

Clarence Klutz and Dick Hicks took their match, 3-0, from Mayo and Thorne of Citadel. In individual play Klutz downed Thorne, 2-1; and Hicks swept Mayo, 3-0.

Tomorrow the Tar Heels start play in the Southern Conference golf tourney which will attract nine teams. Duke's Blue Devils, by virtue of their victory in the state championship play rate favorites to take the Southern

Boys From Bynum Showed Great Precision And Rhythm Working On The Bars

The series of gym exhibits given during the year came to a perfect close as the squad, billed as "The Men on the Flying Trapeze" on the Stunt Night program, went through their smoothest performance of the year.

The veracity of the above statement was corroborated by the prolonged applause of the spectators after the curtain went down over the last figure. The single figures, opening the act, went off quickly and in perfect time. The multiple figures were unmarred by the rather sloppy dismounts which were to be seen in past performances.

Varsity Meets State Today; Deaclets Down Babies 11-4

Tar Heel Nine Hopes To Repay Former Defeat By Terrors

Carolina's varsity baseball team moves on Raleigh today to engage the State Red Terrors in a return engagement of their annual home and home series. Two weeks ago the Wolfpack nine came to Chapel Hill and whitewashed the Hearnmen behind Connie Mac Berry's effective six hit hurling.

Bunn Hearn will probably send Carolina's twirling ace, Daffy Parker, after today's game. Parker has taken six of the Tar Heel's ten wins, and has dropped but one tussle this season. He will probably be opposed by Berry of State.

Ed Bullard will return to the line-up today. He was out of action during the Davidson game due to a sprained ankle, but Coach Hearn allowed yesterday he would be ready for action against State.

Oleks Paces Invaders As Freshmen Fail To Turn Tide

J. Franklin Jones, the "Four Oaks Flash", made his freshman debut behind the bat on Emerson field yesterday afternoon, but all of his efforts couldn't keep the Wake Forest Deaclets from scoring 11 times to the Tar Babies' 4.

Paced by a homer and a triple by Oleks, Wake Forest scored five times in the first frame and once more in the second. The Deaclets hopped on George Ralston in the first inning for five runs on four hits including Oleks' homer, and a base on balls. In the second Oleks tripled to left and came in when Vincent threw wild from left field.

Deaclets Finish Scoring
The Deaclets finished up their scoring on Ralston by sending a single tally across in the fifth and a trio of runs across in the sixth. Chestnut relieved Ralston in the eighth and was touched for the final two Wake Forest markers.

Wake Forest hurler Denning kept the Tar Babies hitless and unrun until the fourth when Austin beat out the first of his two infield hits and Mathes walked. Berini flew to center to score Austin but the rally ended when Mathes was nipped at home trying to score on the hit.

Austin opened by legging out a hit to third. Mathes followed with a line hit to center. Mitchell bunted and was safe when Dennings tried to get Austin coming into third. With bases loaded, Fowler pushed a drive through Titmous to tally Austin and Mathes. Mitchell scored the concluding tally on Berini's grounder to second.

Captain Takes First Defeat In Two Years

Tar Heels Take All But Two Singles Sets To Win 7-2

Princeton, N. J. May 7—Playing a heady and steady game at the baseline and at the net, Princeton's Bill Winslow defeated Ramsay Potts, Carolina's third ranked intercollegiate singles player in straight sets here this afternoon, though all but one of the remaining singles matches and all the doubles went to the Tar Heels in their 7-2 victory.

Hampered by slippery courts and queer bounces, the Carolina captain lost his first singles match in two years in 8-6, 7-5 sets. Carlton Rood lost to Rawls 6-2, 6-4 for the Carolinians third singles defeat of their six game northern trip.

Taking advantage of their opponents apparent over-confidence, the Nassau team pushed the Tar Heels in every set, the Oelsner-Rawls pair stretching Foreman and Robinson to three sets before the visiting pair ran out the last set 6-3.

Concluding their northern trip and their dual meet competition of the season, the Tar Heel netters swing their rackets on the Annapolis courts tomorrow against the service team. The 7-2 win over Princeton this afternoon was the first time season that the Chapel Hillians have lost more than one match in a meet.

Summary:

Winslow (P) over Potts 8-6, 7-5.
Henderson (C) over Oelsner 6-0, 6-3.
Fuller (C) over Martin 7-5, 6-3.
Rawls (P) over C. Rood 6-2, 6-4.
Foreman (C) over Peolr 6-4, 1-6, 6-2.
Robinson (C) over Baker 6-3, 6-1.

Potts-Fuller (C) over Winslow-Fraker 6-4, 6-2.
Foreman-Robinson (C) over Oelsner-Rawls 9-7, 3-6, 6-3.
Henderson-Farrell (C) over Martin-Baker 6-2, 6-3.
