

Siewers, McRae Win Freshman Election

World News

By Frank Holeman

NATIONS JOIN FORCES TO HALT INTERVENTION

London, Oct. 7.—Great Britain and France joined hands today in an effort to force Italy's Premier Mussolini to withdraw his support of the rebels in Spain.

Encouraged by President Roosevelt's speech a few days ago in Chicago, the two countries are believed ready to take decisive action in the affair.

Yesterday the British foreign secretary, Sir Anthony Eden, held a long conference with the French ambassador, Charles Corbin, presumably to discuss a united front.

Meanwhile, the international situation in Spain grew more grave hourly. Two British steamers were captured by the insurgents off the northern coast within territorial waters.

The English admiralty had repeatedly warned their merchantmen that they enter the danger zone at their own risk.

JAPS DROP BOMBS NEAR SHANGHAI

Shanghai, Oct. 7.—Japanese bombing planes staged a mass attack yesterday on the rich province of Kwantung near here, it was revealed today. More than 500 civilians were reported dead as the province counted its losses.

Twenty bombs were dropped on the departmental capital city of Shuichow Along.

Thirty-six Japanese planes took part in the raid, destroying villages and railway stations as they swept across the area.

The Chinese claimed to have brought down eight of the bombers, losing two of their own planes in the attempt.

AF OF L FAVORS BAN ON JAPANESE GOODS

Denver, Oct. 7.—Leaders of the American Federation of Labor now in convention here demanded a boycott today on all Japanese products.

Matthew Woll, a vice president of the organization, termed purchases of Japanese goods in this country indirect assistance to the warring soldiers of Nippon.

Charles P. Howard, president of the International Typographical union and C. I. O. secretary, said, "I'm not only in favor of a boycott, but I'm for putting anyone who buys Japanese goods in jail for 30 days."

SPANISH REBELS STRENGTHEN LINE

Hendaye, France, Oct. 7.—Renewed rainfall in the mountains and stubborn loyalist resistance failed today to halt the rebel army's consolidation move in the hills before Gijon.

The insurgents claimed to have taken several roads around Tarna and the mountain ridge, Sierra De Tornas.

The government reported minor advances along the upper Aragon battle line.

MINERS CALL STRIKE IN COAL SHAFT

Lansford, Pa., Oct. 7.—Forty-three local coal miners employed by the Lehigh Navigation Coal company today called a sit-down

(Continued on page two)

CPU TO PRESENT BROOKS HAYS IN COMING PROGRAM

National Committeeman Will Speak Here November 18

Brooks Hays, Democratic national committeeman from Arkansas, will speak here in Memorial hall at a chapel program November 18 as a representative of the National Policy committee and under the auspices of the Carolina Political union.

The policy committee was established three years ago "to improve the function of the democratic process by bringing closer together the electorate and the understanding of the ways to satisfy national needs."

Mr. Hays is special counsellor for the resettlement administration.

Last night he was entertained in Raleigh by Jonathan Daniels.

GREEKS REMINDED TO KEEP SILENCE

Ray Says Council Will Stand By Rulings

The Interfraternity council, through President Bob Ray, last night issued to fraternity men and rushees a reminder that silence period this week-end absolutely forbids any communication between the two groups.

Since 10 o'clock last night no fraternity man is to talk to, write to, or give a ride to a freshman before 7 p. m. Monday. Penalty for violation is described on Interfraternity council posters throughout the campus.

Ray's statement is the result of several inquiries about rushees riding in cars with upper-

(Continued on last page)

New York Reviewer Will Appear Here October 15-16

President Graham To Visit Cornell For Inauguration

Dr. Frank To Represent University Of North Carolina And Attend Football Game

President Frank Graham will represent the University of North Carolina at the inauguration of Dr. Edwin E. Day as president of Cornell university on October 8. President Graham will go to Ithaca for the inauguration ceremony on Saturday and will join Dr. Harry W. Chase, former president of the University of North Carolina and now Chancellor of N. Y. U.,

(Continued on page two)

Local Students Make Journey To Atlanta

Four Regional Council Members Attend "Y" Conference

Four student members of the regional council for the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. journeyed yesterday to Atlanta, Ga., for a two-day conference with members from 10 other southeastern states.

Those attending the meeting besides Mr. Comer, are Bob Maggill, Bill Campbell, Louise Donehoo and Polly Pollock.

Reviewer

J. Maryon Saunders, executive secretary of the alumni association who is in charge of arrangements for meetings all over the state among Carolina alumni to celebrate the founding of the University on Founders' Day, next Tuesday.

Air Mail Week

Mayor Foushee has issued the following Air Mail Week Proclamation:

"Whereas, the Honorable Harlee Branch, second assistant postmaster-general, has set aside the week of October 11 to October 16 as North Carolina Air Mail Week, and

"Whereas, a mail plane for Chapel Hill will leave Kitty Hawk, N. C., arriving in Chapel Hill on Tuesday, October 12, and whereas during Air Mail Week all air mail sent from our local post office will bear a special cachet, 'Chapel Hill, N. C., the University Town,'

"Now, Therefore, I, John M. Foushee, Mayor of Chapel Hill, do hereby proclaim Oct. 11 to Oct. 16 as Chapel Hill Air Mail Week and request that our citizens use air mail service during this week."

Rally Tonight Will Give Team Send-Off

Balding Urges All Students To Be Present At 6 O'clock

All Carolina students are urged to be in front of Swain hall tonight at 6 o'clock to give the team a rousing send-off at which time they will leave for New York.

The cheer leaders will be on hand along with members of the University club to keep things going.

"We'd like to see the whole student body on hand for the rally tonight," stated Jim Balding, president of the University club, yesterday, "to show the team that we are really behind them."

High Mentions Robert Jackson As 1940 Nominee

University Day Speaker Is Likely Presidential Candidate In Next Election

Dr. Stanley High, ex-chairman of the Good Neighbor league, said recently that next to President Roosevelt and James Farley, Robert H. Jackson, who will speak here University day, is the logical candidate for Democratic presidential nominee in 1940.

Dr. High suggested that perhaps Jackson, who is at present assistant attorney general of the United States, would reach the presidency through the governorship of New York, using

(Continued on last page)

Carolina Alumni Plan Gala Affair In New York City

New York Alumni Club To Entertain Followers Of Team At Dinner Dance

University of North Carolina alumni in New York are making arrangements for the entertainment of visiting alumni and their friends who will follow the Carolina eleven to New York City for the game this Saturday with New York University. Originally scheduled for Yankee Stadium, the football contest has been transferred to Ohio Field, N. Y. U.'s home grounds at University Heights.

The New York Alumni Club of the University will maintain headquarters on Saturday morning at the Ambassador Hotel,

(Continued on last page)

Coulter Is Made Texas Instructor

Graduate Received M.A. Degree Here Last Year

John Lee Coulter, who received his Master of Arts degree in English from the University in 1936, has just been appointed instructor of English at Texas state agricultural and Mechanical college in College Station, Texas, for the coming year.

Mr. Coulter received his undergraduate training at The American University in Washington, D. C., from which he was graduated in 1934. His junior year in college was spent abroad at the Sorbonne University in Paris and the University of Dijon. During his two years at Carolina he contributed a number of poems and short sketches to the Buccaneer.

Lambeth, Hand Are Secretary, Treasurer

Executive Secretary

Mrs. May Lambertson Becker, writer of the "Reader's Guide" column for the book review section of the New York Times, who will speak here at the conference of the North Carolina Library Association, October 15.

STUDENTS, ALUMNI CELEBRATE OCT. 12

To Honor 144th U. N. C. Anniversary

Exercises in Chapel Hill and a score of alumni banquets on Tuesday, October 12, will be held to celebrate the 144th anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the first building on the University campus.

Chapel Hill's observance of Founders' day will be combined with the University's sesquicentennial of the federal constitution.

(Continued on last page)

Dramatic Association Will Convene Here Tomorrow

"Dealer In Death" To Be Shown Here In Memorial Hall

Anti-War Movie To Be Given Here Tuesday Night, November 2

A movie entitled "Dealer in Death" will be shown in Memorial hall on Tuesday evening, November 2, it was announced yesterday by a joint peace committee of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.

The picture is released by the Emergency Peace campaign and is a part of the "Y" program to promote the cause of peace.

The public is invited to attend the movie, and "all individuals and groups interested in world issues" are urged, by the combined organizations, "to stand behind the peace program and help make this campus well known for its attitude toward peace."

Annual Pictures

Any freshmen or transfer students who entered here this fall and have not had their pictures taken, please go to 214 Graham Memorial this afternoon and have them taken.

Freshmen Elected All North Carolina Residents

New Voting Plan

Four North Carolina freshmen were elected to the four class offices yesterday when Christian Siewers of Winston-Salem, Cam McRae of Concord, Walter Lambeth of Charlotte, and Billy Hand of New Bern were named as president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Under the preferential balloting System Siewers amassed 251 votes, 183 as first choice and 68 as second choice, to lead Sid Sadoff, who polled 73 first choices and 62 second choices for a total of 135. Four other candidates were ranked far beneath.

Total first choices cast for these were: Harry Taylor 41; Simons Roof 36; Frank Doty 30; and Russ Hebbard 25.

Selections

In first and second selections, McRae was 37 votes ahead of his nearest opponent, Perrin Quarles. McRae's total vote was 149; Quarles' 112. Elbert ran a close third to Quarles with 107. Six others ranged from 25 to 89; Rex Rice 89; Bixby Brown 79; Richard Eastman 59; Harold Berk 41; Morton Turteltaub 40; and Woodrow Leifer 25.

Lambeth defeated Harold Warshaw and four others in the secretarial race, polling 188 total votes, 112 firsts and 76 seconds. Warshaw counted 141 ballots, 84 as first choice and 57 as second. Max Weaver closely contested Warshaw for runner-up honors by receiving 121 votes, 61 as first choice and 60 as second. First choices for the

(Continued on last page)

Annual Fall Directors Meeting To Be Held At Playmakers Theatre At 10 O'clock

The annual fall directors' meeting of the Carolina Dramatic association will be held at the Playmakers theater, Saturday, October 9.

Directors of high school dramatic clubs, college groups, little theaters, community organizations, and federal theaters

(Continued on page two)

Graduate Students To Convene Tonight

Annual Convocation To Be Held In Smith Building

The annual convocation of students and faculty members of the graduate school will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the lounge of Smith building.

The two speakers on the program will be Dean W. W. Pierson of the graduate school and Administrative Dean R. B. House.

Following the program there will be a social and refreshments. All members of the graduate faculty and the graduate student body are invited to be present.