BARIUM SPRINGS, RALEIGH RETAIN STATE HI TITLES

Two High Schools Keep Wrestling, Boxing Crowns Again

By WILLIAM L. BEERMAN

Barium Springs, for four years winner of the state high school wrestling championship, retained the title last night in the Tin Can by leading the seven schools entered with a total of 44 points. Trailing closely behind for second and third place were Durham and Greensboro, with 38 and 36 points, respectively.

Both Greensboro and Barium Springs placed five men in the finals, with Greensboro winning two of the weights and the defending champs getting three. Durham, Salisbury, Thomasville, and High Point were able to take home one state titlist apiece.

Wrestling Winners

Boxing

Raleigh high school, for the fifth year in a row, rules the North Carolina high school realm of boxing. Last night at the Tin Can, the Capital City ringers, by coming out ahead in two final bouts, pulled out the championship from under the noses of Charlotte and Wilmington. At the end of a close tight title chase, the winners had nine points, and Charlotte and Wilmington were right behind with

Boxers To Meet VPI In Tin Can Tomorrow Night

Coach Ronman To Use Changed Line-Up For Bouts With Virginia Tech

For the fifth time in as many meets, Coach Michael Ronman will shift his varsity boxing lineup, this time to meet the VPI ring team in the Tin Can tomorrow night.

Jimmy Perotta, who saw his first varsity competition last Friday in an exhibition bout at State college prior to the scheduled bouts, will replace Billy Winstead in the 115-lb. class. Winstead has been troubled with a bad ear for some time and Ronman has decided to keep the bantam out of competition this week.

Twin Bill

Both the freshmen and varsity are slated to compete tomorrow night against the Virginia Tech boxers, the freshmen making their first home appearance at 7 o'clock and the varsity their local second showing at 8:30.

The revised lineup for the varsity bouts tomorrow night will be Perotta, 115; Joe Murnick, 125; Joe Fisher, 135; Claude Sapp, 145; Crowell Little, 155; Bill Moore, 165; Jim Bryant, 175, and Ed Hubbard, unlimited.

The freshman lineup will probably have Bass at 115; Kornfeld, 125; Gennett, 135; Paris, 145; Castles, 155; Bartlett, 165; and Sanders, 175. No heavyweight has represented the Tar Babies in their two meets.

eight and a half markers.

Raleigh did not clinch the title until the night's final bout, the 165-lb. fray. Up until that match, Charlotte was still very much in the running. But Merritt of Wilmington soon put

NEW TRACK WILL IMPROVE CALIBRE OF INDOOR MEETS

Southern Conference Games To Be Here February 26

For the first time in the history of the conference track meet, distance runners competing in the Ninth Annual Southern Conference indoor track games February 26 will run on an indoor banked track.

Dale Ranson, coach of the defending Tar Heel indoor track team, stated yesterday that the new wooden saucer will greatly improve the caliber of the meet and make it the finest ever held in Chapel Hill.

Relay Stars

Although there will be no two-mile relay race in the conference games, the individual members of the Carolina relay team, which surprised metropolitan track followers in the Millrose games last Saturday by winning the two-mile event in 7:52.4, will be the key men in the distance runs of the games this month.

Handicapped by a foot accidentally spiked just before the race by a prancing Columbia lead-off entry, the Tar Heel starter, White, lost considerable ground in the first lap, but the remaining three members of the team, Hardy, Davis and Hendrix, made up for the deficit in the remaining mile and a half to win the event.

The combined best times of four members, made during five years of competition, add up to 7:51.3 minutes, only 1.1 seconds faster than the Millrose time.

Ranson House, SAE, Ruffin And BVP Are Winners Of Murals

These Games Mark The Finish Of The Intramural Tourney For This Week

Ranson House appeared to be certain of victory as the game moved into the final minute of play and they led 15 to 13, but Stark of Graham sank a basket to tie the score. In the overtime period Ranson House went to town, making 6 points while Graham tallied one and the Coach Ray Wolf points out to former pupil Sam Baugh pictures of the men who will carry the brunt of the passing assignments in next fall's Southern Conference football campaign while Coach Johnny Vaught looks on. The picture was snapped in the Wolf living room late Monday night when the three Texans gathered for their first reunion since 1935.

Wolf coached both Baugh and Vaught to All-American honors at TCU, the former as a back and the latter as a lineman.

Baugh, With Sore Shoulder, Can Only Tell Passers How

"Slingshot Sam" Spends Time Posing For Press Photos

Will Coach Backs

Taking only a verbal part in yesterday's football practice because of a wrenched shoulder, Sammy Baugh spent the greater part of his time posing for press photographers on Fetzer field and the rest of it picking out flaws in the passing techniques of Tony Cernugle, George Watson, Bob Osborne, George Stirnweiss, Jim Lalanne and other Tar Heel backs.

The genial professional star, sparkplug of the championship Washington Redskins, hurt his shoulder during the brief interlude of his play in the Washington-Chicago game in Miami last Sunday. Although that game was marked by flying fists and free-for-alls, Baugh took no part in the proceedings and was held out of the major part of the game with a charley-horse.

Friendship

Because of his close friendship with Coaches Ray Wolf and Johnny Vaught, Baugh will fit into the winter practice sessions like the missing piece of a jigsaw puzzle. When the tumult and shouting dies he is expected to give the backs pointers to develop a passing attack.

PHANTOMS PLAY WILDCATS HERE TONIGHT AT 8:30

Tar Babies Will Meet Davidson Freshmen At 7 O'clock

Davidson's Wildcats breeze into the Tin Can at 8:30 tonight to engage the Carolina White Phantoms in a Big Five and Southern Conference basketball game. The meeting is the second of the season between the Cats and the Tin Cannons. During the first week of the season in Charlotte, Dick Worley's two overtime field goals brought victory to Carolina, 37-35.

At last reports, the Skidmore hardwooders were high and dry atop the conference with eight wins and one loss in loop battles. The complete season record for the Blue and White is 11 and three, with all three of the setbacks coming in one week and on one string.

Davidson has been in and out ever since the start of the season. Some claim the Wildcats, next to the Phantoms, have the best team in the state. So far this season, they have split about even in Big Five and Southern Conference play. Although the Wildcats are out of the conference first division, they are still very much in the race to get a bid to the tournament to be held in Raleigh the first week of March.

Bo Shepard's Tar Baby five will play a preliminary return battle with the Davidson Wildkittens at 7 o'clock. The yearlings opened their season against Davidson in Charlotte with a win, and are favored to repeat on their triumph tonight.

John Tarleton college of Texas recently lost its first basketball game in 87 starts.
