Director Seldon Names Date For Opening Of Play

First Playmaker Production, "Johnny Johnson," To Open Here October 29

"Johnny Johnson," the Carolina Playmakers' first public production of the season, will be given on the nights of October 29 and 30, it has been announced by Samuel Selden, director.

"We had originally planned to give the play on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, the 28th, 29th and 30th of October," Selden said, "but because the C. P. U. is sponsoring a program on the 27th, making it impossible for us to have a full rehearsal the night before production, we decided to postpone our opening until Friday, leaving Thursday open for the last practice."

Geological Society To Convene Here

Prouty Announces Plans For Field Trip At Coming Meet

Dr. W. F. Prouty announced yesterday that the Carolina Geological society will convene this year in Chapel Hill, November 6-7.

The society plans a field trip, conducted by Dr. Prouty, through the Triassic basin east of Chapel Hill. This area includes part of the coal field near Sanford, and territory between Raleigh, Durham, and Chapel Hill.

The Carolina Geological society was organized last fall at the first meeting at Furman university. Its membership includes persons interested in geology, mineralogy, ceramics, and soil science. At the present time its activities are limited to North and South Carolina.

Quarter Finals Are Reached In Tennis

Odum Edits Fall Social Magazine

New Issue Contains Article On Teaching Marriage

The October, 1937, issue of Social Forces has just been released.

Social Forces is edited here at the University with Howard W. Odum as editor, and Miss Katharine Joher, managing editor. Earnest R. Groves and Rupert B. Vance are also on the editorial staff. Social Forces is published four times a year—October, December, March, and May. It made its first appearance in November, 1922, and with the current number is beginning its 16th volume. Since May, 1936, it has been the official publication of the Southern Sociological society.

Of special interest to the faculty and students of the University, is the article in the current issue on Teaching Marriage at the University of North Carolina in which Professor Groves surveys the development of this course from its small beginning fourteen years ago to its important place in the curriculum today.

Other University of North Carolina contributors to this number are Professors Rupert B. Vance, J. F. Dashiell, Lee M. Brooks and Robert B. Downs.

Harriers Meet W. & L. Today

(Continued from page three) Guilford Quakers. The Tar Heel reserves have yet to beat the Quakers, last year losing by the margin of one point. Coach Ranson will attempt to beat this jinx this afternoon when he sends a team composed of Baden, Brown, Bonner, Doty, Fleming, Pink, Mauter, Perrin, White, and one who will be dropped from the varsity list of nine, out to run the 3.3 mile course against the Quakers.

Carolina Theater Offers New 'Comeback' Contest

Person With Best Snappy Retorts To Receive Free Week's Pass To Show

Write a snappy comeback to the statement that Joan Blondell, ace reporter on a tabloid, has just made to Pat O'Brien, her boss, and send it with answers to the three other statements that will be printed within the next few days, to the "Snappy Comeback" contest editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL.

The person whose retorts are judged best will receive a week's pass to the Carolina theater, the one with the next best set of answers will be given a three days' pass, and third place will receive one pass.

The contest is simple and requires no undue concentration. Make a mental note of Joan's statement, and during your spare time think of it. Maybe a prize winning answer will pop into your mind.

Make your replies short and snappy. Be sure they are the kind of statement that would be made in a verbal and not a written reply. When you have written your answers for all the cartoons, bring or send them to the DAILY TAR HEEL office.

Winners will be announced the latter part of next week, and the decisions of the judges will be final.

The stills are taken from "Back in Circulation," the picture coming to the Carolina theater next Thursday.

Indian Relics On Display In Steele

Feature Concludes Meeting Of Archaeological Group

An exhibit of Indian relics taken from a mound in Montgomery county will be on display in the archaeological room in the basement of Steele dormitory this afternoon as the concluding feature of the fifth annual meeting of the Archaeological Society of North Carolina.

Old West and Graham had a good time out there during their game. Especially the former which garnered the victory with four touchdowns. Riddle played a stellar defensive game in the Old West backfield by intercepting passes and scoring on two of the interceptions. Heller and Alexander tallied six apiece while Linker made the two conversions.

The whole thing, Dad, reminded me of your elections back home. Like you, I listened to all the speeches, but couldn't understand them; examined the different platforms, but decided they were all the same; and didn't vote because I knew it would make little difference, we're all true Democrats at heart.

I can see now that you were right when you told me "college is just like life, son." Well, so-long until next week. By the way, before I forget I want to impress the fact upon you that Carolina's football team is going places this season. Better watch them dad.

Advertisement for Camel Cigarettes. Features a large central graphic with the text: "CAN PEOPLE APPRECIATE THE CHOICER TOBACCOS IN CAMELS?" A QUESTION FREQUENTLY HEARD... ANSWER: THEY SMOKE MORE CAMELS THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE IN THE WORLD. Men and women respond to the unadorned fact that costlier tobaccos play the most important part in making Camel Cigarettes milder and better. THE deeper you dig into the facts—the more you realize that real mildness and real flavor must be grown into cigarette tobaccos. Nothing man can do to inferior tobaccos can take the place of good tobaccos to start with. As you'd expect, naturally milder, better-tasting tobaccos cost more to buy. And Camel pays millions more year in and year out to get them. That's why Camels are different—why they appeal more to men and women in all walks of life—why they're the largest-selling cigarette in America... or in the world! Includes testimonials from V. F. Gutzendorf, Miss Dorothy Kilgallen, Bill Tilden, and Joe Crane.
