VOLUME XLVI

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1937

NUMBER 46

World News

By Nelson Large

COUNTER OFFENSIVE TO ISOLATE JAPANESE

Shanghai, Nov. 6.—Chinese reports received tonight declared that a counter-offensive, to isolate about 25,000 Japanese soldiers from its landing on the seacoast, had been launched.

Chinese declared they had repulsed a surprise Japanese thrust in Chekiang province from the Hangchow bay area toward Shanghai.

Advances were reported by the Japanese to the south of Soochow creek, on the western edge of Shanghai's international settlement.

Chinese reinforcements rushed to Sungkiang, a vital point in the Chinese defenses against which one of three Japanese columns was striking from the south.

According to Chinese army communiques, another Japanese column was on the far side of the Whangpoo river from Shanghai when Chinese defenders forced a vanguard back

15 miles miles south of Shang-Along the north side of the Whangpoo river, Chinese not only believed their positions to be secure against the Japanese offense, but they also indicated that the attackers were in dan-shore base by a Chinese flanking operation.

Contrary to a statement made by a Japanese spokesman that the defense forces were apparently on the verge of collapse was the assertion of observers that they had seen no sign of Chinese withdrawals.

ger of being cut off from their

Unofficial Chinese sources said that fighting had spread south of Lincoln road, but Chinese artillery had destroyed two pontoon bridges over Soochow creek, preventing Japanese tanks and artillery from crossing.

SOVIETS CONDEMN SEVENTEEN ON HOLIDAY

Moscow, Nov. 8 .- The Soviet union condemned 17 of its suspected enemies to death today while the larger portion of the Russian masses enjoyed a holiday for the 20th anniversary of the revolution.

Seventeen death sentences were reported from the provinces. Fourteen of the condemned victims were members of a Trotskyist band in the Tartar republic and the other three were employes of vegetable and grain distribution services in the Veach. Ukraine.

ADDITIONAL GAINS MADE BY INSURGENTS

Hendaye, Franco-Spanish frontier, Nov. 8 .- Reports from insurgents today said that Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces had maneuvered into several new positions in the Sabinanigo sector of the Aragon front.

Insurgent lines in the northern area, southeast of Jaca, near the French border have been day, but with 70 ballots yet to strengthened by the operation.

Government sources said that a series of "minor" battles had compelled Catalan militiamen to Barbara Harris for dumbest withdraw but also added that coed. She has received 72 votes the insurgent advance was limited to less than one mile.

According to the government of Miss Virginia Lee for best are asked to be present. dispatches, the attack was cen- date. Her lead of 37 votes can (Continued on page two)

CAMPUS CABINET PLANS MEETING THURSDAY NIGHT

Fifty-Seven Executives Will Gather For Dinner

Fifty-seven executives of campus organizations, headed by President Bob McGill of the Student council, will gather in Graham Memorial banquet hall Thursday night for the first meeting of the Campus cabinet.

The cabinet will be served a free dinner by Graham Memorial, and then will discuss pertinent questions of campus-wide wide concern. Though no official action is ever taken by the cabinet, the opinions arrived at by representative leaders on the PHI TO DEBATE campus bear much weight.

Topics Five topics will come under consideration at the meeting. They are:

1.-A consideration of student attitude and responsibility for the athletic policy of the University and its effects.

2.—A proposal for a Campus ment center.

across the stream at Minhang, requiring budgets of the fee- a hindrance to the progress of (Continued on page two)

Tentative Casts For Playmaker's Tour Announced Memorial.

Closed Tryouts Held Friday Only Persons With Good Past Records Participate

Tentative casts for the three ably be a shortage of seats. plays which are to make up the 1937 Playmaker tour bill, were released yesterday by Prof. Samuel Selden.

Closed tryouts were held Friday, and only persons who have shown up exceedingly well in past performances were invited to come out.

Tentative

The following parts are tentative and a final casting will be made the early part of this week.

Prof. Howard Bailey will direct "Funeral Flowers for the Bride," and the following will take the listed parts. Alonzo, Harry Davis; Lillian, Janet Pendleton; Eadie, Ellen Deppe or Eleanor Clough; R. C., Lynn Gault, Bedford Thurman, or Weider Sievers.

"Sunday Costs Five Pesos" is directed by Prof. Samuel Selden. The characters are: Fidel, Dan Nachtman; Berta, Ellen Deppe; Tonia, Elizabeth Malone; Salom, eVirginia Kibler or Janet Pendleton; Celestina, Vivian

(Continued on last page)

Seventy Ballots Still To Be

Counted For Men's Voting;

Several Elections Assured

in the Controversial Topics

Questionnaire proved slower to-be counted several elections out of the 230 counted. Also

(Continued on last page)

Most definite is that of Miss practice.

semed assured.

Returns from men students

Peeeg, Peeeg, Hyah Sou Peeg

They say Pete Ivey, director of Graham Memorial, was in collusion with a pig Sunday afternoon.

"That is not so," Ivey said late last night, after thinking the matter over. "The pig just naturally followed me from the post office to Graham Memorial."

The pig weighed about 200 pounds and was white. You know, a white pig. It was later seen in Kenan stadium, ambling from the field house.

If somebody has lost a pig, it's wandering around here some place.

DUKE SPEAKERS

Literary Society Will of class organizations must be Visit Assembly

The Phi assembly will play host to the Columbia Literary society of Duke university to-Student theater and Entertain- night. The organizations will debate the following question: re-3.—A discussion of the ruling solved: That the Constitution is the United States. Representatives of the Phi will argue for the affirmative.

> Following the regular programs the Phi will hold its first social of this year in Graham

Secretary John Rankin ad vised all interested spectators who intend to hear the debate to arrive early, as there will prob-

Junior-Senior "Y" Cabinet Will Make Duke Visit Tonight

Entire Membership Will Repay Trip Made By Duke Cabinet Several Weeks Ago

The entire membership of the Junior-Senior "Y" cabinet will travel to Duke university night to repay a visit made by the Duke cabinet several weeks

President Scott Hunter of the Carolina organization will present the activities of the group on this campus as a feature of the program to be sponsored by the local cabinet.

Other speakers will be DeWitt Barnett, born in Shanghai, China, who will speak on the Sino-Japanese situation, and tion. Anne Perry, who will speak on 'What Students Can Do Towards Peace."

tion.

Further Returns In Men's Balloting

To Practice Today

All Members Urged To Be Present At Intramural Field

There will be a practice of the Di Senate football team this afternoon on one of the intramural signed up for the team and those who did not sign but want to

Jim Brawley has been appointed captain of the team.

Final Results Near In Coed Voting;

Di Football Team

PATTERSON WILL PETITION COUNCIL IN BUDGET CASE

Two Trys At Mustering Majority Of Votes Both Failures

After failing in two attempts to get a majority of seniors to vote on the class budget, President Joe Patterson is expected to petition the Student council tonight for a change in the ruling/requiring a majority.

Two successive meetings in Memorial hall, one of which had Freddy Johnson's orchestra as an added attraction, failed to bring out the necessary number of seniors. It was then believed a change in the ruling would be the only method of passing the budget.

Constitution The ruling, in the council constitution, says: "All budgets (Continued on last page)

Mercer Talks To Frosh On Habits At Meeting Here

Nationally Known Moral Speaker Meets With Freshman Friendship Council Last Night

Ted Mercer, nationally known moral speaker, pled with members of the Freshman Friendship council at the weekly meeting of the club last night to think and think again about the habits they were forming.

Telling of his own experiences in college and their results, Mercer declared, "I never knew when I turned from the fundamental things in life—the things of Christ—that some day would be facing the penitentiary (Continued on page two)

Randy Rowland Passes Sunday

Randolph Rowland, a former student at the University, died in New York City Sunday morning, it was learned yesterday. Rowland, a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, was a well-known campus figure, being president of the German Club dance organization last year. The funeral will be held today at 3 p. m. at his home in Middleburg, North Carolina.

DI WILL DEBATE NEUTRALITY PLAN

Senate To Hold Regular Meeting Tonight

"Resolved: That it is in the best interest of the United States to maintain strict practical neutrality to the Chinese-Japanese conflict," is the bill that will be debated upon by the Dialectic senate at its regular meeting tonight which will be held in the senate's chamber on the top floor of New West at 7:15 o'clock.

Bill

This bill has been debated upon by the Phi assembly, Foreign Policy league, and the Radio forum, and tonight the Di does its part in settling the major problem before the country today.

Captain

Ramsay, president of the senate, will appoint a captain for the touch football team that will play a team from the Phi.

Anyone interested in joining the Di is invited to attend the session tonight.

Library Shown To Have Varied Book Collections

"Y" Will Sponsor Comic Movie Here

Tickets For "The Great Garric" On Sale Today

Tickets will go on sale today for "The Great Garric," sensational comic movie picture to be shown at the Carolina theater a week from Thursday. All tickets sold on the campus by the Y. W. C. A. will benefit that organiza-

The picture is being heralded as one of the great comedies of the year, and stars Olivia de The journey to Duke takes Havilland. Tickets may be purplace of the regular weekly chased at dormitory stores, meeting of the local organiza- Spencer hall, or at the "Y" of-

Four-Fifths Of Coed Responses

Now Tabulated; Includes New

Dorm, Pi Phi's

(Continued on last page)

Over Half Of 350,000 Volumes In University Library Belong To Special Collections

Having written on the history of our library in the first of this series of articles, it is only natural now that mention be made of that part of the institution which can be called outstand-

Over half of the 350,000 volumes in the library belong to special collections, the most important and interesting of which are dealt with in the following paragraphs.

History

The history of, writing and printing is accurately traced by the many thousands of articles in the famous Hanes collection. It begins with ancient written of paper made from the sliced scene of the disaster. and pressed pyth of the papyrus sedge which grows along the dispensing station early one banks of the Nile. Old leather morning just after the agents Four-fifths of the coed re-scrolls, and Hamitic leafed had spread out on a long table sponses to the DAILY TAR HEEL books go further to make up the one dozen pair of socks. They Controversial Topics Question- collection, which comes down were not fastened together in naire have been tabulated, in-through medieval manuscripts pairs, but there were enough for cluding the precincts of the New to the beginning of printing. fields which is available for Dorm and Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Only a few scattered votes re- which were printed during the socks were the same size and of All members of the Di who main to make the results final. first 50 years of printing. Each the same texture and the brown Featuring the coed tabula- stage in the development and ones and black ones were all intions is the practical renomina- improvement of the art is reprepractically certain is the election play in the game with the Phi tion of A. Guy Ivey for sweetest sented with an example of the boy. Ivey has a lead of 12 votes work. The completeness and acover Hooie Hobbs in second curacy that is shown in the trac-

(Continued on last page)

SPEAKER FROM JAPAN TO GIVE OFFICIAL VIEWS

Yakichiro Suma Will Appear Tomorrow Night Here

An opportunity for students and local persons to get an inside story on the Japanese side of the current Sino-Japanese conflict will be given tomorrow night when Yakichiro Suma talks on the official views of his government.

Mr. Suma, who is Consul of the Japanese Embassy in Washington, is scheduled to speak at 8:30 o'clock in Memorial hall.

Union

The speaker is being brought here by the Carolina Political Union in an effort to present first hand information on one of the major world wide happenings of the time. Since Mr. Suma is coming here from Washington especially for the talk he has planned to arrive in ample time to visit points of interest on the campus and to speak to one or two classes.

The Japanese stand, as it is (Continued on page two)

Botany Exhibit Now On Display In Show Cases

Classics Shown On First Floor Of Library; Books Date From Early 15th Century

An exhibit on "The Classics of It is also expected that John Botany" is on display in the four main show cases on the first floor of the library.

The books, which are from the Botany library and the priwate collection of Dr. W. C. Coker, date from the early fifteenth century.

Among the outstanding books are "A Description of the Plants of America," by Plumier, which was the first important American work of its kind, and which included many excellent drawings of ferns. The "History of Rare Plants," by Clusius, which was printed in 1601, was the best and most accurate herbal of

A "Herbal" printed in Vienna in 1491, is probably the oldest book in the collection. The most famous of all the old English Herbals, which was written by Geralds, is also included in the

In one of the four cases, (Continued on last page)

POP QUIZ

Bob Perkins

This one is old, but still good. During a big flood which renrecords and clay tablets that dered many people homeless, indate back to before the middle cluding a certain young blind ages. Included are rare Egyp- man, relief agencies had rushed tian writings on papyrus, a kind clothing and food supplies to the

Now the blind boy entered the a dozen pairs; six pairs of There are over 5,000 books brown and six of black. All the termixed.

The blind boy didn't want to take any more socks than necessary, and still he did want to (Continued on page two)