JAPS REFUSE SECOND BRUSSELS INVITATION

Tokyo, Nov. 12—The Japanese government formally refused today the second invitation from the Brussels conference to participate in the discussion on the Far Eastern war.

The note from the imperial government declared, however, that Japan "would be glad if the powers should contribute to the stabilization of eastern Asia in a manner consonant with the realities of the situation."

A note to Baron Albert De Bassompierre, Belgian ambassador, argued that Japanese military operations in China were in self-defense and asserted that the conflict "lies outside" the scope of the nine-power treaty.

"While the imperial government note that the opinion of participating powers is the result of careful consideration, the imperial government regret that this opinion is insufficient to persuade them to modify the views and policy clearly expressed in their answer (to the first invitation) dated October 27."

One of the main points expressed by the message was that "the imperial government is firmly convinced that any attempt at negotiation within the framework of a collective organ would only arouse popular feeling in both countries and hinder a satisfactory solution. The imperial government would be glad if the powers appreciating this view, should contribute toward stabilization in Eastern Asia in a manner consonant with the realities of the situation."

TYPHOON SPREADS DEATH IN PHILIPPINES

Manila, Nov. 12—A typhoon which tore across Luzon Island yesterday left a toll of 15 known deaths today and several score still missing.

Among those unreported were 16 fishermen believed to have drowned when their boats capsized in high tidal waves.

Reports from Manila listed 10 dead among whom eight had been electrocuted and two died from injuries and exposure.

As soon as possible, the Red Cross and commonwealth agencies took steps to aid the destitute and prevent disease and epidemics.

A campus newsreel with 12 minutes of University scenes once a week will be begun within the next month, E. Carrington Smith announced yesterday.

Sponsored and produced by the local Carolina theater, the movies will show scenes of athletic events, prominent visitors, and special newsworthy events. A student announcer will be employed to give back-stage comments on the scenes.

Smith stated that "wide campus coverage" will be afforded (Continued on page two)

APOLOGY

In response to campus comment concerning the picture published in Wednesday morning's DAILY TAR HEEL, it was learned yesterday that the scene was posed and the picture not candid as published.

The authority said that "at least a dozen persons were present at the time."

The DAILY TAR HEEL regrets that it incorrectly published the picture as candid and apologizes to both subjects.

POP QUIZ

By Bob Perkins

A Play On Words

Although the situation is impossible, suppose Lindbergh, Mussolini, Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Roosevelt were all seated at a card table.

Mussolini draws the deuce; Mrs. Simpson, the king; Lindbergh, the ace. What would Mrs. Roosevelt do?

Answer to yesterday's quiz: By a process of elimination, the Chesterfield man must have had originally 15 cigarettes: because of point (3) eight, six, or three original cigarettes would force the Luckies man to have smoked 15 cigarettes (note point 5). This would be inconsistent with point (7).

Working from this fundamental deduction, it is easy to reach the following solution by a process of elimination:

Clark originally had 3 Old Golds; Perry 6 Kools; Mosier 8 Camels; Harkins 20 Luckies; Sapp 15 Chesterfields.

Old Grad Wants Bloody Big Game

Carolina Alumnus Wants 67-0 Victory Over Rivals

A varsity football player, who prefers that his name is not mentioned, received a very touching letter from an old, old grad several days ago.

The gentleman, who had been graduated in the class of '87, still retains his football fervor. He begged the football player to "win the big game no matter what the cost." And that was not all, he demanded a 67 to 0 score.

Although the football player had every intention of "winning the big game" he hardly expected so large a score. Therefore his surprise was mild to say the least when the old grad finished his plea with a lusty "Beat Virginia. They once beat us 67 to 0."

By this time the football player had heard enough and shuffled off to practice for the warm-up game with Duke—prior to "Thanksgiving's crucial contest."

SCHOOL DIRECTORY ISSUED YESTERDAY

Publication Also Has City Guide

Just about anything you might want to know about names, telephone numbers, and addresses of everything from students to Chapel Hill high school teachers is found in the 1937 Student directory issued by the Y. M. C. A. yesterday.

Over three thousand copies were distributed among dormitory rooms, campus offices and fraternity houses, while some still remain to be given to rooming houses and other places.

Compiled yearly by the "Y," the pamphlet lists names, addresses, class work and religious denominations of every student. All University offices, student organizations, and a Chapel Hill directory are also included.

Comprehensives

Dean Carroll requests that all students in the school of commerce, and all majors in economics who plan to take the comprehensive examination during the fall quarter, register for the examination in Room 114, Bingham hall, before Tuesday, November 16.

IMPERIAL WIZARD OF KU KLUX WILL SPEAK WEDNESDAY

Evans, Guest Of CPU, Has Headed Klan Since 1923

When the Imperial Wizard of the Invisible Empire of the Ku Klux Klan speaks in Memorial hall Wednesday night he will be representing an organization that gained world wide prominence during the days following the Civil war.

Dr. Hiram Wesley Evans, who is to the Ku Klux Klan what Alex Heard is to the Carolina Political union which is bringing him here, has headed the Klan since 1923.

Organized In 1916

The organization, which was reorganized in 1916 and was incorporated in Georgia in 1920, has several established purposes behind all of its actions. Probably of most interest in this time of strikes and C. I. O. rulings is a clause which states that one of the main purposes of the Invisible Empire is to prevent unwarranted strikes by foreign labor agitators.

But this is just one of the many things for which the group stands. Some of the other purposes of the Klan are: the protection of pure womanhood; the idea of fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man; white supremacy; separation of church and state; sovereignty of states rights; limitations of foreign immigration; closer relationship of pure Americanism; and law and order.

Pre-Med Students Must Apply Today In Order To Enter Medical School

Pre-medical students who fail to take the Medical Aptitude test given December 3 will automatically become ineligible for admission to any American medical school in 1938, it was advised yesterday by the University Division of Natural Sciences.

Today is the last day that applications will be received for the test at 203 Davie. Only in exceptional cases will a late exam be given, and this at a cost of $5 and at a point away from Chapel Hill. A fee of $1.00 is payable at the time of the test.

Heels, Devils Clash In Southern Classic

Carolina Eleven After Revenge For Last Year's Defeat; Game Starts At 2 O'clock In Duke Stadium

By FLETCHER W. FERGUSON

Some 40,000 football fans will jam their ways into Duke university's stadium this afternoon where the gridiron forces of the North Carolina Tar Heels hope to blast the Blue Devils' dream of an undefeated season and a possible Rose Bowl bid. The North State classic of classics will get underway at 2 o'clock.

Boasting an unblemished record, except for a scoreless tie with Tennessee, Duke stands ready to defend its "Big Five" and Southern Conference titles against the onslaught of an eager Tar Heel eleven, which has won five, lost one, and tied one. Duke also has Pittsburgh in its path before an invitation to the West coast is forthcoming.

To hurdle the Carolina barrier is going to be more of a task than some followers of the sport anticipate. The Tar Heels are definitely underrated in comparison to Duke. Just what will be the net result after one hour of gridiron warfare we cannot predict.

The game should be close all the way through, but the possibility remains that whoever wins may do so by a wide margin. Such is sometimes the case. It was that way in 1935 when Carolina ranked number three in the nation and Duke had been battered by Georgia Tech and Auburn. The contention still remains that the best team did not win that day. It was an off day for Carolina while Wallace Wade's boys were more than hot.

Record

This afternoon's contest will be the 23rd between the rivals. Carolina has won 12 of the past engagements, lost eight and tied two, amassing 258 points to Duke's 153. The first game was played in 1888 and won 16-0 by Duke (then Trinity College). The record from 1925 follows:

1925 Carolina 41-0; 1926 Carolina 6-0; 1927 Carolina 18-0; 1928 Carolina 14-7; 1929 Carolina 48-7; 1930 scoreless tie; 1931 scoreless tie; 1932 Duke 7-0; 1933 Duke 21-0; 1934 Carolina 7-0; 1935 Duke 25-0; 1936 Duke 27-7.

This year Duke rates as a favorite—a rating based on its undefeated record. In seven games it has scored 182 points to 25 for the opposition. But a little close inspection of the record reveals it has played only three teams ranking as major clubs, while Carolina has scored 109 to its opponent's 33 in a schedule that included five major elevens. The individual records follow:

Duke

25 V. P. I. 0; 34 Davidson 6; 0 Tennessee 0; 20 Ga. Tech 19; 13 Colgate 0; 43 W. & L. 0; 67 Wake Forest 0; totals: Duke 182; opponents 25.

North Carolina

13 South Carolina 13; 20 N. C. State 0; 19 New York University 6; 28 Wake Forest 0; 13 Tulane 0; 0 Fordham 14; 26 Davidson 0; totals: N. C. 109, opponents 33.

Both teams have numerous men who can bring results. Both have good backfields. Both have good lines. Both can capitalize on breaks, so from the looks of things it's going to be an individual and team battle synchronized with agility and breaks.

Backs

For ball carrying duty today, Coach Ray Wolf will depend on Co-Captain Crowell Little, Tom Burnette, George Watson, Art Ditt and George Stirnweiss to hit pay dirt, with the likely possibility that anyone of those five can zip passes to Co-Captain Andy Bershak, Chuck Kline or anyone of their backfield mates.

In 1935 the Carolina attack was bogged by two things. It was raining; the attack was based on passing. This afternoon those factors should not matter as much. If it is raining, the Tar Heels can resort to running, and if it isn't they can both pass and run. The battle of 1935 saw Duke employ end-holding tactics, but this
