DR. KIRBY PAGE TO GIVE INITIAL ADDRESS TODAY

Lecture, Forum Series To Be Inaugurated At 11 O'clock

Dr. Kirby Page, internationally known author and lecturer, will open a series of addresses and public forums as a guest of the Y. M. C. A. here this morning at 11 o'clock during regular services of the Methodist church.

The noted liberal will speak on "Race Relations and Christianity" this morning. He will appear again at 4:30 in Graham Memorial lounge to lead an open forum on topics of economic justice, national relations, and interracial relations.

Climax

His visit will be climaxed tonight at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall where he will speak before a mass meeting on "The Present International Scene." Following the final address, another open forum will be held.

Dr. Page is well-known as the nation's foremost advocate of Christian socialism. Several University students will recall this attitude at the Student Y. M. C. A. conference at Blue Ridge last spring, where he expressed the opinion that Christian principles imply socialism.

KOCH WILL GIVE CAROL PROGRAM

Annual Reading Will Be Christmas Greeting

This year, Dr. Frederick H. Koch, director of the Carolina Playmakers, will inaugurate the 32nd anniversary of his annual reading of Dickens' immortal ghost story, "A Christmas Carol," in Memorial hall at 8:30 on Saturday, December 11.

The reading of "The Carol" has become a tradition at the University and is called the Carolina Playmakers' Christmas card to the campus.

During the last 30 years Dr.

OPINIONS VARY IN CAMPUS VOTING ON 10 COMMANDMENTS

Few Students Agree With All Ethical Principles In Complete Questionnaire

Fifty votes returned yesterday in the DAILY TAR HEEL Ten Commandments questionnaire showed varied opinions on the University campus.

Nineteen of the 50 students voting agreed with the ethical principles of the Commandments by answering "yes" to all ten.

The fourth and tenth were receiving the most "no" votes. These commandments are: Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day; and Thou shalt not covet.

The only commandment completely agreed upon was the fifth, namely; Honour thy father and thy mother.

Of the remaining ones, the

Oxford-Cambridge Debate Team

James Brown of Oxford, at right, and Ronald Gibson of Cambridge made up the English team that joined Sam Hobbs and Clarence Klutz of the University Debate council in a forensic tussle on the campus Friday night. The Britishers plan to leave the village this afternoon.

Winter Quarter Registration To Begin Tomorrow Morning

PHI BETA KAPPA WILL INITIATE 11 MEN WEDNESDAY

Semi-Annual Ceremony Will Be In Graham Memorial

The local chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary fraternity, will initiate 11 men at its semi-annual ceremony Wednesday night.

The initiation, according to President Lawrence Hinkle, will be held in the banquet hall of Graham Memorial.

Speaker

Dean of Men Francis F. Bradshaw will be the leading speaker. His subject is unannounced.

Following the ceremony the local members will discuss two policy subjects: 1. The possibility of raising entrance requirements to the fraternity; 2. The advisability of entering a program of activities.

President Hinkle, in announcing the meeting, urged that all active members plan to be present.

Records Office Issues Two-Week-Plan Of Procedure

Fine For Failure

Registration for the winter quarter for general college, arts and science, commerce, and pharmacy students will begin tomorrow morning and last through December 18.

All other students except those in the Engineering school must register sometime between the 9th and 18th. Announcement will be made by the Records office later in the week concerning the registration of the engineers.

Nigrelli To Speak On Program Over Station W.D.N.C.

Broadcast Will Be Fourth In Series Sponsored By League Of Nations Council

Henry Nigrelli will speak over station WDNC tomorrow night at 8:45 in the fourth of a series of League of Nations council radio programs.

Nigrelli will present the week's review of the international scene and answer an inquiry received concerning the policy of isolation as a method of preventing war.

Much comment has been made concerning the League programs and inquiries have been received from listeners in Durham, Raleigh, and Chapel Hill.

Assembly To Elect Officers This Week

New Constitution Will Be Presented For Adoption

The Phi assembly will hold the quarterly election of officers at the final meeting of the organization at 7:15 Tuesday night in New East.

President Drew Martin said yesterday the group would also hear the presentation of a new constitution that will be brought up for adoption. The only bill on the calendar for this week is "Resolved, That the Phi assembly favor the starting of a new radio station on the campus."

DRIVE FAILS TO MEET GOAL SET BY COMMITTEE

30 Out Of 40 Reports Reveal 255 Shares Guaranteed

New Plan Proposed

Only 255 shares had been guaranteed through subscription yesterday afternoon for stock in the proposed co-operative cleaner enterprise.

Bob duFour, chairman of the Student Advisory committee, which is organizing the drive through the interdormitory and interfraternity councils, has requested that all subscription blanks be turned in at Graham Memorial by noon today.

Expectation

At present only 30 reports have been turned in out of the 14 dormitories and 26 fraternities. The percentage, however, is already far below that expected.

Unless the 10 reports not turned in represent a larger per cent of subscribers than those received there will not be a sufficient guarantee to warrant a bid being made for the cleaning establishment when it comes up for sale tomorrow in the Orange

ROLAND HAYES TO PRESENT CONCERT

Negro Tenor Will Sing Tomorrow Evening

Many University students and faculty members are expected to go to Durham tomorrow evening for a concert by Roland Hayes, celebrated Negro tenor, who will appear at the North Carolina College for Negroes at 8 o'clock.

Hailed by Ernest Newman, famed English critic, as "the only tenor I have found worth listening to this season," Hayes has a history unparalleled in musical annals.

Childhood

He was born and spent his childhood working on the Georgia farm of his widowed, slave-born mother. Later he became a founder's helper in Chattanooga, a waiter in Louisville, office boy in Boston, and did other odd jobs.

He gave song recitals and lost his savings on them. More of his money was spent in studying music, voice production, and song interpretation until he won the right to give a recital before the exacting public of Boston's Symphony hall.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained at the local Y. M. C. A. office. Reserved seats are on sale at $1.50, main floor seats at $1.00, and balcony seats at 75 cents.

Or Else!

All members of the DAILY TAR HEEL reportorial and technical staffs, both news and sports, must be present at a very important meeting tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 in Graham Memorial.

The theme of the meeting vitally affects each member of the staff; hence, attendance is compulsory.

C. I. O. FURTHERS FORD UNIONIZATION

St. Louis, Dec. 4—A high official of the United Automobile Workers of America said today that the campaign to unionize the Ford Motor company will probably be carried to two other cities next week by the CIO.

According to Richard Frankenstein, UAWA international vice president, workers at the Long Beach, Calif. plant had "voted unanimously" for a strike. At Kansas City, various committees are waiting for the call to strike; "soup kitchens" have already been set up.

The vice president added, however, "I can not yet give the exact date the men will be called out."

Frankenstein, who flew to St. Louis from Pittsburgh to address a meeting of CIO workers last night, indicated the St. Louis strike "is part of a carefully planned national campaign to unionize Ford."

He declared, "If it becomes necessary, we will completely tie up production by calling out our men in the various material supply companies which supply the Ford plants."

This method has not been applied so far because it involves the jobs of so many men.

Frankenstein explained that the St. Louis strike has aided "immeasurably" the organization of other Ford plants.

"Both the CIO and the A. F. of L. are closely watching its developments," he added.

POLAND NEXT TO NAZIS IN NEED FOR COLONIES

Warsaw, Dec. 4—Political observers indicated that the diplomatic talks today between French Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos and Polish statesmen were expected to prove to France that Poland, next to Germany, is an applicant for colonies.

A few days before Delbos ar
