

University Faculty Undergoes Changes

Promotions, Faculty Additions For School Year Announced By Administration

Changes in the faculty of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill for next year, including promotions, resignations, replacements, additions, and leaves, were announced here in June.

Changes were recommended by President Frank P. Graham and Administrative Dean Robert B. House to the Board of Trustees at their meeting in Raleigh, Friday, and were approved at that time.

They follow:
Returns from leaves of absence:

J. G. Beard, dean of the school of pharmacy, on leave for two quarters on the Kenan foundation.

John M. Booker, professor of English, on leave on the Kenan foundation, for one quarter.

John G. Evans, associate professor of economics, on leave for study for the year without pay.

Paul W. Wager, associate professor of rural-social economics and civics, on leave for the year without pay with the land resettlement administration.

Samuel T. Emory, assistant professor of geography, on study leave for one quarter without pay.

Guy B. Johnson, research associate in the institute for research in social science, on study leave for the year without pay.

Leaves of absence for next year.

Milton S. Heath, professor of economics, to go on Kenan leave for the fall quarter, 1937.

Richmond P. Bond, associate professor of English, to go on Kenan leave for the fall quarter, 1937.

Harold D. Myer, professor of sociology, to go on Kenan leave for one quarter within year 1937-1938.

W. S. Jenkins, associate professor of political science, to go on Kenan leave for one quarter in the year 1937-38.

James W. Fesler, associate professor of political science, to go on study leave for the year 1937-38 without pay.

Resignations:

Augustus S. Rose, associate professor of anatomy; J. W. Culbertson, instructor in anatomy; E. W. McChesney, associate professor of biochemistry; R. E.

Fox, professor of public health administration; E. W. Winkler, instructor in electrical engineering; A. E. Zucker, professor of German; James H. Chadbourn, assistant professor of law.

John E. Mulder, assistant professor of law; R. L. Garrett, instructor in mathematics; M. R. Trabue, professor of education; J. C. Geyer, assistant professor of sanitary engineering; Ralph W. Clark, visiting professor of pharmacy; Wirth F. Ferger, associate professor of statistics; B. W. Davis, instructor in Latin; John E. Craps, instructor in German; F. E. Erickson, assistant professor of geology; Helen Costello, instructor in Zoology, Manson Valentine, curator of the natural history museum; and T. J. Woofter, Jr., research professor in the institute for research in social science.

Additions and replacements:

John P. Dalzell, to be associate professor of law on a three-year contract. A.B., 1922. Teacher in school of commerce, Minnesota; practice in Minneapolis.

William Louis Engels, to be instructor in zoology for one year. B. S., University of Notre Dame, 1930; Ph.D., University of California, 1937.

Granvil Charles Kyker, to be instructor in biochemistry for one year. B.S., 1932, Carson-Newman college.

Mrs. M. S. Shockley, to be technician in the department of anatomy. A.B., 1934, Smith college.

Frank N. Low, to be instructor in anatomy for one year. Ph.D., 1936, Cornell; fellow in anatomy, Tufts college medical school.

Warner S. Hammond, to be instructor in anatomy for one year. A.B., 1932, Dartmouth; Ph.D., 1937, Cornell. Assistant in histology at Cornell.

Phillips Russell, to be professor of journalism. A.B., University of North Carolina, 1924. Widely known as author and biographer, a notable teacher in the department of English at U. N. C. since 1931.

Howard M. Bailey, to be instructor in dramatic art. A.B., University of N. C., 1931. Six years experience on the professional stage, in practical direction of plays for professionals and amateurs. Graduate work in speech and acting.

A. G. Bayroff, to be assistant professor of psychology. A.B., 1927 (New York); M.A., 1929, Ph.D., 1931, U. N. C. Instructor in psychology for two years.

Robert J. Wherry, to be assistant professor of psychology, Ph.D. Ohio State, 1929. Now professor of psychology, Cumberland university, Tenn.

Rupert B. Vance, to be research professor in the institute for research in social science. A.B., 1920, Henderson-Brown; A.M., 1921, Vanderbilt; Ph.D., 1928, U. N. C.

William H. Irvin, to be instructor in Petrography for one year. Ph.D., Columbia University, 1937. Assistant in mineralogy, Columbia university.

Henry M. Kendall, to be assistant professor of geography. A graduate of Amherst college. Ph.D., Michigan, 1933; graduate student Edinburgh, Montpelier, assistant in geography, Michigan.

Francis F. Bradshaw, dean of students, to be professor of philosophy. A.B., degree U. N. C., 1916; M.A., 1926, Ph.D., 1930, Columbia.

George F. Thomas, to be professor of philosophy. Professor Thomas was born in Dallas, Texas, 1899. A.B., Southern Methodist university, 1919; Rhodes scholar, Oxford university, 1920-23; student of philosophy, Yale university, 1925-26; Ph.D., Harvard university, 1929. Assistant professor of philosophy, Swarthmore, 1927-32; professor of philosophy, Dartmouth, 1932 to date.

S. W. J. Welch, to be assistant to the dean of students. D.S., in engineering, Massachusetts Tech.; graduate student in psychology, U. N. C. for three years. One year in personnel work with the DuPont corporation.

Promotions in Rank

Samuel Selden, assistant professor, to be associate professor of dramatic art.

Harry E. Davis, instructor to be assistant professor of dramatic art.

Ralph W. Bost, associate professor, to be professor chemistry.

E. M. Bernstein, associate professor, to be professor economics.

A. C. Howell, associate professor, to be professor English.

E. A. Cameron, instructor, to be assistant professor of mathematics.

M. L. Jacobs, associate professor, to be associate professor pharmacy.

James W. Fesler, assistant professor, to be associate political science.

Robert W. Linker, instructor, to be assistant professor French.

C. Dale Dears, associate professor, to be professor zoology.

William A. Olsen, assistant professor, to be associate professor English.

William D. MacMillan III, associate professor, to be professor of English.

Walter Spearman, instructor, to be assistant professor of journalism.

V. A. Hoyle, assistant professor, to be associate professor mathematics.

R. B. Sharpe, assistant professor, to be associate professor English.

W. S. Wells, instructor, to be assistant professor English.

Frank W. Hanft, associate

(Continued on last page)

Students !!!

The Carolina Co-op Store

"The Campus Man's Shop"

Welcomes You—And Invites You to Make Our Store Your Store

---

CUSTOM TAILORED CLOTHES

ARROW SHIRTS

BOTANY WOOL TIES

INTERWOVEN HOSE

ALLIGATOR RAINCOATS

BOSTONIAN & WHITEHALL SHOES

DOBBS & BERG HATS

SWANK PRODUCTS

BOTANY ROBES

---

Carolina Co-op Store

"Styles of Today with a Touch of Tomorrow"

ASK ABOUT A MEMBERSHIP

Keep In Touch With The 'Old Home Town'

—With A—

LONG DISTANCE ZENITH RADIO

COME IN

Have Your Radio Serviced By An Expert

ELECTRIC CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

108 North Columbia St. Dial 4616

NEW and USED

TEXTBOOKS

BOUGHT and SOLD

Intimate Bookshop

Opposite Graham Memorial

205 E. Franklin St.

---

WE BUY AND SELL NEW AND USED

TYPEWRITERS

GREETINGS

We're Glad To Have You Back On The Hill

As Soon As Your Clothes Need Attention

—CALL—

JOHNSON-CREW DRY CLEANING CO.

151 East Franklin Street

7011— —Phone— —7011

Service
Quality
Speed

Chapel Hill's Leading Cleaners

Equipment
Experience
Efficiency

HAPPY—SNAPPY—SERVICE

Hello Fellows

We're Glad You're Back

You should be complimented on the fine bunch of Tar Babies you have brought here. Show them where to trade!

"Ford, Goodyear, Esso Since 1914" We Appreciate Your Business

SAME Strowd Motor Company

"Ford, Goodyear, Esso Since 1914"
We Appreciate Your Business