THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY

VOLUME XLVI

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 29, 1938

NUMBER 130

E. S. Smith Will Speak On NLRB Tomorrow Night

Opens Di Quarter

reside over the initial spring quarter sion of the Dialetic Senate at 7:15 onight in New West. Kerley is also

World News

Edited by Jim McAden

EORGANIZATION FOES TEMPT LATE DEFEAT

Washington, March 28.—Senators ere today deluged with thousands telegrams from their constituents manding defeat of the proposed gov mmental reorganization bill.

nute defeat of the measure, sent | group. great number of wires to express eir disapproval of the bill.

Both opponents and proponents of bill accused each other of purng a course which might lead to

Senator Walsh (D.-Mass.) moved to nd the bill back for committee resideration. It was then that the sands of telegrams began to pour One telegraph company said that had handled between 40,000 and 000 messages on the subject yes-

LONEL EDWARD HOUSE, LSON'S FRIEND, DIES

ew York, March 28. - After ng illness, Colonel Edward House, friend and advisor of President drow Wilson, died today at the (Continued on last page)

Class Prophecy

By Stuart Rabb

open letter to: Joe Patterson esident of the Senior Class

You have asked me to be class ophet, to foretell what this world is going to do by us exaggerating their Pective tendencies. That, I supe, is what I am expected to do. But our class comes of age at a when two good sized wars are aminations for seniors should be under way, when all nations are abolished, which had previously been scheduled for the meeting tonight, the ranks is getting worse was stricken from the calendar berapidly than ever before, when cause of a lack of current interest. own people are beginning to swap freedom they inherited for eco-background is a dismal job. (Continued on page two)

CPU Opens Quarter With Labor Board Member

Edwin S. Smith, the Carolina Po- his orchestra. litical union's first spring quarter speaker, will conduct an open forum discussion immediately following his Memorial hall address tomorrow night, Union Chairman Alex Heard announced yesterday.

The National Labor Relations board member will arrive in Raleigh by plane from Washington at 1:15 Wednesday morning. Copies of his speech, which will be on the subject of "National Labor Relations Board-Guardian of Democracy," will be obtainable in the YMCA office the morning following his address.

Guests

Among the many out of town people scheduled to be present for the program tomorrow night will be Judge Charles N. Feidelson, Regional Director of the National Labor Relations Board in Atlanta, who was President David Kerley, who will largely responsible for making Mr. Smith's visit to the campus possible.

Smith's speech, which will begin promptly at 8:30, will be the second eader of the Undergraduate Philoso- in a series of three CPU addresses by club which is sponsoring the ad- dealing with the current labor situaress of Allen Tate on the campus to- tion. The first was given last quarter by "Little Steel" leader Tom Girdler, and the thir dwill be given April 14 by Assistant CIO leader Phillip Murray, who is probably better known through his position as chairman of the Steel Worker's Organizing Committee.

Recommendation

Smith, who was appointed to the NLRB by President Roosevelt in 1934 on the recommendation of Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, first became acquainted with the lady cabinet member while he was commissioner of labor in the state of Massa-

Although all three members of the NLRB, Edwin S. Smith, Chairman Madden, and D. W. Smith, are essentially conservative, the union's next foes of the bill, attempting a last- speaker is the most liberal of the

Class In Chinese To Meet Tonight

Miss Wang's Group To Meet In 212 Bingham

Having already decided to hold regular classes on Tuesday and Friday evenings, Miss Wang's class in Chinese will convene for the first time during the spring quarter tonight, from 7 to 8 o'clock in room 212 Bing-that they might like to take the course between a purely popularized magaunder Miss Wang will be welcome at zine and a too literary and technical tonight's meeting, she said.

Senate Will Elect,

Business for the quarter's first meeting of the Dialectic senate to-tonight at 7:15 in New West consists largely of discussion of one bill, and the election and induction of new

Comprehensives Again

candidates will be elected and for-members into the organization.

Induct New

Members

Di, Phi To Begin Spring

Quarter Activity Tonight

FRESHMEN TO HOLD DANCE SET THIS WEEK

Earl Mellon Will Play For Friday, Saturday Events

Freshmen will begin April social events with a set of class-sponsored dances Friday and Saturday in the Tin Can, sponsoring Earl Mellon and

The initial prom will be given Friday night from 9 until 1 o'clock. The following afternoon a tea dance will be held from 4 until 6 o'clock.

Regular Charge

In order that a full week-end of dances may be presented, the Grail has agreed to sponsor a dance Saturday night from 9 until 12, with music furnished by Mellon's orchestra. The regular charge will be made for this

In previous years, the freshman class has been able to have only one dance, this year being the first time that a set has been held.

Previous Engagement

played in past years for Pan hops at the University.

Skipper Bowles, chairman of the freshman dance committee, has announced that bids will be available on Thursday and Friday in the YMCA MASS MEETING

Committee Members

Members of the committee ar Chunk Jenkins, Bill Allen, Bill Singletary, and Richard Cowhig.

Bowles has urged all freshmen who possibly can to get dates for the dances, in order that the events will be more successful.

MAGAZINE STAFF SELECTS CREEDY

Associate Would Be Michaux

Twenty-one of the twenty-nine members of the Carolina Magazine staff met last night and unanimously picked John Creedy as the staff nominee for editor next year.

Bill Hudson, present editor, presided over the meeting and requested all staff members to get in their copy for his last issue by April 12. Michaux Associate Creedy stated that if elected would select Bill Michaux as his associate editor.

This is Creedy's third year as a member of the magazine staff. He has the DAILY TAR HEEL this past quarter, is secretary of the Foreign Policy of Nations association.

Any interested persons who feel will be an attempt to strike a balance Hunter, treasurer; Mac Nesbit, sec-

Pool May Not Be Opened For Three Weeks; Gym Closed To Spring Dances

"All For Love"—Love For All?

Musical comedy revues and burlesque shows come in for satire when the classical dance form goes on a rampage. Here is a scene from the Trudi Schoop-production to be given on the entertainment series Thursday night in Memorial hall.

Mellon and his orchestra have Entertainment Series To Hellenic dances at Davidson college, which correspond to German club Open With Comic Ballet

Student Party Goes Into Action For Final Roundup

Putting his political machine into action for the final roundup to complete his slate of candidates for the coming campus elections, Student Party Chairman Bill Cole will hold a mass meeting tonight in the Phi hall, New East building, at 8:30 o'clock.

All members of the Student party and all other students without other party affiliations are urged by Cole to attend. Nominations will be made and selected from the floor.

Unfilled

Offices yet to be filled on the Student party ticket include all senior class offices with the exception of treasurer, junior class vice-presidency, sophomore class presidency and vice-presidency, debate council, athletic association, Publications Union board, cheer leaders, and the editor- their work was too similar from year ships of three of the campus publi- to year. It further criticised the Bal-

The Student party so far has sealso written for the editorial page of lected Voit Gilmore as their candidate for editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL; Jim Joyner, president student body; league, and is a member of the League Bill Hendrix, vice-president; Jane let Russe might profit in following. Hunter, treasurer senior class; Cy Creedy announced that his policy Jones, president junior class; Benny more council member.

Addresses Co-Eds

Yesterday afternoon Bill Cole spoke before the Woman's association on the Student party-its policy, aims, and what it had to offer coeds.

Taking off his black derby with a flourish and handing President Nancy Nesbit a cigar, Politician Cole began by outlining the history of the Student party since it was formed two years ago.

He stated last year was the first time a coed had ever been nominated for a campus office. This year the Student party is running Jane Hunter for the office of senior class treasurer. Cole pointed out, what he termley succeeds ed the desirability of establishing a precedent along this line-the incor-(Continued on last page)

ASU Will Meet In Whitmore, Grail Room Tonight

> Policy, Plans Of Union To Be Discussed at 7:30

A discussion of the policy and plans of the American Student union will Speaker Drew Martin also an | be given in the first meeting of the nounced two bills on the schedule for organization since its formation last week, which will be held tonight at

The second bill is: Resolved, That man, Dewitt Barnett; vice-chairman, bert. Oner than we think, we are going mally initiated before the end of the the Phi assembly approve the passage Clarence Walton; secretary, Frieda

Trudi Schoop Will Lead Troupe On

will open this quarter's student en- from the contractors until the equiptertainment series Thursday night in Memorial hall at 8:30 o'clock.

Thursday

This will be the featured attraction this quarter. Norman Cordon, North Carolina's contribution to the Metropolitan Opera, and a minor number will complete the spring program.

Student entertainment pass books may be obtained at the cashier's office, first floor of South building today through Thursday. They will not be available at the box office in Memorial hall Thursday night.

The Trudi Schoop troupe is making its third American tour this season in a new "musical comedy" ballet, "All for Love."

A Baltimore paper in reviewing the well known Monte Carlo Ballet Russe, recently stated that its performance ly rainy weather. was below past standards and that let Russe for not keeping abreast of the modern movements in dance trends. The work of the Jooss Ballet and the Trudi Schoop company was cited as examples by which the Bal-

Performances of "All for Love" in Vienna last fall caused the critics to assert that it was Miss Schoop's best retary; Jack Fairley, junior council dance-creation to date. American aumember; Paul Severin, treasurer diences capulated last year to the Dating from 1750 to 1850." The talk sophomore class; David Sessoms, sec- group's presentation of the "Blonde will be given in the Bull's Head room retary; and Walter Hargrove, sopho- Marie," and the year before to "Fri- on the ground floor of the University

Woollen Says Only 'Shell' Is Completed

Equipment Yet to Be Installed, Approved, And Tested

Barring unexpected developments, the largest indoor pool in the South will be opened for University students within or shortly after three weeks. Controller C. T. Woollen said yester-

The "man behind" the greatest innovation in physical education in the history of the University revealed that no dances would be held on the new expanse of white maple composing the gym's main floor until commence-

Equipment

"Most students don't realize that much work remains to be done," he asserted. "We have only completed the shell that will house much equipment. Practically no equipment has been installed yet.

"Even after the equipment is in, it will have to be carefully checked and tested, which will take quite a bit of Trudi Schoop and her comic ballet time. We won't even accept the gym ment is installed and thoroughly test-

Future Schedule

A schedule of hours for men's, women's and mixed bathing groups is expected to be arranged soon. Three thousand trunks for men and 600 suits for women have been ordered. They are of non-stretchable cotton in order to prevent wool lint from clogging the pool's filters, through which 380,000 gallons of water will flow every eight hours.

Local Funds

The WPA contract, under which the mammouth "Temple of the Body" was built, will expire Friday. Further work will be continued from local funds.

Physical education professors revealed yesterday that no regular classes will be held in the new plant this year. Handball and tennis groups may move inside only during extreme-

Adams To Address Bull's Head Group

Club Will Meet At 4:15 Tomorrow Afternoon

Dr. Raymond Adams of the University English department will speak at the Bull's Head meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4:15.

The subject for Dr. Adams' talk will be "Collecting. English Colonial Plates

Calling All Sophomores! Wanta Join The Marines?

Herman Weyl To Lecture Here Tonight

Mathematician To Speak On "Symmetry" At 8 O'clock

Cited by Dr. Archibald Henderson as one of the three greatest pioneers in the unexplored field of mathematical theoretical physics, Dr. Herman Weyl, Jew-exile, will lecture tonight at 8 o'clock in the main auditorium in Phillips hall on "Symmetry."

Dr. Weyl's lecture will not command a knowledge of higher mathematics for appreciation, but will be for the benefit of the general public. Corps reserve, will speak to the pros-

Succeeds Hilbert

sor at the University of Zurich, Dr. son for coming here is to give the Weyl had the distinction of succeed- boys a description of life at the Maing at Goettingen one of the greatest rine corps summer training camp The officers of the ASU are: chair- mathematicians of today, David Hil- which is held at Quantico, Virginia.

(Continued on last page)

Major Selden Will Address Prospective Officers Tomorrow Night

By DAVID STICK Notice-Any University sophomores desirous of becoming second lieutenants in the United States Marine corps are urged to meet in room 202 Bingham tomorrow night at 7:15. Students with lesser aspirations are requested to stay

> Major J. T. Selden, number one contact man for the Volunteer Marine pective officers at tomorrow night's After serving for a time as profes- meeting. The major's principal rea-

Formerly entirely ignorant of ac-Today he is a co-hort of Albert tivities in the camp, this scribe was

(Continued on last page)

Installation of officers for the spring quarter will be the principal business of the Phi assembly when it East.

Two Bills

Assembly To Install

Officers; Discuss

tonight's discussion, the first being: Prospective members of the senate Resolved, That the swimming pool in 7:30 in the Grail room of Graham should have their names proposed for the gymnasium be reserved entirely Memorial.

speaker protem; Billy Broadfoot, ser-security. To prophesy upon membership at tonight's meeting. The for seniors during senior week.

meets tonight at 7:15 in New Leighton Dud-

Drew Martin as speaker of the Phi. Other officers include geant-at-arms; Stuart Ficklin, reading clerk; and Jim Williams, assistant by Congress of the crop control bill. Davis; and treasurer, Thomas Meder.