Netters Play Each Other
In State Finals

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1937.

WITH LEAVE TO PRINT...

By
HOWE

Because he saw fit to cut classes for three days after being warned by his adviser, Sophomore Al Doyle asked for scholastic trouble and got it. After playing fine tennis in the state tournament, Doyle threw away his opportunity to compete in the Southern conference tourney this week-end. . . . Though Princeton, familiar with every nook and cranny of its own courts, was the first team this season to take more than one match from the Carolina team, the best team met this year by our undefeated bunch was Yale. . . . Bill Winslow took three love games from Ramsay Potts in as many sets in the number one match at Princeton. . . . The Daily Princetonian's tennis writer was pessimistic enough to concede the Tar Heels a 9-0 victory.

Strong on the dual meet spirit but weak in conference play, the Carolina golf team has swept through an undefeated dual meet season but has failed to astound tourney galleries. Inhibited or something, the golfers have failed to worry the leaders of either the Southern intercollegiate, the State, or the Southern conference tourneys.

Playing without their stars, Ross and Snow, the Davidson team shadowed Duke university's crack golfers all over the Pinehurst course Saturday in the course Saturday in the conference play-off, finally ending up but one point behind the Blue Devils.

A week or so earlier, Kirven, Hicks, Clark and Klutz defeated Ross, Snow and Davidson 12-6.

Laurence Leonard, the Greensboro News' sports writer, picked the winning nag in the Kentucky Derby. He's the only one we've heard of who did. . . . Smith Barrier, sports editor of the Alumni Review, is pulling a Barry Wood act on us—he's writing a book on football. . . . Coach Bunn Hearn's mound staff is still a stripling. Not one of his four pitchers had seen action in a varsity game before this year, but they have given Carolina nine wins, five losses and one tie. . . . The best of the bunch, Dave Parker, has won eight of them and lost one. . . .

Netmen Play State Finals Today, 2 P.M.

Varsity Netters Meet Each Other For Two Titles

Having assured themselves of a nice little niche among the unbeaten tennis teams of the nation, the Tar Heel netters will strike out for individual honors this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the semi-finals of the state singles and doubles tournament on the varsity courts.

As in years past, the Carolinians have eliminated all outside competition and will have a jolly inter-squad competition. The finals in both divisions will be run off tomorrow.

Foreman Vs. Fuller

Johnny Foreman, having eliminated defending champion Archie Henderson just before the team started north, will meet Ed Fuller in the only scheduled semi-final singles match for the opportunity to play Ramsay Potts in the final. The latter defeated Doyle, Farrell, C. Rood and Wall to step into the final bracket.

In the semi-finals of the doubles play, Henderson and Farrell will play Carolina's number-two combination, Foreman and Robinson, the winning pair attempting to dethrone Potts and Fuller in the finals tomorrow.

Coach Kenfield was uncertain yesterday which Carolina players would be entered in the Southern conference tourney at Richmond, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Golf Squads Hold Unofficial Match

Varsity Gains 14-4 Decision From Freshman Mates

In an informal match held yesterday between the varsity and freshman golf teams the varsity gained a 14 to 4 decision with every man shooting in the seventies and with Neal Herring, freshman number four, equaling par.

Strange as it might seem, the number four men on each of the teams had the lowest score. Dick Hicks shot a 72 to have the medal for the varsity and gained half a point in his match with medalist Herring. Herring played consistent golf, taking a

School Nines To Play Here

Four Finalists Meet Here Thursday For State Titles

Two new champion nines will be crowded here Thursday and Friday when the state baseball finals are run off on Emerson field.

Gastonia will oppose Wilson for the Class A honor, Friday. The Gaston county team is a finalist for the second time, having been beaten here in 1926. Coach Jim Morgan will probably start "Sokie" Dellinger on the mound, mainstay of the team during the entire season.

Wilson

Wilson comes to the Hill undefeated, with Coach Brogden bringing his second successive Eastern champions. Last year, he coached Edenton to the Class B final, but it was defeated by Burlington. This year he has piloted a Class A winner.

Frank Bissett is credited with having won the pennant for the Tobaccoists nine when he downed Durham 8-5. He also won six of the team's contests.

Roanoke Rapids

In the Class B division, Roanoke Rapids, holder of two titles in three appearances here, will attempt to regain its former prestige by downing Rockwell. Coach Hoyle will pit "Cat" Byrd, leading pitcher, against Rockwell's Bob Fessler. The Rockwell star has been hurling top-notch ball all season and the two are expected to battle it out what may prove to be a pitcher's contest.

On April 10, Mrs. David Beach decided to walk to Chicago. She arrived there May 27, 1912. Distance—1004 miles; Time—42 days, 12 hours; Average—24 miles per day. It is still the ladies record for such a trip.

The American record for winning races in one season is 338, in 1384 mounts by Walter Miller in 1906.

Varsity Plays Deacons Today; Freshmen Lose To Cadets, 2-1

Tar Babies Make Five Errors In Dropping Close Game

Excellent Pitching Carolina's Wooten Gives Six Hits; LeVan, Oak Ridge, Allows Only Four

For the second time this season the freshman baseball team failed to back up Cecil Wooten's good pitching as they kicked in five errors to hand the Oak Ridge Cadets a 2-1 victory on Emerson field yesterday afternoon. Over the course of the game Wooten allowed six scattered hits, but errors by his team mates in the second and fourth innings gave Oak Ridge two runs and the ball game.

The Tar Babies gained an early lead in the first when they took advantage of the only Oak Ridge lapse to score a run on a walk and an error.

Austin walked to open the freshmen half of the first and after he had gone to second on a passed ball and to third on an infield out, Fowler pushed a hit to short stop which was muffed and allowed Austin to score the only freshman run.

From the second inning on, Oak Ridge's Le Van gave out four hits struck out nine men, and walked but two. He was master of every situation and quickly halted the only other Tar Baby rally in the ninth inning. He also knocked in the winning run with a fourth inning single.

In that ninth Berini beat a hit out with one down. Gill hit a scorcher to second and in the subsequent attempt for a double play he and Berini were both

The coaches' son, commonly known as Bunn Hearn Jr., stands on his own feet as one of the varsity's up-and-coming pitchers. Either he or Ike Jeanes will start today's deciding series game against the Deacons from Wake Forest.

Duke Favored To Cop Title

Conference Track Meet Begins On Friday At Durham

Friday afternoon at Duke stadium, 15 schools will participate in the trials of the annual Southern conference outdoor track championships. The finals will be held in the stadium Saturday afternoon.

The Blue Devils are favorites to successfully defend the title which they won from the Tar Heels last year, and a real struggle is in store for the spectators as they watch the battle.

Cream

All of the events are packed with men who excel in their particular event. Thrills galore are expected as four captains come together in the sprints, with many more entered to make these races one of the outstanding features of the meet.

When Captain Pasco of V. M. I., co-captains Woodard and Shehan of Duke and Captain Jim Finlay of Carolina leave their marks in the century and 220, with Little of South Carolina and Herring pushing them, there is no telling which of the men will come through. All of the men entered are capable of turning in speedy times and anyone of them can cop the race.

Mile

The mile run will bring together once again that trio of stellar trackmen: Graham Gammom of Carolina, Bill Morse of Duke and Bill Davis of N. C. State. In addition to these men there will be Bill Hendrix of Carolina, Koop of Duke, Green of Clemson and Long of V. P. I. and Hall of Carolina.

New marks are expected to be set in several of the field events. Miller of Maryland cleared the bar at 6 ft. 3 3-8 inches last week-end, and Stricler of VMI threw the shot 48 ft ft. 3-16 inches, both bettering conference marks.

Teams Will Attempt To Gain Deciding Series Game

Hearn May Start

Wake Forest Holds Second Place In Big Five Race; Caro- lina Third

Carolina's varsity baseball team will attempt to pull itself up a little further in the big five race this afternoon when it plays the Wake Forest Deacons in the rubber match of their three game series on Emerson field at 4 o'clock.

The Deacons won the first battle of the series at Wake Forest, but the Tar Heels came back to cop the second decision, 3-1, at Raeford.

Statistics

The Carolina team has won its last three big five starts after dropping the first three contests. The Carolina team stands third in the standings. Wake Forest is second with six wins and three losses. Duke leads the race with eight wins in nine starts.

Bunn Hearn, Jr., or Ike Jeanes will take the mound first for the Hearnmen today. Hearn has not pitched since the Virginia game, two weeks ago. Jeanes, in his second start of the season,
