

BULLETINS

Band Members—Meet in front of Hill Music hall at one o'clock with instruments to board bus for State game.

Kappa Sigs Win

Foreman Heads Chi Psi

Johnny Foreman's bulk and brawn led Chi Psi to their one-sided victory over Sigma Delta, while Monk Hinson did his best to urge his team on but was only successful in the first half after which Sigma Delta quickly lost its 6-0 lead.

Chi Phi walked home with a 2-0 decision all because of Thompson's quick rushing to swamp Lipsky in the end zone for two points in the first half, after which it was a matter of holding their own for Chi Phi, although T. E. P. proved a constant threat to the winners for the remainder of the game.

Kappa Sigma Wins

Pushing across a last period touchdown, Kappa Sigma swept aside Sigma Nu's hopes of opening their season victoriously yesterday when they wiped out the early 2-0 lead of the Snakes.

Cuneo's lone score for Lewis meant defeat for Manly dormitory in the final contest of the week.

Health Officers To Investigate Fraternities

(Continued from first page) health surveys made on the campus. In addition to fraternities, dormitories and class buildings are checked for infection, means of garbage disposal, and similar matters of sanitation.

Dr. Richardson stated that a report on conditions in each of the fraternities will be filed with the house manager. In past years, he said, most houses have readily corrected faulty conditions.

Physician

Particularly bad health conditions are reported also to the University physician, in whose hands rests the health of the student body.

The health officer stated yesterday that his department does not usually give medical examinations to servants in fraternities, but is glad to do so when asked.

Matulewicz Gets Decision

Al Mann staged a comeback in his bout by knocking out "Alabama" Kid Smith in the second round, after having taken the count of nine in the first.

"Y" Calendar

Students who are in charge of program arrangements for various clubs are urged to consult Harry Comer at the "Y" office before selecting their dates. This is necessary, Comer said, because the meetings not recorded in the Calendar will conflict with the ones that are.

Hunter Speaks To Freshmen

(Continued from page one) which are held each Monday night at 7:30," Hunter said. "In addition," he continued, "the council invites you to participate in all of its other activities."

"The Y. M. C. A. is non-denominational," he added.

"The organization has already helped you in getting settled here," he said. "We put out the Freshman Handbook, and have drawn up a student directory."

Two hundred alumni are expected to attend.

THE INQUIRING RE-REPORTER

Two unsung heroes on Carolina's campus, members of the janitorial force, battled for honors in the "inquiring re-reporter" contest yesterday.

The two darkies won't be able to use the theater pass or passes given those who come out on top with their prophecies, but each declared he would be satisfied to just "beat the white folks at guessing."

Washington

One of them, George Washington, has pushed dirt along Carolina's halls for 16 years, and surprised your "re-reporter" with his knowledge of educational institutions and the football teams they put out. The other, Riley Barnett, is a more recent addition, and is now in charge of Murphey hall.

George Washington prognosticated them as follows: Carolina 21, State 6; Army 12, Clemson 6; Duke 26, Davidson 6; Tennessee 26, V. P. I. 0; Cornell 7, Colgate 7; N. Y. U. 20, Carnegie Tech 13.

Barnett saw these in the crystal ball: Carolina 20, State 6; Army 13, Clemson 21; Duke 20, Davidson 6; Tennessee 15, V. P. I. 3; Cornell 6, Colgate 7; N. Y. U. 7, Carnegie Tech 6.

33 Architects Meet Here

Location

The group inspected the site of the new edifice, appropriations for which came from the last General Assembly and the Public Works administration. The location will be on a hill diagonally across from the new Chapel Hill high school building, near the fork of the Pittsboro and Raleigh highways and west of Kenan stadium. The General Assembly appropriated $226,000 and the P. W. A. $185,000 for the project.

As well as providing modern laboratories for the medical students and the division of public health, it is expected that as the medical school develops it will become more closely affiliated with the infirmary. Caldwell hall, the present medical building, will probably be converted into a classroom unit.

Frosh Practice Aerials

Meanwhile the Wake Forest Deaclets, the Tar Babies' opponent when they open the season next Friday, fought hard yesterday afternoon to tie a weak Duke freshman team, 7-7.
