

World News

By Nelson Large

FDR NOMINATES REED FOR SUPREME COURT

Washington, Jan. 15—Solicitor General Stanley Reed was nominated today as President Roosevelt's choice to fill the vacancy to be made by Associate Justice George Sutherland as a member of the country's highest court.

As soon as the retirement of Justice Sutherland becomes effective on January 18, the 53 year old attorney can, upon confirmation by the senate, take the place on the bench.

Reed's selection to the court, the second to be made by Roosevelt will cause a change from conservative to liberal to take place in the court's actions.

The senate judiciary committee will probably make a thorough search into the qualifications of the new nominee before a vote on confirmation is finally taken. Several senators, however, were highly in favor of the selection of Reed, and were quick to offer their words of praise.

Other senators who are a bit critical of the present administration, recall the controversy over the selection of Hugo Black who was a Democratic Senator from Alabama prior to his appointment to the high court.

Reed's nomination was immediately referred to a sub-committee for consideration by Chairman Ashurst of the senate judiciary committee. The sub-committee was expected to begin work at once. According to predictions of many senators the group will hold hearings.

Shortly after being informed of his nomination, Reed issued the following four word statement:

"I am deeply grateful."

NORRIS WOULD ABOLISH HOLDING COMPANIES

Washington, Jan. 15—That the government utilize its taxing powers to carry out the President's proposal abolishing all holding companies was the suggestion made by Senator Norris (Ind-Neb.) today.

Agreeing with Roosevelt's view, Norris asserted a taxing system could be set up which would quickly do away with all holding companies.

He stated, that "it would be simple to impose such a heavy tax burden that it would be impossible for them to operate."

Although the senator said it might be desirable for some

(Continued on page two)

J. E. Toms To Sing In Freshman Chapel

Tenor Will Present Number Of Light Selections Tomorrow

John E. Toms, voice instructor and director of the Men's Glee club at the University, will render a group of songs at the regular freshman assembly tomorrow morning.

Toms, a popular tenor, will present a number of light selections. Among these are: "Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind," by Quilter; "Verbargenheit," by Wolf; "Le Reve" from Manon, by Massenet; "Going Down to London," by Coldby; "She Rested by a Broken Brook," by Cole-ridge-Taylor; "Iris," by Daniel Wolf; and "Hills," by La Forge.

Toms will be accompanied on the piano by David Beaty.

PRESS INSTITUTE TO START HERE THIS THURSDAY

Initial Program Will Be Open To General Public

Confining its program and speakers exclusively to members of the profession, the North Carolina Press association will hold its fourteenth annual newspaper institute here and at Duke, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher of the New York Times, is the principal speaker for the opening session Thursday night at 8 o'clock in Hill Music hall. This meeting will be open to the general public.

Welcome

Following an opening program of music, President Frank P. Graham will welcome the members of the institute. W. Curtis Russ, president of the association will speak briefly, and Carl C. Council, publisher of the Durham Herald-Sun will introduce Mr. Sulzberger.

Arthur Robb, executive editor of Editor and Publisher, will speak Friday morning at the Carolina inn at 9:30. This session will be followed by a call meeting at 10:30 to consider whether or not the association should employ an all-time manager.

At the luncheon at the inn at

(Continued on last page)

PLAYERS TO GIVE "BOY MEETS GIRL"

Bailey Directing Cast Of Over 20 People

"Boy Meets Girl," last year's Broadway comedy hit, will be the third Playmaker production of the year when it is shown at the Playmaker theater January 27, 28, and 29.

The story of the play concerns two screwy Hollywood script writers, who are stuck without a plot for the next picture of Larry Toms, film cowboy. Susie, a pretty waitress with an average Hollywood I. Q., gives them an inspiration when she faints in their office, and informs them that she is to have a baby.

"Happy"

The writers build a story around the baby and then wait for its birth. As soon as the child is born, the picture is made and released, and "Happy," as the baby is named, becomes a sensation.

From that point the plot speeds through the remainder of the play in a dizzy, madcap whirl of midgets, songwriters, agents, hams, and all the trimmings of the film studio.

The cast of more than 20 people is now in rehearsal under the direction of Howard Bailey,

(Continued on last page)

YMCA Representatives Are Guests At WCUNC

Supper, Joint Program, Dance Held For Local Men

Representatives of the University YMCA were guests of the Sophomore YWCA cabinet of the Woman's college at Greensboro last night at a supper, joint program, and dance.

The group of around two dozen students arrived in time for a short meeting at 5:30 in the Student union at Greensboro. Supper at 6 o'clock, the joint program, and the dance followed.

Heard Prefers Pictures After Girdler Speaks

CPU Chairman Feels That Campus Should Hear Steel Head With Open Minds

"I see no objection to running the pictures, but I do feel that it should be done after Mr. Girdler speaks here in order that the campus can hear him with the same openness of mind that it hears other CPU speakers," Carolina Political union chairman, Alex Heard, said yesterday.

Heard was speaking in regards to a plan, advanced by a group of 14 students recently, to show pictures of the Memorial Day fight at the Republic Steel corporation plant, when Tom Girdler, president of the corporation, speaks here on January 31.

The union chairman, when questioned as to his feelings in regards to the matter, went on to say, "The purpose of show-

(Continued on page two)

YMCA RELIGION IN LIFE CONFERENCE TO BE NEXT WEEK

Topics Which Appear In College Life Will Be Discussed

To answer questions that appear every day in college life so as to fit the needs of college students is the purpose of 44 topics selected by the YMCA for the Religion in Life conference to be held here January 23 to 28.

Covering every possible angle of religion and its adaptation to life, these topics will be the subjects for an extensive series of speeches, classroom seminars, and small group and individual discussions.

Authorities

Twelve prominent authorities will be furnished by the Federal Council of Churches to provide the speeches and lead seminars and other group discussions.

The topics are as follows:

1. Has Religion an answer for Social Change?
2. Can Religion be made to fit the needs of modern life?
3. Should the Church take the lead in adapting Religion to social needs?
4. Is Religion imperative in one's personal philosophy of life?
5. How does one find the chief

(Continued on last page)

Ex-Campus "Smoothie" Is Still Up To Old Tricks

TOWN COEDS MAY BE GIVEN DANCE SOON, IVEY SAYS

Board Of Directors Of Graham Memorial Must Give Approval For Social Event

Forgotten women of the campus will probably be remembered by the Graham Memorial again this year, according to announcement by Pete Ivey, director of the Student Union.

Town girls are generally recognized as the forgotten female group of the University, and last year the Union sponsored a dance for them in the main lounge. The dance was deemed a success, and will be repeated again this year if the Board of Directors approves. According

(Continued on page two)

WILLIAM FOSTER TO SPEAK HERE TUESDAY NIGHT

Commerce School Will Sponsor Consumers Foundation Head

William T. Foster, national president of the Consumers foundation, a "fact-finding non-profit body to promote the consumer interest," will speak Tuesday night in 103 Bingham hall at 8 o'clock. His visit is under the sponsorship of the commerce school.

Mr. Foster's subject will be "Can the Consumer Stand the Truth?" He is a contributor to numerous magazines and newspapers and has written two books, "Business Without a Buyer," and "Progress and Plenty."

First President

The Consumers foundation was recently organized in New York and its board of directors, in session at the Hotel Astor, selected Foster as the first president. He is a director of the Pollak Foundation for Economics Research, former president of Reed college in Oregon, a member of the Consumers Advisory board of the NRA before the recovery agency was declared unconstitutional, and formerly a member of the state planning board of Massachusetts. He has served on the faculties of Bates and Bowdoin colleges.

ALDENS TO GIVE CONCERT TODAY

Violin Recital On Union Sunday Series

Edgar H. Alden and Mrs. Dorothy Alden of Raleigh will present a two violin recital this afternoon in the main lounge of Graham Memorial at 5 o'clock on the Student union's regular Sunday afternoon concert series.

Alden is a member of the Meredith college music faculty and Mrs. Alden of the St. Mary's and Peace faculties.

Program

Accompanied by Miss Aileen McMillan they will give the following program:

"Concerto in D Minor," by Bach; "Gondoliera," Moszkowski-Hartmann; "Andante from Serenade," Sinding; "Impromptu," Goossens; and "Suite Antique," (in five parts) by Stoesel.

Scribe Finds Frank McGlinn Booked For Theft In Amusing Episode In Philadelphia

By VOIT GILMORE

Upperclassmen remember Frank McGlinn by his deeds last year; most freshmen know him by legend.

He's the fellow who started and ran the CPU, and who told the biggest political bigwigs where to get off. He's the fellow so wrapt up in campus politics, and more particularly the University party, that last spring's election put him in bed for three weeks.

Studying Law

Well, Frank made Grail, Fleece, Phi Bete, and got graduated, much against his will. Now he is studying law at

(Continued on last page)

William Hard Scheduled To Make First Appearance On Campus As Next CPU Guest

Physicists Get Three Pictures For Laboratory

Paintings Of Noted Scientists Presented To Department By Optical Company

Paintings of three noted scientists of the past, done by the distinguished New York artist, Harold Anderson, have been donated to the University physics department by the Bausch and Lomb Optical company. The subjects are Alhazen, the Moor; Huygens, the Dutchman; and Fraunhofer, the Bavarian.

The paintings will be hung in the physics laboratory, although they are said to be subjects suitable for any classroom or library.

Richly colored, the picture of Alhazen, who was born 965 A. D., shows this Arabian math-

(Continued on page two)

QUARTER'S FIRST AMATEUR SHOW TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Sedalia Singers, Little Apple, Armstrong Will Perform

With the Sedalia singers providing music, a demonstration of the Little Apple providing entertainment, and "Field Marshall" Roy Armstrong providing humor as master of ceremonies, Graham Memorial will present its first amateur show of the winter quarter tonight at 8:30 in Hill Music hall.

Received enthusiastically here last year on the Student Entertainment series, appearance of the Sedalia group has already aroused much comment. A sextet of Negro male singers compose the group.

Interview

In an interview late last night, "Field Marshall" Armstrong declared he disliked giving the gong to would-be student stars, but that he would not be "paralyzed" tonight.

"More amateurs than ever before asked to be on tonight's program, and thus a better selection is guaranteed," said Ivey. Stars-to-be who have already been selected to appear are:

The Chi Psi singers; William M. Stone, singer and guitar player; Sam Hood, pianist; Bruce Cover, singer; Emmet Brown, Bruce Cover, and John Hutt, entertainment skit; Truett Bennett, oboe solo; Kal Sherman, imitations; Peggy Poole, dancer; Joe Brown, singer; J. Vance Rowe, monologist; Howard Kiss, singer.

Freshmen Will See Football Pictures

Friendship Council To Meet Tomorrow Night At 7:30

Action pictures of last fall's Carolina football battles will be shown to members of the Freshman Friendship council at their weekly meeting tomorrow night at 7:30 in Di hall, David Sessoms, chairman of the program committee, announced yesterday.

Plans for a joint meeting with the freshman YMCA group at the Woman's college in Greensboro will also be discussed.

News Commentator And Author To Speak January 24

Active GOP Leader

William Hard, assistant to the chairman of the Republican National committee, and author and news commentator of note, is the Carolina Political union's next speaker, according to an announcement made yesterday by Chairman Alex Heard.

Hard will speak in Memorial hall at 7:15 on the night of Monday, January 24. This will be his first appearance in Chapel Hill.

During the 1936 presidential campaign, Hard made five broadcasts a week on behalf of the Republican party, and in both the 1932 and 1936 elections he broadcasted the national political conventions for the National Broadcasting company.

In addition to his broadcasting experience he is an author and has frequently contributed to the Sunday Magazine of the New York Herald Tribune, and the Redbook Magazine.

Hard first gained national prominence by his newspaper work as a Washington columnist. When John Hamilton reorganized the Republican party last year, Hard was given his present post.

PASTOR TO SPEAK AT YWCA MEETING

Group To Hear Binkley Tomorrow Night

Dr. O. T. Binkley, pastor of the Baptist church, will speak at the YWCA meeting tomorrow night at 7 o'clock in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

This will be the initial meeting of the series of group discussions on the general theme, "The Student as a Citizen of the Christian World." Dr. Binkley is going to speak on the topic, "The Family and its Influence on the Student." Other topics to be discussed during the quarter will be the student with relation to war, peace, labor, the church, and world affairs.

Miss Polly Pollock, president of the YWCA, urges that all women be present at this important meeting. The advisory board has been invited, and cocoa will be served immediately following the meeting.

YMCA Cabinets Will Hold Joint Meeting

Forthcoming Religion In Life Conference To Be Discussed

Junior-Senior and Sophomore YMCA cabinets will meet tomorrow night at 7:15 at the YMCA in a continuation of their discussion of the forthcoming Religion-in-Life conference to be held here January 23-28 under the sponsorship of the local association.

Using the same procedure carried out at the meeting last week, Scott Hunter, YMCA president, will again preside, and the Rev. Donald Stewart will again lead the discussion of the conference.

Dewitt Barnett, president of the sophomore group, announced yesterday that the next series of programs for that organization will probably be on "Men-Women Relations."