SMALL BUSINESS MEN CONVENE IN UPROAR

Washington, Feb. 2.—Nearly 1,000 small business men, meeting at the suggestion of President Roosevelt, tried today to set down what they think the government should do to improve business.

The first meeting of men invited to confer on the present recession ended in pandemonium. During the entire meeting, an uncontrolled, noisy uproar filled the large auditorium of the commerce department.

Secretary Roper, speaking in behalf of the President, attempted to convey greetings to the assembly. He and Fred Roth, of Cleveland, Ohio, who was elected chairman of the convention, attempted to restore order after the meeting had broken up into 10 individual discussion groups.

Despite the uproar, many of the small business men protested against what they termed unfair trade practices of some large concerns.

Some said they were in favor of getting taxes imposed on chain stores. Others hope to obtain conference approval of varied types of restrictions on their big competitors.

FRENCH, ITALIAN ENVOYS INTERVIEWED BY EDEN

London, Feb. 2.—Following the dispatch of protecting warships to danger zones, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden today conferred with French and Italian ambassadors to outline emergency measures to prevent further menacing of merchant shipping in the Mediterranean.

The conference today was a result of the torpedoing and sinking Sunday of the British freighter Endymion off the coast of southeastern Spain.

Italian officials in Rome said that the Spanish government charges that insurgents were using six Italian warships "were not addressed to us and hence we have no reply to make."

Spanish government officials had previously charged that the submarine which sank the freighter was Italian, supposedly on patrol duty but actually aiding Spanish insurgents in their attempt to blockade government ports.

ATTACK ON LYNCH BILL RENEWED BY SENATORS

Washington, Feb. 2.—Having disposed of administration better-housing legislation, the senate today resumed its long fight over passage of the anti-lynching bill.

Southerners' confidence in the outcome of the battle which has lasted for a month was demonstrated yesterday when they failed to debate for any length the housing bill, which was adopted by a vote of 42 to 40.

It was reported that senate leaders were attempting to diplomatically sidetrack the anti-lynching measure so that more important legislation could be enacted.

Some senators suggested holding the future program of tax revision, government reorganization, and the regular appropriation bills.

Behind the attempt to sidetrack the lynching bill, administration leaders talked of early

FLOOR SHOW TO BE FEATURE OF YWCA CABARET

Jere King And Group To Provide Music For Affair

Sponsored by YWCA coeds, the cabaret in the ball room of the Carolina inn the week-end of the German club Midwinter dances will feature a varied floor show with music by Jere King and his orchestra.

Feature

The entertainment will feature Miss Betty Tandy, solo dancer, and Miss Frances Walker as torch singer. The show also includes Misses Mary Lillian Speck and Lillian Hughes who will be singers with the orchestra which will provide music for dinner and dancing.

Invitations

Invitations have already been sent to German club members, offering reservations for party groups and for couples. According to an announcement by Miss Elizabeth Malone, who is in charge of the general arrangements, several fraternities are planning parties at the cabaret, which will be after the tea dance Friday, February 11, from 7 to 8:30 o'clock.

Expense

At this first cabaret the expense will be kept at a minimum, the cost per person being one dollar, which will cover the cost of dinner, dancing, entertainment, and Valentine favors.

Anyone wishing to make reservations in advance for the cabaret should telephone Miss Elizabeth Malone at Spencer hall, the YMCA, or Graham Memorial.

MEN BARRED IN MAY DAY AFFAIR

Election Of Queen To Be By Coeds Only

Men will participate in no way with this year's May Day program, it was decided yesterday by the Women's association.

This means that election of the May queen and her court will be done entirely by the coeds, either by popular election or by a committee. It also means that no men will be featured in the pageant.

Plans

Plans for the program are in the hands of Alpha Kappa Gamma, women's national honorary fraternity. Students are now busy working on scripts for the pageant, to be entered in a contest and judged by members of AKG, the author of the winning one receiving five dollars.

Definite plans for the May Day program will be published at the beginning of the spring quarter.

Magazine Copy Will Be Due February 12

Prospective Contributors Should Confer With Read, Hudson

Copy for the next issue of the Carolina Magazine will be due February 12, it was announced yesterday. Prospective contributors should confer with Nick Read or Bill Hudson by today.

Editors will be in the office in Graham Memorial from 7 to 8:30 this evening.

Duke University's Most Beautiful

Miss Margaret Bonnell, who was selected by Cinema Director Cecil B. DeMille as the most beautiful co-ed at Duke university. The contest was held by the Chanticleer. Duke didn't lose everything on November 13.

Hogan To Petition Council To Reconsider Recent Ruling

"You All" Found To Have Roman Origin

Professor Davis Finds Phrase In Works Of Cicero

The phrase "you all," which is supposed to strongly identify a person from the southern part of the United States, dates back to the Latin classics, Dr. B. W. Davis informed his Latin class the other day.

In the works of Cicero the words "omnes vos" appear many times. He was referring to "all you Roman people," but the words translate directly into "you all."

Perhaps the southern forefathers were greater scholars than historians have given them credit for.

Rooms Added To Fourth Floor At Spencer Hall

Social Room, Laundry, Trunk Room Installed In Former Bare Attic Space

Three new rooms have been added to the fourth floor of Spencer hall, using space that was bare attic room in which trunks were stored. These rooms are a social room, a laundry, and a new trunk room.

It was mainly through the combined efforts of Mrs. Lee, social director of Spencer hall, Mrs. Marvin Stacy, adviser to women, Mr. P. L. Burch, superintendent of buildings, and Mr. T. E. Henson, superintendent of dormitories, that the rooms have been acquired. These and others have been working on the ideas and the plans for the rooms for about three years, but

Will Request That Only 800 Votes Be Cast In Election

Parties Favor Plan

By CHARLES BARRETT
Milton Hogan, University student chiefly responsible for the campus radio studio movement, said last night he would request that the student council reconsider its recent ruling requiring a vote of half the student body to qualify the election to be held February 10.

Hogan said he would ask the council to require that approximately 800 students vote in favor of the proposal, but not to make it necessary for another 800 votes to be cast.

"There's no point in having the other 800 vote as a favorable majority would already have been secured," he said.

Parties

It was also learned that both political parties on the campus would support the proposed studio in the election. Heads of the Student and University parties have agreed to conduct campaigns in dormitories and fraternities in favor of the studio.

Hogan stressed the fact that in only one election in his

Date For Annual Student-Faculty Fete Postponed

POLICY OF YOUNG REPUBLICANS TO BE READ FEB. 12

State-Wide Recognition Given Reorganized Association

Members of the University Young Republicans' club will receive state-wide recognition February 12 when a paper stating the party policy advised by the local group is read before the North Carolina Young Republicans' convention.

Miss Frances Johnson, who has been largely responsible for rehabilitation of the organization on the campus, announced yesterday that a special meeting of the club will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Grail room to decide on the policy to be suggested by the local group.

Interest

The club, reorganized at the beginning of the year, has attracted much interest on the campus and succeeded in bringing the first major speaker ever brought here by a Republican organization.

Miss Johnson and several others will attend the convention at which the paper will be read.

All students on the campus who are interested in the future of the Republican party, both locally and nationally, and who wish to contribute to the formation of the policy paper are urged to attend the meeting called for this afternoon.

Celebration To Be Held First Two Weeks Of Spring Quarter

Berg Is Secretive

Because of a crowded winter schedule of activities, the fourth annual Student-Faculty day will be held during the first two weeks of the spring quarter, it was announced yesterday by Randy Berg, chairman of the committee for the arrangements of the celebration.

Elaborate plans are already under way to make the event the best since its origination three years ago. Chairman for the special committees will be notified of their appointments within the next few days, and are expected to begin work immediately.

Plans

Berg was secretive about his plans but he promised that he had enough up his sleeve to provide a real spectacle when the day arrives. He outlined the general program for the day, which will be inaugurated with the coronation of the king and queen of the event and will end with a gala jamboree and dance in the evening. The royal family will be elected by the student body in the next few weeks, and will be crowned in a brilliant ceremony which will open the festivities.

Later in the day, students have luncheon with faculty members. Plans for the afternoon activities have not been arranged yet, but the day will be climaxed by the evening's dance.

Former University Medical Student Reported Missing

VON BECKERATH SPEAKS TONIGHT

Professor Will Discuss "League Of Nations"

Following a short business meeting at 7:15 tonight, the Foreign Policy league will hear Herbert Von Beckerath of the economics department who will speak on "League of Nations."

Dr. von Beckerath will present the historic background in Europe, the ideals of the League of Nations, and its unrealistic approach to present day European demands. His speech follows those last week by John Creedy and Henry Nigrelli in behalf of the League's cause.

In correction, John Kendrick has not resigned from the organization as was stated in last Sunday's TAR HEEL but is now serving on the executive committee.

Everyone is invited to attend the meeting, which will be held in the YMCA.

Drama Majors

All students majoring in dramatic arts who plan to take the comprehensive examination on February 19 are asked to meet in Dr. Frederick Koch's office at 113 Murphey today at 4 o'clock.

Burke Gray Last Seen By Roommate On January 21

Investigators Here

Federal authorities are still attempting to solve the disappearance of Thomas Burke Gray, medical student here in 1937 and a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa, who has been reported missing from the University of Maryland.

Gray, according to his roommate, left his room to be gone for several hours on the night of January 21 and did not return.

Clue

Investigators have traced his actions up to 10:30 on that night, but have been unable to determine any clue as to his whereabouts since that time.

Gray's scholastic work at Maryland was above average, although he had been sent home from classes before his disappearance in order to rest. He appeared tired and, friends say, he has been in poor health for the past several years.

It is reported that Federal authorities came to Chapel Hill and questioned Miss "Tud" Mease, coed here and the daughter of a former business partner of Gray's father, to see if she could throw any light on the disappearance.
