LYNCHING LEGISLATION GIVEN RIGHT-OF-WAY

Washington, Jan. 24 .- Discussion of the anti-lynching bill was given the right-of-way in the senate today as the administration housing report was withheld in order that the former bill, which has retarded the senate for three weeks, may be disposed of.

The long filibuster by southern senators to prevent passage of the lynch bill was continued by Senators McKellar (D-Tenn.) and Bilbo (D-Miss.).

Meanwhile, the senate judiciary committee approved the nomination of Stanley Reed, now solicitor general, to the Supreme court. Senate confirmation is expected some time during the week.

President George H. Davis of the United States chamber of commerce, in a letter to a senate committee studying the relation of unemployment to the present business recession, appealed to the group for lower taxes and a respite from new trade and industrial regulations.

RESIDENTS OF HAWAII

FEAR VOLCANO ERUPTION Honolulu, Jan. 24.—Possible eruption of many active Hawaiian volcanoes was feared by residents today after an earthquake Sunday which lasted two minutes.

The earthquake shattered plastering, broke crockery, and otherwise frightened natives, but no injuries or deaths from the disturbance were reported.

Scientists expressed the opinion that Mauna Loa, one of the three large volcanoes on the island, could have been the cause of the earthquake.

Relations With God

In speaking of relations with God, Dr. Koo revealed how much the Christian religion added to the ancient Chinese concept of God. To them, he said, man and God were in a state of equalibrium. "It would be good if we could inflict this state in our own hearts," he added.

A principle of creativity which goes on and on, and a state of wisdom and insight were the other two points in the Chinese conception of God, according to the speaker. "The Christian religion adds to these SENIOR CLASS TO a sense of fatherly love, and thus takes away the vagueness of the Chinese conception," he continued.

"Have you anything in your life you would place before yourself?" he asked. "If not, you have not found the secret of religion."

Speaker Stresses Need Of Personality In Democracy

TOMORROW NIGHT Overton Speaks

Formally opening the Religion in Life conference here, Dr. Stanley High declared Sunday night in Memorial hall that democracy and Christianity both must pay more attention to the development of the individual if this nation expects to avoid Fascism or Communism or some other form of dictatorship.

Dr. High, who founded the Good Neighbor league and has been a prominent contributor to eral books, asserted that, "Demagazines and is author of sevmocracy has proved to be the best expression of Christian ideals but we have now reached more concern for the individual, for personality."

This Morning Vesper Services

Dr. Steere To Discuss

Growth In Religion

Emphasizing the value of individual contact, the ten prominent speakers already here for the Religion in Life conference this week have made appointments for informal "bull sessions" during and following every available meal, Harry F. Comer, executive secretary of the YMCA, announced yesterday.

Practically every dormitory and fraternity on the campus has already arranged for a meeting with one of the leaders. Any organization or individual that has not yet arranged for a meeting and would like to do so, should call the YMCA office at once.

Steere To Speak

The conference program for today calls for an address this morning at 10:30 in Memorial hall by Dr. Douglas V. Steere, prominent professor of philosophy at Haverford. Dr. Steere, highly proclaimed as a platform speaker, will discuss "Growth in the Religious Life."

At 5 o'clock, a vesper service will be held at the Presbyterian church.

In place of a platform address tonight, each speaker, together with a group of students, will attend the Carolina-State basketball game.

Tomorrow the conference will re-enter its regular schedule with an address in the morning by Dr. Howard Rondthaler and an evening speech by Professor Gertrude Rutherford, prominent Canadian religious leader.

PICK OFFICERS

the point where we must have Members Will Be Able To Attend Game

New Phi assembly officers will be elected at a meeting tonight at 7 o'clock in the hall of New East, it was announced yesterday by Speaker Drew Martin.

John Rankin, treasurer of the Phi, announced last night that all dues for this year must be paid before the meeting tonight for members to be eligible to vote in the election or have their names in the Yackety-Yack.

"Some members wanted to postpone the election until February 1 because of a conflicting basketball game," Martin said. "However, there is a basketball game that night also."

Martin said that the meeting The question which will be would be adjourned at 8 o'clock placed on the ballot reads: "Do in order that representatives you favor student ownership might get to the game scheduled and operation of a radio studio for 8:30.
