

New Officers Will Be Inducted Tonight

Campus Peace Demonstration To Be Held Tomorrow

Senator Pope Will Speak In Memorial Hall

Coeds Will Canvass Campus Selling White Poppies To Defray Expenses

The annual campus peace demonstration, sponsored this year by the Venidas group of the University in cooperation with the Duke University Peace Committee, will be observed tomorrow. The Venidas group is composed of students representing the various organizations on the campus.

Tomorrow, coeds dressed in white will canvass the campus and fraternity houses, selling white peace poppies in order to pay for the cost of the demonstration.

Climaxed By Pope

The peace drive will be climaxed by an address by Senator James P. Pope, New Deal senator from Idaho, Carolina Political Union speaker, in Memorial hall at 8:30. On the same program, Ramsay Potts, University senior, and Frank Braynard, chairman of the Duke Peace committee, will make ten minute speeches each presenting their views on the peace problem. An open forum will follow.

Professors have been asked to devote their hour during the day to that aspect of the peace problem with which they are most closely concerned.

Class To Hear Senator

Senator Pope will speak to Dr. Howard K. Beale's history class at 12 o'clock tomorrow in the big room on the third floor of Saunders hall. His subject will be "Armaments Investigation." There will be questions from the floor.

Duke and Carolina peace committees have been jointly sponsoring radio programs over Station WDNC, Durham.

RABBI ISRAEL TO TALK HERE

Speaker To Give Address Friday

The Hillel Foundation will meet for its final session Friday night at 7:30 in Graham Memorial banquet hall for an address by Rabbi Edward L. Israel on "The College Jew—Getting Down to Cases."

Rabbi Israel, a summer lecturer at the University in 1927, 1929, and 1930, delivered a talk to the foundation last year. He is one of the internationally known leaders in Zionism, frequently leading the fight for social justice.

Education

Born in Cincinnati, Rabbi Israel received his education at the University of Cincinnati, Harvard University, and the Hebrew Union college. During the world war he served as acting Chaplain of the Jewish Welfare board.

He returned to this country, again taking up his rabbinical activities and writing on a variety of subjects concerning economic, social and religious problems. Besides being a contributor to many of the leading publications of the country, he has published a number of books, among them "The Centralia Tragedy."

Rabbi Bernard Zeiger has urged all interested persons to attend this talk, since it is the last meeting of the foundation this year.

Deadline Set For Business Applications

Applications for business manager of all publications must be turned in to J. M. Lear in Bingham hall by tomorrow, Publications Union Board President Stuart Rabb announced yesterday.

Would-be business managers are to be interviewed by the board when it meets on Thursday at 2 o'clock in Graham Memorial.

The Old Order

With their 180th issue Sunday morning, Editor Mac "Quill Quips" Smith and Managing Editor Charles "My Day," Gilmore wrote "30" to their Daily Tar Heel reign. Office keys were officially turned over to Editor Allen Merrill and Managing Editor Will Arey at a staff banquet Sunday night.

CPU Peace Poll Continues Today

Heavy Balloting Yesterday Favors Naval Allotment

Four hundred and twenty persons cast their ballots yesterday in the first of three days of voting in the peace poll being sponsored by the Carolina Political Union.

The polls will be open today and tomorrow in the lobby of the YMCA from 9:30 until 3 o'clock. Results will be announced at Senator James P. Pope's speech in Memorial Hall at 8:30 tomorrow night. No voting will be held at the speech as was previously announced.

Yesterday's Results

- Yesterday's results were as follows:
1. Do you favor the million dollar naval appropriations bill now before Congress? Yes, 224; no, 176.
 2. Do you favor the general movement toward the lowering of tariff barriers as manifested in the Hull reciprocal trade agreements? Yes, 282; no, 155.
 3. Do you sympathize with the policy of the Chamberlain government in England in its attitude toward Germany and Italy? Yes, 152; no, 228.
 4. Do you favor the establishment of compulsory military training in the schools and colleges of the United States? Yes, 79; no, 329.
 5. Do you favor removing the Civilian Conservation Camps from Army (Continued on last page)

Commerce Frat Will Choose Heads Tonight

Honorary Professional Group Will Hold Elections At 7:30 In Bingham

Delta Sigma Pi, professional commerce fraternity recently reorganized through the efforts of Warren Haddaway and other students in the School of Commerce, will hold its election tonight for next year's officers. The meeting will be in Bingham hall at 7:30.

Candidates to be voted on, nominated two weeks ago, are Bob Milner and M. E. Hogan headmaster; Wade Johnson and Paul Blue for senior warden; H. Tyndall, Jim Hall and Herb Alexander for junior warden; George Hunt for treasurer; J. B. Harris for scribe; and Bill Ogburn for historian.

Other business will include discussion of plans for awarding the fraternity scholarship key which is given annually to the highest ranking student in the School of Commerce.

Those Confined ...

The following were confined to the infirmary yesterday: Julia Publes, Rosemond McCanness, Cordelia Pass, G. W. Barrett, L. Allen, R. E. Clark, Schildwachter, Clement Hurwitz, Louis Spelke, D. W. Ghegar.

JUSTICES MADE MEMBERS OF PHI DELTA PHI

Eleven Students Of Law School Also Inducted

Along with 11 students of the University law school, two justices of the North Carolina supreme court became honorary members of Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity here, when the fraternity held its annual initiation ceremonies last week-end.

The justices are M. V. Barnhill and J. Wallace Winborne.

The 11 students are: A. L. Bulwinkle, Jr., H. S. Carey, H. R. Clark, A. O. Cooke, A. M. Gover, C. A. Griffin, Jr., C. E. Hobbs, W. C. Holt, F. T. Miller, Jr., O. L. Tyree, and R. D. Witt, Jr.

Banquet Given

After the initiations, a banquet honoring the new members was given in Graham Memorial. Judge J. Will Pless, of the North Carolina superior court, an alumnus of the local chapter, presided.

Judge Pless also addressed the whole student body of the law school on "Problems of the Young Trial Lawyer."

Board Seeking New Head For Student Union

Ivey Will End Two-Year Term As Graham Memorial Director This June

The two-year reign of Alfred Guy "Pete" Ivey as chief of the Student union and its house of deeds, Graham Memorial, will expire this June, and a special committee of directors is at present surveying the field of possible successors, it was disclosed yesterday.

The committee, headed by Mac Smith, will take the initiative in locating the new director, although men who are anxious to be considered may get in touch with the committee and arrange to make a written application before May 1.

The recommendations of this "locating" committee will come before the regular board of directors of Graham Memorial soon for final action.

Besides Smith, the committee is composed of Jim Joyner, Nancy Nesbitt, Dean Francis Bradshaw and J. M. Saunders.

Yackety-Yack Staff

Members of last year's Yackety Yack staff who want to work on next year's annual please meet in the new office, 210 Graham Memorial, at 1:30 tomorrow.

FRY IS CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF DORM COUNCIL

Dormitory Heads To Be Nominated Next Monday

Tom Fry was elected president of the Interdormitory council to succeed Bill Robertson at a meeting of the organization last night.

Fry is president of Lewis dormitory at the present time and has been on the interdormitory council for two years. He was the Student party's candidate for secretary of the senior class in the recent election. His only comment was, "I know it will be a hard job to fill Bill's place but I will work as hard as I can."

Robertson

Bill Robertson, the retiring president, said, "In connection with my going out of office, the only thing that is appropriate at this time is that I enjoyed it all. I feel that Tom can carry on the work because he has had experience and is an all-round good boy."

The council also decided to have nominations of dormitory presidents and vice-presidents on next Monday and elections on Wednesday. Voting will be by secret ballot. The residents must be members of the rising senior class and the vice-presidents either rising juniors or seniors.

Weiner Roast

A motion was passed by the council to have a weiner roast in honor of the coeds and faculty members' wives who acted as dormitory hostesses on student-faculty day. The time was set for 6:30 Thursday evening in Battle Park. All members of the council are urged to attend and bring dates.

Bill Robertson, in summarizing the year's work, said, "This has been the most successful year the council has (Continued on last page)"

NEW YMCA HEADS ARE INAUGURATED

Patten Installed As President

Brooks Patten was officially inducted into presidency of the YMCA and other officers took their vows Sunday night in a candle-light ceremony in the Presbyterian church, Executive Secretary Harry F. Comer announced yesterday.

Dean Thomas W. Graham of the graduate school of Oberlin college delivered the feature address on the program, emphasizing the fellowship aspects of the YMCA throughout the world, including 1,000 colleges in the United States.

Other Officers

Other officers inaugurated were Tommy Holmes, treasurer; Gene Turner, secretary; Margaret Evans, president of the YWCA; Rachel McClain, vice-president; Claire Whitmore, treasurer; and Virginia Bower, secretary.

Mr. Comer also announced that the YMCA executive committee would reveal their choice for vice-presidency and chairman of next year's Human Relations Institute within a few days.

Graham Appointed To Academy Post

President Roosevelt has appointed President Graham to the Board of Visitors of the United States Naval Academy. The Board, appointed annually, inspects the Academy and the work being done there.

President Graham left Sunday night for Annapolis where he will spend several days at the Academy.

Pool Will Be Open At Night

Completion of the Red Cross instructors' course last week will enable athletic officials to open the new swimming pool for mixed swimming from 7:30 to 8:30 each night except Sunday, it was announced yesterday.

Speaks Tonight

Ed Hudgins, prominent alumnus from Greensboro and former president of the student body, who will deliver the principal address at the inaugural ceremony under Davie poplar at 8 o'clock tonight.

JOYNER ELECTED TO SOUTHERN FEDERATION POST

Four Carolina Men Attend Meet In Nashville

Jim Joyner, at a district meeting in Nashville last week-end was elected treasurer of the southern branch of the Student's Federation of America for the coming year.

Carolina men figured prominently in the discussions of student government, as campus leaders from 25 schools gathered to talk over mutual problems at conferences, luncheons, and banquets.

Representatives

Representing the University were Jim Joyner, rising president of the student body; Fred Rippey, rising secretary-treasurer of the student body; Jack Fairley, rising junior student councilman; and Warren Haddaway, outgoing senior representative.

According to reports, Carolina showed a student government organization considerably better than the other schools, and the University delegates were able to offer many helpful suggestions.

Some of the universities and colleges represented were Vanderbilt, Alabama, Georgia Tech, University of Mississippi, Texas Woman's College, WCUNC, N. C. State, Tulane, Agnes Scott, Mississippi State, and The Citadel.

A. G. Ivey Puts Skids On Drive Honoring A.G. Ivey

Phi Beta Kappa To Meet To Discuss New Requirements

Chapter Convenes Monday In Graham Memorial, Hinkle Announces

Lawrence Hinkle, president of Phi Beta Kappa, announced yesterday that there will be a meeting of the chapter on Monday, May 2, at 8 o'clock in the banquet hall of Graham Memorial.

Proposed amendments to the by-laws will be discussed and voted upon at the meeting, President Hinkle stated. Since these proposed changes are concerning the methods of election and the requirements for eligibility for membership in the chapter, every member is urged to be present.

Copies of the proposed amendments have been sent to all members of Phi Beta Kappa in Chapel Hill whose addresses are known.

All persons now residing in Chapel Hill or studying in the University who are members of Phi Beta Kappa, regardless of what chapter initiated them, are considered members of the University chapter and are eligible to vote at the coming meeting, President Hinkle said.

HUDGINS TO BE MAIN SPEAKER AT GATHERING

Bob Magill To Preside Over Big Ceremony

Clear skies were forecast yesterday for impressive inaugural ceremonies for next year's campus officers scheduled to get under way tonight at 8 o'clock underneath the Davie poplar.

A variety concert by the University band will preface the induction, at which addresses by Ed Hudgins, former president of the student body and a Rhodes scholar, Jim Joyner, president-elect of the student body, and Bob Magill, present chief campus executive, will be featured.

Impressive Ceremony

Pointing out that the inauguration is the biggest and practically only opportunity for a gathering of the entire student body, student council officials have endeavored this year to make it the most impressive and attractive in recent history.

The lawn party will be lighted by extensions, and the program will be carried to the anticipated large body of students, faculty, and townspeople by a loud speaker system. In case of rain or bad weather, the ceremony will take place in Memorial hall.

Hudgins

Hudgins, prominent Greensboro lawyer and civic leader will present the viewpoint on student government of an active participant who had been gaining an outside perspective for the last nine years. He was graduated from the University in 1929, after which he set up a law practice in Greensboro.

At present he is a member of the prominent Smith, Wharton, and Hudgins legal firm, and is an active leader in the Young Democrats' club.

Theater Tickets

Free tickets to the Carolina theater will be awarded by Manager E. C. Smith to dormitory and fraternity men having the largest representative attendance. Students of the winning organization must be present in order to receive the passes.

Two new events were added to the program yesterday. The band announced a special arrangement of the new swing melody, "From Africa to Harlem," would be presented. The tune traces the ancestry of swing from the best of African tom-toms to the wailing of modern Harlem bands. Glen Davis, outgoing cheerleader, will lead the assembly in singing "Hark the Sound" as his last official act.

Bob Magill will preside over the (Continued on last page)

Work Of R. E. Lee Branded Fraud Byirate Student Union Boss; 25c Charged

Graham Memorial Director Pete Ivey yesterday threw cold water on recent activities of Robert E. Lee, the last of the law scribes, who has recently been seeking student signatures on an elaborate scrool for the sum of 25 cents.

The document was to be turned over to Director Ivey as a tribute, citing the high esteem in which the campus holds him. The quarters were retained by 73-year-old Lee.

Ivey's Statement

Ivey issued the following statement concerning the move:

"It has been called to my attention that a man is going about the campus getting people to sign an elegantly written scrool or manuscript the subject matter of which deals with me. According to people who have signed the paper, the sense of the document seems to be that your Director of Graham Memorial 'is held in high esteem' by students and faculty; and there should be some kind of tribute paid.

"The man who drew up the paper charges 25 cents for each person who will sign at the bottom of the page.

"The purpose of this announcement (Continued on last page)