Coach Chuck Quinlan, wrestling diagnostician, gave his varsity grapplers a final examination on the Bynum gym mats yesterday afternoon and pronounced them ready for action. They will meet Duke in the Tin Can tonight at 8:15, following several exhibition matches beginning at 7:45.

Duke, apparently lacking in whatever vitamin it takes to make good wrestlers, has lost three out of three meets this season and is headed for certain defeat in tonight's contest, which is the last of the year for

RELAY TEAM WILL RUN IN NEW YORK GAMES TOMORROW

Invitation Follows Fine Showing In Millrose Meet

Relay is in the air down at the Tin Can these days. What with the success of the Carolina two-mile relay team in the northern circuits, you can hardly blame Coach Dale Ranson when he talks relay.

Tonight at 7:10, the coach will take his relayers to Durham, put them on a train, and tomorrow the relayers and Ranson will arrive in New York for the New York A. C. games.

Yesterday, however, Coach Ranson did not talk of the Carolina relay team. Rather he spoke of the relay events in the Southern Conference indoor track meet which will be in our midst a week from tomorrow.

Conference Relay
The relays have always been one of the feature attractions of the annual indoor hoofing extravaganza. In at least two instances within the last few years, the outcome of the meet has been undecided until the mile relay was run off in the conference division.

Spessard Was Mighty But-- White Phantoms Outgunned Generals For Win Of 42-39

One Assist

... is due Pete Boone for his watch-dogging of Bob Spessard in the last five minutes of last night's W. & L.-Carolina basketball game. Over that period the General pivotman, who scored 21 points during the game, was held scoreless. And over that point, helped by Boone's ball retrieving, the Phantoms scored enough to win the ball game.

HERE ARE TEAMS WHO WON MURAL GAMES YESTERDAY

Table Tennis, Bowling, Volley Ball Men Saw Action

Phi Kappa Sigma No. 1 came out victorious over Sigma Chi No. 1, 2 to 1 yesterday afternoon in the most exciting and hardest fought table tennis match that has been played in the fraternity tournament. All of the games in this match were close and two were extended to extra points. In the other matches of the day Sigma Chi No. 2 defeated AE Pi No. 1, 2 to 1; Lambda Chi Alpha trampled Kappa Sigma No. 3, 3 to 0; Sigma Nu No. 1 won over Chi Psi No. 2, 2 to 0; Phi Delta Theta No. 1 defeated SAE No. 2, 2 to 0, and SAE No. 1 defeated SPE No. 1, 2 to 1.

Four fraternity bowling teams were trampled yesterday afternoon in the fraternity bowling tournament. Zeta Psi No. 1 had an easy time with AE Pi No. 2 and crushed them by the score of 322 to 223. In the other games Sigma Nu No. 1 was plenty hot and romped over KA No. 3 to the score of 352 to 223. Phi Delta Theta No. 1 defeated Sigma Chi No. 5 382 to 306, and Chi Psi No. 4 won

Victory Came In Final Minutes As Ruth, Boone Shone

Tall Boy Scored 21

By SHELLEY ROLFE

The Spessard is mighty and shall prevail, and last night Bob Boone, prevailed to the extent of swishing 21 points through the nets to paydirt for Washington and Lee. But all of Spessard's point getting was to no avail, as a never say die Carolina basketball team swept a game from under the noses of the Generals in the last two minutes of play by a 42-39 count.

With two minutes to go, Washington and Lee led 39-36. Two fouls by Andy Bershak and Dick Worley had brought the count to 38. Then Captain Earl Ruth came on the scene to steal the ball from under the noses of the amazed Generals and dribble in to sink a basket that put the Phantoms ahead to stay, 40-39. With seconds left to go, Pete Boone stole another pass from the hands of Spessard. Pete then dribbled in to sink the final field goal of the ball game.

Boone Stars

Boone was the star of last night's game. His worth to the Phantoms cannot be measured in the scoring column. For in the last five minutes of the game, Boone shadowed every step the great Spessard made to hold him scoreless. Every time Spessard jumped up for the ball, Boone was there to intercept it. Spessard sank his last point with five minutes to go left in the ball game, to send the Generals ahead 39-36. Then Boone started operations. And while he was holding Bob scoreless, the Phantoms crept up to take the ball game.

The game was wide open all the way through. At half time the count was 24-24. During the battle, the lead changed 16 times and everything was all knotted up seven times. By winning the ball game, the Phantoms finished their home season undefeated in twelve games and extended their winning streak to eight straight. The tussle was the last that will ever be played in the Tin Can, and that venerable indoor athletic field never saw a more thrilling battle than the final one.

In the first half, Pete Mullis and Ben Dilworth led the Phantoms to an early lead. At the
