DAILY TAR HEEL RACING FORM

Being chapter two of the railbird's eye view of the Southern conference indoor track meet that will be run on the Tin Can track all day tomorrow. The conditions of the track are the same as they were in this corner yesterday. Neither rain, nor snow, nor sleet, nor dark of night will slow up the track. (Ed. note: Recent investigations by the Tin Can roof committee have disclosed that in its present condition, rain over the Tin Can Saturday might slow up the track no end.)

HENDRIX
The mile relay is the final event on the day's program, and twice in the nine year history of the meet has decided the championship. Carolina, last year's relay winner, Duke, Maryland, and W&L from this perch seem to have the best chances to come out ahead in the four-times-440 chase.

Relay

The mile relay is the final event on the day's program, and twice in the nine year history of the meet has decided the championship. Carolina, last year's relay winner, Duke, Maryland, and W&L from this perch seem to have the best chances to come out ahead in the four-times-440 chase.

High Jump

Ed Miller of Maryland, who last year tied the meet record by sky-scraping to 6' 3/8", is back around this year and rates an overwhelming favorite to repeat his triumph of '37. Douglas of Virginia Tech, March of Carolina, and O'Flaherty of Richmond are the men from the field who will give Miller the most competition.

Shotput

The shotput mark of 46 1/2" set by Coleman of Auburn in 1931 is the oldest mark on the meet record book. Strickler of VMI, outdoor and indoor shot champ last year, seems the only man in this year's meet who will be able to challenge that mark. Fischer of Duke and Juliber of Carolina will give Strickler a close race for the title.

Broad Jump

Bill Corpening of Carolina and Morris of Maryland lead a wide-open broad jump field. Not a one of the four who placed in last year's indoor meet is back in competition this year.

Pole Vault

Leighton Dudley of Carolina, who finished in a tie for third last year, is back for this year's fun. Other big-name vaulters are Fort and Sample of Davidson and Cronin of Maryland.

Team Title

Carolina, Duke, and Maryland, which finished first, second, and third respectively last year seem to have the best chances to come out ahead in this year's meet. Over here it looks like Carolina. Tracksters likely to steal most of the meet headlines are: Bill Hendrix and Bill Corpening Carolina, Strickler and Herring of VMI, Reavis and Morse

MURALS ADVANCE ON TABLE TENNIS, BOWLING FRONTS

Finals Reached In Dorm And Frat Table Tennis Tournaments

Yesterday, fraternity table tennis reached the stage where only the strongest survive and Phi Alpha No. 1 and Sigma No. 1 seemed to qualify. These two teams will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock to determine the fraternity table tennis championship. In yesterday's matches Phi Alpha No. 1 trampled Phi Kappa Sigma No. 1, 3 to 0. This was Phi Alpha's fifth straight win by a shut out and they are now in a favored position to win the championship. Sigma Nu No. 1 had a hard time in defeating ATO No. 1, but they put on one of the best exhibitions of table tennis play seen so far in the tournament to win.

Dorm Table Tennis

Three shutout games featured yesterday's dormitory table tennis. BVP, last year's campus champions, advanced to the dormitory finals by defeating Mangum, 2 to 0, in the quarter-finals, and then one hour later they defeated Graham No. 1 3 to 0, in the semi-finals. In the other semi-final game Steele No.

Seniors Outpoint Junior Cagers To Score 27-22 Win

Victory Of Upper Classmen Entitles Them To Junior-Senior Trophy

The senior class continued to hold their supremacy over the junior class in sports by defeating them in basketball last night, 27 to 22. This was the second victory of the year for the seniors and enabled them to win the most events in the junior-senior sport contests.

The game was very close and well played with the seniors showing a little better shooting eye. During the first half the score was tied twice and each time the seniors moved out in front. At the end of the half the seniors were leading 16 to 13. Foreman led the seniors in scoring with 11 points, but the most outstanding man on the team was Davenport. Davenport had 10 points and played a great defensive game.

Cox with 7 points led the scoring for the juniors. But here again the leading scorer was not the most outstanding player, this honor goes to Markham who scored 5 points and was outstanding in his handling of the ball.

After the game the players of each team chose the most outstanding man on their team, Davenport for the seniors, and for the juniors, Markham. These men will be awarded a gold basketball for their outstanding work.

Carolina's Final Game Will Be In Duke Gym At 8:45

The Devil's Threat

Duke's Swindell, pictured above, who co-stars with Bergman on the Duke quintet to furnish the main scoring punch of the Durham lads. Tonight the White Phantoms travel to Deviland to meet Duke, and Swindell, ace forward, in the closing Big Five battle.

Carolina Lacrosse Club Coach Plans Ten Meet Schedule

Cornsweet Outlines Informal Practice Sessions; 23 Attend First Meeting

At the first lacrosse meeting of the season Wednesday night Coach Al Cornsweet, addressing a fine turnout of about 23 candidates, outlined plans for the formation of the Carolina Lacrosse club and for the participation of the club in ten scheduled encounters with the other members of the Dixie league.

Stressing the fact that full-hearted cooperation of interested students was the prime prerequisite of a good and successful team, the coach spoke informally about many fundamentals

Skidmore's Ghosts Seek Seventh Straight Win Over Duke

Bershak's The Boy

Carolina's White Phantoms will be in enemy territory tonight to ring down the curtain on the regular season of 1938 against the Duke Blue Devils in Duke gym at 8:45.

The Tar Heels move on their final game of the season with a record of 16 wins and three losses. They have conquered foes in nine straight games, and will finish the season safe and sound at the top of the Big Five and Southern Conference.

Lucky Seventh

Tonight, the Skidmore outfit will be seeking its seventh straight win over Duke. In the first game of the home-and-home series played at the Tin Can this year, the Phantom margin of victory was 34-24.

Andy Bershak will enter tonight's contest as the fair-haired boy for Carolina. In his last six games, the handy one has scored 72 points for an average of 12 a game. He topped things for the season against State Tuesday night by adding up 19 points.

Duke has been bouncing up and bouncing down again all season. Since they met Carolina last, the Blue Devils have managed to nose out Wake Forest by one point, 41-40. Swindell has been leading the Blue Devil scoring all season.

North Carolina is one of the two regions in the country in which lithium ore is found.

Murnick And Sapp Draw Byes In First Round Of Conference Tournament Today

Other Five Tar Heels Battle For Berths In Semi-Finals

Two of North Carolina's seven boxers, Captain Joe Murnick and Claude Sapp, will chew their fingernails on the sidelines at College Park this afternoon without the protection of their gloves while the five other Tar Heel representatives compete for the right to go into the semi-final round tomorrow afternoon. The 125 and 145-pounders were among the 14 entries automatically passed into tomorrow's round with byes.

King Of The Mountain

Murnick was seeded on top of the 125-lb. pile with Ben Alperstein right under him. Although a national champion in the 135-lb. class, this is Alperstein's first drive in the featherweight class. It is possible that the Marylander was reticent to meet Joe Fisher in the lightweight class because the Tar Heel has a win over Maryland's Terrible Ivan Nedomatsky to his credit. Fisher did not compete in the tournament last year.

Tournament followers were a bit surprised when Frank Jenkins, conference bantamweight champion, was not seeded in that class. The Citadel's Johnny Hughes was given the top spot. The unusual seeding is probably due to the fact that Jenkins had officially entered in the featherweight class, changing his entry to the lighter class at the last moment.

This afternoon's first-round pairings:

Pairings

115-POUND CLASS
(First Bracket)
John Hughes, the Citadel, bye.
Frank Jenkins, South Carolina, bye.
(Second Bracket)
Bob Price, Duke, vs George Dorr, Maryland.
