

Gym, Pool To Be Formally Presented Today

GOVERNOR HOEY PRESIDENT GRAHAM CHARLES T. WOOLEN J. C. B. EHRLINGHAUS

$650,000 Structure Is Finest In South

UP PICKS DEBATE COUNCIL MEMBERS, SOPH SECRETARY

Slate Complete Save For Publication Editors

The University party steering committee all but marked "finis" on its slate of candidates for offices in the coming political tussle when it selected men last night for the University debate council and for the sophomore class secretaryship.

Only one more step remains for the party in rounding out its roll: four publication editors are yet to be nominated. At a former meeting the politicians decreed that staff nominations would be endorsed providing the party considers the nominees acceptable from the standpoint of capability.

Debate Council

For the debate council, Sam Hobbs and Bill Cochrane were nominated. Hobbs, a rising senior, is president of the council this year. Syd Alexander was

(Continued on last page)

Big Banquet Will Be Staged Tonight In Carolina Inn

Tours To Be Made

By CHARLES BARRETT

Two years of labor, 10 years of planning, and a century and a half of hoping will be culminated tonight as 200 University alumni, officials, and student leaders gather to formally present the massive new gymnasium and swimming pool.

The mammoth banquet will get under way in the Carolina Inn at 7 o'clock. Speakers include Governor Clyde R. Hoey, Ex-Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus, President Frank P. Graham, Alumni President George Stephens, Athletic Director Robert Fetzer, Physical Education Professor Oliver K. Cornwell, PWA Engineer Stanley Wright, Dean A. W. Hobbs, and President Bob Magill of the student body.

Best In South

Officially termed the finest physical education plant in the South, the $650,000 structure will go on formal display at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Members

(Continued on last page)

World News

Edited by Jim McAden

HELP NOT GUARANTEED TO CZECHS BY BRITAIN

London, March 24.—No promise of immediate aid to Czechoslovakia in case of German invasion was given today by Prime Minister Chamberlain of England in a speech to a crowded House of Commons.

At the same time, the prime minister warned Adolf Hitler that a mid-European conflict would cause a world-wide war.

The speech was considered one of the most important British statements of foreign policy since the World War.

Chamberlain made a flat promise to France and Belgium that his country would intervene if either of those countries was invaded.

He declared that "Where peace and war are concerned, legal obligations are not alone involved, and if war broke out it would be unlikely to be confined to those who have assumed such obligations."

SENATE ARGUES METHOD OF TVA INVESTIGATION

Washington, March 24.—Senate ranks were split today on the question of whether to conduct a senate investigation of the TVA or to have a joint senate-house inquiry.

While Democratic Leader Barkley advocated a joint investigation, Senator Norris (Ind., Neb.) argued for immediate approval of a senate investigation.

The senate also today temporarily approved abolition of the comptroller general's office. It defeated 47 to 36 a bill by Senator Byrd (D., Va.) to leave the office intact.

STUDENT PARTY SELECTS MINOR SOPH OFFICERS

Secretary, Treasurer, Council Member Are Named

Following over an hour of discussion and debate, more than 50 freshmen members of the Student party last night selected candidates for the offices of student council member, secretary, and treasurer.

Walter Hargrove, David Sessoms and Paul Severin were picked for the respective offices.

As yet the party has not announced its candidates for president and vice-president of the class.

Severin

Severin, who will run against Charlie Idol, University party nominee for treasurer, played end this year on the freshman team and is expected to play on the varsity next year. He is an honor student and made the all-state team in high school football.

Sessoms

David Sessoms, nominee, for secretary, is vice-president of the freshman friendship council, and chairman of its program committee.

Hargrove

A native of Pittsboro, Walter Hargrove, candidate for council member against Bill Dees, is a member of Chi Phi fraternity and is out for freshman baseball.

Bill Cole, party chairman, in addressing the new freshmen members of the party stated that the purpose of the Student party "is to make student government really democratic. . . . We pick our candidates through an open student meeting and not through a party caucus."

Notice

Any students on the campus who are interested in running the concessions for the Junior-Senior dances on May 13 and 14 are asked to turn in their names to Bob Ray or Bill Cole, chairmen, respectively, of the senior and junior dance committees.

Varied Program Is Presented By Dramatics Group

Professor Koch Will Announce, And Dr. Graham Will Present, Awards Saturday

This week the Playmakers' theater has been the home of North Carolina's most important annual dramatic festival—the Fifteenth Annual Festival and State Tournament of the Carolina Dramatic Association.

Since last Sunday 15 high school and children's dramatic groups have presented their efforts, offered a varied program of children's plays, puppet plays, religious drama, comedy, tragedy, fantasy and melodrama.

Sponsor

Coming in groups, in chartered busses, in automobiles, and bringing strange and unwieldy scenery, these young people have gathered here for the tournament sponsored by the Bureau of Community Drama of the University extension division and arranged by John W. Parker, Executive Secretary of the Carolina Dramatic Association. By the end of this week 15 additional groups will have been presented at the Playmakers' theater.

On Saturday evening Professor Koch will announce the awards for Playwriting and Play Production in the several classi-

(Continued on page two)

Student-Faculty Day Polls Will Open Today

Everyone Is Eligible To Vote; Voting Between The Hours Of 9 And 5 At YMCA

Friendly rivalry will reach a climax today when eight coeds and three faculty members go into the final lap of their race for the crowns of queen and king of Student-Faculty day which is to be observed at the University April 5.

Everyone on the campus is entitled to vote for their candidates at the polls which will be open in the YMCA from 9 o'clock to 5 this afternoon.

Candidates

Coeds nominated for queen of the fete are: Misses Jane Hunter, Mary Taylor Hinnant, Memrie Gary, Molly Albritton, Gladys Best Tripp, Elizabeth Keeler, Frances Roughton, and Betty Norcross.

Candidates for the king's crown are: Professors E. J. Woodhouse, William Olsen, and W. E. Caldwell.

In places of honor as the queen's attendants in the celebration will be her two closest rivals in today's election.

Coronation of the royal couple is to open the Student-Faculty day festival. The University band will precede the king and his queen to Memorial hall where they will be crowned in a colorful and hilarious ceremony.

For the rest of the day they will reign as undisputed monarchs of the campus until after the costume ball in the evening where they will be guests of honor.

French Students

All students who must take the present French 21 (last year's French 22) this quarter are requested to report to 208 South. If enough students need the course it will be given this quarter.

PARTY-DANCE OF SENIORS WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

Freddy Johnson Plays; Only Seniors To Be Admitted

All potential Elsa Maxwells on the campus have been called into consultation by Senior Class President Joe Patterson and has class social committee to complete the plans for the class party-dance Saturday night in the Tin Can.

With a master of ceremonies and "ceremonies" of every form, mirth provoking results are expected.

There Will Be . . .

There will be lotteries, "spot" dances, a floor show, big apple specials, and the awarding of prizes to certain persons who

(Continued on page two)

Multiple Choice: Pick One For Queen

Left to right are Jane Hunter, Betty Norcross, Mary Taylor Hinnant, Gladys Best Tripp, and Memrie Gary, five of the eight coeds who are running for Queen of Student-Faculty Day. Those running who are not in the picture are Frances Roughton, Lib Keeler, and Mollie Albritton. Elections will be held today.